

CALIFORNIA AND STANFORD TITULAR BATTLE SATURDAY

By RUSSELL A. NEWLAND
Associated Press Sports Writer.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—The "big game" that annual football classic that has brought California and Stanford together since 1893—next Saturday becomes the "big game" in fact as well as fancy for the outcome depends the 1929 championship of the Pacific coast conference.

California's Bears, undefeated and untied in conference play, will make their final bid for glory when they meet their rival in the upcoming game. Nearly 50,000 persons taking the utmost capacity of San Juan stadium will witness the game, which will be held at 2 p. m.

When the Bears meet a plucky Washington Husky eleven, it is at Berkeley last Saturday they turned into the home arena of a gridiron highway that has led them to the wilderness of early season speculation to within sight of the promised land. Unimpaired at the start, California has crushed four conference opponents as follows: Washington State, 14-0; Southern California, 17-0; Montana, 34-0; Washington, 7-0.

Off to a brilliant start, Stanford has slumped badly in the closing weeks, especially since its road defeat by Northern California, Oct. 25. Last Saturday it was caught unaware by an alert Santa Clara team and bowed to a 12-0 defeat.

It is safe to predict that the Stanford team that lines up against California will not perform like the one that lost to Santa Clara. Last Saturday's defeat, coupled with the intense rivalry in the forthcoming contest, should produce a fighting Stanford team that will be in there battling every minute. It will be the toughest game of the year for California.

While Stanford is contesting the titular honors of California, another conference affair is being fought in the Pacific Northwest. The intense rivalry in the forthcoming contest, should produce a fighting Stanford team that will be in there battling every minute. It will be the toughest game of the year for California.

McEVER THREATENS 108 SCORING MARK OF AL MARSTERS

(By the Associated Press.)
Although Al Marsters, injured Dartmouth quarterback, still leads the nation in individual football scoring, Al McEver, center of backfield, is making threatening gestures that may carry him past Marsters' total of 108 points before the end of the season.

Marsters piled up 16 touchdowns and 102 points after conclusion of 108 points before he was injured in the Yale game two weeks ago. McEver, with two more scores to go, has scored 97 points.

The leaders in each of the eight groups follow:

East—Marsters, Dartmouth, 108; Southern—McEver, Tennessee, 97; Pacific—Schwarz, Wash. State, 78; Southwest—Miller, Arkansas, 72; Missouri Valley—King, Drake, 59; Big Ten—Berghorn, Northwestern, 52; Rocky Mt.—Clark, Colorado College, 48; Big Six—Bausch, Kansas, 24; Cox, Kansas, 24.

IRELAND'S NOTED LEGISLATOR DIES

THOMAS POWER O'CONNOR

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Cheered in his last moments by the blessing of the Pope and a message of sympathy from King George, Thomas Power O'Connor, known as "Tay Tay" and "Tay" of the house of commons, died today. He was 81 years old.

Death came as the result of a simple condition in one leg.

He was active until the last stages of his illness. He visited the United States early in 1928. His health caught him soon after he was ousted from running for his seat in the commons from Scotland. He died in Liverpool, at the last general election.

His mantle as father of the house of commons falls on the shoulders of David Lloyd George, liberal leader.

O'Connor was born in Athlone, Ireland, Oct. 6, 1848, and in 1879 came to London, where he entered newspaper work. He entered parliament as a member for Galway in 1880 and in 1885 was chosen for both Galway and Liverpool but retained the latter.

He continued his journalistic work until the time of his death and often was called as "the dean of Fleet Street." He was the author of several books.

Mr. and Mrs. Holm and son returned from a business trip to Portland Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilcox and daughter, Jenn were dinner guests at the Frank Gorrell home at Bayview Sunday.
