HAWAIIAN GRID TEAM EXPECTED IN PORTLAND TODAY

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 21.—The University of Hawaii football team was to arrive here today after a 2800-mile journey from its fortress in the mid-Pacific. Two days of practice lay in store for the invading islanders before engaging the University of Oregon eleven on Multnomah stadium field Saturday.

The Hawaiian gridders made two stops enroute here from Honolulu, one at Berkeley Tuesday and the other at Ashland, Ore., yesterday. An intensive practice session was held at Ashland by Coach Otto Klum, a former resident of that town.

Eight native Hawaiians, a Japanese, American negro from Cheyenne, Wyo., and a white student, Noel Howell, of Honolulu, compose the proposed starting line-up as announced by the Hawaiian mentor. It includes the Nobriga twins, Ted and Arthur, and Captain Rusty Holt, ace ball toter. The latter is the triple threat menace from the mid-Pacific gridiron fortress and he astonished spectators who watched him yesterday with his excellent passing, kicking and running.

How remarkable a find this is

Delicious plant sap
For kidney deficiencies, high blood pressure, indigestion

KIDNEY symptoms are always so distressing. No wonder thousands of sufferers look upon this as a remarkable find. It is the natural sap of the famous Mexican maguey plant. It is absolutely safe. A great health food, a valuable tonic in kidney deficiencies, high blood pressure, indigestion and glycosuria.

In its native country this sap, or vegetable milk, is called "aguamiel". Now it has been concentrated by the removal of only the excess water. Nothing whatever is added. The name of the concentrated sap has been shortened to Agmel.

This great discovery has proved particularly successful in aiding the treatment of the "degenerative" diseases. Users everywhere are testifying to the benefits they have received from Agmel.

All men and women entering middle life should investigate Agmel. Everyone of every age should learn at once about this remarkable natural aid to health—especially those who are being warned of danger by frequent arising at night, backache, high blood pressure and other symptoms. Imported by The Agmel Corporation, New York and Mexico, D. F.

"Sleeping Like a Child"
"Before taking Agmel, night after night I had no sleep. I wondered how I kept up. After taking it, I began to feel better and I am now sleeping like a tired child. I am feeling fine and my blood pressure is reduced."—Mrs. A. J. May, Los Angeles, Cal.
