

Sunday at the Churches

St. Georges Episcopal Church, 7:45 p. m. Holy communion. 9:15 Church school. 11:00 A. C. and sermon. Rev. Perry Smith, vicar.

Glendale Presbyterian Church, J. K. Howard, pastor. With the Sunday school hovering around the one hundred mark the question of room comes up. But we will make room. Come on. The subject for the morning sermon will be "The Secret of Knowing God" and the evening sermon will consider "On the Verge of a Great Discovery." Both these sermons will be thought provoking. You are invited to attend and welcome awaits you. The men's class recently started late last fall to fill a real place not only in the Bible school life but in the life of men in our community. If you believe in religion or don't believe in it, come and tell us why. This

Up One Day; Down Next, She States

For twelve years I suffered with a severe stomach trouble. At times it would grow around my heart till I could hardly breathe. My liver was inactive and I was badly constipated.

MRS. JOHN H. HUTTON
Headaches kept me miserable. When rheumatism and neuritis set in and I'd have pains in my back and sides that would force me to give up and go to bed. I was up and down that way most of the time.

"My sister told me to try Sargol and two bottles of this medicine completely relieved my troubles. I eat hearty meals now without a sign of indigestion. The headaches and rheumatic pains have disappeared. I am right through my housework without feeling to be down during the day. Sargol has overcome my constitution entirely."

"Thanks to Sargol I am enjoying my splendid health for the first time in twelve years." Mrs. John H. Hutton, 3245 1st Ave., N. W., Seattle. Nathan Fullestien, Seattle, Nev. Stores agent.

DES MOINES, Nov. 15.—Student revolt against the attitude of Drake university authorities toward the campus warfare with Iowa State college as a prelude to the school's football game at Ames tomorrow flared into open indignation early today with a rotten egg bombardment of the home of R. O. Davies, dean of men.

Davies last night refused to consider a petition asking for the reinstatement of his Drake students who were suspended for painting signs on Iowa State buildings and sidewalks yesterday. He told the group who presented the petition that it would have to come through the student council before he would consider it.

In retaliation, a dozen or more students came to his home shortly after midnight this morning and at 1 a. m. rushed to the house and plastered the front of it with eggs.

They disappeared in three automobiles before they could be identified.

Shortly before the egg episode an effigy of Dean Davies, bearing a sign, "Dean Hawkshaw," was burned on the campus in front of the administration building.

The six suspended students included all the Drake cheer leaders. More than 500 students signed the petition asking that they be reinstated to lead the cheering section at Ames Saturday.

Davies, upon hearing of the petition, remarked, "It will not matter a great deal to me if there are no cheer leaders."

Both the Iowa State and Drake campuses received deluges of paint as a result of yesterday's activities, students from each school invading the other's campus.

ALLEGED EFFORT TO STEAL GAS HALTED

While alleged to have been trying to steal gasoline at the Roseburg super service station, a young auto-driving rascal, driving the name of Leonard Chubler, field was arrested last night by Special Policeman "Doc" Martin. Chublerfield said he was headed for Medford, where he has relatives and where he expected to obtain work. He was allowed to continue his journey after sending a telegram home for money.

JAMES W. DRAPER BACK IN ROSEBURG

James W. Draper, former Roseburg garbage collector, and family, who have been spending the past few months in California, have returned to their home in this city. Mr. Draper recently suffered an accident which resulted in injury to one of his eyes, and while in California visited several specialists. The sight of the eye, however, has been permanently destroyed. He sold out his garbage route before leaving Roseburg and is now planning to operate a farm near this city.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH HEARS WORKERS AT BANQUET MEETING

Members of the state board of missions of the Christian church conducted a banquet meeting attended by church officers and their wives last night. The banquet was served in the banquet room by the members of the ladies' aid, after which Paul Mortimore and Rex Dallas, visiting pastors, entertained with several negro spirituals with harp accompaniment. Rev. Mortimore, Rev. Dallas and C. P. Sander, secretary of the state board, made short talks explaining the state missions program. Rev. W. R. Baird, pastor of the local church, is also a member of the team, which is holding 25 meetings in the state.

ALVA HUNTER AND MISS AGNES SMITH WED IN ROSEBURG

Miss Agnes Smith, a well known and popular young lady of the Glide community, and Alva Hunter of South Deer Creek were quietly married last night at the Baptist church study by Rev. Davis, acting pastor. The ceremony, held at 8 o'clock, was attended only by a few close relatives and friends, and the young couple left at once for South Deer Creek, where they will make their home.

Mrs. Hunter is the daughter of Mrs. O. E. Smith, of Glide, and has resided in the county practically all of her life.

Mr. Hunter is a young farmer of South Deer Creek and is president of the Roseburg Municipal land.

FOUR FIGHTS AND WRESTLING MATCH ON CARD TONIGHT

Four boxing bouts are to be presented in connection with the wrestling match tonight between Cal Herman and "Texas Teddy" Waters at the new Roseburg gymnasium, according to the announcement made today by Clyde Ward, local promoter. Two youngsters will appear in a curtain raiser, followed by three, four-round bouts.

Buttling Judd of Roseburg will fight Kid Maly of Suberin and Pat Franco of Roseburg will fight Sam Schaeffer, also of this city. A bout was arranged this morning between Joe Corbett of this city and Bob Kellogg, a recent arrival from San Francisco.

The wrestling match, which is to be the feature of the program, will be for two out of three falls with a two-hour limit. Waters is reported to be a very rough wrestler and spectators are warned to expect some "mean" tactics.

This is the first card Mr. Ward has staged in his new gymnasium, which he plans to use frequently in the future for less expensive boxing and wrestling cards, giving an opportunity to develop local talent and to provide sport programs at a popular price.
