

WOMEN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

By LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER
All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and Personalities—Should Be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

Club Affairs and Social Events

Have been many during the past week and several brilliant occasions will be enjoyed by society during the coming week.

The wedding of Miss Margaret Wilson to Herbert Groves was an interesting and pretty affair at Sunday afternoon at Riddle. Several showers have been given during the past week, which have been enjoyed.

The Roseburg music teachers have been busy which are holding considerable attention and interest among music lovers of the city. Miss Gladys Strong presented a few of her pupils in a recital on Tuesday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Strong. Mrs. Charles S. Heinline is giving a series of music lessons at her home on Saturday afternoon.

Two outstanding events of next week will be the Elks' dance on Wednesday evening and the Roseburg Women's club card party which will be sponsored on Friday evening.

Pleasant Evening Spent at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Rapp Monday

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Rapp entertained with a lovely informal seven o'clock dinner at their home honoring Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pickett on their second wedding anniversary on Monday evening of this week. The table was beautiful with a centerpiece of yellow daffodils. Pineapples and favors were carried out in tones of blue.

Later in the evening friends were invited for bridge. Those enjoying the evening included, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pickett, Miss Dorothy Giddea, Miss Norma Winston, Miss Hazel Strickland, Henry Gunnerson, Carl Holman, Julius Berg and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Rapp.

A delicious twelve o'clock supper was served to the guests by Mrs. Rapp, assisted by Mrs. Pickett.

Miss Lois Ann Whipple Entertains With Valentine Party on Friday Evening

A most enjoyable evening was spent by members of the younger set on Friday evening, when Miss Lois Ann Whipple entertained with a Valentine party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Whipple, on Duane street. Pansy willows and daffodils were arranged attractively in the rooms. Games and visiting were enjoyed by the young people. Those present were Miss Sabina Nertas, Miss Anna May Thrath, Miss Allena Brown, Miss Patricia Neal, Miss Phyllis Ann Butler, Robert Huff, Emmet Fullerton, Harrison Winston, George Bachler, Jack Gonsler, Paul Harzels and the hosts, Miss Lois Ann Whipple.

A dainty lunch was served at a late hour by Mrs. Whipple.

Mr. Hewitt Complimented on Birthday With Duck Dinner Tuesday Evening

Mrs. Mollie B. Hewitt entertained with a lovely six o'clock duck dinner at her home north of Roseburg on Tuesday evening, complimenting her son, Leland Hewitt, on his birthday anniversary. The table was lovely with a centerpiece of spring flowers. Covers were placed for Mr. Leland Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Hewitt, Miss Helen Hewitt, Mrs. Margaret Hewitt, Ivan Hroel, Edwin Booth and Billy Hewitt and the hosts, Mrs. Mollie B. Hewitt. The evening was spent playing cards and visiting.

Informal Dinner Enjoyed at Kohlhaugen Home on Friday Evening

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kohlhaugen entertained with an informal six o'clock dinner at their home on West Roseburg on Friday evening. Yellow and white spring flowers graced the center of the table. Covers were placed for Miss Josephine McKibbin, Miss Veronia and Miss Piza Kohlhaugen, J. W. French, of The Dalles, Joseph Fredrickson, of Medford, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Kohlhaugen.

Couple Are Married in Roseburg Saturday

Miss Maude B. Holt, of Portland, and C. E. Freed, of Myrtle Creek, were married on Saturday, February 16th at the Presbyterian manse by Rev. Alexander Matthews. Lemuel B. Shankland and Mrs. Maudie Menden were witnesses to the ceremony.

The bride was a prominent music teacher in Portland and the bridegroom is well known in Myrtle Creek.

St. George's Episcopal Guild Has Fine Meeting on Wednesday Evening

St. George's Episcopal Guild met in the parish house for the regular business and social session on Wednesday evening. Twenty-four members were present. Mrs. S. D. Evans and Mrs. M. Thilston were the hostesses of the evening.

The regular business meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Willard Johnson and the plans and arrangements were made for a hotcake and coffee supper, which will be given on Friday, Tuesday, March 5, from 7:30 to 7:55 o'clock. The public has been invited to attend this supper.

A pleasant social hour was enjoyed and lovely refreshments were served by Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Thilston at a later hour.

Umpqua Squaws and Guests Are Entertained by Mrs. Lyman Spencer

Mrs. Lyman Spencer was a most gracious hostess on Wednesday evening when she entertained the Umpqua Squaws and their friends at her home on North Jackson street. The regular business meeting was held after which bridge was played. Mrs. Fred Green won first prize for the evening. At a later hour, Mrs. Spencer served dainty refreshments at small tables centered with bouquets of yellow daffodils. She was assisted in serving by Mrs. Virden and Mrs. Judd. Guests of the evening were Mrs. T. B. Virden, Mrs. Storey Iles, Mrs. John Ewell, Mrs. A. Richards and Mrs. Fred Green. Members present included Mrs. Charles S. Heinline, Mrs. Walter Day, Mrs. Thomas H. Ness, Mrs. M. Judd, Mrs. Alva Wetherell, Mrs. P. J. Hohl, Mrs. Horace Berg, Mrs. H. C. Darby and Mrs. R. L. Whipple.

The next meeting of the Umpqua Squaws will be on the second Wednesday in March at the home of Mrs. J. M. Judd on South Jackson street.

Dinner Enjoyed at Marsh Home in Glengary on Sunday

A pleasant family affair of the past week occurred on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Marsh in Glengary, when the members of the family assembled to celebrate the birthdays of the oldest and youngest members.

There were four generations seated at the table, which was centered with a bouquet of spring flowers and two large birthday cakes. Covers were placed for Winfield S. Wright, who recently passed his 84th birthday, Arthur W. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Marsh and grandson, Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Cox, Guy Cox and little George Walter Cox, who just passed his second birthday.

Former Roseburg Resident Now Editing Newspaper

According to word received here, Miss Harriet Haldeman, of Toccoa Falls, Georgia, is now editing the Toccoa Falls Echo newspaper. Miss Haldeman is also the house mother of the Toccoa Falls Institute.

Miss Haldeman resided in Roseburg for a number of years, before moving east. She was a prominent Roseburg stenographer, having worked for several years at the courthouse and in various lawyers' offices. She was also known as a soloist.

Members of Royal Arch Chapter Entertain Ladies With Dinner

The members of the Royal Arch chapter of Masons entertained their ladies on Tuesday evening with a six o'clock dinner in the Elks' dining room. Following the dinner, the men went to the lodge rooms, where a short business meeting was held.

At the close of the business meeting, cards were enjoyed until a late hour.

Perfect Evening Gown

Mrs. Virgil Bush Entertains Northside Sunshine Club Thursday

The Northside Sunshine club members were entertained on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Virgil Bush at her home on West First street. Spring flowers in bright hues were charmingly arranged in the living room. A short business session in charge of the president, Mrs. L. W. Engles, was held during the early part of the afternoon. Visiting and sewing were enjoyed following the business session, after which delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Bush to Mrs. William Fisher, Mrs. Russell Hansen, Mrs. S. C. Darland, Mrs. Marsters, Mrs. B. F. Chilson, Mrs. William Stark, Mrs. Effie Marsters, Mrs. Walter Kurtz, Mrs. Robert Chilson, Mrs. G. Marsters, Mrs. Maurice Weber, Sr., Mrs. L. W. Engles, Mrs. Clair Pettit, Mrs. Elsie McComas and Mrs. Fred Bowen.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. F. Chilson on Winchester street.

Presbyterian C. E. Society Enjoys Party on Friday Evening

The Presbyterian Christian Endeavor society members enjoyed a delightful party in the church parlors Friday evening. The rooms were decorated in red and white valentines by Esther Meyer, Bernice Duncan and Ruth Partin. A seven o'clock supper was served by Vivian Williams, Bernice Duncan, Miss Eleanor Sherck and Helen Norton, to Rev. and Mrs. Alexander Muirhead, Hayes Lowe, Helen Deaver, Lester Russell, Eugene Covert, Esther Meyer, Robert Hillwell, Gertrude Hall, Stanley Bosson, Bernice Torry, Ora Lane, Margaret Metzger, Emory Williams, Helen Wilson, Robert Harding, Dorothy Norton, Osborn Hanson, Glenn Wilson, Ruth Partin, Ruth Houlick, Lewis Wilson, Marlon Webber, Ida Webber and Ruth Meyer.

Games were enjoyed for several hours following the supper. The clean-up committee was composed of Robert Hillwell, Gordon Norton, Philip Scherfke and Miss Sheik. The entertainment committee was composed of Vivian Williams, Bernice Duncan and Glenn Williams.

"The Busy Bees" Entertained by Mrs. Byrd Saturday Night

Mrs. J. F. Byrd entertained the members of her Sunday school class, The Busy Bees, at her home on Saturday evening. Games, contests and music were enjoyed by the young people. Those present were Charlotte Westcott, Mildred Morlan, Lois Morlan, Rebecca Crawford, Angelina Springstead, Elizabeth Bellon, Mary Ellen Innes, Mildred Grimm, Mable Greenlaw, Geraldine Walker, Kathleen Beizat, Betty Jean Byrd, Robert Morris, Robert McKeane, Harry Pivison and George Grimm.

Later in the evening, Mrs. Byrd served dainty refreshments.

Baptist Missionary Society Meets Thursday

The Baptist Missionary society met in the church parlors on Thursday afternoon of this week with a large attendance of members present. Mrs. B. E. Crawford was the leader for the afternoon and a most interesting meeting and program was enjoyed.

Mrs. Wharton Is Hostess to Book Club on Thursday

Mrs. C. W. Wharton was a charming hostess to the members of the Book club on Thursday when she entertained with a one o'clock luncheon. Yellow daffodils arranged attractively with greenery graced the center of the table. Covers were placed for Mrs. H. H. Stapleton and Mrs. I. G. Broadway, guests, and Mrs. M. F. Rice, Mrs. Charles S. Heinline, Mrs. A. J. Young, Mrs. Dean B. Buhar, Mrs. P. T. Hubar and Mrs. C. W. Wharton, members.

The afternoon was spent in visiting and sewing.

Several Interesting Affairs Enjoyed in Glendale This Week

Mrs. J. C. Jones and her two daughters, Mrs. Alma Archibald and Miss Florence Johnson, were given a pleasant surprise last Thursday evening when a number of their friends arrived to spend the evening. After listening to the tribulations of Amos and Andy over the radio the remainder of the evening was spent playing bridge, followed by refreshments. The visitors were, Mrs. L. C. Busey, Mrs. J. A. Dewey, Mrs. Mattie Heller, Mrs. Stella Smith, Mrs. M. A. Bates, Mrs. C. R. Danofsky and Miss Alice Nebel.

Mrs. L. L. Miller Complimented With Lovely Affair Tuesday

A lovely affair of the past week complimenting Mrs. L. L. Miller was held at the home of Walter Hercher at Dilhard, when Mrs. L. L. Miller, Mrs. Harry Davis and Mrs. Chester Laurance entertained on Tuesday afternoon. The rooms were lovely with large bouquets of pussy-willows, yellow and white narcissus and greenery. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in sewing for Mrs. Miller and visiting. Those present were Mrs. L. L. Miller, Mrs. T. Parkinson, Miss Eva Rice, Mrs. Shields, Mrs. Ray Laurance, Mrs. Fred Burk, Mrs. Willard Laurance, Mrs. Lawrence Hercher, Mrs. R. A. Hercher, Mrs. C. E. Meyer, Mrs. Herbert Williams, Mrs. J. P. Williams, Mrs. J. E. Evans, Mrs. A. M. Babby, Mrs. William Blair, Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Sam Miller, Mrs. Lunnas, Mrs. Virgil Rust, Mrs. R. R. Davidson, Mrs. Stanford Buell, Mrs. DeLloss Coon, Mrs. Fred Buell, Mrs. Hubbard, Mrs. Rummel, Miss Gladys Johnson, Mrs. J. Harold Nichols, Mrs. S. A. Roser, Mrs. G. B. Laurance and Mrs. J. Hankin.

Later in the afternoon many lovely gifts were presented to Mrs. Miller from her friends, after which lovely refreshments were served by Mrs. Hercher, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Laurance.

Yoncalla Ladies Study Club Hold Meeting on Saturday Afternoon

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Study club of Yoncalla was held at the home of Mrs. Thoresa Warner, Saturday afternoon. Roll call was answered by relating some incident in the life of Lincoln. The student loan fund benefit, which the club will hold March 13 was discussed in order to make the club's contribution this year the largest ever. The program hour was devoted to an abbe account of the life and works of the well known author, Zola Gale, which was prepared by Mrs. Annie Kruse. Mrs. Leona Mery very graciously told of a visit to the burial place and later to the home of Lincoln, during her visit east, recently. She brought away with her a most interesting memento from Lincoln's burial place.

Mrs. Warner served a delicious lunch to the following members, Mrs. Blanche Daugherty, Mrs. Edith Thompson, Mrs. Annie Kruse, Mrs. Maudie Applegate, Mrs. Leona Mark, Mrs. Zedie Bishop, Mrs. Earl Strong, Mrs. J. J. Kenny, Mrs. Marjorie Lawson, Mrs. Clara West, Mrs. Jess LaWall, Mrs. W. A. Nasher and Mrs. Ellen Warner. Mrs. Elvira Rice, Mrs. Fred Kruse and Mrs. Tom Wallace were guests.

Miss Ethel Rice Is Complimented on Birthday Sunday

A lovely birthday dinner was enjoyed at two o'clock on Sunday when Mrs. E. L. Rice entertained in honor of her daughter, Miss Ethel Rice's birthday. Covers were placed for Miss Ethel Rice, Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Asker and daughter, Mrs. Carol, Miss May Solomon, Charles Solomon, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Krantz, Norman Krantz, Maxine Weikie, Wac Della, Douglas, Eva and Harrison Rice and Mrs. E. L. Rice.

Many lovely gifts were presented to Miss Rice from the guests. The afternoon was enjoyed by playing games and visiting.

Umpqua Unit Holds Meeting at Oakland

An interesting meeting of Umpqua unit was held Tuesday night, February 19th at Oakland. In spite of inclement weather a very large number attended, including members from various towns throughout the county.

Chairmen of the various committees gave reports covering their work since the state department meeting in August. The first report given was by Mrs. Paul Harth, chairman of the child welfare committee. Mrs. Harth reported a number of visits to homes of needy ex-service men in outlying districts. Food and clothing were supplied and hospitalization secured for several children. Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets were given to the needy and a considerable number of children's garments have been made. Mrs. Woodley Stephenson, chairman of the hospital committee gave an interesting report showing that her committee had also been very active. Visits have been made to the Soldiers' Home to determine the needs of the World War veterans there. A great deal of sewing has been done for the Veterans hospital in Portland. An entertainment was given at the Soldiers' home at Christmas time and presents provided for the veterans. Reading material has been supplied for the library at the home.

The veterans have been entertained in the homes of Legion members and plans have been made for a number of automobile drives when the weather permits. A number of garments which were made by the two committees were displayed at the meeting, also a

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY ACTIVITIES

Umpqua Unit Holds Meeting at Oakland

An interesting meeting of Umpqua unit was held Tuesday night, February 19th at Oakland. In spite of inclement weather a very large number attended, including members from various towns throughout the county.

Chairmen of the various committees gave reports covering their work since the state department meeting in August. The first report given was by Mrs. Paul Harth, chairman of the child welfare committee. Mrs. Harth reported a number of visits to homes of needy ex-service men in outlying districts. Food and clothing were supplied and hospitalization secured for several children. Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets were given to the needy and a considerable number of children's garments have been made. Mrs. Woodley Stephenson, chairman of the hospital committee gave an interesting report showing that her committee had also been very active. Visits have been made to the Soldiers' Home to determine the needs of the World War veterans there. A great deal of sewing has been done for the Veterans hospital in Portland. An entertainment was given at the Soldiers' home at Christmas time and presents provided for the veterans. Reading material has been supplied for the library at the home.

The veterans have been entertained in the homes of Legion members and plans have been made for a number of automobile drives when the weather permits. A number of garments which were made by the two committees were displayed at the meeting, also a sample of the picture books which were made for the Larnabee Children's Home. Mrs. Clifton Gray gave a most interesting report covering unit activities. In report of Mrs. George Casey, chairman of the membership committee, gave the present membership of Umpqua unit as 288 which is the high mark for unit membership in the state of Oregon. The following reports were also given: Community service, Mrs. C. E. Allen; Americanism, Mrs. Richard Busch; publicity, Mrs. John E. Furry; hospitality, Mrs. Gene Fowler; finance, Mrs. Carl Wimberly. The memorial poppy contest was explained by Mrs. Irvin H. Riegel. Speakers have appeared in several of the schools of the county and the contest has been received enthusiastically by both teachers and pupils. Prizes are offered by the state, auxiliary and Umpqua unit is also offering six prizes. Rules of the contest can be secured from Mrs. Riegel.

Umpqua Unit Holds Meeting at Oakland

Pillow Shower to Be Given

At the next meeting of Umpqua unit on March 4, each member is requested to bring a feather pillow covered with bright snuff material. Any size or shape of pillow is acceptable and a number are needed. These pillows will be donated to the Veterans' hospital in Portland.

Social Hour Held

Following the business meeting which lasted until a late hour, the unit joined the Legion for a social get-together and dance. At midnight refreshments were served. Mrs. Edwin Young was in charge of arrangements for the auxiliary meeting.

Miss Margaret Wilson Becomes Bride of Herbert Groves Sunday

One of the prettiest weddings of the season occurred on Sunday when Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Augusta Wilson of Riddle, was wedded to Herbert W. Groves, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Groves of Roseburg. The nuptials took place at the home of Mrs. Wilson in Riddle at four o'clock Sunday afternoon.

The service was read by Rev. Charles A. Edwards, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of Roseburg, before a beautiful improvised altar of greenery.

Mrs. Harriett Groves Weatherford played the wedding march and Floyd Groves sang "Dawn" preceding the ceremony. Before the bridal procession, Miss Wima Jeanne Wilson, dressed in a pretty coral sequoia dress, scattered rose petals along the aisle from an arm basket.

The bride was lovely in a model of golden tulle, cut with matching slipper. She wore a bridal wreath, which her mother had worn at her wedding 40 years ago. She carried an arm bouquet of roses, sweet peas and freesias. She was attended by her twin sister, Mrs. Kenneth Atterbury, who was charming in a model of puffed gown. She carried an arm bouquet of pink and white carnations. John Weatherford acted as best man to the bridegroom.

The ring ceremony was used and bride was given away by her brother, Dr. C. R. Wilson, of Silverton.

Following the service, a reception was held with Mrs. J. J. Deets presiding; Mrs. C. E. Wilson and Mrs. W. W. Wilson, all of Roseburg, W. W. Willis and daughter, Miss Evelyn and Mr. and Mrs. Elton Bollenbaugh, of Canyonville; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Groves, of Green; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Schultz and son Billy, of Portland; Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Wilson, of Silverton; Dr. J. P. Whelan, of Medford; Washington, Mrs. C. B. Haddock, of Vancouver; Washington, Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Betts and daughter, Miss Vada Mae, of Glengary; Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Wilson and children, Wilma Jeanne, Henry, and Dewey Jr., of Marshfield; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Groves, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Weatherford, Floyd Groves, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Frazer, Frank Letts, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lusk, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Atterbury, all of Roseburg.

The bride's going away costume was a suit of green tulle with matching hat and accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Groves left immediately on a wedding trip to southern California. They will be at home to their friends after March 15th at their new home in Laurelvood.

The bride is well known in Roseburg, having worked in this city after graduating from the Riddle high school. The bridegroom was graduated from the local high school in the class of 1925. They have many friends here who wish them much happiness.

Mrs. Finlay Entertains Bridge Club at Her Home on Tuesday Afternoon

Mrs. G. C. Finlay was hostess to the members of the Tuesday afternoon bridge club at her home on South Main street this week. Large bouquets of beautiful yellow daffodils enhanced the rooms. The dining room was most attractive with bouquets of spring flowers, soft yellow light and yellow tapered daffodil yellow daffodil placecards completed the pretty table setting. Mrs. Ralph Jones won the guest prize of the afternoon and Mrs. R. L. Whipple received the club prize. Those enjoying the day were Mrs. Ralph Jones, Mrs. John McChintock and Mrs. Carl B. Neal, guests, and E. R. Harvey, Mrs. A. J. Fawcett, Mrs. Warren N. Hazen, Mrs. Clyde S. Henninger, Mrs. George H. Jackson, Mrs. Albert A. Snyder, Mrs. R. C. Cunningham, Mrs. C. L. Normoyle and the hosts, Mrs. Alvin G. Henninger. The card tables, favors and luncheon in the room were suggested by George Washington's birthday. The house interior was very suggestive of spring with tastefully arranged groups of narcissus, daffodils and fragrant blue violets. At a beautifully decorated luncheon table dainty refreshments were served.

Younger Set Enjoys Party at Allumbaugh Home on Tuesday

Miss Juanetta Allumbaugh entertained a few of her friends on Tuesday afternoon observing her twelfth birthday anniversary. A pretty pink and white color scheme was used in the rooms. Covers were placed at a table made lovely with flowers for Miss Lois Wellman, Miss Thelma Parks, Miss Jean Goddard, Miss Mary Ellen Fairby, Miss Eugenia M. Virden, Miss Clea Neal, Miss Lue Helen Strange, Miss Frances Allumbaugh, Miss Geraldine Walker, Miss Frances Chapman, Miss Helen Catehling, Miss Dorothy Germond, Miss Helen Newland, Miss Kathleen Riegel and Miss Juanetta Allumbaugh.

Elks to Sponsor Dance Next Wednesday Evening

The Elks lodge has arranged for a delightful dance to be given on next Wednesday evening at the Elks temple. The committees in charge of the dance have completed arrangements and state that this dance will be the outstanding ball of the season.

Each Elk has been given the privilege of inviting one couple as guests of the evening.

Seasonal Stylish Travelog Coat

A chic merger of fashion and geography is the new traveling coat introduced to Hollywood. An Arctic scene is skillfully embroidered upon the lining of a new winter wrap.

Dillard Ladies Aid Entertained by Mrs. S. A. Roser Thursday

The Dillard Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. E. A. Roser at Winston on Thursday afternoon of this week. An interesting program consisting of talks by Mrs. Iva Hankin, Mrs. B. H. Davidson, Mrs. Rummel and Mrs. Ursula Meyer were given. Miss Gladys Johnson sang a solo accompanied by Mrs. Herbert Williams. Mrs. C. B. Lawrence gave a recitation. A dainty offering was taken at the close.

For Evening Attire

This chic afternoon costume consists of a black and white chiffon dress, with black satin coat, which ties in large bow in the front. The dress is made with ends, which drape at uneven lengths around the bottom. The sleeves of the jacket are split almost to the elbow, and lined with the black and white print chiffon.

Informal Dinner Enjoyed at Calhoun Home Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Calhoun entertained Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones with a one-thirty o'clock dinner at their home in the Calhoun smart on Sunday of this week.

Following the dinner, the party enjoyed several hours of motoring.

(Continued on page 3)