LUMBERMEN, NOT McNARY, BLAMED

(Associated Press Local Wire)
PORTLAND, March 17.—W. L. Thompson, banker and president of the Columbia River Packers' association, said today "The attack being made on United States Senator Charles L. McNary by some of the lumbermen of the state is unwarranted."
Thompson blamed the lumbermen themselves for the circumstance that no lumber tariff has been enacted. Their own failure, he said, "to adequately present their case," is largely accountable.

LIBERTY—Last times today "Miss Pat," with Belle Bennett and Joe E. Brown, talking and sound effects; Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, "Let's Go Places," with Sharon Lynn, Lola Lane, Walter Catlett, Dixie Lee, all-talking; Friday and Saturday, "Hungarian Rhapsody."

If you have any doubt that Roseburg is getting some splendid motion picture entertainment, glance over this week's schedule for the Antlers theatre.

"Cameo Kirby," John Gilbert and Richard Dix will all be seen at the Antlers this week. The first picture opened yesterday. It is a picture of life on a Mississippi river steamboat in the early days when the old stern wheelers served as the chief means of transportation between St. Louis and New Orleans. J. Harold Murray as "Cameo Kirby" is good and has excellent support from Norma Terris, Stepin Fetchit, the elongated darky who has been seen in a number of shows recently, furnishes some laughs.

John Gilbert, the secret sorrow of many a winsome maid, will be seen Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in "His Glorious Night," an all-talking picture and Richard Dix comes Friday and Saturday in "Seven Keys to Baldpate," which is credited with being his funniest talkie to date.

SPENCER'S
A MAN'S SHOP

...in a hostess it's CHARM!

... in a cigarette it's TASTE!

THE unvarying better taste of Chesterfield has won millions of smokers—and continues to win millions more.

Only the choicest cigarette tobaccos are used, carefully selected for their satisfying mildness, their smoothness, fragrance, and wholesome richness. Blending and cross-blending gives them added smoothness, and brings out their best smoking qualities.

The inevitable result is better taste—the better taste that sets Chesterfield clearly apart from all other cigarettes—

"TASTE above everything"

MILD, yes... and yet THEY SATISFY
