WOMEN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

By LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and Personals—Should Be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

THE usual number of interesting club and organization meetings were enjoyed during the past week, as were several lovely bridge luncheons, dinners and parties.

Mrs. Edgar B. Noland and Mr. and Mrs. George Curtis, of Saguache, Colorado, were interesting visitors in this city during the past week, and were the inspiration of many lovely affairs.

Newly organized gymnasium classes for ladies have been organized and are holding considerable attention throughout the city. The B. P. W. club has a large number of members in its class and the work is progressing nicely. The Lady Elks are just beginning to organize a "gym" club and will probably make further announcements regarding its progress within the next few weeks.

The L. F. T. dance to be held next Tuesday evening will be an event of the coming week. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Berg are in charge of the dance.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Farrington have returned to their home in this city, after spending the past week in Sacramento, California, where they attended the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. Farrington's parents. A number of Roseburg people left during the past week for vacations in the south. Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Newland and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Newland left Sunday for several weeks and Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Morgan left the first of the week for two weeks in southern California. Mr. and Mrs. James Hutchings and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Poole left Thursday for San Diego and Long Beach, where they will spend six weeks vacationing.

Several interesting events have been planned for next week in honor of February brides. Miss Mary Foree, whose wedding date was announced Thursday evening, will be married on Valentine's day. Miss Margaret Wilson, of Riddle, is a popular bride of the month and is being complimented by her friends at several lovely affairs.

Mrs. I. H. Duff Is Hostess to Prayer Circle Wednesday

The Northside Prayer Circle and Bible study club met on Wednesday of this week, for its regular monthly social afternoon, at the home of Mrs. I. H. Duff on West First street. Following the usual study hour, the remainder of the afternoon was devoted to a social meeting. Members present included Mrs. C. A. Chamberlain, Mrs. R. E. Crawford, Mrs. F. A. Knight, Mrs. Emanda Jones, Mrs. Horace H. Hagen, Mrs. Robert Hudson, Mrs. T. E. Ware, Mrs. William Fisher, Mrs. Luella Woodruff, Mrs. Binger Laird, Mrs. Susan Woodruff and Mrs. I. H. Duff.

Later in the afternoon dainty refreshments were served from a table festive with decorations appropriate to the Valentine season. Mrs. Duff was assisted in serving by Mrs. F. A. Knight.

Colorado Visitors Are Inspiration for Lovely Dinner Saturday Evening

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leake entertained with a seven o'clock dinner Saturday evening at their home in Dixonville complimenting Mrs. Edgar B. Noland and Mr. and Mrs. George Curtis of Saguache, Colorado. Covers were placed for Mrs. Noland, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. H. Campbell, Miss Patricia Leake and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leake.

Mrs. Noland and Mrs. Curtis are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. H. Campbell of West Roseburg. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis left early in the week for Portland, where they will be the guests of Attorney and Mrs. George Neuner for several days before returning to Los Angeles where they will sail for Honolulu. After spending several weeks vacationing on the islands, they will return to their home in Colorado. Mrs. Noland left Thursday for Portland to visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. George Neuner, before returning to Colorado.

Mrs. Lou Knight Compliments Visitor From Colorado Tuesday

Mrs. Lou Knight was a most gracious hostess on Tuesday at her home in Canonville, when she entertained with a twelve o'clock dinner in honor of Mrs. Edgar B. Noland, of Saguache, Colorado. Covers were placed for Mrs. Noland, Mrs. H. Campbell, Mrs. Clough, Miss Bess Clouch and Mrs. Lou Knight. The afternoon was spent in visiting.

Thimble Club to Meet Next Monday at Canaday Home

The Thimble club members will be the guests of Mrs. H. A. Canaday and Mrs. Elsie Williams next Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Canaday.

All members are urged to be present for the evening. The regulars business meeting will be held, with a social hour following.

Mrs. A. B. Taylor Is Hostess to Bridge Club Friday Afternoon

Mrs. A. B. Taylor entertained the members of the Friday Bridge club at her home in Laurelwood on Friday afternoon. Pussywillows were used to decorate the rooms. Bridge was played during the afternoon with Mrs. Grant Osborn winning first prize and Mrs. E. J. Payton winning second prize. Those present were Mrs. Woodley Stephenson, Mrs. C. M. Boyd, Mrs. Victor Short, Mrs. Joseph Deets, Mrs. Grant Osborn, Mrs. William Strohmeyer, Mrs. A. H. Perrin, Mrs. Hugh Whipple, Mrs. Harry Stearns, Mrs. L. W. Metzger and Mrs. E. J. Payton.

At the close of the afternoon, Mrs. Taylor served a lovely two-course luncheon.

Rose P. T. A. Holds Regular Business Meeting on Monday

The Rose school Parent-Teacher association met at four o'clock on Monday afternoon for its regular business meeting. W. R. Strawn, president, was in charge of the meeting.

Miss Mary E. Finley, field secretary of the National Council for Prevention of War, gave an instructive and interesting address. She spoke to the children of the school earlier in the day.

Mrs. Edgar B. Noland Is Complimented With Party on Tuesday Night

Mrs. Ross Wharton entertained on Tuesday evening at her home in West Roseburg, complimenting Mrs. Edgar B. Noland an interesting visitor from Saguache, Colorado. The evening was spent in sewing and cards. The guest list included Mrs. Edgar B. Noland, Mrs. Horace Campbell, Mrs. Wardner Leake, Mrs. A. Lashford, Mrs. Isabelle Muir, Mrs. John Mowbary, Mrs. David Leadbox, Mrs. Thomas Wharton, Mrs. Charles Wharton, Mrs. George Wharton, Mrs. Jack Wharton, Mrs. Glenn Wimberly, Miss Ernst Webb, Miss Emma Leland, Mrs. Allen Geaney, Miss Margaret Carr, and the hostess, Miss Bess Wharton.

Refreshments were served at a later hour at a large table, centered with a bowl of pink roses.

Roseburg Woman's Club Has Fine Meeting on Tuesday Afternoon

The Roseburg Woman's club met on Tuesday afternoon at the club rooms with a large attendance of members present. The meeting was opened with community singing, Mrs. A. G. McMillin, president, was in charge of the afternoon.

The speaker for the day was Miss Mary E. Finley, field secretary for the National Council for the Prevention of War, who gave an interesting address.

Light refreshments were served by Mrs. W. B. Strawn, Mrs. A. A. Richard, Mrs. C. W. Parker and Mrs. Richard Willet.

Turkey Dinner Enjoyed Sunday at M. S. Ryan Home in Riddle

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Ryan entertained with a one o'clock turkey dinner at their home in Riddle on Sunday of this week. Covers were placed for Junior and Mrs. George Quine and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cauching, of Rosehill, Mr. and Mrs. Ellinger and Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Ryan.

Miss Jean Whitney Is Pledged to Honor Society at University

Arranging to word received here Miss Jean Whitney, student at University of Oregon, has been pledged to the Phi Beta, dramatic and music honor society.

Miss Whitney is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Whitney, of Roseburg, and has been prominent on the University campus this year. She is a member of the Kappa Delta sorority, having been initiated into the honor a short time ago. She was recently elected as Thespian for the Kappa Delta house, which is the freshman representation for the house in all campus affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Campbell Entertain With Turkey Dinner on Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. H. Campbell entertained with a one-thirty o'clock turkey dinner at their home in West Roseburg on Sunday. The table was beautified with a centerpiece of pink carnations with tall pink candles at each side. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. George Curtis and Mrs. Edgar B. Noland, of Saguache, Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Strawn, Miss Betty and Mr. Byron Strawn, of Reel Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leake and Miss Helen Patricia Leake, of Dixonville, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Campbell.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent in visiting.

Mrs. Bert G. Bates Is Member of Popular Ballet in Hollywood

Of considerable interest here to friends of Mrs. Bert G. Bates, formerly of Roseburg and now a resident of Hollywood, California, is the recent news of her being a member of a popular ballet which will dance in a series of motion picture productions.

Mrs. Bates has been taking dancing instruction from the Edith Jane school of dance, since her arrival in Hollywood. Michel Fokine, famous Russian ballet master, and Michio Ito, eminent Japanese instructor in dances of the Orient, have been her teachers. Fokine and Ito have selected her as one of a group of ten girls to train for appearance in a series of motion pictures depicting the dance. She is training daily with the class and will also be included in the ballet group to dance at the Hollywood Bowl during the summer season. In addition to her advanced ballet work, she is taking tap dancing.

Mrs. Bates, nee Miss Nova Lough, was one of the most charming and popular members of Roseburg's younger set. During the last year of her residence in Roseburg, she conducted "Nova's School of the Dance," and a large number of young people were enrolled in her classes.

Her many friends in this city are pleased with her success.

Days Creek P. T. A. Enjoys Box Social on Friday Evening

The box supper and entertainment sponsored by the Days Creek Parent-teacher association on last Friday evening, was a decided success, both from a social and financial standpoint.

The following program was given by the students, under the direction of Mr. Phelps and Mr. Kirby.

Selections by school orchestra.

Playlet, "Tried for Blowin'," junior high room.

Recitation, "Miss Dorothy Entertains the Minister"—Annabel Kirby.

One act play, "Train to Mars"—Beatrice Worthington, Robert Hill and Lawrence Michaels.

Recitation, "Neeze"—Herbert Kirby.

Saxophone and piano duet—Carl Hill and Thelma Kirby.

One act comedy, "Courtship Under Difficulties," by Doby Knight, Ernst Chaney and Carl Hill.

Recitation, "Castor Oil"—Merle Hutchinson.

Saxophone quintet—C. C. Hill, A. O. Kirby, Gem Hutchinson, Thelma Kirby, Carl Hill with Miss Gladys Ulam pianist.

It had been announced previously that prizes would be given for the prettiest box, for the most artistic box and for the box bringing the highest price. The prizes were donated by the following: Mrs. H. R. Ferguson, of Roseburg, an engraved buffet set; Mrs. Arcelle Ferguson, Days Creek, embroidered vanity set; and Blattner's Pharmacy, of Canyonville, a box of candy.

Immediately following the program, the boxes were judged by Mr. Phelps, Mrs. Ada Raymond and Mrs. Vernon Poole. The prize for the prettiest box was won by Mrs. Guy Pennel, of Tiller, and Bessie Schermerhorn won the prize for the most artistic box.

Following the judging of the boxes the auction of same was held, with Mr. Alec Worthington acting as auctioneer.

The couple winning the box of candy for the box bringing the highest price went to Mr. Pennel and Mrs. John Ferguson.

The sum of $87.55 was realized and will be applied on dishes for the school kitchen.

The next meeting of the parent-teacher association will be held in the latter part of February and plans are well under way for a unique program.

The school held visitation week recently and 23 parents and patrons visited the school.

Eugene Little Home Is Scene of Pleasant Afternoon on Friday

The second meeting of a series of meetings given by the Ladies Auxiliary of Eagles was held at the home of Eugene Little on Friday of last week. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with needle work and visiting. Those present were Mrs. J. O. Ross, Mrs. Lynn Sites, J. M. Wills, Mrs. Margaret Eagles, Mrs. Elsie Aiken, Mrs. Mary Parks and Mrs. Cora Little.

At the close of the afternoon dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Elsie Aiken, Mrs. Mary Parks and Mrs. Cora Little, joint hostesses.

Six-Thirty o'Clock Dinner Enjoyed at Chase Home Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Chase entertained a few of their friends on Wednesday evening with a six-thirty o'clock dinner. Seasonal flowers were used as a center piece. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. William Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Malden and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Chase.

The evening was spent in playing "500" and visiting.

Delphian Club to Meet Next Tuesday at Bell Home

Mrs. William Bell will entertain the members of the Delphian club at her home in the Bell apartments next Tuesday afternoon. An interesting afternoon is planned and a cordial invitation is extended to all members.

Love-Bird Green Gown

A very interesting gown worn (shown above), is made of love-bird green. The gown is made with straight slip in the front and rows of circular flounces forming a semi-train in the back.

Younger Set Enjoys Evening of Cards at Zimrick Home

Sunday evening was pleasantly spent by members of the younger set at the home of Miss Helen Zimrick. Cards were enjoyed by Miss Olive Olson, Miss Marjorie Knight, Miss Margaret Fields, Miss Evelyn Thomason, Garland Iles, Kenneth Hagin, Owen Walker, Richard Liles and the hostess, Miss Helen Zimrick.

Light refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Dean Bubar Is Hostess to Monday Evening Bridge Club

Mrs. Dean Bubar entertained the members of the Monday Night Bridge club at her home on Cass street the first of the week. Mrs. John Throne and Miss Catherine Olson were guests of the evening. Members present included Miss May and Miss Margaret Baldwin, Miss Ethel Webb, Miss Bess Wharton, Dr. Lucetta Smith and Mrs. Dean Bubar.

After a pleasant evening of bridge and visiting, dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Bubar.

South Deer Creek Ladies Club Enjoys Wednesday Afternoon

The South Deer creek ladies club members were entertained last Wednesday by Mrs. Joe Kunish, fourteen members and two visitors answering to roll call when the president, Mrs. Lake Patterson called the club to order.

The ladies voted to have a 7:30 p. m. chicken dinner when the Grange entertains the Roseburg Kiwanis club in the near future, and it was decided that each member of the club would make and donate an article to the annual bazaar to be held during the holiday season next fall.

After a short business session the club spent the afternoon in visiting. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Roland Broadbent and Mrs. Stewart Hall, served dainty refreshments.

Monday Evening Bridge Club Members Are Guests of Mrs. Allen

The Monday Night Bridge club were the guests of Mrs. Clair K. Allen at her home on Watson street this week. Bridge was played during the evening with Mrs. Carl Whimberly winning first prize, Mrs. Fred Richter and Mrs. Clifford Bricker were guests of the evening. Members present included Mrs. Harris Ellsworth, Mrs. Edward Kohlhagen, Mrs. Leon McClintock, Mrs. Carl Wimberly, Mrs. Walter Fisher and Mrs. Clair K. Allen.

Catholic Ladies to Sponsor Card Party Next Tuesday Evening

The Catholic ladies are considering plans for a card party, which they will sponsor next Tuesday evening at the parish hall. An attendance prize will be given, as well as prizes for both bridge and "500."

Refreshments will be served at the close of the evening. A most entertaining and enjoyable evening is anticipated for this party.

Klamath Falls Visitor Here for Few Weeks

Mrs. James E. Wannsler is a visitor at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. C. Wannsler and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Finley at this city for several weeks. Mrs. Wannsler was Miss Katie Finley before her marriage of a few years ago. She has been living in Klamath Falls for the past year.

L. F. T. Dance to Be Enjoyable Event of Next Tuesday Evening

A coming event of next week is the L. F. T. Valentine's dance on next Tuesday evening at the Knights of Pythias hall. The music will be furnished by the Melody Marvels orchestra. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Berg are joint chairmen of the dance with Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Chilson, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Throne, Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Wainscott, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Haynes and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McIntyre.

Plans have been completed for an interesting and entertaining evening.

Mrs. Percy Webb Is Placed on High School Honor Roll at Klamath

According to word received here, Mrs. Percy Webb, nee Maxine Stearns, formerly of Roseburg, has been placed on the scholarship grand honor roll of the Klamath Falls union high school for the first semester of this year. The requirements for membership are A or an A plus grade in all subjects and nothing below a B in semester citizenship. The honor roll consists of citizenship and scholarship.

Mrs. Webb was one of 28 people out of a school of 635 to win this honor. It is considered a real achievement and one for which each student of the high school strives hard to attain.

Mrs. Webb is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stearns, of Roseburg, and was one of the popular members of Roseburg's younger set, before her marriage a year ago. As she had not completed her high school course before her marriage, she is continuing her work at Klamath Falls.

Miss Meredith Honored With Lovely Dinner on Sixteenth Birthday

Miss Florence Meredith, of Looking glass, was honored with a lovely birthday dinner on Sunday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Meredith, at Rice Creek. Sixteen guests were seated at the table to honor Miss Meredith's birthday. They were Miss Florence Meredith, Miss Clare and Lilia Meredith and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Meredith, of Looking lass, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Miller, Miss Bernice and Melvin Miller, of Rice Creek, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Meredith, Ronald Meredith, Wilbur Meredith and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Meredith.

Ladies Auxiliary of F. O. E. to Hold Meeting Wednesday, February 12

The Ladies Auxiliary of F. O. E. will hold its usual meeting on Wednesday, February 12, at which time plans will be made for three socials to be held in the near future.

At the present time, the ladies are making quilts and plans are well underway for a quilting "bee" to be given soon.

Mrs. Guy Cordon Is Hostess to Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club

Mrs. Guy Cordon was a charming hostess to the members of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club at her home on Tuesday. Bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. R. L. Whipple winning first prize. Those present included Mrs. Sam Shoemaker, Mrs. S. G. Sellick, Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mrs. Fred Hamilton, Mrs. W. M. Harris, Mrs. C. A. Lockwood, Mrs. B. R. Westwood and Mrs. Guy Cordon.

Dainty refreshments were served at a later hour by the hostess.

Mrs. Malden Entertains Friends With Lovely Luncheon on Thursday

Mrs. E. F. Malden was a most gracious hostess on Thursday, when she entertained a few of her friends with a one o'clock luncheon at her home in the Kohlhagen apartments. The table was lovely with a centerpiece of red carnations and freesias. The Valentine motif was carried out in the placecards and favors. Covers were placed for Mrs. George Bradburn, Mrs. Walter Hamilton, Mrs. George E. Houck, Mrs. M. J. Shoemaker, Mrs. Frank Chase, Mrs. A. S. Coen, Mrs. A. A. Wilder, Mrs. H. H. Stapleton, Mrs. M. B. Green, Mrs. John Throne, Mrs. Edward Kohlhagen, Mrs. Nathan Fullerton and the hostess, Mrs. E. F. Malden.

Bridge was played at two tables with Mrs. George A. Bradburn, winning the prize of the afternoon. Other guests spent the afternoon visiting.

Mrs. H. H. Stapleton Is Charming Hostess at Dinner Tuesday

Mrs. H. H. Stapleton was a charming hostess at a lovely 7 formal six-thirty o'clock dinner at her home on Tuesday evening. Seasonal flowers were used to grace the center of the table. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sawyers, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wharton, Mrs. Arthur Baum and the hostess, Mrs. H. H. Stapleton.

Bridge was played during the evening with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wharton winning high score.

Mrs. A. B. Grubbe Entertains S. C. C. Club on Wednesday

The S. C. C. club members were the guests of Mrs. A. B. Grubbe at her home in Oakland on Wednesday afternoon of this week, when she entertained with a one o'clock bridge luncheon. The table was bright with a centerpiece of red tulips. Mrs. Grubbe was assisted in serving by Mrs. H. U. Cochran. Covers were placed for Mrs. J. A. Soules, Mrs. Ernest Taylor, Mrs. M. R. Ivie, Mrs. R. E. Jones, Mrs. M. N. Nelson, Mrs. W. H. Waldo, Mrs. John Kovaly, Mrs. H. L. Connelly, Mrs. H. U. Cochran and Mrs. A. B. Grubbe. Mrs. J. A. Soules was a guest of the afternoon.

The living room was lovely with large bouquets of pussywillows. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in playing bridge and visiting. Mrs. Ernest Taylor won first prize for the afternoon.

Neighbors of Woodcraft Will Give Apron and Overal Party February 17

Lilac Circle No. 19, Neighbors of Woodcraft, are planning an apron and overall party to be held on February 17 at the Maccabee hall.

Mrs. Hattie Neil is chairman of the entertainment committee and Mrs. Hidinger is chairman of the refreshment committee. Plans for an enjoyable evening have been under way for the past week and a good time is promised to all who attend.

B. P. W. C. Gym Class Has Fine Turn-Out on Wednesday Evening

The Business and Professional Women's club gymnasium class met on Wednesday evening in the senior high school gymnasium with a fine attendance. Several new members were added to the class.

Miss Ona May Moore, instructor of the class, has prepared and arranged exercises which are not only beneficial to each member but also provide an evening each week of enjoyment.

The class has steadily increased in size since the opening of the class a few weeks ago. Several members of the club have announced their intention of joining the class at the meeting next Wednesday evening, which will be held at the regular hour and place.

Book Club Members Entertained at One o'Clock Luncheon

Mrs. Dean Bubar was a charming hostess on Thursday, when she entertained the members of the Book club with a one o'clock luncheon at her home on Cass street. The table was lovely with a centerpiece of red carnations and fern. Valentine motifs completed the pretty table setting. Covers were placed for Mrs. Grace Thibadeau and Mrs. N. Howard, of Caribou, Maine, guests; and members, Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. Charles Hellue, Mrs. M. F. Rice, Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. Paul Bubar, Mrs. A. J. Young and the hostess, Mrs. Dean Bubar.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent in visiting and sewing.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Surprised by Friends on Golden Wedding Day

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Campbell were delightfully surprised on Thursday afternoon, when about twenty of their friends called at their home in West Roseburg in honor of their golden wedding anniversary.

A beautiful golden yellow and white linen luncheon set was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Campbell by their friends. The afternoon was enjoyed by relating past events and playing old love songs on the phonograph.

Later in the afternoon, delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Edgar B. Noland and Mrs. Louis Kohlhagen.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY ACTIVITIES

Unit Holds Important Meeting

A large number were present on Tuesday night, February 4, when the regular business meeting of the unit was held at the armory. A number of important matters were discussed and work was planned with the chairmen of the various committees.

Sewing Day to Be Held

Mrs. W. A. Stephenson, chairman of the hospital committee, and Mrs. Phil Harth, chairman of the child welfare committee, have planned an afternoon of sewing. Mrs. Stephenson has invited all members and friends of the unit who can do so to come to her home on the afternoon of February 12 to sew for needy children and make supplies which are needed for the veterans' hospital in Portland. Any member or friend who wishes to help in this work should call Mrs. Stephenson in order that she might plan the work to the best advantage. At this time there is a special need for children's clothing.

Picture Books Made for Children's Hospital

Mrs. Roy Young, chairman of the work for the Doernbecher children's hospital, reported splendid progress with her work. The unit planned to make a number of picture books for the hospital and a friend of the unit in Portland donated a quantity of bright colored paper for the foundations. Mrs. Roy Young and Mrs. George Ware sewed and bound thirty-five books and following Tuesday night's meeting the members pasted pictures in them. The girls plan to make at least thirty-five more books in the near future. For sanitary reasons these books cannot be passed from one child to another, therefore a great number of books are needed. Anyone having pictures that might appeal to children up to about ten years of age should get in touch with Mrs. Young as these pictures can be used to splendid advantage.

Tin Foil Committee Reports Splendid Progress

The unit is cooperating with the Shriners in collecting tin foil for the Shriners' hospital for children and up to the present time over thirty pounds have been turned in. The country districts and schools are cooperating wonderfully. The school children especially are enthusiastic about this work. Recently some friends of the unit, living in Klamath Falls, sent twelve pounds of tinfoil to the local unit.

Visiting Committee Appointed

The president appointed Mrs. Tom Simmons and Mrs. H. C. Boyle as a visiting committee to serve until next meeting.

To Meet at Oakland

The next regular business meeting of the unit will be held in Oakland on February 18. At that time the following chairman will give complete reports of their work: Child welfare, Mrs. Phil Harth; hospital, Mrs. W. A. Stephenson; membership, Mrs. George Caskey; community service, Mrs. Victor Micelli; constitution and by-laws, Mrs. Walter Fisher; Americanism, Mrs. Richard Busch; guardianship, Mrs. Grant Wilcox; publicity, Mrs. John Flurry; legislative and fidac, Mrs. Clair Pettit; unit activities, Mrs. Clinton Gorthy; music, Mrs. William Burke; flower, Mrs. Ned Dixon; hospitality, Mrs. Gene Fowler; finance, Mrs. Carl Wimberly; custodian of properties, Mrs. Jake Jones. The business session will be followed by a social hour.

Local Members Attend Council

Mrs. Carl Wimberly, district committee woman, and Mrs. Guy Cordon left Friday morning for Medford to attend the Jackson-Josephine council which was held there on Friday night.

Wedding Date of Miss Foree Announced on Thursday Evening

Miss Lois Byrd and Miss Fern Scott were joint hostess at the home of Miss Byrd on Thursday night, when they complimented Miss Mary Foree, who will become the bride of Mr. William Sanders, February 14. Games and music were enjoyed during the evening by Miss Mary Foree, Mrs. Thomas Simmons, Miss Bessie Redbarn, Miss Dorothy and Miss Jennie Dirks, Miss Clarabell Olson, Miss Ruth Myers, Miss Daynise Reese, Miss Hazel Thomason and the hostesses, Miss Byrd and Miss Scott.

Later in the evening the guests were seated at a beautifully decorated table. Pussywillows and daffodills were used as a centerpiece. Tall red tapers were placed at each side of the centerpiece. The placecards, in folder style, opened and disclosed a photograph of Miss Foree and Mr. Sanders, with the marriage date, February 14.

Presbyterian C. E. Has Party Thursday Evening in Church Parlors

A business meeting of the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor executive committee was held on Thursday evening at seven-thirty o'clock. A social hour and party attended by all of the members of the C. E. followed at eight o'clock. Miss Vivian Williams was presented with a C. E. expert pin for bringing in the most new members during the membership drive contest. Miss Esther Myer was given a small silver C. E. pin for bringing the second highest number of new members to the C. E. Those enjoying the party were Rev. and Mrs. Alexander Mufriden, Emery Williams, Bernice Duncan, Ora Luce, Vivian Williams, Eugene Covert, Helen Beaver, Stanley Bosson, Helen Norton, Robert Harding, Dorothy Norton, Garlind Ina Hall, Esther Myer, Thomas Minter, Marjorie Minter, Bernice Torrey, Hayes Lowe, Virginia Lee, Miss Eleanor Sheik, advisor, Katherine and Annabelle Fisher, Mary Banning, Betty Shoemaker, Deloss Richardson and Lester Russell.

Refreshments were served at a later hour after which songs were sung by the young people.

Contract Bridge Club Formed at Fullerton Home Monday Afternoon

One of the latest clubs to be organized in the city is the Monday Afternoon Contract Bridge club, which met at the lovely home of Mrs. Nathan Fullerton the first of this week. The afternoon was enjoyed in playing contract bridge by Mrs. J. C. Hume, Mrs. Howard Waddell, Mrs. John Throne, Mrs. George A. Bradburn, Mrs. L. G. Broadway, Mrs. Harris Ellsworth, Miss Elizabeth Parrott and Mrs. Nathan Fullerton.

Mrs. Stewart Entertains Friends With Dinner Thursday Evening

Mrs. K. R. Stewart entertained a few of her friends at her home on Watson street on Thursday evening with a six-thirty o'clock dinner. Covers were placed for sixteen guests.

Bridge was enjoyed during the balance of the evening with Mrs. John Throne winning first prize and Mrs. Arthur Baum winning second prize.

W. C. T. U. Has Splendid Meeting Wednesday at Woman's Club Rooms

The W. C. T. U. met Wednesday afternoon in the Woman's club rooms with Mrs. E. Wills, president, in charge. Mrs. E. E. Woodcock conducted the devotionals, taking the scripture lesson from Eph. 6th chapter. She spoke on the importance of putting on the whole armor of God as a source of strength in every line of work. She also told of some interesting experiences on her recent trip to Washington, D. C.

Arrangements were made for the county institute to be held in the Presbyterian church Wednesday, February 12. Mrs. Earl Agee, county president, will have charge of the program. Refreshments will be served by the committee appointed. They are Mrs. L. B. Skinner, Mrs. L. Bodle, Mrs. H. A. Winston and Mrs. W. C. Winston.

After the business meeting, Miss Mary E. Findley, field secretary of the National Council for prevention of War, was introduced. She gave a very interesting and edifying lecture on peace. She described the difference between the old idea of patriotism and the new. The old idea of a person who was willing to die for his country and the new who is willing to live and do constructive work for his country, and that America's greatest enemies today are disease, crime and ignorance. She cited several celebrated persons for the great work they have done, such as Frances E. Willard, for prohibition; Thomas A. Edison for science, and Pasteur, whom she considered the greatest hero in history. Her lecture was highly appreciated and enjoyed by the members present.

The meeting was closed with the W. C. T. U. benediction.

Catholic Ladies Hold Meeting to Plan Tuesday Card Party

The Catholic ladies met at the Parish hall on Wednesday afternoon of this week with Mrs. [illegible] as hostess. The meeting was well present. The regular business meeting was held, at which time plans were discussed for the card party to be held Tuesday evening. A pleasant social hour followed the business session.

Mrs. Friauen [illegible] the afternoon. Mrs. Bryan, assisted by Mrs. Kenoy, served refreshments at tables made lovely with bouquets of jasmine.

McKays Are Honored at Farewell Party Last Friday Night

A lovely no-host farewell party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. LaBrie in Garden valley on Friday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McKay, who left Sunday for Eugene, where they will make their future home.

The evening was spent in playing games and visiting. Delicious refreshments were served at midnight to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McKay, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Henry, of Umpqua, Mr. Scott Britt, Mrs. Donna Feramson and daughter, Miss Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parrott, Mrs. Bruce and Mr. Jack Parrott, Mr. and Mrs. James Fogel, Mr. Cyril Fogel, of Bandon, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Potvin, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ritchie, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ritchie, Jr., Labrie and Gene Ritchie, Mr. R. Ewens, Mr. and Mrs. Graham Ewens, Mr. Harvey Ewens, Mr. Harding Knapp, Miss Charlotte and Miss Mary

(Continued from page 3)