

Local News

Mr. Riddle Here on Business—Glean Riddle, of Riddle, spent Thursday in this city transacting business.

Spends Day Visiting Here—Mr. and Mrs. James Turner and family, of Tenuille, spent Thursday in this city visiting friends.

Transacts Business Here—J. L. Caschauer, of Hillsville, spent a short time at the county agent's office yesterday transacting business.

Here on Business Yesterday—P. M. Kuntzer, Southern Pacific roadmaster out of Eugene, spent yesterday in this city attending to business matters at the local office.

Miss Helen Lacher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lacher of Winston, spent yesterday in this city visiting friends and shopping.

Kills Large Cougar—E. E. Dyer, of Myrtle Creek, killed a large cougar last week. The animal was eight feet nine inches long and in one of the largest killed this season. Mr. Dyer applied for a bounty on same at the county clerk's office yesterday.

Return to Home in California—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wardlaw, of Palo Alto, California, left yesterday for their home, after spending the past month in this city visiting relatives and friends.

Spends Day Shopping in Roseburg—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jennings, of Rockles, spent yesterday in this city visiting friends and shopping.

Canvasser Here—William Willis, mayor of Canbyville, spent Thursday in this city visiting friends and transacting business.

Returns to College—Willard Moran, of this city, returned to Corvallis where he is a student of Oregon State college. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Moran of Laurelhurst and has been visiting here during the Christmas holidays.

Returns to California—Mrs. Flossie Johnson, of Joseph, California, left yesterday for her home after spending the past two weeks visiting her mother, Mrs. H. A. Blakeley, cousin of Mrs. Danivan, visited friends in this city yesterday. She is a resident of Glendale.

Return Here After Visit—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dowell, of this city, returned home yesterday after spending Christmas in Portland as the guests of their daughter, Mrs. L. O. Gruber. They spent New Year's day in Jefferson. She has the home guests of Mrs. Ella Dowell.

Visit Here Short Time—Mrs. R. V. Dunham, of North Bend, visited friends in this city yesterday for a short time. She was accompanied by her two sisters, Mrs. G. B. Hammond, of Oakton, California, and Mrs. E. L. Jones, of Yalmon, Washington, who have been her home guests for the past several weeks. Mrs. Hammond left yesterday afternoon for California. Mrs. Dunham and Mrs. Woods returned to North Bend this morning.

Visiting Relatives and Friends—Miss Ethel Cobb, of Red Bluff, California, left yesterday for North Bend, where she is attending normal this year. She has been the house guest of her grandmother, Mrs. J. T. O'Brien, for several days. Her sister, Miss Naomi Cobb, also of Red Bluff, and a student of University of Oregon, is also visiting Mrs. O'Brien, and will remain in this city until Sunday.

Transferred to Klamath Falls—Vincent O'Brien, of this city, has been transferred to Klamath Falls, where he will be manager of the Associated Oil company. This is in the way of a promotion for Mr. O'Brien, who has been manager of the local company office for the past several months. Mr. Simmons, of Portland, will manage the local office. Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien are leaving for Klamath Falls today.

Spends Day in This City—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Byron, of Glendale, spent Thursday in this city transacting business and visiting friends. Their son, James Byron, left yesterday for Seattle, where he is attending Washington university.

Returns to University—Miss Jean Whitney, of this city, left yesterday for Eugene, where she is a student at University of Oregon. She has been spending the past several days in this city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Whitney.

Former Resident Visits—Mrs. Anna Kearney, of Medford, spent New Year's day in this city as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Becker on South Stearns street. She returned to Medford yesterday afternoon. She is a former resident of this city.

Improving in Health—According to word received here, Mrs. Grant Helman, of Polshara, California, is improving rapidly and will be taken to her home from the hospital the first of next week. She is the mother of Mrs. Paul Jones of this city and is well known here. Mrs. Jones has been convalescing for the past month in California with her mother.

Spends Day in This City—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Byron, of Glendale, spent Thursday in this city transacting business and visiting friends. Their son, James Byron, left yesterday for Seattle, where he is attending Washington university.

Returns to University—Miss Jean Whitney, of this city, left yesterday for Eugene, where she is a student at University of Oregon. She has been spending the past several days in this city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Whitney.

Former Resident Visits—Mrs. Anna Kearney, of Medford, spent New Year's day in this city as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Becker on South Stearns street. She returned to Medford yesterday afternoon. She is a former resident of this city.

Improving in Health—According to word received here, Mrs. Grant Helman, of Polshara, California, is improving rapidly and will be taken to her home from the hospital the first of next week. She is the mother of Mrs. Paul Jones of this city and is well known here. Mrs. Jones has been convalescing for the past month in California with her mother.

Spends Day Visiting Here—Mr. and Mrs. James Turner and family, of Tenuille, spent Thursday in this city visiting friends.

Transacts Business Here—J. L. Caschauer, of Hillsville, spent a short time at the county agent's office yesterday transacting business.

Here on Business Yesterday—P. M. Kuntzer, Southern Pacific roadmaster out of Eugene, spent yesterday in this city attending to business matters at the local office.

Miss Helen Lacher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lacher of Winston, spent yesterday in this city visiting friends and shopping.

Kills Large Cougar—E. E. Dyer, of Myrtle Creek, killed a large cougar last week. The animal was eight feet nine inches long and in one of the largest killed this season. Mr. Dyer applied for a bounty on same at the county clerk's office yesterday.

Return to Home in California—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wardlaw, of Palo Alto, California, left yesterday for their home, after spending the past month in this city visiting relatives and friends.

Spends Day Shopping in Roseburg—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jennings, of Rockles, spent yesterday in this city visiting friends and shopping.

Canvasser Here—William Willis, mayor of Canbyville, spent Thursday in this city visiting friends and transacting business.

Returns to College—Willard Moran, of this city, returned to Corvallis where he is a student of Oregon State college. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Moran of Laurelhurst and has been visiting here during the Christmas holidays.

Returns to California—Mrs. Flossie Johnson, of Joseph, California, left yesterday for her home after spending the past two weeks visiting her mother, Mrs. H. A. Blakeley, cousin of Mrs. Danivan, visited friends in this city yesterday. She is a resident of Glendale.

Return Here After Visit—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dowell, of this city, returned home yesterday after spending Christmas in Portland as the guests of their daughter, Mrs. L. O. Gruber. They spent New Year's day in Jefferson. She has the home guests of Mrs. Ella Dowell.

Visit Here Short Time—Mrs. R. V. Dunham, of North Bend, visited friends in this city yesterday for a short time. She was accompanied by her two sisters, Mrs. G. B. Hammond, of Oakton, California, and Mrs. E. L. Jones, of Yalmon, Washington, who have been her home guests for the past several weeks. Mrs. Hammond left yesterday afternoon for California. Mrs. Dunham and Mrs. Woods returned to North Bend this morning.

Visiting Relatives and Friends—Miss Ethel Cobb, of Red Bluff, California, left yesterday for North Bend, where she is attending normal this year. She has been the house guest of her grandmother, Mrs. J. T. O'Brien, for several days. Her sister, Miss Naomi Cobb, also of Red Bluff, and a student of University of Oregon, is also visiting Mrs. O'Brien, and will remain in this city until Sunday.

Transferred to Klamath Falls—Vincent O'Brien, of this city, has been transferred to Klamath Falls, where he will be manager of the Associated Oil company. This is in the way of a promotion for Mr. O'Brien, who has been manager of the local company office for the past several months. Mr. Simmons, of Portland, will manage the local office. Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien are leaving for Klamath Falls today.

Spends Day in This City—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Byron, of Glendale, spent Thursday in this city transacting business and visiting friends. Their son, James Byron, left yesterday for Seattle, where he is attending Washington university.

Returns to University—Miss Jean Whitney, of this city, left yesterday for Eugene, where she is a student at University of Oregon. She has been spending the past several days in this city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Whitney.

Former Resident Visits—Mrs. Anna Kearney, of Medford, spent New Year's day in this city as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Becker on South Stearns street. She returned to Medford yesterday afternoon. She is a former resident of this city.

Improving in Health—According to word received here, Mrs. Grant Helman, of Polshara, California, is improving rapidly and will be taken to her home from the hospital the first of next week. She is the mother of Mrs. Paul Jones of this city and is well known here. Mrs. Jones has been convalescing for the past month in California with her mother.

Spends Day in This City—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Byron, of Glendale, spent Thursday in this city transacting business and visiting friends. Their son, James Byron, left yesterday for Seattle, where he is attending Washington university.

Returns to University—Miss Jean Whitney, of this city, left yesterday for Eugene, where she is a student at University of Oregon. She has been spending the past several days in this city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Whitney.

Former Resident Visits—Mrs. Anna Kearney, of Medford, spent New Year's day in this city as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Becker on South Stearns street. She returned to Medford yesterday afternoon. She is a former resident of this city.

Improving in Health—According to word received here, Mrs. Grant Helman, of Polshara, California, is improving rapidly and will be taken to her home from the hospital the first of next week. She is the mother of Mrs. Paul Jones of this city and is well known here. Mrs. Jones has been convalescing for the past month in California with her mother.

Spends Day in This City—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Byron, of Glendale, spent Thursday in this city transacting business and visiting friends. Their son, James Byron, left yesterday for Seattle, where he is attending Washington university.

Returns to University—Miss Jean Whitney, of this city, left yesterday for Eugene, where she is a student at University of Oregon. She has been spending the past several days in this city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Whitney.

Former Resident Visits—Mrs. Anna Kearney, of Medford, spent New Year's day in this city as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Becker on South Stearns street. She returned to Medford yesterday afternoon. She is a former resident of this city.

Improving in Health—According to word received here, Mrs. Grant Helman, of Polshara, California, is improving rapidly and will be taken to her home from the hospital the first of next week. She is the mother of Mrs. Paul Jones of this city and is well known here. Mrs. Jones has been convalescing for the past month in California with her mother.

Spends Day in This City—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Byron, of Glendale, spent Thursday in this city transacting business and visiting friends. Their son, James Byron, left yesterday for Seattle, where he is attending Washington university.

Returns to University—Miss Jean Whitney, of this city, left yesterday for Eugene, where she is a student at University of Oregon. She has been spending the past several days in this city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Whitney.

Former Resident Visits—Mrs. Anna Kearney, of Medford, spent New Year's day in this city as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Becker on South Stearns street. She returned to Medford yesterday afternoon. She is a former resident of this city.

Improving in Health—According to word received here, Mrs. Grant Helman, of Polshara, California, is improving rapidly and will be taken to her home from the hospital the first of next week. She is the mother of Mrs. Paul Jones of this city and is well known here. Mrs. Jones has been convalescing for the past month in California with her mother.

Spends Day in This City—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Byron, of Glendale, spent Thursday in this city transacting business and visiting friends. Their son, James Byron, left yesterday for Seattle, where he is attending Washington university.

Returns to University—Miss Jean Whitney, of this city, left yesterday for Eugene, where she is a student at University of Oregon. She has been spending the past several days in this city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Whitney.

Former Resident Visits—Mrs. Anna Kearney, of Medford, spent New Year's day in this city as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Becker on South Stearns street. She returned to Medford yesterday afternoon. She is a former resident of this city.

Improving in Health—According to word received here, Mrs. Grant Helman, of Polshara, California, is improving rapidly and will be taken to her home from the hospital the first of next week. She is the mother of Mrs. Paul Jones of this city and is well known here. Mrs. Jones has been convalescing for the past month in California with her mother.

Spends Day in This City—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Byron, of Glendale, spent Thursday in this city transacting business and visiting friends. Their son, James Byron, left yesterday for Seattle, where he is attending Washington university.

Returns to University—Miss Jean Whitney, of this city, left yesterday for Eugene, where she is a student at University of Oregon. She has been spending the past several days in this city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Whitney.

Former Resident Visits—Mrs. Anna Kearney, of Medford, spent New Year's day in this city as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Becker on South Stearns street. She returned to Medford yesterday afternoon. She is a former resident of this city.

Improving in Health—According to word received here, Mrs. Grant Helman, of Polshara, California, is improving rapidly and will be taken to her home from the hospital the first of next week. She is the mother of Mrs. Paul Jones of this city and is well known here. Mrs. Jones has been convalescing for the past month in California with her mother.

Spends Day in This City—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Byron, of Glendale, spent Thursday in this city transacting business and visiting friends. Their son, James Byron, left yesterday for Seattle, where he is attending Washington university.

Returns to University—Miss Jean Whitney, of this city, left yesterday for Eugene, where she is a student at University of Oregon. She has been spending the past several days in this city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Whitney.

Former Resident Visits—Mrs. Anna Kearney, of Medford, spent New Year's day in this city as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Becker on South Stearns street. She returned to Medford yesterday afternoon. She is a former resident of this city.

Improving in Health—According to word received here, Mrs. Grant Helman, of Polshara, California, is improving rapidly and will be taken to her home from the hospital the first of next week. She is the mother of Mrs. Paul Jones of this city and is well known here. Mrs. Jones has been convalescing for the past month in California with her mother.

Spends Day in This City—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Byron, of Glendale, spent Thursday in this city transacting business and visiting friends. Their son, James Byron, left yesterday for Seattle, where he is attending Washington university.

Returns to University—Miss Jean Whitney, of this city, left yesterday for Eugene, where she is a student at University of Oregon. She has been spending the past several days in this city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Whitney.

Former Resident Visits—Mrs. Anna Kearney, of Medford, spent New Year's day in this city as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Becker on South Stearns street. She returned to Medford yesterday afternoon. She is a former resident of this city.

Improving in Health—According to word received here, Mrs. Grant Helman, of Polshara, California, is improving rapidly and will be taken to her home from the hospital the first of next week. She is the mother of Mrs. Paul Jones of this city and is well known here. Mrs. Jones has been convalescing for the past month in California with her mother.

Spends Day in This City—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Byron, of Glendale, spent Thursday in this city transacting business and visiting friends. Their son, James Byron, left yesterday for Seattle, where he is attending Washington university.

Returns to University—Miss Jean Whitney, of this city, left yesterday for Eugene, where she is a student at University of Oregon. She has been spending the past several days in this city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Whitney.

Former Resident Visits—Mrs. Anna Kearney, of Medford, spent New Year's day in this city as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Becker on South Stearns street. She returned to Medford yesterday afternoon. She is a former resident of this city.

Improving in Health—According to word received here, Mrs. Grant Helman, of Polshara, California, is improving rapidly and will be taken to her home from the hospital the first of next week. She is the mother of Mrs. Paul Jones of this city and is well known here. Mrs. Jones has been convalescing for the past month in California with her mother.

Spends Day in This City—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Byron, of Glendale, spent Thursday in this city transacting business and visiting friends. Their son, James Byron, left yesterday for Seattle, where he is attending Washington university.

Returns to University—Miss Jean Whitney, of this city, left yesterday for Eugene, where she is a student at University of Oregon. She has been spending the past several days in this city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Whitney.

Former Resident Visits—Mrs. Anna Kearney, of Medford, spent New Year's day in this city as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Becker on South Stearns street. She returned to Medford yesterday afternoon. She is a former resident of this city.

Improving in Health—According to word received here, Mrs. Grant Helman, of Polshara, California, is improving rapidly and will be taken to her home from the hospital the first of next week. She is the mother of Mrs. Paul Jones of this city and is well known here. Mrs. Jones has been convalescing for the past month in California with her mother.

Spends Day in This City—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Byron, of Glendale, spent Thursday in this city transacting business and visiting friends. Their son, James Byron, left yesterday for Seattle, where he is attending Washington university.

Returns to University—Miss Jean Whitney, of this city, left yesterday for Eugene, where she is a student at University of Oregon. She has been spending the past several days in this city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Whitney.

Former Resident Visits—Mrs. Anna Kearney, of Medford, spent New Year's day in this city as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Becker on South Stearns street. She returned to Medford yesterday afternoon. She is a former resident of this city.

Improving in Health—According to word received here, Mrs. Grant Helman, of Polshara, California, is improving rapidly and will be taken to her home from the hospital the first of next week. She is the mother of Mrs. Paul Jones of this city and is well known here. Mrs. Jones has been convalescing for the past month in California with her mother.

SAFEGWAY STORES DISTRIBUTION WITHOUT WASTE

That, this year, I will save with SAFETY at SAFEGWAY STORES.

Signed: Mrs. Housewife

Table listing various food items and their prices: Ham (27¢), Milk (25¢), Bread (25¢), Cereal (48¢), Margarine (63¢), Cocoa (25¢), Shortening (78¢), Peas (63¢), Shaker Salt (10¢), Macaroni (23¢), Mayonnaise (37¢), Soup Stock (29¢), Pancake Flour (45¢), Bananas (19¢), Cauliflower (15¢), Oranges (38¢).

WE DELIVER QUANTITY ORDERS Store No. 255 Roseburg Phone 230

Advertisement for George Bancroft in 'The Mighty' with Esther Ralston and Raymond Hatton. Includes text: 'Tremendously powerful drama! The giant Bancroft smashes his way to new glory after his epic performance in "Thunderbolt" and the matchless "Wolf of Wall Street"!' and 'ANTLERS'.

Advertisement for Klenzo Shave Tomorrow! featuring Klenzo Shaving Cream (39 cents) and Klenzo Lather Brushes (50c to $5.00).

Advertisement for Roseburg Undertaking Co. Founded and Maintained on Efficient Service and Courtesy. Ambulance Service. Phone 284 Oak and Kane Sts. Licensed Lady Embalmer.

Advertisement for Farm Bureau Cooperative Exchange. Soon Be Time For Baby Chix and Turkeys Let Crown Feeds Raise Them. Agents for L. & H. Electric Ranges, John Deere Plow Co., Hood River Spray Co., Hoosier and Milwaukee Pumps, Sutherland Spray Co.