SON'S BIRTHDAY IS OCCASION FOR SURPRISE PARTY

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
SUTHERLIN, April 1.—Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Cooper gave a surprise party Friday evening at their home in honor of their son Harvey's eighteenth birthday. The evening was spent in dancing and playing games.
A delicious two course lunch was served at the close of the evening. The table was decorated with spring flowers and a birthday cake decorated with lighted candles.
The high school senior class and members of the faculty presented Harvey with a beautiful pen and pencil set. Other useful and beautiful gifts were given by other friends.
Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Lee Myers, Ruby Cutler, Dick Rose, Howard Davis, Ouel Cordon and Edith Parks, of Roseburg, Charles Epperly, Sam Looney, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Easley, of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lee, Marguerite Anderson, Nellie Carroll, Marie Klev, Philip Carroll, of Eugene, Lily Haviland, Lloyd Goff, Nite Gifford, Geraldine, Leonida, Dunbar, Harvey and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Cooper.
Mrs. Easley and Mrs. Lee assisted the hostess.

LEONA CAR WRECKED TRYING TO MISS COW

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
LEONA, April 1.—Harvey Miller, son of N. S. Miller of Leona, received a broken nose and numerous cuts and bruises in an auto accident which occurred Sunday and from which his father and his brother, Sloan, and Henry Allen escaped unhurt. The car was being driven into Cottage Grove when a cow suddenly stepped out from the brush into the road. To avoid striking the animal Mr. Miller swerved the car sharply to the right and it skidded off the road and landed in a pile of logs, where it rolled over twice. The car was badly wrecked, but the occupants, with the exception, were not hurt.

Rheumatic Pains Indigestion Gone

"Sargon did me more good in a few weeks than everything else I used no matter how faithfully I took it."
"I was in bad health for 4 years. I'd have attacks of indigestion and I suffered agonies with neuritis pains in my arms and shoulders and sometimes sciatic pains would grip me so I could hardly walk. Sargon completely corrected my indigestion, my arms and shoulders are free of neuritis pains and the sciatic condition has entirely disappeared. I'm full of new strength and energy and can once more give all my time to my work. Sargon Pills completely relieved me of constipation."—Edward E. Dixon, 4099 29th Ave., Seattle.
