THE usual busy social calendar was set aside this week in making preparations for the many family reunions held on Thanksgiving day. The younger set of the city and the college young people made the latter part of the week livelier with their parties and social gatherings.

The largest ball of the season was sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's club at the Oriental gardens on Thursday evening. A large crowd crowded the evening with marked success. The most brilliant social event of the week was the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Skinner, at their lovely country home at Winston, on Wednesday evening. Guests from the city and neighboring states and cities were in attendance.

Several families of the city left for the latter part of the week to visit relatives and friends in distant cities. The first of the week will find society folk returning to their regular social duties once more.

Mr. and Mrs. Skinner Celebrate Golden Wedding With Large Reception

The loveliest and most brilliant affair in society of the season took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Skinner, at Winston, on Wednesday night, when they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with a formal reception. One hundred guests were received by Mrs. George A. Bradburn and Mrs. Bert Green. Soft lights casting shadows on a background of huge bouquets of golden chrysanthemums, an orchestra playing music softly and the beautiful formal gowns of the women lent dignity and beauty to this great event.

The rooms were banked with large chrysanthemums and ferns. The orchestra, composed of Miss Naomi Scott, Miss Leah Neighbors and Miss Emma Wolford, playing violins, and Miss Evelyn Neighbors, accompanist, was practically hidden by a bower of greenery and golden colored chrysanthemums. At the strains of the wedding march, little George Johnson, dressed in a delicate frock of Nile green georgette, with white slippers and stockings, and a large Nile green bow in her hair, filled with tiny chrysanthemums, descended the stairway to the living room. Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Skinner followed. Mrs. Skinner was lovely in a gown of gold cloth, with matching gold headpiece and slippers. The happy couple were met at the foot of the stairs by the members of their family, who congratulated them. The guests were then allowed to step forward and Mr. and Mrs. Skinner received their congratulations.

The guests were then ushered to the dining room, which was artistically decorated. A large golden bell, hanging from the chandelier, with a golden colored tulle streamer running to each corner of the oblong table. Each corner was fastened with a large bow of the same material, caught together with a dainty bouquet of tiny chrysanthemums and ferns. A beautiful laid over gold colored paper gave the appearance of a golden tablecloth. Directly under the wedding bell and in the center of the table was a beautiful three tier wedding cake, with fifty golden candles burning brightly. Two golden tapers on each side of the cake, completed the lovely setting. Mrs. Fred Banner presided at the coffee urn, with Mrs. G. V. Wimberly cutting the cake. The wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Skinner.

Punch was served on the second floor with Mrs. Harry Winston presiding at the punch bowl. Mrs. Russell Dunham and Mrs. George Wharton helped about the rooms. Those serving were Miss Verna Cawthorne, Miss Elizabeth Rogers, Miss Eva Rice, Miss Alice Deland, Miss Emma Deland and Miss Bess Wharton.

Many beautiful and lovely gifts were received by Mr. and Mrs. Skinner from their many friends.

Johnson, Miss Alice and Miss Betty Ann Johnson, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hruby of Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Dunham, of Marshfield.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY ACTIVITIES

Mrs. George Caskey, chairman of the membership committee, reports that the paid up membership for the new year now stands better than 200. Any one desiring to pay dues should get in touch with Mrs. Caskey or Mrs. Rudolph Ritzman, secretary of the unit.

A very successful rummage sale was held on Saturday, November 23rd, when the sum of $52.40 was cleared. Mr. Fred Chapman very kindly donated the use of his new store quarters in the Masonic building for the sale. Two proceeds will be used to carry on the service work of the organization.

Mrs. Phil Harth and Mrs. John McClintock, of the child welfare committee, report that four Thanksgiving baskets were delivered to needy families.

Umpqua unit believes in getting its members while young and training them in the way they should go. Beginning at the present time, each new girl baby, whose father is a Legionnaire and whose mother is a member of this unit, will be presented by the unit with a year membership.

The Red Cross roll call, which is being sponsored by Umpqua unit, is progressing very satisfactorily. Mrs. Harry Hatfield is general chairman and the following district chairmen are serving in this work:

Owing to the fact that the entire county is being covered, it will likely be some time before all returns are in and the exact results tabulated. Partial returns indicate that the outside communities are doing excellent work. The annual appeal, an overall party, which is an annual event at which the auxiliary entertains the Legion, will be held Tuesday night, December 3rd, at the K. of P. hall, where Mrs. Victor Alcott is general chairman of the affair and is being assisted by Mrs. George Wharton and Mrs. Guy Gordon, who are in charge of refreshments. An orchestra, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Williams, will furnish music for the dance. Several tables of cards will also be in play.

The term "apron and overall" party means what the name implies, and it is expected that all will dress accordingly. The punishment will fit the crime if anyone appears in anything other than the prescribed attire. It is understood that the Legion boys and girls are searching through attics in the hope of finding "costly" items of the vintage of yesteryear, which will also be in evidence at the party. This promises to be one of the jolliest parties of the year and the usual large attendance is expected.
