LIBERTY—Today, Wednesday, Thursday, "The Laughing Lady," all-talking; Friday and Saturday, "A Ship From Shanghai," all-talking with Louis Wolheim, Conrad Nagel, Kay Johnson.
DOSSIBLY The best news that Roseburg movie-goers have heard in a long while is the announcement made by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer to the effect that Norma Shearer's new all-talking picture, "Their Own Desire," will be shown today and Wednesday at the Antlers theatre.
This new picture about which considerable discussion has been going on in cinema circles was taken from a novel by Sarita Fuller and adapted to the screen by Frances Marion.
According to reports from West Coast executives, the cost of producing "Their Own Desire" was considerably larger than that of the average picture inasmuch as the production covers a wide range in locations, swerving from Lake Arrowhead, which is more than a hundred miles from the Culver City studio, to the Noronian Club near Elsinore, then to the Midwick Country Club in Coyote Pass for the filming of a polo game, on to Franklin Canyon, including on the way a number of other stops on mountain trails and the grounds of Beverly Hills homes.
RUTH CHATTERTON, charming romantic actress who graduated from the Broadway stage to the new and more popular medium of the all-talking screen, will be seen and heard at the Liberty theatre today, Wednesday and Thursday in her fourth all-talking production within a year, "The Laughing Lady."
This comedy-drama is based on a stage success by the British playwright, Alfred Sutro. Miss Chatterton is supported by Clive Brook and more than a dozen character actors recruited from the Broadway stage.
Her earlier talking releases were "The Dummy," "Madame X" and "Charming Sinners."
Victor Schertzinger, director of "Redskin" and "Nothing But the Truth" was the director of "The Laughing Lady."

Had Lost Hope of Another Well Day
"I had given up hope of ever seeing a well day again until I started Sargon and then everything changed for me."
JOHN R. LOWE

ANTLERS
"I was terribly nervous, couldn't half sleep, suffered with bilious spells, headaches and indigestion and my appetite was so poor I'd often leave the table without eating a bite. I steadily lost weight and strength. Four bottles of Sargon restored my lost weight, my strength and energy are back and I walk for miles without getting tired. My appetite is so good I can hardly wait from one meal to the next and my digestion is perfect. Sargon Pills stimulated my liver and regulated me perfectly."—John R. Lowe, 1708 W. Vernon Ave., Los Angeles, or St. Regis Hotel, Spokane.
