Attractions AT THE MOVIES

ANTLERS—Today and Saturday. Richard Dix in "Seven Keys to Baldpate," at-talking.

LIBERTY—Today and Saturday. "Hungarian Rhapsody."

It takes a good movie to please every theatre goer, but "Seven Keys to Baldpate," which opened at the Antlers last night, had very few critics. This is Richard Dix's newest talking production and it's a dandy. To review the plot would spoil the thrill for those who go to the Antlers today and tomorrow. It is enough to say that there isn't a foot of the film that isn't interesting. It's a mystery picture and a genuine "mystery thriller," so "melodramatic" in fact that it is good comedy.

Do you see what's left out of this Rice Pudding Recipe? Beat 2 eggs and add 1 1/2 cups hot milk, 1/4 teaspoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg. Pour mixture over 2 cups of steamed rice. Bake in buttered dish set in a pan of water, for about 45 minutes at 325°, or until custard is set.

Or course you know what's left out! Sugar! And if you add one-half of a cup you will have perfect results and a most nourishing dessert in the bargain. Try this recipe soon. As the palatability of a pudding depends upon sugar, so does the taste appeal of certain familiar foods depend upon a dash of sugar. For example, canned or fresh vegetables, also stewed fruits, are much more appetizing when flavored thus.
