World's Principal Overland and Water Routes Have Known Hoover's Presence Since Graduation in 1895

HERBERT HOOVER—World Traveler

"Our people are seeking a larger vision through Art, Literature, Science and Travel"

INAUGURAL ADDRESS—MARCH 4, 1929

(From THE AMERICAN MOTORIST)

WHEN Herbert Hoover was born at West Branch, Iowa, August 10, 1874.

President Grant was serving his second term in the white house. In that year the greenback party was formed to further the use of the "greenback" as legal tender.

Income tax receipts of the government amounted to $140,351,000. They exceeded $2,000,000,000 annually.

Alexander Graham Bell began his investigation of the electrical transmission of speech. Today there are more than 15,000,000 telephones in use.

A bill was introduced in congress to assure transportation of the mails by railroad under contract. However, railroads had been carrying the mails under a semi-permanent arrangement since 1835.

The national debt was $1,277,600,463. Today it is $16,931,157,747.

President Grant invited foreign governments to participate in the Centennial Exposition at Philadelphia. President Hoover as secretary of commerce greatly aided the Sesqui-Centennial in 1926.

The first five cattle were exported from the United States to Great Britain.

IN 1891, when he entered Stanford university.

Benjamin Harrison was in the white house. P. T. Barnum, world-famed showman, died.

Robert E. Peary, accompanied by Mrs. Peary, sailed for the Arctic in the Kite. Congress approved the international copyright bill.

The first Empire State Express over the New York Central and Hudson River railroad, made the run New York to Buffalo in 8 hours and 42 minutes.

The fifty-first congress was making appropriations at such a rate that it was called the "billion dollar congress." It actually appropriated less than $500,000,000. The seventieth congress, just finished session, appropriated $4,560,377,376.26.

IN 1895, when he was graduated from Stanford university.

Grover Cleveland was serving his second term in the white house. Major General Nelson A. Miles assumed command of the United States army.

Cuban revolution started. Estimated national wealth of United States was $77,000,000,000. In 1922 it was $320,803,562,000.

IN 1896, when he was a mining assistant in the West.

Grover Cleveland was near the end of his term as president. The national democratic party declared for the gold standard.

William Jennings Bryan was campaigning on a platform advocating "free silver."

McKinley defeated Bryan for the presidency and carried New York state.

Admission of the state of Utah, formed from a portion of the territory ceded to the United States by Mexico under the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, February 2, 1848.

Famous Dingley tariff bill introduced in congress.

IN 1897, when he was a mining engineer in Australia.

President McKinley entered the white house. The first general treaty between nations, the arbitration treaty between the United States and Great Britain, was signed, but was later rejected by the senate.

United States recognized the belligerency of Cuba and rendered assistance.

FROM 1902 to 1913 he was engaged in engineering projects which carried him into all parts of the world. During this period Herbert Hoover visited the United States, Mexico, Canada, Australia, Italy, Great Britain, South Africa, India, China and Russia. During that time—

1902: Carnegie gave the United States $10,000,000 to be used for advanced study and original research.

1903: Panama canal treaty between the United States and Colombia was signed and ratified by the United States senate.

1904: Pacific cable completed and President Roosevelt sent the first message to the Philippines. Later it reached Japan.

1905: Airplane invented by the Wright Brothers. The first flight, lasting only a few seconds, was made at Kitty Hawk, N. C.

1906: Alice Roosevelt, oldest daughter of the president, was married to Representative Longworth.

1907: President Roosevelt announced his determination to refuse a third term.

1908: First tunnel under the Hudson river opened.

1909: Taft inaugurated as president.

1910: Woodrow Wilson was elected president. Elihu Root was awarded Nobel peace prize for promoting the cause of international peace.

1911: Parcel post system in the United States was put into operation.

1912: Federal reserve banking system act was enacted.

1913-14: Herbert Hoover was European representative of the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

1914-15, at the outbreak of the World war, he was chairman of the American relief commission in Europe.

From 1915-1919, he was chairman of commission for relief of Belgium.

From 1917-1919, he was United States food administrator, in addition to his work in Belgium, and served on various economic and war-time boards.

From 1919-1921, he was vice-chairman of President Wilson's second industrial conference and chairman of the Europe relief council.

In 1921, he was named secretary of commerce by President Harding.

On November 6, 1928, elected president of the United States. Fifteen days later he sailed for Latin America from Los Angeles, visiting San Salvador, Nicaragua, Ecuador, Peru, Argentina, Uruguay and Brazil.

On March 4, 1929, he was inaugurated president.

1929: First tunnel under the Hudson river opened.

1930: Taft elected president.
