

Sunday at the Churches

Methodist Episcopal Church South, corner of East Lane and South Main. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; W. L. Cobb, superintendent. Morning worship at 11 o'clock; subject, "A Religion That Is Life." Epworth League at 6:30 p. m.; topic, "The Christ Viewed as the Body of Christ in Allusion Fields"; leader, Lucille Rand. Evening worship at 7:30; subject, "The Abundant Life." There will be no prayer service on Wednesday evening. We are bordering on one of the greatest occasions of the year—Christmas—when we are led to think of God's great gift to mankind, which takes us back to Bethlehem's manger, and there we worship the Christ, the Babe of Bethlehem.

Long years ago o'er Bethlehem's hills
Was seen a wondrous thing;
As shepherds watched their sleeping flocks
They heard the angels sing.
The anthem rolled among the clouds,
When earth was hushed and still,
Its notes proclaimed sweet peace on earth.
To all mankind good will,
Glory to God in the highest,
The angels' song resounds.
You are cordially invited to attend all these services. John R. Penhall, pastor.

Baptist Church, Sunday school 9:45 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. by Clyde Beard. Evening service at 7:30. This will be a Christmas program by the Sunday school and choir, entitled "Christmas Tidings." A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Bible Standard Mission, Douglas and East Chadwick street. Services Friday night 7:30; Rev. Gibson, evangelist. The public is cordially invited. Sunday school at 9:45; lesson, St. Luke 2:20; G. T. Royer, superintendent. We welcome new faces. Preaching, 11 a. m.

Weakness Gave In To New Strength

"I don't know what in the world I would have done without Sargol—the way this medicine overcame my troubles was simply remarkable."

MRS. JAMES A. BROWN

"I homesteaded 59 miles north of Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, for a number of years, and I'll tell you it's hard work for a woman alone to keep up and prove a claim of 160 acres, and I believe that was the beginning of my bad health. For four years I suffered with stomach trouble, a sluggish liver, and constipation and I was so weak and rundown I didn't know what was going to become of me. Then I started Sargol, my weakness gave way to wonderful new strength and every trace of indigestion left me. Sargol Pills overcame my constipation, stimulated my liver to healthy action, and I am so strong and well I hardly know myself for the same person."—Mrs. James A. Brown, R. F. D. No. 5, Seattle, Wash.
