GOOD-NIGHT STORIES

By Max Trel

King Fat-Wat Declares War on the Rain.

"Sh, not so loud... I'm expecting someone." It was the tin-soldier speaking.

MJ. Flor, Hanid Yam and Knarf—the five little shadow-child dressed with the garnet garnet name—stopped at the door. They were in the play-room. It was late at night. All the real-children were asleep. Right near the leg of the painted chair the tin-soldier was waiting. He was leaning forward slightly on his musket and his car was turned up to catch the sound of footsteps or whatever else it was he expected to hear.

"Whom are you expecting?" Knarf asked at last in a low voice.

He rolled his eyes mysteriously. "Don't breathe a word of this to anybody. I'm expecting a messenger from King Fat-Wat—"

"King what?"

"Fat-Wat. I used to be general in His Majesty's army before I retired to take charge of this house. But yesterday I learned that he declared war against the rain—"

PANTAGES AGAIN SEEKS RELEASE ON CLAIM OF ILLNESS

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 28.—Hearing of a petition seeking the release from jail on bond of Alexander Pantages, multi-millionaire theater man, pending decision of his appeal from a conviction of assault upon Eunice Pringle, 17-year-old dancer, is set for today in superior court.

Pantages for the 37-year-old rambunctious magnate yesterday filed with Superior Judge Charles W. Fyffe affidavits by three physicians who declared Pantages is in great danger of permanent injury and death as a result of his confinement. The affidavits declared such attacks and specified a "very serious" recent attack.

A previous attempt to obtain freedom on bond failed after physicians appointed by the court testified Pantages suffered principally from unfounded fears of death.

Deputy District Attorney Robert P. Stewart said he will ask the court to appoint three medical experts to examine Pantages before a decision is made. Pantages is facing a sentence of from one to fifty years in prison for conviction on the assault charge. Miss Pringle last week filed suit for $1,000,000 damages against the theater man.

CARTER'S SHARE OF PURSE IS WITHHELD

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 28.—The Portland boxing commission today ordered money due Benny (Kid) Carter, knocked out in the first round of the main event with Joe Marcus last night, held up pending a hearing set for later in the day.

Carter was knocked down three times in the first round by Marcus. The third time he didn't get up. He was counted out.

HEART DISEASE IS PANTAGES' WORRY

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 28.—A hearing on the petition of Alexander Pantages, multi-millionaire showman recently convicted of a criminal assault, was postponed until 1:30 p. m. today after 180 doctors, one a county physician, had testified he was a victim of engine pecunia, a heart disease, and that further incarceration might prove fatal.

JOE MARCUS WHIPS CARTER IN 1 ROUND; BLACKWELL KAYOED

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 28.—Joe Marcus, Portland's leading lightweight, surprised a big crowd at the auditorium last night when he took the measure of Benny (Kid) Carter, Los Angeles Mexican, with a good record in his credit. The bout was over in less than one round, Joe's opening punch, a right to the jaw, floored the Mexican for a count of two, but so dazed him he was unable to offer any effective resistance to Joe's insistent attack and soon went down for a count of nine, to be followed by the finishing blow. Marcus weighed 133 and Carter 127.

The feature of the evening was the sensational ten-round return engagement of Mickey Dolan, Portland, and Jimmy Anderson, Astoria. The little midgets went ten fast and furious rounds without a let-up, that had the crowd on edge throughout. Dolan sent Anderson down in the first round, but from that time on it was give and take. Anderson's gameness and aggressiveness overcame Dolan's first round advantage.

Kenneth Kent, Portland middleweight with the terrific punch, knocked out Joe Blackwell, Eugene, in the fifth of their six-round bout. Blackwell put up a game fight, but two consecutive knock-downs, such as Kent can deliver, was enough.

Billy Jenkins knocked out Freddy Hart in the fourth round of the car fair-raiser, "Sixty" Nelson, Vernonia, tossed out Pete Byrnes, Portland, in another four-rounder to take the decision.

MOTHER OF BRIDE OF ONLY 17 WILL SEEK ANNULMENT

(Associated Press Special Wire)

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 28.—Script for the scenario of Hollywood's new film comedy romance is being re-written by the mother of the bride.

Stating that she believes her daughter too young fully to realize the responsibilities of married life, Mrs. George Belzer today will file suit for annulment of the marriage of Loretta Young, 17-year-old film actress, to Grant Withers, 25, featured screen player.

Miss Young and Withers, who met six months ago when they were cast opposite each other in pictures, Sunday consummated their courtship with an aerial elopement and wedding in Yuma, Ariz. Upon their return home for the parental blessing, they were met instead by the disapproval of Mrs. Belzer.

Although she previously had frowned upon the union because Withers had been married before and divorced, Mrs. Belzer stated her chief objection was the extreme youth of her daughter.

"I believe she should wait another year," Mrs. Belzer said. "Then if they feel like getting married, there will be no objection on my part. They both have admitted they were impulsive, and have agreed to a separation."

The annulment suit, legal authorities believe, will raise an interesting point at law, as the legal marriage age for women in Arizona is 16 years. In California it is 18.
