VETS' HONOR ROLL IN PUBLIC DISPLAY

Erection of an honor roll board for Umpqua post of the American Legion on the Churchill Hardware building at Jackson and Oak streets is being done today. This project has been under consideration for the past two years, but arrangements have just been completed. The signboard is donated by Foster and Kleiser, the post, however, paying the labor costs. The names of all ex-service men affiliated with the local post will be placed upon this large board.

BAND CONCERT TO ATTRACT TONIGHT

A large crowd is anticipated at the senior high school tonight for the band concert sponsored by the Parent-Teacher association. The program includes very interesting selections in addition to the band music, so that there will be a very fine entertainment offered. The proceeds will be used for the construction of public tennis courts at the school grounds.

MELROSE RANCHER BUYS MORE LAND

A. Pearson, a rancher near Melrose, Oregon, and a progressive citizen, has enlarged his holdings by purchasing three tracts of land adjoining his farm. This makes him a good sized place and can be operated to advantage. Mr. Pearson has resided at Melrose for some time. A man of vision and sound judgment, he is optimistic regarding the future development of the county. He will improve his new addition in the near future. The sale was consummated by G. W. Young and Son, local realtors.

MILL TO REOPEN WITHIN SHORT TIME

(News-Review Douglas County Special.) GLENDALE, Feb. 7.—Otto Stephens and Eli Thrash who operate a sawmill owned by Stephens located on Cow creek about 17 miles from this city are installing ditch ovens in the boiler room and hope to commence sawing again in about two weeks. C. E. Springer has a contract to furnish logs for this mill while the loading of the lumber on cars in this city is contracted to the Conifer Lumber company which concern handles the shipping for a number of the sawmills located on Cow creek.

SUIT IS INSTITUTED

GLENDALE, Feb. 7.—A suit in replevin has been filed with A. G. Clark, local justice of peace, by H. L. Wilson of Grants Pass through his attorney Neal Allen against E. W. Tatum of this city. Mr. Tatum has retained George A. Jackson as his attorney. The possession of a piano is involved in this action. Mr. Wilson, a former Glendale merchant, formerly resided in the house now owned by Mr. Tatum and when he moved to Grants Pass he left a piano in the house which he alleges was done as a favor to Tatum and he now wants his piano. Tatum has filed lien on the piano for storage charges he alleges due him for the time the piano was in his house.
