Mrs. Anna M. Ellis Entertained Thursday by Eastern Star

One of the largest and most interesting fraternal and social affairs of the section was the entertainment provided for Mrs. Anna M. Ellis, associate grand conductress of the order of the Eastern Star, on Thursday of this week. A one o'clock luncheon, arranged in her honor by the officers, was held in the private dining room of the Umpqua hotel, at which covers were laid for twenty, including the officers of the Roseburg chapter, the past grand officers residing here and the guest of honor. The decorations in the room were carried out in George Washington effect. The table, in charge of Mrs. G. C. Finlay, was beautifully decorated in yellow. A low basket filled with daffodils graced the center of the table. Matching placecards and favors completed the setting.

At two o'clock, Mrs. Ellis called a school of instruction for the officers in the Masonic temple and a very instructive meeting was held, as all of the officers were present. In the evening, at eight o'clock, the regular business meeting was held and all work of the chapter explained. Special music was arranged by Mrs. Herbert Williams and Mrs. Fred Strang and more instructions in ritualistic work were given by Mrs. Ellis. At the close of the session, refreshments were served in the banquet room with Mrs. M. E. Ritter and Mrs. Paul Bubar as joint chairmen.
