All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and Personal—Should Be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

WITH the approach of Thanksgiving day, many parties and banquets are being enjoyed and planned by society members of the city. The week has been full of social functions and many pretty affairs have been given.

Anniversaries and out of town guests have been the inspiration of many events during the week. Many of the clubs have held important meetings and are making plans for the Christmas holiday events.

The Elks show was attended by local society on Tuesday and Wednesday evening, as the club included the home talent of the city. The theatrical party was greatly enjoyed by the audience and the small club did their share toward making the play a success.

Miss Gertrude Laird, only woman officer on club board of twelve.

Of considerable interest here is the newly organized Elks club, which is the only club of its kind in the United States and has been given considerable attention by eastern newspapers. Its purpose is to study business problems through research work. Out of the twelve officers of this club, Miss Gertrude Laird, of Roseburg, is the only woman officer. Her office is that of secretary.

Miss Laird is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Laird, of this city, and is a senior at Graceland college this year. Miss Laird has been an outstanding student of the college during her attendance. Besides being secretary to the business club, she has been elected editor of the college annual for 1929-1930.

Former Roseburg Boy Married on Sunday to Popular Salem Girl

Of interest to Roseburg people was the wedding of Miss Gussie Marion Rounan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rounan, and Chester Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Peterson, on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock in the Calvary Baptist church of Salem. The service was read by the Rev. Carl Cochran in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends of the bridal couple.

The bride chose a gown of peach tulle, sleeves with ruffled waist, full skirt with a long train, and a long veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses and a small box of candy. The bridesmaids wore white dresses with orange sashes. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a sword. The ceremony was a simple one, and the couple left for their honeymoon at the home of the bride's parents.

To What Lengths Will Fashion Go?

The steadily falling hemline of Milady's frock as demonstrated above (center) is causing many to ask whether we may expect a return to other feminine sartorial fables of two decades ago. The jaunty 1910 maiden on the left displays a black and white street frock of yesteryear set over a wide-brimmed sailor hat, spider-web parasol, and high canvas shoes. On the right Miss 1910 anticipates 1929 styles with a long skirt whose scalloped bottom falls to just below the tops of her high suede shoes.

Thanksgiving Festival Planned by Days Creek School for Next Thursday

The patrons of the Days Creek school are looking forward to a pleasant time on Thanksgiving day, when the newly organized P. T. A. will sponsor a dinner and all-day program of sports and other events.

The school under the management of Principal C. C. Hill is progressing nicely, and the parents are showing a fine spirit of cooperation.

The high school has a twelve-piece orchestra with O. A. Kirby as instructor. This orchestra would be a credit to a much larger school. The young people are anxious to make the Thanksgiving program a success and will furnish the music for the day.

The opening event will be an hour of sports and games beginning at ten o'clock in the morning.

C. C. Hill, Roy V. Matthews and N. N. Woods are in charge of this part of the program. From eleven to twelve will be visiting hour with the hospitality committee in charge. Mrs. A. J. Worthington, Mrs. Earl Sumner and Miss Lewis compose this committee. From twelve to one a turkey dinner will be served under the direction of Mrs. Pete Uram, Mrs. J. A. Snyder and Mrs. Clay Uram and their assistants. Between one and two, a Thanksgiving program will be given. This has been arranged by Victor Phelps, O. A. Kirby and Mrs. W. H. Raymond. A basketball game will follow with the Days Creek boys playing against the team from Roseburg. The Days Creek girls are also making arrangements for a girls' team.

A few minor matters of business will be taken up to perfect the association which was organized on November 7. The president, Archie Ferguson, will preside at this short session. All patrons of the union district are asked to come and make this a real day of thanksgiving. Everyone will receive a cordial welcome.
