

WOMEN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

By LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and Personals—Should Be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

GENERAL delightful informal birthday affairs have been enjoyed this week, as well as the usual club gatherings and social parties.

The university dance, which will be held at the Oriental Gardens tonight, promises to add much pleasure to the week's activities.

With the leaving of the university students for Eugene tomorrow, social events among the younger set will be slower until the summer months.

Several delightful affairs are being arranged by social matrons for next week and many clubs will meet to make preparations for after-Easter activities.

Mrs. Thomas Brown Is Surprised With Birthday Party Friday

Mrs. Max Ruff entertained with a delightful surprise party at her home on Friday evening complimenting Mrs. Thomas Brown. The rooms were made attractive with bouquets of assorted spring flowers arranged with preservatives. Several beautiful gifts were presented to Mrs. Brown by her friends and a pleasant evening was spent in visiting.

At a later hour Mrs. Ruff served lovely refreshments at a large table centered with a huge birthday cake. Covers were placed for Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Edward Patterson, Mrs. Elmer Metzger, Mrs. O. O. Jennings, Mrs. David Smith, Mrs. J. B. Hughes, Dick Ruff, Max Ruff and the hostess, Mrs. Ruff.

No-Host Dinner Given Husbands by Badoura Club on Tuesday Night

The Badoura club, daughters of the Nile, met in the Roseburg community club rooms on Tuesday evening at which time Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. Frank W. Chase, Mrs. Roy Entler, Mrs. S. G. Senick and Mrs. M. B. Green, chairman, were in charge of a no-host dinner complimenting their husbands. A six-ty-one o'clock dinner was served at one long table, beautifully decorated with flowers, narcissus and gladioli. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. William Bell, Dr. and Mrs. George A. Bradburn, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Chase, Mrs. Roy Entler, and daughter, Miss Eleanor, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Philbert, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wells, Dr. and Mrs. Charles H. Wade, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gerretsen, Judge and Mrs. George Quine, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Norban, Mr. S. G. Senick and daughter, Miss Frances, Mr. and Mrs. Iolo Stephens and Mr. and Mrs. John Thorne.

Following the dinner a short business meeting was held with the president, Mrs. William Bell, in charge, after which bridge and piano were enjoyed during the balance of the evening.

Basketball Boys and Friends Entertained With Dinner by Mrs. Iles

Mrs. Storey Iles entertained the Roseburg high school basketball team and their friends at her home on Tuesday evening with a six-ty-one o'clock dinner. The high school colors of orange and black were artistically carried out in all of the rooms and on the dining table. Large black bowls holding bouquets of orange colored flowers, streamers and large balloons were used. Covers were placed for Dr. A. C. Sweety, H. H. Turner, Dr. G. C. Finlay, Don Knicker, Garland Iles, Linson Hoffman, Jack Koenig, Charles Stans, Paul Babbe, Rex Applegate, E. A. Britton, Arthur Durand, Ben Larson, Thomas Bayles, Worth Wilts and Storey Iles.

Mrs. Iles was assisted in serving by Mrs. S. L. Kiddler.

Following the dinner, contests, games and cards were enjoyed until a late hour.

University Dance to Be Held at Oriental Gardens This Evening

One of the outstanding events of the week will occur tonight, when the Associated Women Students of the University of Oregon will sponsor their annual dance at the Oriental Gardens tonight. The Five Organizations will furnish the music for the evening.

Mrs. Jessie Judd is chairman of the dance and her committee is Miss Lily DeBernardi, Miss Jean Whitney, Miss Ruth Hoover, Miss Dorothy Husebark, Miss Maxine Moore and Miss Helen Bergh.

Mrs. Ness and Family Join Mr. Ness on Birthday at Marshfield

Mrs. Thomas H. Ness and children of Laurelhurst, visited at Marshfield on Wednesday, where they were joined by Mr. Ness. They enjoyed Mr. Ness' birthday dinner on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Marion Ness, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ness, will leave the city for the University of Oregon.

Mrs. Herbert D. Quine Entertains Friends With Bridge Party Wednesday

Mrs. Herbert D. Quine entertained her friends with a bridge party at her home on Chadwick street on Wednesday evening of this week. The rooms were charming with bouquets of daffodils and narcissi. Bridge was played during the evening, Mrs. Howard H. Turner winning first prize and Mrs. Allen Dewitt holding first score. Those enjoying the evening included Mrs. Leroy Hatt, Mrs. Roy Catching, Mrs. Richard Coen, Mrs. T. T. Mackenzie, Mrs. Howard H. Turner, Mrs. H. E. Larson, Mrs. Albert Bradford, Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Mrs. Grant Osborn, Mrs. J. A. Denn, Mrs. Allen Hewitt, Mrs. Woodley Stephenson, Mrs. John McKittrick, Mrs. Joseph Dost, Mrs. Hugh Whipple and Miss Eva Rice. Later in the evening, lovely refreshments were served by Mrs. Quine, assisted by Mrs. Bradford and Mrs. Osborn.

Mrs. Frederick E. Hartung Is Charming Hostess to Bridge Club on Monday

Mrs. Frederick E. Hartung was a charming hostess to the members of her bridge club at her home in Laurelhurst on Monday afternoon. Bouquets of daffodils and flowering quince were arranged throughout the rooms. Bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. Edward Kohlman winning first prize. Those present were Mrs. Maurice J. Newland, Mrs. Edward Kohlman, Mrs. Chester Morgan, Mrs. Harold Booth, Mrs. Albert Miesch, Miss Helen Skipworth, of Eugene, and Miss Eva Rice. A dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Hartung in the afternoon.

Miss Helen Skipworth, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Skipworth, of Eugene, has been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hartung for the past week. She is a student of University of Oregon.

Several Out of Town Visitors Are Guests of Hartungs on Saturday

Mrs. Frederick E. Hartung entertained several out-of-town visitors with a one o'clock luncheon at her home in Laurelhurst Saturday. A pretty bouquet of daffodils and flowering quince graced the center of the table. Covers were placed for Judge and Mrs. G. P. Skipworth and daughter, Miss Helen, of Eugene; Mrs. M. L. Pipes, Miss Mable Ford, of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Hartung, of Molalla, Oregon, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Hartung and son, Tommy.

Later in the afternoon, the guests, with the exception of Miss Helen Skipworth, departed for their homes.

Spring Is Nigh Newer Fashions Cry

Fashion has an ardent purveyor in the young lady shown here wearing a new spring model made by the late Herbert and Lotis-Parker under royal patronage of the show from the 1916 trademark of the dress.

One o'Clock Dinner Enjoyed at Oliver Johnson Home

A one o'clock dinner was enjoyed on Sunday of this week, when Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Johnson asked a few of their relatives and friends to their home. Covers were placed for Mrs. M. A. Fuller, Miss Florence Fuller, of Ashland, Mrs. Alva Wetherell and daughter, Miss Helen, Mrs. Agnes Hanson, Lorey and Harold Johnson and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Johnson.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent in visiting.

No-Host Bridge Club Enjoys Dinner Monday at P. T. Bubar Home

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bubar entertained the No-Host Bridge club at a six-ty-one o'clock dinner at their home on First Lane street on Monday evening of this week. Shades of yellow were used in the decorative scheme. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Leo Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Green, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Kiddler, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. P. Rice and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bubar.

Bridge was enjoyed during the remainder of the evening with Mrs. D. H. Morgan and I. B. Kiddler winning the first prizes.

St. Patrick Ball Is Huge Success of Monday, March 17

The Neighborhood of the Woodcraft club sponsored a St. Patrick's day ball at the Macomber hall on Monday night of last week. A large crowd was present for the evening and a delightful time was enjoyed. The music was furnished by the Melody Marvels. Late in the evening the men members of the lodge, who were hosts for the evening, served refreshments.

Delightful Surprise Shower Given to Mrs. Walter Fredrickson

Miss Vera and Miss Agnes Fredrickson entertained with a surprise shower on Monday evening at the Banks apartments complimenting Mrs. Walter Fredrickson, a recent bride. The rooms were attractive with bouquets of yellow daffodils and orange lilies. Refreshments were served by the hostesses at a later hour at small tables. Dainty sprays of narcissus and greenery placed in wicker and silver baskets graced the center of each table. The favors and precursors were yellow. Covers were placed for Mrs. Walter Fredrickson, the honor guest, Mrs. Fred Herman, Mrs. Charles Pickett, Mrs. Fred J. Porter, Mrs. Harry Fletcher, Mrs. Bert Courtney, Mrs. Arthur Priole, Mrs. John Ritter, Mrs. Joseph DeBernardi, Mrs. C. E. Fredrickson, Mrs. A. J. Hawn, Miss Josephine McElhinny, Miss Rena Wild, Miss Beadie Redburn, Miss Esther Miller, Miss Lois Byrd, Miss Claudia Householder, Miss Hazel Patten, Mrs. Miss Lenora Helliwell and Mrs. Joseph Ritter.

Following the refreshments, Mrs. Fredrickson was given a lovely shower. She received many useful gifts from her friends. Mrs. Fredrickson returned from Santa Barbara, California, a week ago and will make her home in the Banks apartments. Many affairs are being arranged in her honor. She was Miss Evelyn Hawn before her marriage.

Mrs. John Kovaly Is Hostess to S. C. C. Club on Wednesday

Mrs. John Kovaly was a most gracious hostess to the members of the S. C. C. club at her home on Second Avenue North on Wednesday afternoon of this week. The rooms were attractive with several bouquets of spring flowers. Bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. C. C. Archibald winning the guest prize and Mrs. Ernest Taylor receiving the club prize. Guests of the afternoon were Mrs. C. C. Archibald and Mrs. Maurice Newland. Club members present included Mrs. E. Waldo, Mrs. Ernest Taylor, Mrs. R. E. Jones, Mrs. H. U. Cochran, Mrs. Glenn Claver, Mrs. A. B. Grubbe, Mrs. M. R. Ivie, Mrs. M. N. Nelson and Mrs. H. L. Connelly. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Kovaly.

M. O. A. Club Members Are Entertained by Mrs. John Marks

Mrs. John Marks entertained the M. O. A. club on Wednesday afternoon at her home in Riverside. The rooms were decorated with daffodils, ferns and wild currant sprays. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in visiting and sewing, after which lovely refreshments were served by the hostess, with Mrs. William C. O'Connell assisting. Those enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. George Biekie, Mrs. Bert Custer, Mrs. Cleo Tipton, Mrs. Helen Holmhold, Mrs. Charles Mohr, Mrs. Kenneth Cook, Mrs. Edward Helmholt, Mrs. Mary Davis, Mrs. Ralph Harding, Mrs. Percy Powers, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. John Traub, Mrs. Paul Jones and the following visitors: Mrs. Doyle, Mrs. L. A. Allen, Mrs. Bergh, Mrs. L. Common, Mrs. H. Riddle and Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Marks.

Dr. and Mrs. Bradburn Entertain With Dinner For Mr. and Mrs. Hume

Dr. and Mrs. George A. Bradburn entertained with a lovely dinner at their home, Merin Place, on Saturday, March 15, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hume, who left the 15th for a trip to Hawaii. Mrs. Bradburn was assisted in serving by Mrs. W. P. Chapman and Mrs. Nathan Fullerton.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook Complimented With Lovely Affair Monday

One of the loveliest and most delightful affairs of the past week was the no-host turkey dinner given at "Ramble Inn" on Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. A. Lockwood complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Cook, who left for Portland Friday morning to make their home. The long table was lovely with tall candelabras, bouquets of spring flowers and Easter motifs. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Cook, and the following officers of the Easter Star: Mrs. Alda Williams, Mrs. A. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wimberly, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perrier, Miss Helen Hewitt, Mrs. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. G. C. Finlay, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Connelly, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hercher, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Pezley, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cordick, Dr. and Mrs. George Hook, Miss Pearl Jones and Mrs. A. Mitchell. Mrs. Cook assisted Mrs. Lockwood in serving.

Mrs. Seeley Is Hostess to West Melrose Embroidery Club Thursday Afternoon

Mrs. E. M. Seeley entertained the West Melrose Embroidery club on Thursday afternoon. The rooms were lovely with several bouquets of spring flowers. A short business meeting was held after which a pleasant time was spent in sewing and visiting. Later in the day, Mrs. Seeley assisted by Mrs. Heuter and Mrs. Brothers, served dainty refreshments to Mrs. H. C. Thomson, Mrs. Lydia Wilson, Mrs. Green, Mrs. C. O. Critcher, Mrs. W. G. Cooper, members and guests, Mrs. Amelia Williams, Mrs. Clara Galla, Mrs. Letha Livingston, Miss Mildred Critcher and Clyde Cooper.

The next meeting will be held on April 9 at the home of Mrs. Lydia Wilson.

Egg Shell Satin Gown

This gown is elaborated with finest convent lace and interwoven with silver thread on a soufflé foundation. The circular features are the flares for the skirt which present a particularly interesting feature.

Mrs. F. L. Calkins Entertains New Idea Club on Wednesday

The ladies of the New Idea club met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. L. Calkins in Edenbowser. After a short business meeting, a pleasant afternoon was spent in sewing and visiting. The rooms were lovely with bouquets of wild currant artistically arranged. Later in the day, Mrs. Calkins served lovely refreshments assisted by Mrs. C. F. Calkins and Mrs. G. B. Calkins. Those present were Mrs. V. R. Buckingham, Mrs. G. S. Jones, Mrs. J. H. Porter, Mrs. R. Smith, Mrs. R. H. Williams, Miss Ethel Marks, Mrs. E. A. Clemons, Mrs. D. G. Clark, Mrs. A. I. Addison, Mrs. W. D. Hess and Miss Patricia Calkins.

Sunday Dinner Enjoyed at Ferguson Home at Days Creek

Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson entertained with a dinner at their ranch home at Days Creek on Sunday of this week. Covers were placed for Miss Floy Strader, of Ashland Normal school, John Lander, Jr., Donald, Helen and Bruce Ferguson, of Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Ferguson, of Days Creek, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson.

Mrs. Woods Is Hostess to Melrose Home Economics Club on Thursday

Mrs. Emma T. Woods was hostess to the members of the Melrose Home Economics club at an all-day meeting on Thursday of this week. Mrs. Woods served a lovely one o'clock luncheon to Mrs. O. O. Matthews, Mrs. E. R. Penn, Mrs. D. N. Busenbark, Mrs. Topping, Mrs. H. P. Conn, Mrs. Royce Allen, Mrs. C. E. Mahley, Mrs. T. B. Busenbark, Mrs. L. E. Thompson, Mrs. Royce Busenbark, Mrs. J. W. Bass and Mrs. Max Meyer.

Mrs. Ness and Mrs. Darby Entertain Lady Elks With Lovely Party

Mrs. Thomas H. Ness, retiring president of the Lady Elks, and Mrs. H. C. Darby, 1931 president, were joint hostesses to the Lady Elks members at a lovely party on Thursday evening at the temple. The rooms were artistically arranged with many bouquets of buckthornery sprays, daffodils, and other spring flowers. The tables were beautiful with bouquets of carnations, anemones and ferns. Yellow tapers completed the pretty setting.

Bridge was enjoyed during the evening. Mrs. Harry Stearns was awarded the series prize. Mrs. Stanley Kiddler won the prize for the evening with Mrs. I. B. Riddle winning the table prize and Mrs. C. W. Packer receiving second prize.

Later in the evening delicious refreshments were served to the guests by Miss Marion Ness and Miss Mona Porter.

Mrs. Deets Hostess to Bridge Club on Friday Afternoon

Mrs. Joseph Deets was a gracious hostess on Friday afternoon at her home on Mill street when she entertained the members of the Friday Afternoon Bridge club. The rooms were bright with several bouquets of spring flowers. Bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. A. B. Taylor winning both the first prize and the table prize. Second prize was won by Mrs. Frederick E. Hartung. Guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Frederick E. Hartung, Mrs. John McKittrick, Mrs. Allen Wickham, Mrs. W. B. Brown and Mrs. Willis Myers. Club members included Mrs. William Strohmeyer, Mrs. Charles Boyd, Mrs. Woodley Stephenson, Mrs. Grant Osborn, Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Mrs. Victor Short, Mrs. A. H. Perrin, Mrs. L. W. Metzger, Mrs. J. A. Denn and Mrs. W. O. Clinger.

Lovely Informal Party Enjoyed at A. J. Ford Home on Tuesday Night

Mrs. A. J. Ford, Mrs. James Tynan and Mrs. John A. Zimrick were hostesses to the ladies auxiliary of the O. R. B. at the home of Mrs. Ford on Tuesday evening, the occasion marking the birthday anniversary month of Mrs. Ford, Mrs. Zimrick, Mrs. W. W. Bonebrake and Mrs. C. R. Fryam. Cards were enjoyed during the evening with Mrs. Bonebrake receiving the prize.

Many People Enjoy Guild Pancake and Waffle Supper Wednesday

St. George's Guild of the Episcopal church enjoyed a most successful pancake and waffle supper on Wednesday night at the Parish house. A large number of people were served by the committee in charge of the supper, Mrs. Willard Johnson, president of the Guild, was general chairman.

Enjoyable Evening Spent at Dr. George Bradburn Home on March 20

Dr. and Mrs. George Bradburn, Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Broadway and Mrs. J. F. Barker entertained at Merin Place, home of Dr. and Mrs. Bradburn, on Thursday evening, March 20. The rooms were decorated with lovely spring flowers and the guests enjoyed an evening of music and conversation.

Taffy Pull and Card Party Enjoyed at Conn Home in Melrose

A delightful time was had on Saturday night, when several members of the younger set gathered at the home of Miss Grace Conn in Melrose for a taffy pull and card party.

Tweeds for the Spring Complete the Wardrobe

April 10 Set as Date for Organ Recital at Christian Church

An interesting and much anticipated event by music lovers of Roseburg is the pipe organ concert of unique variety and excellent musicianship, which will be given by Alice Clement, bachelor of music, student of Linfield college conservatory, under the auspices of the Douglas County Music Teachers' association. Miss Clement will be assisted by Mrs. Charles Brand, soloist and vocal instructor of Roseburg, whose numbers never fail to please her listeners.

Miss Clement has taught piano and organ at Linfield college at McMinnville, Oregon, for the past eight years. She has a musical background of the highest type, having studied in Germany, in addition to training in several of the conservatories of this country. Her programs have a direct appeal to her audience, through thorough musical scholarship, sympathetic interpretation and her own sincere, radiant personality.

The concert will be given at the First Christian church on Thursday evening, April 10. This will be one of the most outstanding cultural events of the year and which no doubt will be attended by a large number.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY ACTIVITIES

Poppy Poster Contest to Close April 15th

Much interest is being shown in the poppy poster contest which is being held in the schools throughout the state by the American Legion Auxiliary. Rules for the contest have been mailed to teachers throughout the county and speakers have appeared before many of the larger schools. In addition to the prizes offered by the state department of the auxiliary, Umpqua unit is giving six prizes to pupils in Douglas county; three prizes to be awarded to pupils in Roseburg city schools and three prizes to be awarded to other schools throughout the county. The posters submitted are to be used to advertise the annual Memorial day poppy sale and should illustrate in some way the reasons for the poppy sale. The contest closes on April 15th.

National President to Visit

According to present plans, Umpqua unit is to be honored by a visit from Mrs. Ernest McKittrick, national president of the American Legion Auxiliary, some time during the month of May. Mrs. Macrae made an enviable record during the World war for her home service work and has also won distinction for her work in a number of other philanthropic and service organizations. Her visit to this city will be of wide interest and plans are now under way for a district conference to be held here during her visit. Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly and Mrs. C. K. Allen are in charge of plans for the conference.

Work of Auxiliary Lauded By Women's Magazines

The April issue of the Woman's Home Companion carries an article by Anna S. Richardson in which she sums up the objectives of the auxiliary thus: "Personal service to the permanently disabled in hospitals; rehabilitation of ex-service men and the welfare of their families; community service of any sort which will raise civic and patriotic standards; safe and adequate defense in the interest of the nation." The April issue of Good Housekeeping also carries a splendid message from Mrs. Macrae, the national president.

Miss Elizabeth Williams and Mrs. Willis Myers in Recital Monday Night

Music lovers will be very much interested in a recital to be given next Monday evening by Miss Elizabeth Williams, pianist, assisted by Mrs. Willis Myers, soprano. Mrs. Williams is a pupil of Miss Gladys H. Strong. She is well-known as a pianist as she has played in public frequently. In her earlier recitals she has shown unusual talent and her playing has been both artistic and brilliant. Her new program is well-balanced and very interesting. Mrs. Myers is a well-known soprano voice. She is a pupil of Mrs. Charles A. Brand. She will sing two groups of songs.

Days Creek P. T. A. Sponsors Delightful Program Last Week

An enjoyable affair of the last week was the parent-teacher organization meeting and program at the Days Creek high school. The short business session was in charge of the president, Archie Ferguson. This was followed by a two hour program sponsored by the parents.

Days Creek P. T. A. Holds Meeting on Tuesday Evening

A meeting of the finance committee of the Days Creek parent-teacher association met at the school house on Tuesday with a committee from the student body, and discussed plans for raising funds to help finance the 4-H club boys and girls, who wish to attend summer school. It was decided to hold another entertainment and a seven o'clock dinner on the evening of April 18, with a small admission charge.

April 10 Set as Date for Organ Recital at Christian Church

An interesting and much anticipated event by music lovers of Roseburg is the pipe organ concert of unique variety and excellent musicianship, which will be given by Alice Clement, bachelor of music, student of Linfield college conservatory, under the auspices of the Douglas County Music Teachers' association. Miss Clement will be assisted by Mrs. Charles Brand, soloist and vocal instructor of Roseburg, whose numbers never fail to please her listeners.

P. N. G. Entertained at V. T. Jackson Home on Thursday Evening

The Pasi Nolle Grading club met on Thursday evening, March 27 at the home of Mrs. V. T. Jackson with Miss Mrs. Fisher, Miss Ina Leach and Mrs. Jack-son as hostesses. The regular business session was held with Ethel Husebark, vice president, in charge, owing to the absence of Alice Goff, president. The monthly prize was drawn by Clara Castfield. After refreshments were served by Mrs. Frances Cook, Mrs. Helen Carstensen, Mrs. Lella Chalmers, Mrs. Vera Wilmer, Mrs. Alva Wetherell, Mrs. Ger-

(Continued on page 3)