By LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and Personalities—Should be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

The first week has been crowded with club and today affairs. In addition of officers in the various lodges has taken considerable time during the past few evenings. Plans are being made in the clubs for their 1930 work and committees are busy outlining the year's calendar.

The chamber of commerce dinner at the M. E. church on Friday evening was one of the largest and most successful affairs of the week. A most interesting program of music and speeches was enjoyed. Mr. E. A. Britton sponsored a boy scout affair during the week, which is a field of considerable interest among the boys of the city. A science meeting at the senior high school, under the instruction of Mr. Leroy Hatt, was an event of the week for the science students.

The L. F. T. apron and overall dance will be a large affair of next Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Thurber are in charge of the evening.

Trains for Evening Wear

Trains may have become passe for traveling since the vogue of the airplane, but for evening wear they are in the limelight of the fashion world. They are fashioned of eggshell moire with a bronze net flounce and train. Large peach-toned roses emphasize the decollete neckline at the back and also the princess type of bodice and also the princess type of bodice.

Spring Styles in Footwear for Women; Men's Remain Same

Footwear for the coming season will play a most important part of milady's wardrobe as the longer skirts have demanded daintier and daintier footwear, with high heels returning to popularity. Shoes are to be more colorful than ever before.

The footwear fashion reveals that shoes are more feminine, and that the aliphatic gowns require shoes of a design that avoids the more utilitarian effect created by the short skirt era. New tones of beige and green to complement the shades of spring dresses will be seen, with brown, white and combinations in the background. Shoes are in demand to match dress accessories. Snake skin shoes are popular, with lizard and python skins in demand in the higher grades. Black footwear will be worn in the early spring with medium shades of brown following. For summer, the light colors will be worn.

Men's shoes are virtually the same as for the last several years. Men's spring coats will be broader shouldered and trimmed short to accentuate whatever breadth there may be in the wearer's chassis. The trousers will fit snug at the top to emphasize slimmness of waist and will taper to the ankle.

Citizens Cooperate in Conserving

The community is functioning one hundred per cent in the conservation of tin foil for the Shriners' hospital for crippled children in Portland. An interesting episode was told by a unit member who was an eye witness to the happening. It happened thus: One of our town dignitaries was walking down the street and happened to see a piece of bright tin foil lying discarded in his path. He immediately stopped to pick it up but in his earnestness of purpose he failed to see that there was another man just as sincere of purpose who also saw what he saw and had the same urge at the same time. The result was that both stooped at the same time and both received a smart bump on the forehead. "I said they both came up smiling. But, oh well, who wouldn't take a few bumps if necessary to further a cause as worthy as this.

Myrtle Creek Lodge Has Christmas Party

The following Christmas lodge affair was held in Myrtle Creek and was well attended. The program was read by the Myrtle Creek Mall. The Sunday before Christmas was consecrated to the gathering of our greens—vines, pine and cedar, mistletoe, ferns and canes, and of making of wreaths, garlands and final decorations. An ample and elaborate welcome wreath was put into position at either end of the hall with smaller wreaths for the windows, each having its fan of red crepe paper. Garlanded wren of pine and cedar placed at opposite corners, crossing in center of room, an incandescent bulb with a large red bow of crepe paper, serving as a candle, so business was hurriedly disposed of and a fireplace bearing stockings was built by the tree.
