Miss Hawn Is Bride of Walter Fredrickson at Lovely Wedding

Coming as a complete surprise to those many Roseburg friends was the marriage of Miss Evelyn Hawn to Mr. Walter Fredrickson on Friday evening, January 3, at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. R. R. Hawn, at Santa Barbara, California. Rev. W. F. S. Nelson performed the ceremony in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the couple and a few friends.

The rooms were lovely with bouquets of large poinsettias. A bank of poinsettias made a charming screen for the altar. At eight-thirty o'clock in the evening the bridal procession began at the opening strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Miss Alberta Keating. The bride entered the room in the arm of her brother, R. R. Hawn, who gave her in marriage.

The bride was gowned in a lovely model of eggshell flat crepe with the new uneven hemline. Her bouquet was of pastel sweet peas, including ferns and aspidochloa. Guests attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Richardson, Mrs. Etta Roland, Miss Palma Langlo, Miss Mary Keating, Miss Alberta Keating, Miss Bonnie Hawn, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hawn, all of Roseburg, and Miss Agnes Fredrickson, of Roseburg.

Following the ceremony a bridal supper was served by Mrs. R. E. Hawn. The bride cut the large wedding cake. She wore as her going-away dress a model of brown tulle with accessories to match. The young couple left for a honeymoon in the south, stopping at Los Angeles, Pasadena, Santa Monica and other southern points.

The bride is the charming and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hawn, of Roseburg, and spent the greater part of her life in this city. She was graduated from the local high school in the class of 1925 and was prominently known in this city as a fine musician. She was employed in the local Woolworth store as bookkeeper, and was a member for two years before her departure for Santa Barbara last summer. She will return to her home in Roseburg sometime in the spring.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Fredrickson of this city. He has been employed as webmaster for two years before his departure for Santa Barbara last summer. He is also a prominent musician, having been a member of the Douglas county band for the past several years and is one of the leading members of the Presbyterian choir.
