

Local News

Riddle Man on Business—O. A. Houser, of Riddle, spent Saturday here on business.

Oakland Man Here—George Chienoweth, of Oakland, spent Saturday in this city on business.

From Olalla—James Barnes, of Olalla, spent Saturday in this city on business.

Mr. Byers in Town—Lee Byers, of Sutherlin, was a business visitor in Roseburg Saturday.

Here on Business—Grant Clayton, of Myrtle Creek, spent Saturday in Roseburg on business.

Mr. Hill Here Saturday—C. C. Hill, of Days Creek, transacted business in this city Saturday.

Mrs. Jones Visits Friends—Mrs. Eva Jones, of Oakland, visited friends in this city yesterday.

Business Visitor Here—O. H. Krohn, of Cleveland, was a business visitor in this city Saturday.

Gardner Man Here for Day—James W. Ford, Jr., of Gardiner, was a business visitor in this city Saturday.

Mrs. Price Here Shopping—Mrs. Earl Price, a resident of the North Umpqua locality, visited friends and shopped in this city yesterday afternoon.

Former Resident Here—Ralph Terrell, of Medford, spent a short time in this city yesterday, visiting friends and transacting business. He is a former Roseburg resident.

Mrs. Stephens Back—Mrs. Iolo Stephens and two children, of this city, returned last night from Astoria, where they enjoyed a week's vacation visiting relatives and friends.

Marriage Licenses Issued—Marriage licenses have been issued to Thomas Carl Frohnmeyer, and Grace Peterson, both of Canyonville, and Edward M. Bates of Eugene and Ethel Kirk of Curtin.

Visiting Taylor Home—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Logan of Long Beach are visiting for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Taylor and Mrs. Mary Rust, mother of Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Logan. Mrs. Rust is ill at the Taylor home.

Divorce Granted—A decree of divorce was granted at Salem, Oregon, last week to Ira B. Goodman from Kela B. Goodman on the grounds of desertion. The parties are former residents of Lookingglass and were married in this county in 1914.

Visiting Mother—Ross Kinnah, commanding officer of U. S. S. Navigator at Mare Island, and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. White of Vallejo, Calif., visited here last week with Mr. Kinnah's mother, Mrs. Rose Kinnah, and his sister, Mrs. H. C. Boyle. Mr. Kinnah left for Mare Island Saturday night.

Goes to Wyoming—Mrs. Kate Breen of this city left Saturday for Grass Creek, Wyoming, where she will spend a month with two daughters and a son. The latter, Mark Rice, formerly employed at the Central garage here, is now similarly employed in a Grass Creek establishment.

Returns to Corvallis—A. Willshire has returned to Corvallis, where he is a student at Oregon State college, after spending the weekend at Melrose, visiting his wife, Mrs. Violet Willshire. Mrs. Willshire is teaching the Melrose school this year. Miss Cleone Incho, teacher at Myrtle Point, also spent the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. Willshire at Melrose. She is a sister of Mrs. Willshire.

Undergoes Operation—Miss Zedie Marcus, of this city, entered Mercy hospital yesterday and underwent a major operation this morning.

Leaves Hospital—Jimmie Judd, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Judd, of this city, left Mercy hospital yesterday. He had been a patient there for the past month.

Miss Butler Leaves—Miss Frances Butler, of this city, left yesterday for Corvallis, where she is a student at Oregon State college. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Butler of this city.

Returns to College—Robert Gile, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gile, of this city, returned to Eugene yesterday to resume his studies at University of Oregon. He spent the weekend in this city visiting relatives and friends.

Returns to College—Miss Helen Bergh, of this city, left yesterday for Eugene, where she will resume her school work at University of Oregon. She spent the weekend in this city, visiting relatives and friends.

Return to Corvallis—Miss Marian Hagar and Edward Hagar, who have been visiting their father, Dr. Charles Hagar, at Dixonville, returned to their school work at Oregon State college, yesterday afternoon.

Return to Klamath Falls—Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Welker, of Klamath Falls, returned to their home yesterday, after spending the past several days in this city visiting relatives and friends.

Visits in Myrtle Creek—Miss Mabel Williams, upper grade teacher at Smith River school, and her sister, Miss Gladys Williams, who teaches near Canyonville, spent the weekend visiting relatives and friends in Myrtle Creek.

Returns to Portland—Miss Frances Potter, of Portland, returned to her home, after spending the weekend in this city as the house guest of Dr. Lucetta Smith. She was a former Benson school teacher in this city.

Visit Friends and Shop—Mr. and Mrs. Albert DeBernardi, of Glendale, spent Saturday in this city shopping and visiting friends. Miss Lilian DeBernardi, student at University of Oregon, returned to Eugene Sunday to resume her studies after spending the weekend at Glendale visiting relatives and friends.

Former Resident Here—Ralph Terrell, of Medford, spent a short time in this city yesterday, visiting friends and transacting business. He is a former Roseburg resident.

Mrs. Stephens Back—Mrs. Iolo Stephens and two children, of this city, returned last night from Astoria, where they enjoyed a week's vacation visiting relatives and friends.

Marriage Licenses Issued—Marriage licenses have been issued to Thomas Carl Frohnmeyer, and Grace Peterson, both of Canyonville, and Edward M. Bates of Eugene and Ethel Kirk of Curtin.

Visiting Taylor Home—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Logan of Long Beach are visiting for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Taylor and Mrs. Mary Rust, mother of Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Logan. Mrs. Rust is ill at the Taylor home.

Divorce Granted—A decree of divorce was granted at Salem, Oregon, last week to Ira B. Goodman from Kela B. Goodman on the grounds of desertion. The parties are former residents of Lookingglass and were married in this county in 1914.

Visiting Mother—Ross Kinnah, commanding officer of U. S. S. Navigator at Mare Island, and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. White of Vallejo, Calif., visited here last week with Mr. Kinnah's mother, Mrs. Rose Kinnah, and his sister, Mrs. H. C. Boyle. Mr. Kinnah left for Mare Island Saturday night.

Goes to Wyoming—Mrs. Kate Breen of this city left Saturday for Grass Creek, Wyoming, where she will spend a month with two daughters and a son. The latter, Mark Rice, formerly employed at the Central garage here, is now similarly employed in a Grass Creek establishment.

Returns to Corvallis—A. Willshire has returned to Corvallis, where he is a student at Oregon State college, after spending the weekend at Melrose, visiting his wife, Mrs. Violet Willshire. Mrs. Willshire is teaching the Melrose school this year. Miss Cleone Incho, teacher at Myrtle Point, also spent the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. Willshire at Melrose. She is a sister of Mrs. Willshire.

Undergoes Operation—Miss Zedie Marcus, of this city, entered Mercy hospital yesterday and underwent a major operation this morning.

Leaves Hospital—Jimmie Judd, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Judd, of this city, left Mercy hospital yesterday. He had been a patient there for the past month.

Miss Butler Leaves—Miss Frances Butler, of this city, left yesterday for Corvallis, where she is a student at Oregon State college. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Butler of this city.

Returns to College—Robert Gile, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gile, of this city, returned to Eugene yesterday to resume his studies at University of Oregon. He spent the weekend in this city visiting relatives and friends.

Returns to College—Miss Helen Bergh, of this city, left yesterday for Eugene, where she will resume her school work at University of Oregon. She spent the weekend in this city, visiting relatives and friends.

Return to Corvallis—Miss Marian Hagar and Edward Hagar, who have been visiting their father, Dr. Charles Hagar, at Dixonville, returned to their school work at Oregon State college, yesterday afternoon.

Return to Klamath Falls—Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Welker, of Klamath Falls, returned to their home yesterday, after spending the past several days in this city visiting relatives and friends.

Visits in Myrtle Creek—Miss Mabel Williams, upper grade teacher at Smith River school, and her sister, Miss Gladys Williams, who teaches near Canyonville, spent the weekend visiting relatives and friends in Myrtle Creek.

Returns to Portland—Miss Frances Potter, of Portland, returned to her home, after spending the weekend in this city as the house guest of Dr. Lucetta Smith. She was a former Benson school teacher in this city.

Visit Friends and Shop—Mr. and Mrs. Albert DeBernardi, of Glendale, spent Saturday in this city shopping and visiting friends. Miss Lilian DeBernardi, student at University of Oregon, returned to Eugene Sunday to resume her studies after spending the weekend at Glendale visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Brown Shops—Miss Besale Brown, of Canas Valley, visited friends in this city Saturday.

Azalea Visitor in Town—Frank Wilson of Azalea, was a business visitor in this city Saturday.

Visits Here Saturday—Phil Rice, of Myrtle Creek, visited friends in this city last Saturday.

Mr. Becker Here—Carl Becker, of Melrose, spent Saturday in this city transacting business.

Salem Visitor—S. H. Boardman, of Salem, visited friends in this city over the weekend.

Mr. Garrett Here Saturday—C. O. Garrett, of Glendale, was a business visitor in this city Saturday.

Mr. Cornutt Here Saturday—J. M. Cornutt, of Riddle, was a business visitor in this city Saturday.

Turkey Grower Here—J. P. Cox, turkey grower of Yoncalla, was a business visitor in this city Saturday.

Winston Visitor—Mrs. John Landers, of Winston, visited relatives and friends in this city Saturday.

Alexanders Here—Mr. and Mrs. John Alexander, of Glendale, were business visitors in this city Saturday.

Mr. Chamberlain in Town—Fred Chamberlain, of Lookingglass, was a business visitor in this city Saturday.

Here From Riddle—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moran, of Riddle, visited friends and transacted business in this city Saturday.

Myrtle Creek Couple Here—Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Dyer, of Myrtle Creek, were business visitors in this city Saturday.

Oakland Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. Brady Burnett and Mrs. P. Fortin, of Oakland, spent Saturday in this city visiting friends.

Spends Week-End Here—Stewart Taylor, of the Nash company of Marshfield, spent the week-end in this city visiting friends.

Tennille Teacher Here—Miss Rhonda Arnold, teacher in the lower grades at Tennille, spent Saturday in this city visiting friends.

Spends Week-End Here—Miss Elnora H. Ackert, teacher at Winchester Bay, spent the week-end in this city visiting relatives and friends.

Myrtle Creek Visitors—Miss Gladys Williams and Mrs. B. Spitzer, of Myrtle Creek, spent Saturday in this city visiting friends and shopping.

Hatfields in Town—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hatfield, of South Deer Creek, spent Saturday in Roseburg on business.

Go to Riddle—Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Atterbury, of this city, spent the weekend visiting Mrs. Atterbury's mother, Mrs. Augusta Wilson, of Riddle.

Returns to University—William Knight and Floyd Rogers, of this city, returned to Eugene Sunday afternoon. They are both students at University of Oregon.

Spend Few Days South—Mr. and Mrs. Kilt Ackert and family, of this city, spent a few days last week as the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Penney, of Rogue River.

Undergoes Operation—Miss Zedie Marcus, of this city, entered Mercy hospital yesterday and underwent a major operation this morning.

Leaves Hospital—Jimmie Judd, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Judd, of this city, left Mercy hospital yesterday. He had been a patient there for the past month.

Miss Butler Leaves—Miss Frances Butler, of this city, left yesterday for Corvallis, where she is a student at Oregon State college. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Butler of this city.

Returns to College—Robert Gile, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gile, of this city, returned to Eugene yesterday to resume his studies at University of Oregon. He spent the weekend in this city visiting relatives and friends.

Returns to College—Miss Helen Bergh, of this city, left yesterday for Eugene, where she will resume her school work at University of Oregon. She spent the weekend in this city, visiting relatives and friends.

Return to Corvallis—Miss Marian Hagar and Edward Hagar, who have been visiting their father, Dr. Charles Hagar, at Dixonville, returned to their school work at Oregon State college, yesterday afternoon.

Return to Klamath Falls—Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Welker, of Klamath Falls, returned to their home yesterday, after spending the past several days in this city visiting relatives and friends.

Visits in Myrtle Creek—Miss Mabel Williams, upper grade teacher at Smith River school, and her sister, Miss Gladys Williams, who teaches near Canyonville, spent the weekend visiting relatives and friends in Myrtle Creek.

Returns to Portland—Miss Frances Potter, of Portland, returned to her home, after spending the weekend in this city as the house guest of Dr. Lucetta Smith. She was a former Benson school teacher in this city.

Visit Friends and Shop—Mr. and Mrs. Albert DeBernardi, of Glendale, spent Saturday in this city shopping and visiting friends. Miss Lilian DeBernardi, student at University of Oregon, returned to Eugene Sunday to resume her studies after spending the weekend at Glendale visiting relatives and friends.

Former Resident Here—Ralph Terrell, of Medford, spent a short time in this city yesterday, visiting friends and transacting business. He is a former Roseburg resident.

Mrs. Stephens Back—Mrs. Iolo Stephens and two children, of this city, returned last night from Astoria, where they enjoyed a week's vacation visiting relatives and friends.

Marriage Licenses Issued—Marriage licenses have been issued to Thomas Carl Frohnmeyer, and Grace Peterson, both of Canyonville, and Edward M. Bates of Eugene and Ethel Kirk of Curtin.

Visiting Taylor Home—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Logan of Long Beach are visiting for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Taylor and Mrs. Mary Rust, mother of Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Logan. Mrs. Rust is ill at the Taylor home.

Divorce Granted—A decree of divorce was granted at Salem, Oregon, last week to Ira B. Goodman from Kela B. Goodman on the grounds of desertion. The parties are former residents of Lookingglass and were married in this county in 1914.

Visiting Mother—Ross Kinnah, commanding officer of U. S. S. Navigator at Mare Island, and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. White of Vallejo, Calif., visited here last week with Mr. Kinnah's mother, Mrs. Rose Kinnah, and his sister, Mrs. H. C. Boyle. Mr. Kinnah left for Mare Island Saturday night.

Goes to Wyoming—Mrs. Kate Breen of this city left Saturday for Grass Creek, Wyoming, where she will spend a month with two daughters and a son. The latter, Mark Rice, formerly employed at the Central garage here, is now similarly employed in a Grass Creek establishment.

Returns to Corvallis—A. Willshire has returned to Corvallis, where he is a student at Oregon State college, after spending the weekend at Melrose, visiting his wife, Mrs. Violet Willshire. Mrs. Willshire is teaching the Melrose school this year. Miss Cleone Incho, teacher at Myrtle Point, also spent the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. Willshire at Melrose. She is a sister of Mrs. Willshire.

Undergoes Operation—Miss Zedie Marcus, of this city, entered Mercy hospital yesterday and underwent a major operation this morning.

Leaves Hospital—Jimmie Judd, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Judd, of this city, left Mercy hospital yesterday. He had been a patient there for the past month.

Miss Butler Leaves—Miss Frances Butler, of this city, left yesterday for Corvallis, where she is a student at Oregon State college. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Butler of this city.

Returns to College—Robert Gile, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gile, of this city, returned to Eugene yesterday to resume his studies at University of Oregon. He spent the weekend in this city visiting relatives and friends.

Returns to College—Miss Helen Bergh, of this city, left yesterday for Eugene, where she will resume her school work at University of Oregon. She spent the weekend in this city, visiting relatives and friends.

Return to Corvallis—Miss Marian Hagar and Edward Hagar, who have been visiting their father, Dr. Charles Hagar, at Dixonville, returned to their school work at Oregon State college, yesterday afternoon.

Return to Klamath Falls—Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Welker, of Klamath Falls, returned to their home yesterday, after spending the past several days in this city visiting relatives and friends.

Visits in Myrtle Creek—Miss Mabel Williams, upper grade teacher at Smith River school, and her sister, Miss Gladys Williams, who teaches near Canyonville, spent the weekend visiting relatives and friends in Myrtle Creek.

Shops Here Saturday—Mrs. R. W. Dick, of Canas Valley, spent several hours here Saturday shopping.

Shops Here Saturday—Mrs. R. W. Dick, of Canas Valley, spent Saturday in this city shopping and visiting friends.

Mr. Copeland in Town—J. A. Copeland, of Myrtle Creek, visited friends and transacted business in Roseburg Saturday.

Mr. Winston Here Saturday—George Winston, of Green, was a business visitor in this city Saturday.

Former Resident Here—"Pat" Blake, former Standard Oil employee of this city, is spending several days in this city visiting with friends.

Returns From Portland—Miss Elizabeth Bonhill, teacher of home economics at senior high school, returned to this city last evening, after spending the week-end in Portland visiting relatives and friends.

Here Over Week-End—Mr. and Mrs. William Cooney, of Medford, visited relatives and friends in this city over the week-end. They are well known here, having been former residents. Mr. Cooney was formerly a teacher at Benson school.

Miss Bubar Returns—Miss Pauline Bubar, of this city, returned to Corvallis Sunday, where she is a student at Oregon State college. She spent the week-end in this city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Bubar.

Getting Better—John A. Stimpson, of Salem, who was hurt last Thursday in an auto wreck, in which two others were killed, is reported to be doing nicely at Mercy hospital today. Relatives from Salem have arrived here.

Spends Few Hours Here—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lane, of Dixonville, spent a few hours in this city on business Saturday.

Visit Here Saturday—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pearson, of Winchester, visited friends and spent the day shopping in this city Saturday.

From Coquille—Earl Goodman, of Coquille, visited friends and transacted business in this city Saturday. He is well known here.

Here Looking at Turkeys—Ell Campbell, of Medford, was a weekend visitor in this city. He was looking over the turkey crop in this locality.

Lookingglass Men in Town—C. J. Hodges and G. C. Finley, of Lookingglass, were business visitors in this city Saturday afternoon.

Visits Relatives Saturday—Charles Watson, of Glendale, spent Saturday in this city as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Houser.

Visit Here Saturday—Howard Carney and daughter, Miss Carol, and son, Ralph, of Corvallis, spent Saturday in this city visiting friends and transacting business.

Visit Here Saturday—Henry K. Adams, manager of Bowtell Springs, and Mrs. Lina Hamilton, nurse at the springs, spent Saturday in this city visiting friends.

Visit Relatives—Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Brown, of Elkton, were in Roseburg Saturday visiting relatives and friends. Mr. Brown is a prominent business man at Elkton.

Mr. Sarff Operated on—F. O. Sarff, of this city, underwent an operation at Roseburg General hospital Saturday morning for a broken knee cap, suffering in a fall last week.

Leaves Sunday—Mrs. Paul Olson, teacher in Portland, left Roseburg last night, after spending the week-end visiting her husband, Mr. Olson is manager of the local Woolworth store.

Visit Mr. Jones—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hanson, of Portland, visited S. J. Jones, of this city last week-end. They intend to move to Roseburg within the near future, to make their home here.

Senior High P. T. A.—The senior high school P. T. A. will meet tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock at the senior high school study hall. A fine program has been arranged and a large crowd is desired.

Advertising Douglas County—A. W. Caswell, of Myrtle Creek, has brought several boxes of a special type of sugar prunes to the chamber of commerce this year. Each box contains 24 pounds of prunes and is sold for net cost, $1 to help advertise the prune industry of this county. Frank Norton, of Roseburg, has also prepared special boxes, each containing four cans of prunes, to be sold for $1.10 net cost. These boxes are being sent by Roseburg boosters to their eastern friends. They are well put up and represent, in a small way, the prune industry of Douglas county.

Session of Circuit Court Opened Here—Circuit court for Douglas county opened in Roseburg this morning, with Judge J. T. Brand of Marshfield presiding in place of Judge J. W. Hamilton, who was called for duty on the state supreme bench. Clearing of the docket, which is quite long, will occupy, it is estimated, about two weeks' time. Today's session is being taken up with a civil case.

Returns to Work—Miss Rosemund Lounsbury, employee of the local telephone office, returned to this city last evening, after spending the past several days visiting relatives and friends in Riddle.

Umpqua Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. W. Good and family and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Emmett, of Umpqua, spent Saturday in this city visiting friends and shopping.

Able to Leave Hospital—A. J. Klinger, of this city, was able to leave Roseburg General hospital yesterday afternoon. He had been a patient there for the past several days.

Back to College—Miss Jessie and Miss Edna Judd, of this city, returned to Elkhart yesterday, where they are students at University of Oregon. They spent the week-end in this city visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Judd.

Return to Portland—Mr. and Mrs. George Nomer, of Portland, and children, Miss Carol, Miss Betty and George Jr., returned to their home last evening, after spending the past several days visiting in Roseburg and Riddle.

Back From Visit—Mr. and Mrs. Guy Perrin, of this city, returned last week-end from Portland, where they spent Thanksgiving visiting Mrs. Perrin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Watson. H. J. Watson, a brother, and his friend, Raleigh Wilson, also of Portland, returned to this city with them and remained here visiting until last evening, when they returned to Portland.

Advertising Douglas County—A. W. Caswell, of Myrtle Creek, has brought several boxes of a special type of sugar prunes to the chamber of commerce this year. Each box contains 24 pounds of prunes and is sold for net cost, $1 to help advertise the prune industry of this county. Frank Norton, of Roseburg, has also prepared special boxes, each containing four cans of prunes, to be sold for $1.10 net cost. These boxes are being sent by Roseburg boosters to their eastern friends. They are well put up and represent, in a small way, the prune industry of Douglas county.

Session of Circuit Court Opened Here—Circuit court for Douglas county opened in Roseburg this morning, with Judge J. T. Brand of Marshfield presiding in place of Judge J. W. Hamilton, who was called for duty on the state supreme bench. Clearing of the docket, which is quite long, will occupy, it is estimated, about two weeks' time. Today's session is being taken up with a civil case.

Returns to Work—Miss Rosemund Lounsbury, employee of the local telephone office, returned to this city last evening, after spending the past several days visiting relatives and friends in Riddle.

Umpqua Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. W. Good and family and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Emmett, of Umpqua, spent Saturday in this city visiting friends and shopping.

Able to Leave Hospital—A. J. Klinger, of this city, was able to leave Roseburg General hospital yesterday afternoon. He had been a patient there for the past several days.

Back to College—Miss Jessie and Miss Edna Judd, of this city, returned to Elkhart yesterday, where they are students at University of Oregon. They spent the week-end in this city visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Judd.

Return to Portland—Mr. and Mrs. George Nomer, of Portland, and children, Miss Carol, Miss Betty and George Jr., returned to their home last evening, after spending the past several days visiting in Roseburg and Riddle.

Back From Visit—Mr. and Mrs. Guy Perrin, of this city, returned last week-end from Portland, where they spent Thanksgiving visiting Mrs. Perrin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Watson. H. J. Watson, a brother, and his friend, Raleigh Wilson, also of Portland, returned to this city with them and remained here visiting until last evening, when they returned to Portland.

Advertising Douglas County—A. W. Caswell, of Myrtle Creek, has brought several boxes of a special type of sugar prunes to the chamber of commerce this year. Each box contains 24 pounds of prunes and is sold for net cost, $1 to help advertise the prune industry of this county. Frank Norton, of Roseburg, has also prepared special boxes, each containing four cans of prunes, to be sold for $1.10 net cost. These boxes are being sent by Roseburg boosters to their eastern friends. They are well put up and represent, in a small way, the prune industry of Douglas county.

Session of Circuit Court Opened Here—Circuit court for Douglas county opened in Roseburg this morning, with Judge J. T. Brand of Marshfield presiding in place of Judge J. W. Hamilton, who was called for duty on the state supreme bench. Clearing of the docket, which is quite long, will occupy, it is estimated, about two weeks' time. Today's session is being taken up with a civil case.

Returns to Work—Miss Rosemund Lounsbury, employee of the local telephone office, returned to this city last evening, after spending the past several days visiting relatives and friends in Riddle.

Umpqua Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. W. Good and family and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Emmett, of Umpqua, spent Saturday in this city visiting friends and shopping.

Able to Leave Hospital—A. J. Klinger, of this city, was able to leave Roseburg General hospital yesterday afternoon. He had been a patient there for the past several days.

Back to College—Miss Jessie and Miss Edna Judd, of this city, returned to Elkhart yesterday, where they are students at University of Oregon. They spent the week-end in this city visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Judd.

Return to Portland—Mr. and Mrs. George Nomer, of Portland, and children, Miss Carol, Miss Betty and George Jr., returned to their home last evening, after spending the past several days visiting in Roseburg and Riddle.

Back From Visit—Mr. and Mrs. Guy Perrin, of this city, returned last week-end from Portland, where they spent Thanksgiving visiting Mrs. Perrin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Watson. H. J. Watson, a brother, and his friend, Raleigh Wilson, also of Portland, returned to this city with them and remained here visiting until last evening, when they returned to Portland.

Advertising Douglas County—A. W. Caswell, of Myrtle Creek, has brought several boxes of a special type of sugar prunes to the chamber of commerce this year. Each box contains 24 pounds of prunes and is sold for net cost, $1 to help advertise the prune industry of this county. Frank Norton, of Roseburg, has also prepared special boxes, each containing four cans of prunes, to be sold for $1.10 net cost. These boxes are being sent by Roseburg boosters to their eastern friends. They are well put up and represent, in a small way, the prune industry of Douglas county.