THE past week has been crowded with gay and festive holiday affairs. With the college students home, many special events of the week were given in their honor.

Several New Year's day dinners were enjoyed by families and out of town guests. The New Year's eve ball, sponsored by the American Legion, was a decided success. One of the largest crowds of the season was in attendance. Feature dances and favors were enjoyed by the dancers.

With the passing of the most festive holidays of the year, clubs and organizations are beginning their yearly activities. The Roseburg Women's club committee have been holding meetings and plans are well underway for a successful year. The W. C. T. U. members are making extensive plans for the victory institute, which will be an affair of January 15th.

Younger Set Enjoy Dance at Umpqua Park

An outstanding event of the past week was enjoyed on Monday evening when the members of Roseburg's younger set met at Umpqua Park for an evening of dancing and cards. A large fada radio was donated during the evening through the courtesy of Mr. Maurice Newland of this city.

Decorated lights cast a soft glow on the sparkling and brilliant Christmas decorations. Those enjoying the evening included Miss Elsie Patterson, Miss Marjorie Knight, Miss Evelyn Thomason, Miss Helen Zimrick, Miss Olive Olson, Miss Maxine Rice, Miss Marion Hagar, Miss Margaret Fields, Miss Eileen Langenberg, Miss Coletta Langenberg, Miss Joyce Hansen, Miss Margaret Hansen, Miss Beanie Hagan, Owen Walker, Jack Thorne, Kenneth Hagg, Kenneth Shrum, Garland Hies, Loren Johnson, Floyd Groves, Morris Houser, William Cook, William Davis, Richard Liles, Morris Burkhardt, Edward Reese, Thomas Hales and Jack Gibbs. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Goodman were chaperons for the evening.

Light refreshments were served by a committee in charge at a late hour.

Ness-Johnson Bridge Luncheons Large Affairs During the Past Week

Two of the most charming affairs of the past week occurred at the lovely home of Thomas H. Ness in Laurewood, when Mrs. Ness and Mrs. Willard Johnson, assisted by a large number of guests, enjoyed a bridge luncheon on Saturday and one on Monday. The rooms were most attractive with holiday colors and motifs. Seasonal flowers, placed in large bowls, lent charm to the rooms. Each table was centered with small sprays of holly and a tall taper. Appropriate favors and place-cards completed the setting.

Delightful New Year's Party Enjoyed at Heinline Home Tuesday

Mistletoe, holly, Christmas trees beautifully decorated, greenery festooned throughout the rooms and stairway and with thousands of sparkling icicles decorating the greenery, made an unusually beautiful setting for a New Year's party at the Heinline home on Tuesday night of this week. Games and contests were followed by an evening of "500" which was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. William Dell, Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Bubar, Mr. and Mrs. Dean B. Huber, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Adair, Mr. and Mrs. G. Bates, of Myrtle Creek, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Young, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Young, of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Berg, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stearns, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Rice, Miss Eva Rice, Mrs. Grace Thibodeau, Mr. John Runyan and Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Heinline.

Songs were enjoyed later, followed by a lovely supper served by Miss Martha Yee. Miniature babies with 1930 hands were placed on top of each dish of dessert.

Weber Family Have Dinner Together on New Year's Day

A lovely New Year's dinner was enjoyed by the members of the Weber family on Wednesday, when Mrs. George Weber entertained with a twelve o'clock dinner at her home on North Jackson street. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kronke, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weber, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Weber and son, Maurice, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. George Weber.

Music and visiting were enjoyed during the afternoon.

Wharton Family Have Dinner Together at Hotel Umpqua Wednesday

The members of the Wharton family enjoyed a delightful New Year's dinner at the Hotel Umpqua on Wednesday evening. A miniature decorated Christmas tree was used for a centerpiece. A delicious six o'clock dinner was served to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. George Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wharton and son, Billy, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wharton and Miss Beanie Wharton.

Following the dinner the family went to the show, where they enjoyed "Modern Maiden," which was presented at the Antlers theatre New Year's night.

Former Roseburg Boy Wed at Beautiful Ceremony in California

At one of the most elaborate home weddings of the year at Anaheim, Calif., Dec. 21, Miss Florence Winters, beautiful brunette daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Winters of Magnolia road, became the bride Saturday evening, December 21 at 8 o'clock, of Lieutenant Edgar E. Enger, U. S. A., of Fort Missoula, Mont., and a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Enger, prominent residents of Brownsville, Ore. The Rev. Frank Dowling of Pullerton read the service which was the culmination of an interesting West Point romance.

A bath of ferns, palms and southern California winter blossoms in delicate shades of pink formed an improvised altar at one end of the long living room and baskets of pastel blossoms in charming arrangements were used throughout the home.

Proceeding the service the sister of the bride, Mrs. Ida Calder, sang "I Love You Truly," and Miss Dorothy Winters, another sister, whistled the "Venetian Love Song" and "Goodnight." Charles C. Dras of Los Angeles was at the piano and played the bridal chorus from Lohengrin while the bride party was assembling.

After the minister, the bridegroom and his best man, Herbert Hunt of Buena Park, a brother-in-law of the bride, had taken their positions at the altar, the bridesmaids entered, each formally gown and carrying bouquets of orchid sweetpeas.

Miss Gertrude Winters of Hollywood was peach taffeta combined with pale green. Miss Lucille Case of Glendale was gown in orchid and green tulle. Miss Gladys Bonbrake, sister of the bridegroom from Bakersfield, wore pink chiffon and Mrs. Cary Saleage of Alameda wore yellow calico. Miss Dorothy Winters, a maid of honor, wore orchid moire and carried pink roses.

Little Marjorie Erling of Glendale was the dainty flower girl in very pale pink and green tulle. The ringbearer, a young nephew of the bride, Dale Hunt, wore black velvet trousers, a white silk shirt with black tie and black hose and slippers.

Very lovely in her gown of eggshell satin, cut princess style and of floor length, the bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. The wedding dress was without trim, except for two large velvet flowers of the same elusive shade as the gown, worn just below the left shoulder. Jewelry worn consisted of a crystal necklace, gift of the bride's mother, crystal earrings and a chain bracelet of white metal and seed pearls bearing the West Point seal which were the gifts of the bridegroom. Eggshell satin slippers were chosen to complete the ensemble. A spray of real orange blossoms were worn in the dark hair of the bride.

Immediately following the service, Mr. and Mrs. Winters held a reception for the couple and the 60 guests present. Mrs. Winters was dignified in a creation of orchid crepe and wore a corsage of orchid sweetpeas and pink roses. Mrs. Enger, who was present with Mr. Enger for the wedding of their son, wore apricot crepe and a corsage of pink sweetpeas and roses.

Places were marked for members of the bride party at a table centered with a three-tier cake decorated with orange blossoms, leaves and buds. Small tables were arranged for other guests. Unique favors were exquisite candied oranges with a spray of blossoms and a leaf attached to each.

After changing to a traveling costume of brown velvet with harmonizing accessories, Mrs. Enger left with her husband for a brief honeymoon before they returned to the Winters' home for a family Christmas dinner Wednesday.

They were present at the Stanford Army game December 25 and returned to Anaheim before leaving for an extended visit in Oregon. On January 24 they will return to Fort Missoula.

Mrs. Enger is a member of one of Anaheim's oldest families and was graduated from Anaheim high school in 1925. She was later graduated from University of California at Berkeley with the class of '29. Lieutenant Enger graduated from West Point last year. The announcement of the romantic engagement was made in the late summer of 1929. The attachment having its inception in a visit made in California in 1926 by the West Point cadet, Lieutenant Enger is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. John Enger, for many years residents of Roseburg, now located in Bakersfield. He spent a number of years in this city at the home of his uncle and aunt.

Chamber of Commerce Dinner to Be Event of January 10th

The annual Chamber of Commerce dinner will be an event of next Friday night, January 10th, at the M. E. Church parlors. The Methodist ladies' aid will have charge of the dinner. Mrs. Charles S. Heinline will present a musical program during the dinner hour.

Mr. Frank Jenkins, editor of the Register at Eugene, will be the principal speaker of the evening. Short talks will follow by the president and secretary of the chamber of commerce.

The Roseburg Women's club has been asked to sell the tickets for the dinner and has already met with considerable success. This dinner is one of the largest of its kind during the year and has always been well attended. This year's dinner will no doubt be as greatly enjoyed as those of the past years.

Local Boy Honored at Party Tuesday at Melrose Home

An enjoyable affair among the younger set occurred on Tuesday night, when John William Robertson was honored at a birthday and New Year's party at the home of the H. P. Conn home at Melrose. Greenery and red ornaments decorated the rooms. Games and music were enjoyed by John William Robertson, honor guest, Miss Crystal Fenn, Edward Reese, Miss Beanie Hagan, Henry Scott, Miss Amy and Miss Margaret Churchill, Otto and Ole Conn, R. Lane Matthews, Miss Elsie, Miss Margaret, Miss Helen, Miss Dorothy, Miss Joyce, Miss Fern and Allen Eusebark, LeNohr Krupa, Morris Burkhardt, James and Woodruff Conn, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Conn and the hostess, Miss Grace Conn.

Dainty refreshments were served by Miss Conn at a late hour. The old year was watched going and the new year coming in.

M. E. Church South Missionary Society Guests of Mrs. Penhall

The Women's Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, held a New Year's party at the parsonage on Tuesday afternoon as the guests of Mrs. John B. Penhall.

The rooms were lovely with decorations of fir and holly. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in playing games and visiting. Mrs. Penhall served dainty refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

Large Family Dinner Enjoyed at Becker Home on Wednesday

Mrs. John Becker and Mrs. A. Maine entertained at the Becker home in Melrose on New Year's day with a lovely dinner. The table was prettily decorated with a large popcorn cake as a centerpiece. Seasonal flowers were used throughout the rooms. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. F. Becker, Miss Louise, Walter, Frederick and Roy Becker, Mrs. John Becker, Miss Clara, Miss Alice and Carl Becker, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lyons, of Riverside, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Maine, of Roseburg.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent in playing cards and checkers.

Family Reunion and 50th Wedding Anniversary Celebrated During Week

A family reunion and the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cole in honor of their 50th wedding anniversary, which occurred on December 31st. A beautifully decorated Christmas tree and decorations of holly, Oregon grape, chrysanthemums and marigolds enhanced the loveliness of the rooms. A delicious turkey dinner was served by Mrs. Cole to Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cole and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cole and daughter, Miss Juanita, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Cole, of Portland, Mr. Lloyd Cole, of Roseburg, Miss Violet Cole, of Idaho, and Miss Florence Cole of Roseburg.

The couple were the recipients of many lovely and useful gifts, among which was a fine radio, which was a gift from the children to their parents. Many friends extended congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Cole.

Mrs. Canaday Hostess at One o'Clock Dinner on New Year's Day

Mrs. H. A. Canaday entertained with a lovely one o'clock dinner at her home on New Year's day. Beautiful red and white carnations made the rooms lovely. A centerpiece of cut flowers and fern graced the table where covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. George Leeper and daughter, Miss Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Matthews and children, Miss Ruth and Thelma, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Canaday.

A most enjoyable afternoon was spent in visiting and listening to the radio program.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthews have only recently moved to Portland, where Mr. Matthews was promoted in the forest service from Roseburg. They are well known here and leave many friends.

Mrs. Boyd Entertains Bridge Club on Tuesday With Lovely Party

Mrs. C. M. Boyd was a most gracious hostess on Tuesday afternoon, when she entertained the members of the bridge club at her home on South Stephens street. A large beautifully decorated Christmas tree placed before the front window and many holly, tinsel and holiday ornaments were used throughout the rooms. Bridge was played with Mrs. W. G. Clinger winning high and Mrs. Grant Osborn low. Guests of the day included Mrs. Harry Stearns, Mrs. William Stelmeyer, Mrs. Grant Osborn, Mrs. W. O. Clinger, Mr. Victor Short, Mrs. L. E. Gutzler, Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Mrs. Woodley Stephenson, Mrs. A. H. Perrin, Mrs. J. A. Dunn and Mrs. W. A. Brown.
