ROAD MEETINGS ARE CALLED FOR CUT-OFF PROJECT

South Umpqua Residents Take Chamber Commerce Plan Under Careful Consideration.

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

DAYS CREEK, Feb. 20.—The topic of transcendant interest in the South Umpqua country at present is the local road situation, and more particularly the possibility of a early completion of the Tiller-Trail cutoff, a project so long delayed to number that many in the county have forgotten its existence.

The plan proposed by the Roseburg chamber of commerce to expend $200,000 of the O. & C. funds this year on the four major road projects of the county, of which the Tiller-Trail cutoff is one, is receiving the close attention and consideration of the community organizations along the South Umpqua river. The lead in this matter was taken by the South Umpqua Rod and Gun club at their meeting February 12th and was followed by the Lavadore Community club at a call meeting held at the Lavadore club house Feb. 18th. The Drew Community club has expressed its intention of considering the proposition at the meeting Saturday evening, Feb. 22 at Drew.

For Monday evening, Feb. 24th, Henry Biggam, president of the Lavadore Community club has called a mass meeting of the citizens of the Days Creek community for a general discussion of this and other road matters and finally, it is the intention of the prime movers of the matter to bring all efforts to a focus at the regular meeting of the Rod and Gun club at Tiller Wednesday evening, Feb. 26th.

GLENDALE AND COW CREEK RANCHERS TO HOLD SOIL MEETING

GLENDALE, Feb. 20.—Another meeting of farmers residing in the vicinity of Glendale and on Cow creek will be held next Monday evening at the city hall at which time J. C. Leedy, county agent, will give a talk that will be of interest to all farmers.

Mr. Leedy will come prepared to make soil tests and anyone desirous of having tests made should bring samples of their soil to this meeting. "Samples for acidity testing," according to Mr. Leedy, "are best taken with an auger 1½ to 2 inches in diameter. Where an auger is not available a spade may be used in digging a hole to a depth of approximately seven inches. Leave one side with vertical wall and cut a thin slice of [illegible] from the top to the bottom of this wall. The sample thus taken should be thoroughly mixed and dried to an air dryness. A tablespoonful from this sample is sufficient for the test."

This is the second of a series of meetings sponsored by the Glendale chamber of commerce for the purpose of discussing various farm problems. The first of these meetings was held January 30 when cooperation in production and marketing was discussed. So much interest was shown at this first meeting that it was decided to hold a number of meetings for the purpose of becoming better acquainted and for mutual discussion and help, according to R. M. Eberle, president Glendale chamber.

TODAY'S MARKETS

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 20.—Butter, butterfat and flour prices took [illegible] for material declines today.

Butter of all grades went down 2c, butterfat 3c and flour 25c a barrel. Butter extras were quoted at 34c, butterfat at 33c delivered Portland and family patent flour at $7.10.

Egg prices were unchanged, but the undertone was weak.

Reviewing the fruit and vegetable situation, the Portland bureau of the United States department of agriculture says:

"Lettuce market is weak, but not yet demoralized, as has usually been the case with 250-car shipments from that district. Twenty-one cars of lettuce were on track at Portland yesterday, prices are cheap, and active local distribution is being obtained.

"Although potato loadings still total 700-800 cars daily, much difficulty is being experienced in the [illegible] on account of muddy roads which prohibit hauling in [illegible]. The market at Yakima advanced sharply to $14.00 per ton for stock grading 75 per cent U. S. No. 1, while 85 per cent stock brought $16.00.

"[illegible] market is weak, some stock is being consigned by Idaho district growers, and Oregon [illegible] are working overtime trying to find satisfactory outlets for current loadings.

"Roseburg cauliflower shows much improvement over earlier harvestings, and now sells on a par with California stock. Spinach is [illegible] asparagus declined further, to 25c per lb. to retailers.

"[illegible] cucumbers grown in Oregon are again on the market after a two months' absence."

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 20.—Flour [illegible] delivery prices—25 cents a barrel lower; family patents, 49s, $7.10; whole wheat, 49s, $6.30; graham, 49s, $6.30; bakers hard wheat, 98s, $6.30; bakers' bluestem patents, 98s, $7.00; pastry flour, 49s, $6.90.

Cane sugar (sacked basis)—Steam; cane fruit or berry $5.15 per cwt. Beet sugar $5.00 cwt.

A Quality You Would Insist Upon If You Knew All of the Facts

Fact No. 16

Only a few years ago, western America introduced vacuum packed coffee to the world—and more recently vacuum packed tea. For fine coffee, the vacuum tin is now universal practice. For tea, it still remains the secret process of the originators—Schilling. The flavor of tea evaporates just like coffee, only more slowly, and it is months (frequently a year) before tea reaches you from the Oriental tea gardens. Much as you may have enjoyed your tea, you have missed much of its original rare flavor. But now it is preserved for you.

Facts Nos. 17 and 18

(ALSO GREEN TEA JAPAN)

Both a tea leaf and a coffee bean, must be toasted to drive off the moisture, which helps to rob it of flavor. Good coffee is packed in vacuum immediately after roasting. Tea is toasted at the tea gardens, then sealed in large chests lined with lead. When it arrives in America it is repacked in ordinary tins or even cardboard boxes. And that's where the damage is done! But this is how Schilling does it. As the tea is poured from the lead-lined chests, it is toasted again, and while still hot (just like your coffee) it is sealed in vacuum. Schilling Tea comes to you as fresh and fragrant as it left the Orient—the only tea that is completely protected from the tea garden to you.
