SMOOTHER, BETTER FASTER CHEVROLET

"Smoother, faster, better!" This tells the story of the new series of 1930 Chevrolet sizes which are now on display in the show-rooms of H. T. Hansen.

Proclaimed as the "greatest Chevrolet in Chevrolet's history," the new series includes a sport, roadster, sport coupe, standard coupe, phaeton, club sedan, standard sedan and coach.

The 1930 Chevrolet six, with scores of improvements, is the offering Chevrolet Motor company makes to the new year; an offering made possible by the fact that in 1929 Chevrolet built and sold over a million, three hundred thousand six-cylinder automobiles.

The 1930 Chevrolet six embodies scores of vital improvements which affect phases of comfort, performance, endurance and safety.

Lighter cast-iron pistons, with bronze bushings; new motor head design; fully enclosed, internal-expanding brakes; four Lovejoy hydraulic shock absorbers; sturdier transmission; heavier clutch—these are typical of the improvements found throughout the design of the car.

Other advancements include a heavier rear axle; larger tires; non-glare windshield; new instrument panel; new self-adjusting spring shackles; new electric gasoline gauge; new and richer upholstery.

These improvements evidence themselves in the car proper. Striking colors add beauty, dignity and smartness to the body lines.

greater climbing ability, roomier bodies, more distinctive lines and more comfort. These features represent twelve months' continuous effort towards increased quality and performance by the Chrysler engineering staff.

PLYMOUTH VALUES GREATLY ENHANCED

"Twenty-eight improvements are contained in the car with which Plymouth enters the new year," says A. vanDerZee, general sales manager of the Plymouth Motor corporation.

come famous has been made even roomier than it was originally. "One of the reasons why these improvements have been possible is the increased production that growing sales of the car have demanded. The Plymouth car is not built down to a price but, on the contrary, is built up to the quality standards demanded by car buyers.

Noted for its giving steady increasing value for the purchaser's money. Every practicable method for providing the greatest amount of satisfaction in a motor car, and all the refinements of construction that can be made available to the large number of buyers who desire low-cost transportation without sacrifice of comfort, safety and style, are utilized in the Plymouth.

"Our sales volume indicates that this is the correct method of answering the demand for a low-price quality car," Mr. vanDerZee concludes.
