

Dance in Society

(Continued from page 2)
left for the Knights of Pythias hall, where they enjoyed the L. F. T. dance.

Mrs. Fred Winston Is Hostess at Large Turkey Dinner on Sunday

Mrs. Fred Winston was a most gracious hostess on Sunday when she entertained with a two o'clock turkey dinner at her home at Winston. Flowers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Lander, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Winston, Mrs. W. C. Winston, Mrs. McCormack, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Adams, Miss Vivian Logsdon, Miss Norma Winston, Miss Thelma, Mr. Dale Smith, Miss Elizabeth Bourhill, Miss Beverly, Miss Virginia, Miss Eula Agnes and Mr. Harrison Winston. Mr. Fred McCormack, Miss Gertrude, Miss Alice May and Mr. Richard Adams, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Winston.

Glenbrook School Receives Certificate from New Governor of State of Oregon

The Glenbrook school No. 29 under the instruction of Mrs. Wanda Cosgrove, teacher, has the first 4-H club in the state of Oregon to finish the past year 100 per cent. They received the certificate of achievement, which is the first certificate signed by the new governor, A. W. Norblad.

Those belonging to the 100 per cent club included Mervyn Hensley, May Hawn, Mary Johnstone, Elsie Hamersley, Edith Hamersley, Clifford Long, Sam Mairhead, William Phillips, Evelyn Hansen, Mary Alice Mairhead and Lester Johnstone.

This 4-H club is striving to make the coming year as successful as that of the past year.

E. A. Britton Is Host at Interesting Party for Boy Scouts

One of the most unique and interesting parties of last week-end occurred at the home of Scoutmaster E. A. Britton, when he entertained with a dinner and social evening. Invitations were issued in the form of a large question mark with a happy smiling sun as a period. The menu was printed on the question mark as follows:

- Oyster Cocktail, a la hot box of the flat cap.
- Daschund de spitz and terrier soup.
- Schmeer case and fruit salad.
- Meat Loaf a la Brit.
- Baked Spuds Mit Skid Grease, Pickles and Olives.
- Ice cream and Wafers.
- Cocoa and Tooth Pick.

(Don't ask for seconds—the waiters are union men.)
Covers were placed for "Pat", Patterson, Gordon Applewhite, "Squint" Dent, "Tom" Neus, "Bob" Helliwell, "Able" Baum, "Schmitz" Schmitt, Rex Applegate, "Gene" Tynan, G. W. Wimberly, Jack Dent, Jack Wharton, G. W. Blake, L. W. Metzger, V. T. Jackson, Guy Gordon, Dr. G. C. Finlay and E. A. Britton.

At the bottom of the invitations the following games were listed:
Author—(A new one.)
Book—(Brand new.)
Tiddly Winks—(Another new one.)
Reports received from those attending indicated the dinner and evening was a huge success in every way.

Edenbower P. T. A. Holds Hard Time Party at School House

The Edenbower Parent-Teacher association met last week-end for a hard time party at the school house. A large crowd was present and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

Miss Venora Bates and Miss Florence Fichtenberger, teachers of the school, were in charge of the party. Mrs. J. D. Addison, president of the P. T. A., also assisted during the evening.
The school house recently installed electric lights and this was the first gathering since that time. Following a most enjoyable musical program was an hour of social conversation and the serving of light refreshments.

Miss Parks Honors Mother with Birthday Dinner Last Week-End

Miss Edith Parks complimented her mother, Mrs. Mary Parks, on her birthday last week-end, when she entertained with a dinner. A large birthday cake was used as a centerpiece. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Parks, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Allenbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Lonsingh, Mr. and Mrs. Juanita, Miss Frances and Mr. Clarence Allenbaugh, Miss Minnie Hahn, Miss Thelma and Mr. Horace Parks and Miss Eouta Parks.

The evening was pleasantly spent in visiting.

Informal Dinner Enjoyed Sunday at Home of Miss Ila Laubach

A most pleasant evening was spent at the home of Miss Ila Laubach on South Main street Sunday when she entertained informally with a five o'clock dinner. The table was lovely with a pink and green color scheme. Tall tapers completed the setting. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. George Witters, Mr. C. E. Manfield and Miss Ila Laubach.

Cards and visiting were enjoyed during the remainder of the evening.

Presbyterian Ladies Aid Has Fine Meeting on Thursday Afternoon

Thirty members of the Presbyterian Ladies Aid met in the church parlors Thursday afternoon for the regular business meeting. Mrs. G. W. Young had charge of the devotion.

Following the business meeting the members enjoyed a program of singing and readings by Mrs. Isabelle Whitney, Mrs. G. W. Young and Mrs. W. Ashcraft. Mrs. Young gave a most enjoyable parody on "The Old Oaken Bucket."

At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served by the committee in charge. Mrs. D. Smith and Mrs. W. M. Chalmers were joint chairmen of the committee.

Decoration of Chivalry to Be Public Affair Next Thursday Night

An interesting meeting is being planned for next Thursday night, January 23, at the Odd Fellows hall, at which time the "Decoration of Chivalry" will be conferred on a member of the local lodge.

This is an honor bestowed only on those who are found worthy for their good works and untiring efforts in behalf of the order.
This is a public ceremony and not only Odd Fellows and Rebekahs are invited, but the entire public is welcome.

The ceremony will be in charge of the department commander, Brigadier General W. E. Wadsworth, of Harrisburg, assisted by a staff of officers from the Eugene and Roseburg Cantons.

Roseburg Couple Married in Portland at Quiet Wedding

A recent wedding of great interest to their numerous friends took place in Portland, Oregon, when Mr. Adrian Fisher, which occurred on Thursday, January 2, at four o'clock in the afternoon in the First Methodist church of Portland. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wilbur Dowson and the attendants were Miss Ruth Fullerton, sister of the bride, and Mr. Fred Crocker, an old school-mate of the bridegroom.
Miss Fullerton has been employed in the Fern florist shop in Roseburg for the past four years and is one of the very popular and capable young ladies of this city. Mr. Fisher was employed by the California-Oregon Power company for the three and a half years and since last fall, has been employed by the Northwestern Electric company in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher have taken an attractive apartment in the Rena Villa apartments at 189 Vista avenue in Portland.

Schools to Hold Institute on January 25

Twenty-one schools of Douglas county have been asked to attend the local institute at Canyonville which will be held on January 25. Each teacher has been asked to bring a good piece of work from the school for display purposes. The work brought in is to be well marked so that judges will have no trouble in deciding the winners of the displays. Miss Harriet Wansley has charge of the display work.

The following program will be given during the day:
9:00—Invocation, Rev. Schafer, Canyonville. Community singing, pianist, Mrs. Thomas Irker, Roseburg.
9:20—Club work, J. Roland Park, Roseburg.
9:40—Health, Mrs. Ellen Post, Roseburg.
10:00—Speaker, Southern Oregon Normal school, Ashland.
10:40—Pennmanship, Miss Florence Johnson, Glendale.
11:00—Preview of declamatory contest, L. F. English, Myrtle Creek.
11:15—Memorial, Edward Bok, pupils, Canyonville.
11:30—Echoes of Oregon State Teachers' association, Miss Griffith, Canyonville.

East—Various places are provided, possibly some special groups will be in evidence. The places in town are Graystone hotel, Mother's Inn, Pansy cafe and Mrs. W. L. Cornutt.
1:00—Orchestra music, Myrtle Creek.
1:20—Speaker from Southern Oregon Normal school, Ashland.
2:10—"Human Waste in Education," Theodore Forcier, Glendale.
2:40—Play, Mrs. Blundell's pupils, Riddle.
3:00—Available music in any school—Miss Mildred Scott, Glendale.
3:30—Aloha.
Everyone is welcome.

Mrs. Campbell Hostess to Art and Embroidery Club on Wednesday

Mrs. Virginia Campbell was hostess to the Roseburg Art and Embroidery club for a lovely afternoon affair on Wednesday of this week. After a delightful social hour, the business meeting was held. Following the meeting luncheon was served at two tables made gay with baskets of fruit.

Places were laid for Mrs. Earl Decker, Mrs. Helen Carsten, Mrs. Anna Hunicutt, Mrs. Lucy Ingle, Mrs. Margaret Durand, Mrs. Bertha Palm, Mrs. Glenn E. Cox, Alice Rhoades, Mrs. Bell Stephenson, Mrs. Blanche Snyder and the hostess, Mrs. Virginia Campbell. Guests present for the afternoon were Mrs. Gladys Colby and Mrs. H. M. Cox.

Badoura Club, Daughters of Nile, Hold Meeting on Tuesday Night

The members of Badoura club, Daughters of the Nile, were the guests of Mrs. A. J. Young, Mrs. Bert Wells and Mrs. John Thorne at the Young home on Tuesday evening. The table was lovely with red tapers and red candles. A delicious six-thirty o'clock dinner was served to a large attendance of members. The event honored the retiring president, Mrs. Nathan Fullerton, and the 1930 president, Mrs. William Bell.

The regular business meeting followed the dining and the new officers were placed in charge. Mrs. Nathan Fullerton opened the meeting and after making a short talk, turned the business over to Mrs. William Bell. Reports were given on the past year's work and the new president appointed her committees for the new year.

The 1930 officers are: Mrs. William Bell, president; Mrs. Frank Chase, vice-president; Mrs. Roy Entler, secretary, and Mrs. S. G. Sellick, treasurer. Mrs. A. C. McEllan, of Portland, was a guest of the club during the evening.

Rebekahs Hold Social and Installation of Officers on Tuesday

At the close of the regular meeting of the Rebekah lodge on Tuesday night, the officers for 1930 were installed. The ceremony was in charge of Mrs. V. J. Micelli, district deputy. The president, assisted by Mrs. J. B. Bailey, deputy marshal and a staff composed of the following officers: Mrs. Fred Goff, Mrs. T. Busenbark, Miss Ila Laubach, Mrs. Evelyn Hoover, Mrs. J. E. Pickens, Miss May Fisher and Mrs. T. Jackson.

A touch of interest was added to the ceremony by a group of men from the Canton lodge composed of H. A. Canaday, H. S. French, J. E. Pickens and V. J. Micelli, who were dressed in the uniform of that order and acted as escort to the installing staff.

The following members were installed as the officers for the next term: Helen Carstens, N. G.; Anna Reynolds, V. G.; Gladys Colby; warden; Zella Reding, Cond.; Alice Goff, R. S. N. G.; Thillie Johnson, L. S. N. G.; Dorothy Rhoades, M. G.; Mattie Perry, chaplain; Elsie Russell, R. S. V. G.; Carrie Shields, L. S. V. G.; Virginia Campbell, I. G.; Ruth Reese, O. S.

At the close of the installation an interesting and instructive talk was given by V. J. Micelli on "The new life and work for Odd Fellowship in the days that are past."

Hume-Gerretsen Hostesses to Episcopal Guild Wednesday Evening

St. George's Guild members were the guests of Mrs. J. C. Hume and Mrs. William H. Gerretsen at the Hume home on Blakeley street on Wednesday evening of this week. This was the regular business meeting of the guild. Mrs. Willard Johnson, president, was in charge of the meeting. Other new officers for 1930 include Mrs. C. H. Davies, vice-president; Mrs. T. G. Watson, secretary; and Mrs. J. K. Falbe, treasurer. A social hour followed the business meeting. The members present were Mrs. Willard Johnson, Mrs. E. R. Kenny, Mrs. Nathan Fullerton, Mrs. H. C. Church, Mrs. J. A. Soules, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. T. G. Watson, Mrs. M. F. Middleburg, Mrs. H. R. Nerbas, Mrs. E. V. Hoover, Mrs. C. G. Russell, Mrs. Lauren McCulloch, Mrs. C. H. Davies, Miss Myrtle Davies, Mrs. Elizabeth Pearce, Rev. and Mrs. Perry Smith, Mrs. E. G. Kingwell, Miss Johnson, Mrs. Harold Beeson and Mrs. Vailanga.

New Books at Public Library This Week

Non-fiction books received at the Roseburg Public Library this week include:
Combining the Carribbees—Poster, Carl Akeley's Africa—Akeley, Vagabond House—Blanding, Writing the Short Story—Mirrilees, Marriage and Morals—Russell, Skylark—Gould, Practical Flying—Jones, Color—Martini, American Rock Gardens—Hamilton, Short Story Technique—Beach, Gardner's Bed-book—Wright, Aviation and All About It—Collins, Persuasive Speaking—McGee, Handicrafts for the Handicapped—Hall, Fun with Figures—Collins, Food for Children and How to Cook It—Flexner, Initial Letters—McMurtre, Friendship—Blair, Parents for Special Days—Russell, Cook and Be Cool—Harrison, Fertilizers for Greenhouse and Garden Crops—Laurie, Romance of Your Birthstone—Swengel, American Furniture and Decoration—Holloway, Child and Society—Blanchard, How to Criticize Books—Jones, 100 Years of American Railroad—Starr, Human Waste in Education—Reed, Best Plays of 1928-29—Mantle, Fiction Books Received, Thers is Only Cats—Kerr, Man Without Mercy—Merrell, Rainbow in the Spray—Wynne, Wandering Willie's Tale—S. I. Walter Scott, Canon of Lost Waters—Birney, Water Weed—Campbell. These books have been received for the public's use and have been placed in the Roseburg Public Library.

Norma Ann Williams Youngest Member of Umpqua Unit Auxiliary

At one of the recent Umpqua unit American Legion auxiliary meetings, it was decided that a paid-up membership for one year, would be given each new baby girl, who was eligible to belong to the auxiliary.
The first 1930 baby girl to receive this honor was the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Williams of this city. The baby was born recently at the Roseburg General Hospital and is starting her life by being a member of the local organization. The baby has been named Norma Ann Williams.

Eagles and Auxiliary Will Hold Meeting and Banquet Next Wednesday

The members of the Eagles lodge will hold their regular meeting next Tuesday evening at the Maccabee hall. Following the business meeting the Eagles and the Ladies Auxiliary will enjoy a social hour and banquet. Edward Bigalow, of Cedro Woolley, Washington, will be the guest of the evening.

Mrs. Grant Osborn Entertains Bridge Club on Friday

Mrs. Grant Osborn was a most gracious hostess to the members of the bridge club at her lovely new home in Laurelwood Friday afternoon. Bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon. Mrs. A. H. Perrin winning first prize for the club members and Mrs. John McClintock winning first prize for the guests. Guests of the afternoon included Mrs. Frederick E. Hartung, Mrs. John McClintock and Miss Verne Johnson.

Local Music Lovers to Go to Eugene Monday for Musicales

Several cars of Roseburg music lovers will go to Eugene Monday to attend the concert of the Portland Symphony Orchestra and the University of Oregon chorus, which will take place at McArthur Court. The symphony orchestra has 70 people engaged in the program which no doubt will be one of the finest concerts of the season.
The program will begin at 8:30 o'clock with Tchaikowsky's Fifth Symphony and Klinsky-Korsakoff's "Spanish Caprice" will be the principal orchestral selections to be played on the evening's program. The university chorus will join the orchestra in the presentation of several selections from Wagner's opera "Meistersinger," Weber's "Oberon" overture, Bach's "Air for Strings," and Sibelius' "Valse Triste" will be shorter selections.

William van Hoogstraten, noted conductor of Portland symphony, is associated with the University of Oregon in several ways. Three years ago he was granted an honorary degree as doctor of music by the university and was made a member of one of the national social fraternities on the campus. At present he is a member of the Portland university extension faculty, teaching classes in conducting and orchestration.

Northside Sunshine Club Meets at Bowen Home on Thursday Afternoon

The Northside Sunshine club members were entertained at a pleasurable event on Thursday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. Fred Bowen. After a brief business session, the time was spent very enjoyably in a social hour. Later in the afternoon a two-course luncheon was served by the hostess. Those present included Mrs. H. F. Chilson, Mrs. Margaret Durand, Mrs. Effie Marsters, Mrs. L. L. Marsters, Mrs. Robert Chilson, Mrs. William Stark, Mrs. George Marsters, Mrs. Virgil Bush, Mrs. Elsie McComas, Mrs. R. E. Harness, Mrs. L. W. Ingles, Mrs. Walter Kurtz and the hostess, Mrs. Fred Bowen. Visitors for the afternoon were Mrs. Norman Rothacker, Mrs. Joe Marsters and Mrs. Frank Myers.

Mrs. M. F. Rice Is Hostess to Friendly Ten Friday

Mrs. M. F. Rice was a most gracious hostess at her lovely home on South Jackson street on Friday afternoon, when she entertained the members of the Friendly Ten club with a one o'clock luncheon. The table was lovely with sprays of holly. Covers were placed for Mrs. A. C. Marsters, Mrs. J. D. Osborn, Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. Lee Wells, Mrs. A. S. Conn, Mrs. J. B. Riddle, Mrs. R. L. Gile, Mrs. F. W. Chase and Mrs. Rice, members. Guests for the day included Mrs. W. J. Clark, Mrs. C. W. Courtney and Mrs. E. M. Senior. Miss Eva Rice assisted with the serving.

Mr. Edwin Booth Complimented With Dinner on Friday

Mrs. H. H. Stapleton entertained with a birthday dinner at her home on Chadwick street on Friday evening complimenting Mr. Edwin Booth. The table was lovely with a centerpiece of red carnations, red tapers and a large birthday cake bearing red candles. Covers were placed for Mr. Edwin Booth, Miss Margaret Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Harrie Booth, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Haynes and Mrs. H. H. Stapleton.

Local News

Riddle Visitor in City—W. Knight, of Riddle, spent yesterday in this city transacting business.

Mr. Hall is Business Visitor—J. R. Hall, of Myrtle Creek, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Coos Junction Man Here—O. C. Woodell, mill owner at Coos Junction, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Umpqua Visitor Here—C. H. Joelson, of Umpqua, was a business visitor in this city yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Stromquist in Town—Harold Stromquist, of Lookingglass, spent yesterday afternoon in this city transacting business.

Dixonville Couple Here—Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Brown, of Dixonville, spent Friday in this city visiting friends and shopping.

Spending Several Days Here—James Fuller, of Riddle, is spending several days in this city transacting business.

birthday cake bearing red candles. Covers were placed for Mr. Edwin Booth, Miss Margaret Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Harrie Booth, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Haynes and Mrs. H. H. Stapleton. The evening was pleasantly spent in visiting.

Garden Valley Club Guest of Mrs. Bailey Thursday Afternoon

Mrs. G. C. Bailey was hostess to the Garden Valley Women's club at her home Thursday of this week. A brief business meeting was held, followed by a pleasant social hour. Guests of the day included Mrs. Graham Ewens and Mrs. J. A. Willis. Members present were Mrs. R. A. Calhoun, Mrs. R. S. Hutton, Mrs. W. L. Krantz, Mrs. W. D. Love, Mrs. J. L. Pottvin, Mrs. Hugh Ritchie, Jr., Mrs. A. M. Schneider, Mrs. H. A. Uterbach, Mrs. R. H. C. Wood and Mrs. J. W. Young.

B. P. W. C. Holds Meeting Friday at Woman's Club

The Business and Professional Women's club met Friday evening at the Woman's club rooms with the president, Mrs. E. R. Kenny, in charge.
The club is now observing national thrift week, the dates being from January 17th to January 23rd and the members were given a splendid address on thrift by A. C. Marsters. Mr. Marsters pointed out what thrift meant to the young business women in later life. Friday was observed as Benjamin Franklin day and the beginning of thrift week. Pictures are being placed in store windows calling attention to thrift week. Small envelopes were given out to the members in which they are to save their pennies during this week and return to the club at the next meeting. Miss Dolma Grobe and Miss Mattie Perry were appointed as joint thrift chairman.

The district meeting and dinner to be held at Salem tonight, at which time the state president was to attend, has been postponed until February 8 because of bad weather conditions. Several members from the Roseburg club had planned to attend.

The club is beginning to make plans for national business women's week which will begin March 9 and close on March 15. Announcements for this week will be made later.

The first international meeting of Business and Professional Women is to be held in Geneva this summer. Lena Madiepp Phillips, past national president, who attended the state convention at Roseburg in 1928, will be in charge. Mrs. Edith Gilmour had charge of the meeting Friday night. Miss Elizabeth Garre was in charge of the refreshments.

The next meeting will be a dinner meeting at the Umpqua hotel on February 7 with Mrs. Edith Ackert as program chairman.

Mr. Freeman Here From Medford—A. C. Freeman, of Medford, is a business visitor in this city for several days.

Mr. Beaver Visitor—P. E. Beaver, of Edenbower, spent several hours in this city yesterday transacting business.

Sutherland Visitor—Kenneth Oleson, of Sutherland, spent Friday in this city transacting business and visiting friends.

Eugene Visitor Here—T. W. Wylie, of Eugene, is a business visitor in this city for several days this week.

Portland Man in Town—Arthur Strader, Portland, Southern Pacific employe, is transacting business in this city for several days.

Mrs. Bates Visits and Shops—Mrs. G. R. Bates, of Myrtle Creek, spent yesterday afternoon in this city visiting friends and shopping.

California Visitor in Town—Ernest Hubbschmid, of Modesto, California, is spending several days in this city looking this part of the country over.

Days Creek Couple in Town—Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Moore, of Days Creek, spent yesterday in this city visiting friends and transacting business.

Visiting Here During Winter—Mrs. Cora McDonald, of Blackfoot, Idaho, is spending the winter in this city with her two sisters, Mrs. Ernest Sharp and Mrs. Romano Wood.

Go to Eugene on Friday—J. Henry Booth, of this city, left last evening for Eugene, where he will spend the week-end visiting Mrs. Booth, who is in the Eugene hospital.

Working Here For Several Months—B. L. Skages and crew, of the Western Electric company out of Seattle, are working at the local Pacific Telephone and Telegraph office. They will remain in this city until next August.

Reedsport Visitor in Roseburg—Miss Anna Chapman, of Reedsport, was in this city yesterday visiting friends and transacting business. Miss Chapman is manager of the Port Umpqua Courier of Reedsport.

Ashland Business Man Here—L. Hansen, proprietor of the new Ashland hotel, spent yesterday in this city visiting friends. He is an old friend of C. S. Richardson of the Terminal hotel. He left last evening for Coquille.

Leaves for Portland—Charles Cook, of this city, returned to his home yesterday, after spending the past several days in Myrtle Creek visiting relatives and friends. He left this morning for Portland, where he will spend the week-end visiting friends.

Spent Friday in Roseburg—Miss Agnes Blakeley, of Glide, spent Friday in this city visiting friends and shopping. She was accompanied here by her cousin, William Garber, of Dallas, who is a house guest at the R. T. Blakeley home in Glide.

Stops Here to Visit Friends—"Ted" Brown, of Grants Pass, stopped in this city yesterday to visit George Witters and Morris Houser for a short time. He has been employed in the Grants Pass Safeway store and has recently been transferred to the Marshfield store. He left late yesterday afternoon for the coast.

Mr. Cyeert in Town—Inan Dyser, of Melrose, was in this city yesterday afternoon transacting business.

Mrs. Karcher Shops Here—Mrs. William Karcher, of South Deer creek, spent Friday afternoon in this city shopping and visiting friends.

Round Prairie Men Here—Thomas Burnett, Sr., and son, Gordon, of Round Prairie, were business visitors in this city yesterday.

Go to Eugene Friday—Mrs. William Monroe, of this city, left last evening for Eugene, where she will spend the week-end visiting friends.

Return From Portland—Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lockwood, of this city, have returned after spending the past several days in Portland on combined business and pleasure.

Discharged From Hospital—M. J. Spiesman, of St. Marys, Idaho, was discharged from Roseburg General hospital yesterday. He has been a patient here for the past several days.

Spends Friday in Roseburg—Mrs. Albert S. Martin, of Myrtle Creek, spent Friday in this city visiting friends and shopping. Mr. Martin is a patient at Roseburg General hospital at the present time.

Visiting in Roseburg—Mrs. Blanche Krohn, of Portland, is spending several days in this city visiting her mother, Mrs. M. L. Webb, and sister, Miss Ethel Webb. She is a former resident of Roseburg.

Leave Friday for California—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Huffham and Eugene Bowden, of this city, left last evening for various points in California for a two weeks' vacation. They will go as far south as Tijuana, Mexico. Mr. Huffham is employed in the local Montgomery Ward and company store and Mr. Bowden is a member of the Model bakery staff.

P. T. A. Meeting Monday—There will be an important business meeting of the Benson school parent-teacher association on Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the school house. All members are urged to be present.

Spent Few Days Here Visiting—Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Johnson, of Dickinson, North Dakota, are spending a few days in this city as the house guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Soules. They are on their way to California, where they will spend the winter.

Cooper Lines Repaired—The California Oregon Power company line No. 12, near Cottage Grove, has been repaired by the 20 men sent from the local office. The crew will remain in Cottage Grove for several days. The lines were damaged by a silver thaw and by falling trees.

Henningers in Roseburg Friday—Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Henninger, of Glendale, spent Friday in this city transacting business and visiting friends. They state that the roads are in bad shape around Glendale and that they were forced to take the train rather than take a chance on driving.

Geo. H. Jackson
LAWYER
Glendale, Oregon

Saturday
The Side Show
Comedy—News
ADMISSION
10c-25c
LIBERTY

STEWART-WARNER RADIO
A GREAT RADIO VALUE
$135.00 (Less Taxes)
TUDOR PERIOD CONSOLE
New Model 23. With Stewart-Warner 8-tube Screen-Grid Radio and built-in electro-dynamic reproducer. Handsome unfinished walnut.
Now—you can buy the new Stewart-Warner Screen-Grid Radio—"the Set with the Punch"—in an attractive new console cabinet at the lowest price available on an 8-tube set of identical quality! Hear it!
Newland Radio Department
116-122 S. Stephens St. Roseburg, Oregon

CYCLOGYSEZ
LET US SOLVE YOUR WIRING NEEDS
J. S. McDonald
112 W. Douglas Phone 665

ALL TALKING SINGING DANCING SONG ROMANCE
"MARRIED IN HOLLYWOOD"
Featuring the Renowned Broadway Stars J. Harold Murray—Norma Terris
IMAGINE Broadway's greatest musical stars, the haunting music of Oscar Straus and Hollywood's lavish splendor—the supreme accomplishment of stage, screen and music.
Singing Chorus of 60 Dancing Ensemble of 100 Symphony Orchestra of 60 Scenes in Multicolor
TODAY The Girl From Havana
Admission Matinee 10c and 25c Evenings 10c-50c

LOVE'S A FUNNY THING IT MAKES THE YOUNG SHEIKS GROW MOUSTACHES AND THE OLD UNS SHAVE 'EM OFF!

Antlers
Plus All-Talking Comedy The Barber's Daughter Latest News

STARTS SUNDAY FOR 2 DAYS
Evenings Two Shows 7:15 and 9:15