

COMMUNITY TREE AND PROGRAM AT GLENDALE SAT.

Merchants Sponsor Christmas Festival With Free Candy, Show and Dance.

GLENDALE, Dec. 12.—The Glendale merchants' Christmas program, sponsored by the Glendale chamber of commerce, will take place next Saturday evening. A large illuminated Christmas tree on Pacific avenue in front of the new building is planned with free candy for all the children to be handed out by a Santa Claus, who is scheduled to arrive at Glendale early in the evening. A chorus of children led by Mrs. George A. Jackson will sing a number of Christmas carols. Christmas music to be played by an orchestra consisting of Mrs. H. G. Paige, Miss Mildred Scott, W. R. Lash and W. H. Parker. In event old January Purim is out with his sprinkling can Saturday evening the Christmas program will be given at 6:30 p. m. at the Auditorium through the courtesy of Frank Kruse, who has tendered the use of his building. As a show and dance will be given at the Auditorium commencing at 8 o'clock, the Christmas program will be given early in the evening. Arrangements have been made by the chamber of commerce with the ladies of the Presbyterian Ladies Aid society, who are holding their bazaar Saturday in the Clarke building formerly occupied by the MacMarr store, to serve free coffee and doughnuts to all out of town visitors at the merchants' Christmas opening. The local merchants are arranging special Christmas window displays for the occasion.
