Rebekah Lodge Members Complete Christmas Tree Plans at Meeting Tuesday

On Tuesday evening the members of the Rebekah lodge met at the Maccabee hall, where plans for the Christmas tree entertainment were completed. December 17th was selected as the date for the entertainment, which will be held in the lodge room. All lodge members and their families are expected to join in the festivities.

A new member was taken into the lodge on Tuesday evening. The work was done by the senior staff members. The same staff will put on the same work next Tuesday evening, which will be the last time this year.

Owing to the dense foggy weather, the meeting with the Sutherlin lodge was put off until a later date.

Dr. Clifford Bemis and Margaret Dew Wed at Impressive Church Service

Announcements have been received by friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Bemis, of this city, of the marriage of their son, Dr. Clifford William Bemis, to Miss Margaret Edna Dew, both of Seattle, at a lovely church wedding at the Christian church of Seattle on November 16th at eight o'clock in the evening. The nuptials were solemnized at a beautiful episcopal service read by Rev. Sanabury, pastor of the Christian church, before the presence of thirty relatives and friends.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charming in a French model of lacy green satin crepe, with shirred bodice and uneven hemline. She carried a shower bouquet of white gardenias. She was attended by one of her childhood chums. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Harold Bemis.

Immediately following the ceremony, an elaborate dinner and reception was given at the home of the bride's parents. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pay Dew, formerly of Oakland, California, and now of Seattle. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Bemis, of this city, and is a practicing physician of Seattle. He is a graduate of Oregon State college and also of Portland and Seattle colleges. He was one of Roseburg's most popular young men and has many friends here who wish him much happiness.

After a trip to Tacoma and Portland, the young couple will be at home to their friends at Union Belmont apartments at Union and Belmont, Seattle, Washington.

Small Boy Inspiration for Birthday Party on Friday Afternoon

Little LeVerne Marsters, the small son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Marsters, was the inspiration for a birthday party on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Marsters. The home of Mrs. Marsters was very beautiful with Christmas decorations. The children were served at a lovely table, with a burning candle at each place. A large birthday cake was used as a centerpiece. Tiny red wagons drawn by miniature animals conveyed the refreshments to each place. Large balloons added the final festive touch to the occasion. Covers were laid for LeVerne Marsters, honor guest, Oliver Larson, Shirley May Wood, Marion Rothacher, Barbara Ritter, Betty Jean Ritter, Beverly Jean Kruse, Arlene Young, Rose Marie Chilson, Billy Marsters, George Marsters, Betty Steuer, June Bowen, Nedra Wallace, "Precious" Darland, Darlene Lee, Harold Darwe, Bonnie Jean Matthews, Elva Jean Wood, Bobbie Chilson, Elaine Evans, Grandmother Jones and Grandmother Marsters.

Fortune telling and games occupied the time of the little tots until a late hour in the afternoon.
