WOMEN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

By LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and Personals—Should Be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

THE past week has been filled with many delightful and enjoyable affairs. An enjoyable event of Sunday was the family reunion dinner honoring Abner Rice at his home in Dillard, at which 85 guests were present. Mrs. Mary Bonebrake also received congratulations on Friday of last week, on her 93rd birthday.

Dr. and Mrs. George M. Bradburn, Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Broadway and Mrs. J. F. Barker entertained with a lovely dinner party at Merlin Place at Winston on Monday evening. Mrs. Bradburn, Mrs. Broadway and Mrs. Barker also entertained with a delightful bridge luncheon at Merlin Place on Friday afternoon, at which 52 guests were bidden. Many of these were from out of town.

The recital on Monday evening, in which Miss Gladys Stronk presented Miss Elizabeth Williams, and Mrs. Charles Brand presented Mrs. Willis Myers, was a most enjoyable event.

Judge and Mrs. J. D. Elliott, of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, are interesting visitors in this city this week. They are the parents o. Mrs. Willard Johnson, of Laurelwood. Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. Johnson were complimented with a lovely affair given by Mrs. W. H. Gerretsen and Mrs. Roy Entler at the Entler home last evening.

An enjoyable affair for the younger set was the dinner given by Mrs. Frederick J. Porter Friday night, complimenting her sister, Miss Shirley Knight, whose engagement to Roy Blaine Houser, of Albany, was announced.

The Business and Professional Women's club Bosses banquet was one of the most outstanding events of the week and was a most enjoyable and successful affair.

The Alice Clement organ concert to be given next Thursday night at the Christian church is being anticipated by music lovers of the city. Mrs. Charles Brand, soloist, will assist Miss Clement.

Miss Shirley Knight's Engagement Told at Dinner Friday Evening

The engagement of Miss Shirley Knight to Roy Blaine Houser, of Albany, was told at a pretty six o'clock dinner given by her sister, Mrs. Frederick J. Porter, in the Hotel Umpqua private dining room on Friday evening. A large basket of pink tulips and several bouquets of pink carnations arranged with fern were used in the room. The table was centered with a low bowl of pale pink rosebuds and pink streamers. Four tall pink tapers and tiny pink heart favors were used. A corsage bouquet of a large Easter lily, centered with a pink rosebud and greenery and tied with dainty colored ribbons was placed beside each cover. The place-cards were small white envelopes holding tiny cards engraved in gold announcing the engagement of the couple.

Covers were placed for Miss Shirley Knight, honor guest, Miss Marjorie Knight, Miss Hazel Strickland, Miss Dorothy Geddes, Miss Violet Houlik, Miss Violet Houser, Miss Vera McClintock, Miss Abbie Clair Herschinger, Miss Norma Winston, Miss Margaret Hewitt and the hostess, Mrs. Porter.

Following the dinner, the guests went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Knight on West First street, where several hours of music and visiting were enjoyed.

Mrs. Johnson and Mother, Mrs. Elliott Honored at Lovely Bridge Party

Mrs. W. H. Gerretsen and Mrs. Roy H. Entler were charming hostesses on Friday evening at the Entler home in Laurelwood, when they complimented Mrs. Willard Johnson and her mother, Mrs. J. D. Elliott, of Sioux Falls, South Dakota. The house was beautiful with several bouquets of spring flowers and bridge was enjoyed during the evening by Mrs. Willard Johnson and Mrs. J. D. Elliott, honor guests, Mrs. C. C. Archibald, Mrs. Ralph Smith, Mrs. Edward Post, Mrs. D. H. Morgan, Mrs. Edith Gilmore, Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. H. R. Nethas, Mrs. Fred Green, Mrs. Nathan Fullerton, Mrs. Lee Wells, Mrs. Ialo Stephens, Mrs. John Throne, Mrs. A. J. Young, Mrs. Albert Mitchell, Mrs. M. J. Shoemaker, Mrs. George A. Bradburn, Mrs. M. B. Green, Mrs. Thomas H. Ness, Mrs. J. A. Denn, Mrs. J. K. Falbo, Mrs. H. O. Pargeter, Mrs. H. C. Church and the hostesses, Mrs. Gerretsen and Mrs. Entler.

Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Elliott received guest prizes and Mrs. Nathan Fullerton received the first prize in bridge.

At a later hour, Mrs. Gerretsen and Mrs. Entler served lovely refreshments at prettily decorated small tables. Each table was centered with a small bouquet with matching favors.

Mrs. Johnson will leave in a few days with her parents, Judge and Mrs. Elliott for Sioux Falls, South Dakota, where she will spend two months visiting. She will be accompanied by her two children.

Delightful Dinner Enjoyed at Merlin Place at Winston on Monday of This Week

Dr. and Mrs. George A. Bradburn, Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Broadway and Mrs. J. F. Barker entertained at Merlin Place, the home of Dr. and Mrs. Bradburn at Winston, with a six-forty-five o'clock dinner on Monday evening. Two large tables were used. A large bouquet of spring lilies and two small bouquets, placed in green bowls, were used on the tables. Tall yellow tapers, dainty place-cards and favors completed the perfect setting. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harding, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. George Adams, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Waddell, Mr. and Mrs. H. Ellsworth, Mr. and Mrs. George Bolter, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Skinner, Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Berrie, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Baum, Miss Elizabeth Parrott, Gene Parrott and the hosts and hostesses, Dr. and Mrs. Bradburn, Mr. and Mrs. Broadway and Mrs. Barker.

The hostesses were assisted in serving by Mrs. C. W. Wharton.

Bridge was enjoyed during the evening with Mrs. C. A. Lockwood winning first prize for the ladies and Mr. A. G. Sutherland winning first prize for the men.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Entertain Out of Town Guests at Informal Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Johnson entertained with an informal six thirty o'clock dinner at their home last Thursday evening, complimenting Mrs. Jennie Wade, of Eugene, and Mrs. Leona McDonald, of Sumner, Oregon. Covers were placed for Mrs. Wade, Mrs. McDonald, Loren and Durward Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Johnson.

The evening was pleasantly spent in visiting.

Family Surprises C. E. Fredrickson on Birthday Anniversary Tuesday

C. E. Fredrickson was surprised on Tuesday evening by the members of his family in honor of his birthday anniversary. Music and visiting were enjoyed until a late hour, when Mrs. Fredrickson served light refreshments to Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fredrickson and daughter, Miss Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Fredrickson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe DeBernardi and daughter, Miss Joanne, of Glide, Miss Vera, Miss Agnes, Miss Ruth, Oliver, Hugo, Douglas and Sidney Fredrickson.

Executive Committee of Missionary Society Plans Year's Work on Tuesday

The executive committee of the Presbyterian Missionary society met on Tuesday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. Charles Roberts on Fowler street.

The 1930 program for the society was planned, after which Mrs. Roberts served tea to Mrs. Alexander Muirden, Mrs. Barton Helliwell and Mrs. E. Ullrich.

Ideal Garment for Semi-formal Party

The princess frock of black satin, which is pictured, is considered quite the ideal garment for the afternoon or semiformal occasion. This form-fitting gown is of ankle length.

Mrs. Abner Rice Entertains With Surprise Party for Husband on Sunday

One of the largest events of the past week occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Rice on Sunday, when Mrs. Rice invited the relatives of the family to their home for a one o'clock chicken dinner, honoring Mr. Rice's birthday anniversary.

Eighty-five guests were present for the day. The rooms were spring-like with many bouquets of spring blossoms and greenery. A huge birthday cake was placed in the center of the large table. The cake was beautifully decorated and dated.

Following the dinner Mrs. W. C. Winston told a most enjoyable and interesting story of times in 1853 and recited a poem about the Indians. Mrs. Victor Phipps also gave a reading, which was followed by a delightful Irish song by Ira Boyer. Mr. Rice's three sons, Victor, Abner, Jr., and Roy, played a number on their musical instruments, which was greatly enjoyed.

Miss Betty Jean Cyrus gave a reading, followed by a story of the early days by Mrs. Abner Rice. Mrs. Redding and Miss Marie Christian also gave readings, followed by an Irish story told by Mr. Freeman.

Mrs. Louis Kohlhagen, of Roseburg, who is an aunt of Abner Rice, gave an enjoyable talk on Mr. Rice's past life. Mr. Rice then gave a short talk and thanked the guests for the many gifts that had been given him and remarked that he was greatly surprised and pleased with the party.

Rice Brothers' orchestra played several numbers and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis played a violin and piano number.

Mrs. Robert Phipps, Mrs. W. C. Winston and Miss Eva Rice are outstanding pioneers in Douglas county and many delightful old stories were remembered and enjoyed by everyone. Later in the day, outdoor sports were enjoyed by the guests.

Mrs. Rice was assisted during the day by Mrs. Joe Sheridan, Mrs. Wilcox, Mrs. Christian and Mrs. Oliver Henry.

Mrs. Mary E. Bonebrake and Granddaughter Enjoy Birthday Anniversary

Mrs. Mary E. Bonebrake received congratulations from her family and many friends on her 93rd birthday anniversary, Friday, March 28, at the home of her son, George A. Bonebrake on South Deer creek. It was also the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Bonebrake's granddaughter, Mrs. W. Lloyd Graves, of Portland, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Van Buren, of Roseburg.

Those visiting Mrs. Bonebrake and Mrs. Graves on Friday were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bonebrake, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bonebrake, Mr. and Mrs. George Bonebrake, Mrs. F. E. Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. William Van Buren, Mrs. C. L. Briner, of Portland, all children of hers; and the following grandchildren: Mr. and Mrs. Vernon V. Hartung and family, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Weber and son, Junior, Robert and Grant Bonebrake and William Stock.

The new home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bonebrake is the old homesite of Mrs. Mary E. Bonebrake and is where practically all of her children were born. She is an old pioneer of Douglas county, having crossed the plains by oxen team in 862 from Iowa. She has spent practically all of her life since that time in Roseburg and at South Deer creek. She is still enjoying the best of health.

Miss Norma Jean Shrum Celebrates Birthday With Easter Party Today

Little Miss Norma Jean Shrum celebrated her second birthday today at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Shrum. The children played games during the afternoon.

Later in the day, the guests were seated at a beautifully decorated table. The Easter motif was carried out in the place-cards and napkins and the favors were tiny bunnies filled with confections. A large birthday cake was used as a centerpiece and each guest had an individual birthday cake with a candle burning in the center of it. Mrs. Shrum was assisted in serving by Mrs. George Casebeer.

Those enjoying the party were Miss Patricia Nichols, Raymond Andrus, John Dixon, Miss Shirley and Junior Shrum, Miss Doris Jean Kniss, George Crenshaw, Miss Charline Thurston, Miss Barbara Shrum and Miss Norma Jean Shrum.

Lady Elks Will Enjoy Social Evening Next Thursday at Temple

The Lady Elks will meet next Thursday evening at 8:00 o'clock in the Elks temple for their regular meeting and social evening. Mrs. Elmo Mahlen and Mrs. A. B. Taylor are joint hostesses for the evening.

Cards will be played and a social time enjoyed.

Spend Week-End at Circle H. Lodge

Mr. and Mrs. William Hopkins and Miss Bertha Thurman, of Roseburg, enjoyed a pleasant outing last week-end, when they motored to Circle H lodge. They state that the roads are now passable and that they had a most enjoyable time during their stay at the lodge.

Officers of Business and Professional Women's Club

The Roseburg Business and Professional Women held their annual Bosses' Dinner at the Hotel Umpqua at 6:45 p. m. on Friday evening April 4th, being one of the most elaborate events of the season, about 120 guests being present.

The tables and decorations carried out the idea of April showers. The tables were beautifully decorated with Oregon grape and spring flowers, tall yellow tapers and small nut cups of green with orange umbrellas and kewpie dolls completing the decorations. Apple blossoms in large baskets and other spring flowers were used about the room.

Mrs. Blanche Cook acted as toast-mistress and the following program was given: It was pointed out that the members of the local club represent nearly every line of work.

Due to the inability of Miss Cecelia Beyler to be in attendance, Miss Ada Albert, president of the Portland club gave the main address of the evening, which was thoroughly enjoyed.

Dr. E. B. Stewart who was present gave a short address, explaining his trip to Washington, D. C., and the veterans' home. Hon. J. W. Hamilton also addressed the group expressing his thanks for the occasion and his respects for the club.

After the program, J. R. Farrington asked that the guests give a rising vote of thanks to the girls for the pleasant evening.

Stella Spencer, local vice-president of the club, was general chairman, Blanche Cook and Elizabeth Heidline, joint chairman, Laura Iles and Maude Kidder, decorations and Minnie Clark dinner chairman; Bess Wharton had charge of the favors.

The local club feels honored that one of their members, Dr. Lucetta A. Smith, is state vice-president.

These dinners are an annual event of the club, giving their bosses a better understanding of the club and its ideals.

The Roseburg club is enjoying a very successful year and working towards a public tennis court which they hope to have in use this spring.

A district meeting of the clubs in this district is to be held at Marshfield this evening at a banquet at the Chandler hotel at 6 p. m. and several of the Roseburg members are planning on attending.

The address of welcome, given by Katherine Kenny, president of the local club, who said:

"It is indeed with a great deal of pleasure that we of the Roseburg Business and Professional Women's club welcome you, our bosses and guests on this, our second bosses' dinner.

"During the time our local club has been organized we have felt that as Roseburg business women we had many things to be proud of, chiefly among these being our bosses, and in this way we have an opportunity to acquaint you with our club and its ideals for we feel that our club is really worth while not only as a civic organization and the services we can perform in that way, but as a special benefit to the members themselves in their everyday work, giving them personal contact with others traveling the same road of life, which gives them more enthusiasm, that driving force that carries us on when physical strength seems about to fail, when courage weakens and when the future looks dark.

"As a club we are ever anxious to do our part in any movement for the advancement and betterment of Roseburg.

"And we are appreciative to you, our bosses, for the interest you have taken in our club and the support you have given us and the time you have given us for club work in our efforts to make better business women for a better business world in Roseburg. We welcome you."

Maurice Newland, president of chamber of commerce gave the response.

Several songs and musical numbers were enjoyed. Miss Naomi Scott played a violin solo accompanied by Mrs. H. L. Landers.

Guests and members present were: Miss Ada Albert, Maurice Newland, Dr. Lucetta Smith, W. F. Chapman, Katherine M. Kenny, J. R. Farrington, Elizabeth Heidline, Dr. Chas. A. Edwards, Dr. A. C. Seely, Ethel Webb, Dr. E. B. Stewart, Ila Laubach, Dave Lenox, Ella Lenox, C. E. Mansfield, Rena Wills, Dr. G. C. Finley, Maude Kidder, Judge W. S. Hamilton, Tillie Johnson, O. L. Johnson, Rev. R. B. Shoun, Verna Carothers, Mrs. A. J. Geddes, Josephine McElhinny, J. E. McClintock, L. E. McClintock, Stella Spencer, Lyman Spencer, Harry C. Stearns, Harriett G. Weatherford, C. Walter Groves, Faye Geddes, Glenn Wimberly, Stella Ayers, Richard Willett, Horace C. Berg, Joyce Hanley, B. S. Nichols, Eva Coy, E. S. Hall, Rose Jones, Judge J. W. Hamilton, Helen Magers, Vivan Jackson, Gretia Spaur, Geo. Spaur, Maurice Bowker, Anna Mae Hemmingson, E. R. Kenny, Grace Ehlert, May Baldwin, Mrs. H. C. Darby, Mrs. E. B. Stewart, Naomi Scott, Rev. Alexander Muirden, Anita Harding, J. A. Harding, Minnie Clark, J. H. Clark, Laura Iles, Story Iles, Ellen Post, Dr. B. R. Shoemaker, T. E. Post, Vera Klore, Vernon Orr, Anna McGoon, Geo. Smith, May Pyron, L. E. Clyde, Eugene, Gwendoyin BaBarr, Verlie Tracy, Ona May Moore, B. E. Larson, Bess Wharton, Sam J. Shoemaker, Mattie Perry, C. S. Heinline, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Carstens, Blanche Cook, Dolma Grobe, Helen May Fisher, W. H. Fisher, Lillie Petty, E. A. Petty, Marian Brand, Chas. Brand, C. F. Hopkins, Edith Gilmour, W. F. Harris, H. O. Pargeter, Elizabeth Garrett, Napoleon Rice, Helen Hewitt, Dr. Geo. E. Houck, Agnes Hahn, M. R. Brown, Beatrice Ott, W. E. Ott, Mona Porter, C. C. Archibald, Katherine Young, Wayne E. Jones, Donold Young, Margaret Carr, Jack Wharton, Martha Yoe, Dorothy Landers.

Mrs. M. F. Rice Entertains Monday Bridge Club This Week

The Monday Afternoon Bridge club members were the guests of Mrs. M. F. Rice on South Jackson street this week. Spring flowers were prettily arranged in the rooms, where bridge was enjoyed. Mrs. Fred Green won first prize for the day, after which Mrs. Rice served lovely refreshments.

Miss Veatch and Miss Magers Entertain With April Fool Party Tuesday

Miss Enid Veatch and Miss Helen Magers entertained with a delightful April Fool party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Leedy on East Lane street, on Tuesday evening of this week. The various types of spring flowers were attractively arranged in the rooms, where earthquake bridge was enjoyed. Mrs. Sam Shoemaker won first prize for the ladies, J. C. Leedy received first prize for the men and Mrs. Guy Perrin was given the consolation prize.

Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Shoemaker, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Watson, Mr. and Mrs. McReynolds, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Perrin, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Leedy, Mrs. Curt B. Neal, Scott Williams and Miss Veatch and Miss Magers.

At a later hour the hostesses served April Fool refreshments which were followed by a dainty lunch.

Miss Jessie Gibbs Is Married to Frank Waggoner in Medford

Coming as a complete surprise to their many Roseburg friends was the marriage of Miss Jessie Gibbs to Frank Waggoner at the home of Miss Gibb's sister, Mrs. Harold L. Boucock in Medford, Saturday, March 29.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Gibbs, of Roseburg, and was one of the city's most talented and popular members. For the past few years she has been a student at Oregon State college, where she was prominent in music circles. The bridegroom formerly lived in Portland, and was also a student of Oregon State college. He has accepted a position in one of the Medford banks, where they will make their future home.

Enjoyable Party at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Paden Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Paden entertained a few of their friends at their home on Saturday evening. Dancing and cards were enjoyed during the evening by Mr. and Mrs. A. Carlson, of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kniss, of Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hawkins, of Happy valley, and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Paden.

At a later hour, Mrs. Paden served delicious refreshments to the guests.

Organ Concert to Be Delightful Event of Next Thursday Evening

The program for the organ concert to be given by Alice Clement next Thursday evening, at the Christian church, has been sent to those sponsoring the concert, and promises to be of unique interest. Miss Clement entitles her program "Westward Ho Through Four Centuries." Her numbers are arranged in four scenes, exemplifying four distinct and successive periods in history. Her last group or scene illustrates some of the beauties of nature in Oregon. Miss Clement preludes her numbers with verbal explanations and descriptions, which add much to their interest and appreciation.

Mrs. Charles Brand, prominent Roseburg soprano, who will assist Miss Clement, has carefully selected her numbers, choosing those which will not only interest the audience, but will fit nicely into the theme of the program.

This concert is being sponsored by the Douglas County Music Teachers' association, which is always anxious to bring the best music to this city.

* * *

Elaborate Plans Being Made for Episcopal Guild Luncheon on April 26

St. George's Episcopal Guild met in the Parish house on Wednesday evening of this week with eighteen members in attendance. Further plans were made for the annual bridge luncheon, which will be given at the Parish house on April 26, the first Saturday following Easter. Mrs. J. C. Hume and Mrs. Nathan Fullerton are joint chairmen for the affair, with Mrs. Fullerton in charge of the ticket sale. Tables will be reserved at fifty cents and two dollars.

In previous years, St. George's Episcopal Guild bridge luncheons have always been outstanding events in the year's calendar. The 1929 luncheon proved to be more successful and enjoyable in every aspect than the years previous. The members of the guild are most anxious to have the 1930 luncheon even more successful and from the many arrangements now being made, the luncheon will be an outstanding event for the month of April.

* * *

Baptist Advisory Board Meets at Rev. and Mrs. Shoun's Home Monday

Rev. and Mrs. R. B. Shoun entertained the advisory board of the Baptist church at their home on Monday evening of this week. The regular business meeting was held, after which a social hour was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Caraway, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Byrd, R. W. Strong, Volney McKean, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Taylor, Mrs. H. E. Hoffman and Mrs. I. Thompson.

Mrs. Shoun served dainty refreshments at a later hour. She was assisted by Miss Pauline Shoun, Miss Ruth Thompson and Miss Grace Ehlert.

Ladies Golf Club Members to Enjoy Next Thursday at the Country Club

The Ladies Golf club of the Country club will hold an all-day meeting at the club house next Thursday. The golfers will tee off at 9:00 o'clock in the morning and a prize for the day's winner will be awarded by Mrs. J. M. Judd, captain.

Luncheon will be served in the club house at 12:00 o'clock and those wishing to play golf again in the afternoon may do so. Those desiring to play cards will remain at the club house, where Mrs. Sam Shoemaker and Mrs. Ilvan Pickens are joint chairmen of the card tournament.

The Ladies Golf club members enjoyed several lovely days on the course and at the club house last fall during the good weather, and now with the spring weather here, many delightful days are being anticipated by the members. The meetings are always well attended and greatly enjoyed.

Pleasant Evening Enjoyed at J. P. Williams Home on Thursday Night

J. P. Williams was honored on his birthday anniversary, Thursday, April 3, at his home in Dillard, when a number of his friends called for a no-host evening. The rooms were lovely with daffodils and other spring flowers. An 8:00 o'clock dinner was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Smith, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Parkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis, Mr. and Mrs. O. Weikel, Mason Weikel, Mrs. C. E. Moyer and daughter, Miss Evelyn, Wesley Williams, Miss Gladys Johnson, Mr. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Evans.

A social evening followed the dinner.

American Legion Auxiliary Easter Ball to Be Lovely Affair of Monday, April 21

The American Legion auxiliary, Umpqua unit, Easter ball will be a popular affair of the month. The ball will be given at the Oriental Gardens, Monday evening, April 21, with the Melody Marvels furnishing the music for the evening.

The ball is in charge of Mrs. Fred Richter. The affair is always one of the outstanding social events of the year and is attended by a large crowd. Further announcements will be made later.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY ACTIVITIES

Two Generous Donations Received For Soldiers' Home Library.

Two splendid donations have been received recently for the Soldiers' Home library which was instituted a year ago. Mrs. Nathan Fullerton made a generous gift of forty books a short time ago and at Tuesday night's business meeting of the auxiliary it was announced that a splendid donation of ninety-six books was received from the Tillamook unit of the auxiliary. These two generous gifts were entirely unsolicited and were a complete surprise.

The book committee is composed of Mrs. Nathan Fullerton, Mrs. C. J. Walker, Mrs. W. E. McIntyre, Mrs. John McClintock and Mrs. Sam Starmer and a very good report was made at the business meeting Tuesday night. A number of new books have been purchased for the library and several re-prints. Through the generous cooperation of Mr. S. J. Shoemaker the unit was able to purchase these books at a very reasonable figure. The Soldiers' Home now has a very good library and the veterans are receiving much enjoyment from it.

Committee Reports Given and Appointments Made

Mrs. Ward Cummings and Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly were appointed as the visiting committee to serve until the next business meeting.

Mrs. Herbert Williams who has been serving most efficiently as unit historian has asked to be relieved of his work, and Mrs. H. C. Boyle was unanimously elected to fill the vacancy.

The report on the rummage sale showed that a very satisfactory sum of money was realized which will be used for the service work of the unit. A considerable quantity of goods was also turned over to the Salvation Army to be distributed to the needy.

Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly explained the Boy Scout court of honor which will be held on April 26th and to which the auxiliary has received a special invitation. A large delegation of unit members expects to attend.

Mrs. Nathan Fullerton was appointed as guardian of the camp fire girls group which is being sponsored by the auxiliary and Mrs. Earl L. Ullrich was named as assistant guardian. The group expects to be present at the next business meeting of the unit and put on an entertainment.

Poppy Poster Contest to Close April 15th

The state-wide poppy poster contest which is being sponsored in the schools by the auxiliary will close April 15th and from all indications competition will be keen. Each contestant has a chance to win either or both the county prize and the state prize. Mrs. Irvin H. Riegel is in charge of the contest in Douglas county.

Picture to Be Made for Unit History

At the next business meeting of the unit on April 15th a flashlight picture will be made to be entered in the official history of the organization and an effort will be made to have as large an attendance as possible.

Mrs. Allison Honors Brother, Fred Jones, With Party Wednesday

Mrs. D. Y. Allison was hostess at a surprise birthday party on last Wednesday night, honoring her brother, Fred Jones, at his home north of Roseburg. A pleasant evening of music and visiting was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Lilly, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Calhoun, Mrs. O. D. Allison and Mrs. D. Y. Allison.

At a later hour a large birthday cake was served with dainty refreshments.

* * *

Women's Council of Christian Church Hold All Day Meeting Thursday

The Women's Council of the Christian church of Roseburg met on Thursday of this week for an all-day session. Two large quilts were tied and a number of useful garments were made, which will be given to those in need. During the noon hour, a delicious pot luck lunch was enjoyed, which was followed by a business meeting. The meeting was followed by a missionary program, which was greatly enjoyed. Rev. William R. Baird, pastor of the church, gave an interesting review of state missionary work and Mrs. Ralph Harding talked on the boys' home at Turner.

* * *

Four Roseburg U. of O. Students Obtain Place on Honor Roll This Term

According to word received here, the University of Oregon honor roll has been completed with 134 names added to the list. According to Earl M. Pallett, registrar, the women of the university outnumbered the men on the honor roll. The students on the roll have no grade below a two.

Four students from Roseburg obtained places on the honor roll this year. They are Miss Maxine Moore, Mrs. Golda Wickham, William W. Knight and Raymond Bell.

Autumn Frost for Perfect Spring Attire

Introducing to the fashion world this evening ensemble, which is called "Autumn Frost." The frock is of blue chiffon and crystals, and is completed by a short jacket of harmonizing blue velvet trimmed with red fox fur.

Mrs. Guy Cordon Entertains Christmas Club With Lovely Dinner

Mrs. Guy Cordon was a charming hostess on Monday evening when she entertained the members of the Christmas club at her home with a seven o'clock dinner. Lovely spring flowers, arranged attractively, were used on the table and throughout the rooms. Covers were placed for Mrs. H. C. Church, Mrs. Charles B. Wade, Mrs. Ivan Pickens, Mrs. Dean B. Bubar, Mrs. Clair R. Allen, Mrs. John McClintock, Mrs. Leon McClintock, Mrs. Jack Wharton, Mrs. Oscar Berrie, Mrs. E. R. Thurber, Mrs. Kenneth Quine and the hostess, Mrs. Guy Cordon.

The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in sewing and visiting.

* * *

Mrs. C. E. Walker Is Surprised on Birthday by Friends

Mrs. C. E. Walker was delightfully surprised on her birthday anniversary Monday, when a number of her friends called at her home for a pleasant afternoon. A lovely shower of pretty and useful gifts were presented to Mrs. Walker and sewing and visiting were enjoyed. Those present included Mrs. C. E. Walker, honor guest, Mrs. Mary Parker, Mrs. Richard Busch, Mrs. W. A. Morlan, Mrs. Binger H. Laird, Mrs. L. B. Gates, Mrs. Foree, Mrs. O. R. Sanders, Mrs. Neighbors, Mrs. R. W. Meissner, Miss Dorothy Bush and James Sanders.

A pot luck lunch was served at a later hour in the day.

* * *

Informal Evening of Bridge Enjoyed at Leedy Home Saturday

A delightful informal evening of bridge was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Leedy on Saturday evening, when Miss Enid Veatch and Miss Helen Magers invited a few of their friends in for a few hours. Spring flowers were used in the living room where bridge was enjoyed by Miss Betty Bourhill, Miss Thelma Smith, Mrs. T. G. Watson, Mrs. H. L. Lander, Miss Glenda Ross, of Cottage Grove, Miss Marie Ring and Miss Veatch and Miss Magers. The prize for the evening was won by Miss Bourhill.

A lovely lunch was served at a later hour by the hostesses.

* * *

Rebekah Lodge Holds Meeting on Tuesday and Plans for Convention

The Roseburg Rebekah lodge met on Tuesday evening of this week, with a large attendance of members present. Delegates were elected to the grand lodge, which will be held in Portland on May 19. Mrs. H. T. Bloom, Mrs. Earl Rhoades, Mrs. Evelyn Hoover, Miss Ila Laubach and Mrs. J. B. Bailey, were elected as the delegates to represent the local lodge.

Mrs. T. Busenbark was recommended for district deputy president. The lodge is now making extensive preparations for the district convention, which will be held in Roseburg April 24. This will be an all-day and evening meeting and is under the direction of Mrs. Fred Goff, who is chairman of the affair.

* * *

Mrs. Lambert Hamm Enjoys Birthday Dinner at Parents' Home Saturday

Mrs. Lambert Hamm was honored on her 23rd birthday last Saturday, when her mother, Mrs. William Vaughn entertained her with a one o'clock dinner. Apple blossoms were attractively arranged in the rooms and a large birthday cake graced the center of the table. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Hamm and Mr. and Mrs. William Vaughn. The

(Continued on page 3)