

VOL XX NO. 79 OF ROSEBURG REVIEW

ROSEBURG, OREGON, THURSDAY, APRIL 17, 1930.

VOL XXIX NO. 10 OF THE EVENING NEWS

EASTER PROGRAM WILL BE GIVEN AT LOOKINGGLASS

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

LOOKINGGLASS, April 16.—A special Easter program, "The Ever-Present Christ," will be given by the Sunday school next Sunday morning at eleven o'clock immediately following the regular Sunday school services.

Preceded, Easter music, Miss Ruth Rodley; psalm, Grace Montgomery; call to worship, Sunday school; hymn, St. Kevin, Sunday school; prayer; response, "Fair-est Lord Jesus"; duet, Mrs. A. Larsen and Mrs. Geo. Marsh, "My Redeemer Liveth"; pantomime, "Spring in the Brown Meadow," primary department; Easter song, primary department; offertory service; duet, Mrs. A. Marsh and Miss Bernice Bennett; hymn, "Christ the Lord is Risen Today," Sunday school.

SOUTH DEER CREEK

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

SOUTH DEER CREEK, April 16.—Dee Kelley, Tom Melton, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Blood and Ruth M. Findlay, of South Deer creek were business callers in Roseburg Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Cox and son, Wallace, were callers at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cox of South Deer creek Sunday afternoon.

The South Deer creek parent-teachers association met at the grange hall Friday evening for a business session after which games were enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Blood spent Sunday at the Fred Cachell home at Dixonville.

P. I. Betts was a visitor at South Deer creek Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Melton, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Melton, Jr., and daughters, Nellie Rose and Wilma, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Melton on South Deer Creek.

Miss Anna Weatherford, of Roseburg, spent the weekend as the house guest of Ruth M. Findlay.

LOOKINGGLASS

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

LOOKINGGLASS, April 16.—The sophomore class is putting on the final interpretative touches to "A Scream in the Dark" which they are presenting in the grange hall April 25.

The Lookingglass grange is giving a benefit program Wednesday evening, April 16. Mr. Eckert, of Portland, is giving a series of very interesting readings which will be supplemented by several local numbers.

P. M. Nash, principal here, was the soloist last Sunday morning in the Roseburg Presbyterian church.

Rev. and Mrs. Ira Rankin and daughter, Mary Louise, were dinner guests at the H. G. Klor home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Inan Dysert of Melrose, spent Sunday at the Roy Buell home.

Mr. E. F. Ollivant and family visited at the George Ollivant home at Olalla.

Mr. and Mrs. Stromquist and Harold Stromquist were guests for dinner Sunday at R. B. Montgomery's.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Telford were visitors in the valley Monday.

The prayer meeting and Bible study class will be held Thursday evening at the T. Rodley home.

A very interesting meeting of the Epworth League was led by Miss Florence Meredith Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Marsh entertained a lovely dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones, and Miss Alice Bostick, Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jones are leaving soon for California.

AZALEA

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

AZALEA, April 16.—Mr. and Mrs. Steve Smith and children spent Thursday in Grants Pass, visiting friends and shopping.

Miss Agnes Pitchford, county juvenile officer from Roseburg, made a business trip to Azalea Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bartrow and small son went to Crescent

City, California, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell N. Curtis attended the theatre at Grants Pass Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Clothier, of Portland, spent last week visiting Mrs. Clothier's mother, Mrs. L. E. Darnsworth, who is ill.

Beatrice Beck and Edward Bartrow were married at Medford last Thursday. They will make their home at Azalea, where Mr. Bartrow is employed at one of the mills.

Mrs. George L. Jantzer, Mrs. Floyd Kelley, and Miss Clara Jantzer shopped and visited friends at Glendale Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Buzzell, from Fern Valley, visited with Mrs. Buzzell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Warren, one day last week.

Mr. Lynn, who owns an interest in the Oregon Machinery company at Eugene, was a business visitor here the last of the week.

Ed and Darwin Johns visited friends and relatives at Roseburg and Dixonville one day last week.

Francis R. Johnson left the first of last week for Portland, after spending the week-end with his family here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wenderoth and Mrs. Wenderoth's aunt, Mrs. J. Fisher transacted business in Roseburg Thursday.

Azelia was well represented among the audience at the Glendale high school play, "Alabama Bound," last Friday night. Four of Azalea's young folks, Floyd and Irene Eakin, May Darnsworth and Joe Blanchard, who attend high school at Glendale, took parts in the play.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Jantzer and children attended a show at Roseburg Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Smith and family attended to business matters in Glendale Friday.

Miss Virginia Hansen, of Central Point, Oregon, visited with her friend, Miss Clara Jantzer Saturday.

George Jantzer has purchased a new nine by twelve Wheland twin steam feed, which he will have installed in his mill this week.

Miss Beth Eakin, one of Azalea's most popular girls, became the bride of Harold Kendall, of Glendale, at a quiet wedding ceremony performed at Grants Pass Saturday.

Mrs. Kendall is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Eakin, who reside in Grants Pass.

She is a graduate of the class of 1928 in Glendale high school. Their many friends unite in wishing them happiness.

Mrs. E. O. Adams and baby son, Billy, of Medford, are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tripp.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Powell and children, of Dixonville, visited relatives here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Booth and three daughters visited over the weekend with Mrs. Booth's sister and brother-in-law, Mrs. and Mr. J. H. Wolford, of Roseburg.

On Sunday Mrs. Booth accompanied her niece, Miss Evelyn Wolford, to Ashland, where Miss Wolford is a student at Southern Oregon Normal school.

Elder Westbrook and wife, of Eugene, and Elder and Mrs. Fish of Roseburg, conducted services at the Seventh Day Adventist church here Saturday. Elder Westbrook is president of the Southern Oregon Conference. Elder Fish plans on conducting the services here the first Saturday of each month in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Jantzer visited friends and relatives at Grants Pass and Ashland Monday.

Elmer Lehman made a business trip to Roseburg Monday.

Miss Julia Eakin, teacher in Klamath Falls school, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam E. Eakin, on Quines creek.

Elder Roberts, of Eugene, visited friends in the Jenkins Lumber company camp Sunday.

Charlie Jantzer, recently from Los Angeles, visited relatives here the last of the week.

J. R. Blanchard has a 34x20 foot chicken house under construction to house the twenty-nine hundred baby chicks that he recently purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Kelley, of Glendale, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kelley fished and picnicked at Winchester Sunday.

Charlie Hazard, Richard Dunlap and Mrs. Cushing, of Medford, were weekend guests at the Elmer Lehman home.

AZALEA SUNSHINE
CLUB MEETS WITH
BERNICE JANTZER

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

AZALEA, April 16.—Mrs. Bernice Jantzer was hostess for the Sunshine club last Thursday afternoon. The rooms were tastefully decorated with bowls of narcissus blooms.

The secretary and treasurer, Ethel Lehman, resigned, and Marguerite Jenks was chosen to take her place.

Tea towels were hemmed and embroidered for the hostess during the afternoon. At four o'clock Sylvia Jantzer assisted the hostess in serving a dainty lunch.

The members present were: Cleo Johns, Thelma Coyle, Marguerite Jenks, Isa Johnson, Rachel Jenks, Laura McKenzie, Rose Kelley, Ethel Lehman, Emma Warren, Sylvia Jantzer, Alma Warren, Mildred Booth, Bernice Jantzer, and Frankie Schroeder. The visitors were: Mrs. Cora Chadwick, of Dixonville, and Miss Clara Jantzer.

GLENDALE

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

GLENDALE, April 15.—F. O. Stinson, construction superintendent, H. E. Buchter, general construction foreman, and Oscar Silver, assistant engineer, all with the California Oregon Power company, were business visitors here last week. They made a survey of the power line to Fernvale which is scheduled for rebuilding in the near future. They also made tentative surveys of the proposed power line along the Pacific Highway in the Cow creek valley. This latter project is still pending a definite decision.

A few much needed showers fell here Saturday, Sunday and Monday. An electrical storm missed Glendale Saturday. Flashes of lightning were seen to the east and north of the city. A few reverberations of distant thunder were also heard.

The ball game at Myrtle Creek Saturday between the Junior Legion teams was called off because of rain. A ball game scheduled here Sunday between the regular teams of Myrtle Creek and Glendale failed to materialize as the Myrtle Creek team did not appear because of showers there. A practice game was held here between two pickup teams.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Morley motored to Grants Pass Monday where Morley visited a doctor. He has been "funder the weather" for some weeks and is undergoing a series of medical treatments.

Charles Pruitt, section foreman for the Southern Pacific company near Shasta, Cal., spent the week-end here. His mother, Mrs. W. H. Pruitt, is said to be very ill at her home in this city.

Mrs. H. G. Paise transacted business and shopped at Roseburg Saturday.

Andrew Pete transacted business at Roseburg Saturday. From there he went on to Eugene to visit with his son, George (Wild Cat) Pete, the well known wrestler, over Sunday.

Miss Sarah Eakin returned to her home at Ashland Saturday after several days spent visiting her brother, Sam A. Eakin, and family on Quines creek.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Harvey transacted business at Grants Pass Saturday.

GLENDALE, April 16.—Allen Smith, senior in forestry at the Oregon State college at Corvallis, arrived here Saturday for a few days' visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Smith. He was accompanied from Roseburg by his sister Miss Ethel M. Smith who made a week-end visit here. Smith was recently honored by his fellow students by being elected president of the Forestry club.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hollevoot visited at Grants Pass Sunday.

visited at Grants Pass Sunday.

C. H. Arundel, piano tuner from Roseburg, transacted business here Monday.

Miss Julia Eakin arrived here Saturday and is spending her Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Eakin on Quines creek. Miss Eakin is employed as teacher at Klamath Falls.

Frank Kruse, manager of the Auditorium, motored to Roseburg Monday, where he expected to remain for several days visiting with friends and attending to business matters.

James A. Dewey took a day off from his duties at the Smokehouse and with Mrs. Dewey motored to Wolf Creek Monday to visit and attend to some business matters.

Mrs. C. Williams, Mrs. Jessie Warnke and daughter Betty, motored to Medford Monday where they will visit with friends for a few days.

Mrs. Hurley Wilson and her brother, C. R. Springer, of upper Cow Creek, transacted business here Monday.

Harry Brown, of Portland, general sales manager for the Union Oil company in this district, was a business visitor here Tuesday.

William C. Lewens has been grading and leveling I. H. Smith's yard this past week. The space in front and at the west side of the house will be planted with grass seed and made into a lawn.

A Westfall of Klamath Falls was here last week for the purpose of looking over Glendale and vicinity with the view of enacting in the poultry business. George H. Jackson, of the Glendale Realty company, stated that Westfall had been attracted to this locality by the Glendale writeups appearing in the Roseburg News-Review.

A. G. Clarke, of this city, was elected alternative layman delegate to the Presbyterian general assembly to be held at Cincinnati, Ohio, the latter part of May, at the Southwest Oregon Presbytery held at Phoenix last week. Rev. J. K. Howard of this city, was in attendance at the Presbytery and served on the judiciary committee. The next meeting of the Presbytery, to be held in about six months, will probably be held at Klamath Falls.

E. G. Trowbridge, who has a cabinet factory at Medford, and family and party of friends, visited here Sunday.

L. O. Strommen, contractor, who has been doing considerable building here during the past six months, is now at Medford. He is employed by Sig Ash, another well known contractor, who has contracts to build three large residences at Medford.

GLENDALE, April 17.—Mayor J. H. Brown has proclaimed Monday, April 28, as a general cleanup day for Glendale. Citizens are asked to cooperate by cleaning up their premises. Rubbish may be left either at the street curbs or in the alleys and should be boxed, baled or sacked for ready pickup by trucks and teams to be provided by the city.

An Easter cantata by Ira B. Wilson entitled "Our Living Lord" will be presented at the Presbyterian church next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock by a mixed chorus of 24 voices under the direction of William B. Lesh. The cantata features 14 numbers which consist of vocal solos, duets and chorals. The soloists are Mrs. C. W. Crawford, Mrs. W. R. Parker, Miss Helen Taylor, W. Ray Parker and W. B. Lesh. Miss Doreen Boice will be the accompanist.

Three birthdays were the occasion for a big dinner Sunday at the Nebel home on Willis avenue. In addition to celebrating their own birthdays, the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Nebel also joined in celebrating the birthday of their grand daughter Miss Ethel M. Smith. Covers were laid for nine with members of the family and a few friends as dinner guests.

A string of mountain trout caught by Mr. and Mrs. George F.

SCOTTSBURG

SCOTTSBURG, April 15.—Glen Roberts was a business visitor here Tuesday.

Florida Lewens of Reedsport was a business visitor here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Riley of Loom Lake visited at the J. Paul Wessela home Wednesday.

Mrs. George Rook and son, Tommy, and Miss Betty Wakefield, all of East Side, were weekend visitors at the D. R. Wakefield home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hedden and granddaughter, Fannie Lorraine, are spending a few weeks in California. They left Monday for San Francisco.

Bill Miller and daughter, Madeline, motored to Reedsport Friday where Madeline received medical treatment.

Dick Peterson of Loom Lake was a business visitor here Friday.

Miss Mildred Bowman of Reedsport was a weekend visitor at the J. Paul Wessela home.

Mrs. Lillian Travis and daughter, Gladys, of Reedsport, were visitors in Scottsburg Sunday.

Arnold and Stillman Wessela and Claude Esselstrom motored to Reedsport Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Wakefield, Mrs. George Rook and Betty Wakefield, accompanied by her grandson, Tommy, and by Eugene Wessela, motored to Loom Lake Sunday and visited at the Judy home.

Ray Wagoner, Conrad Wessela and Caddy Nottage spent the week-end at their homes. They are working in the logging camp at Leneve.

Claude Esselstrom of Reedsport was a weekend visitor at the J. Paul Wessela home.

Junior Wakefield was a visitor

Olinghouse were on display in Harvey's hardware store window Wednesday. They ranged from 9 up to 15 inches in length and were indeed beauties. They were brought Tuesday, opening day for trout season, on upper Cow Creek.

Seventeen children from lower Cow Creek were brought to Glendale where they attended the Presbyterian Sunday school last Sunday. This was made possible through an arrangement for the use of the Cow Creek schoolbus driven by Charles Hobbs. The bus will make a trip each Sunday forenoon to accommodate children wishing to attend Sunday school and who reside between Glendale and the Fortuna Branch service station on the Pacific highway.

A record was reached at the Presbyterian Sunday school last Sunday with an attendance of 138. In a contest between the boys and girls of Mrs. C. E. Young's and A. G. Clark's classes, the boys won. The girls, as losers, furnished refreshments and entertained the boys at a party held at the church parlors Monday evening.

Warren Matthews, of Roseburg, arrived here this week to take charge of the Union Oil company's local plant while Phil Bishop is enjoying a vacation. Bishop joined his family at Springfield, where they have been visiting for some time.

O. W. Paulson, of Portland, was here Tuesday where he transacted business.

Ole Iverson, of Coquille, visited with friends here Wednesday. He is a former resident of this city and was at one time employed at the onld Systat-Stuyland sawmill on McCullough creek.

Buy with Confidence
GOOD INVESTMENT USED CARS
L. R. Chambers Motor Co.

For Sale!

1925 Dodge 4-door sedan, $350.
1925 Dodge 2-door sedan, $375.
1926 Dodge sedan, $475.
1928 Buick 4-door sedan, $850.
1928 Nash 2-door sedan, $850.
1926 Ford roadster.
1924 Ford roadster.
1926 Ford touring.
1927 Pontiac sedan.
1925 Star touring.
1926 Buick coach.
1926 Essex coach.
1925 Essex coach.
1926 Dodge 1½-ton truck.
1922 Dodge screen side.
Many others to choose from.
No Cash Down Payment
All This Week
For Real Value in Used Cars See
L. R. Chambers
at the Durant Garage. Phone 679.

WANTS PERMANENT
TABOO ON MANNIX

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

SALEM, Ore., April 16.—A plea that the supreme court reject the recommendations of the referees who conducted the Thomas Mannix presented one of their excellent programs of sacred music at the evening service hour at the local M. E. Church on Sunday evening. The program was almost wholly instrumental in character, the principal instrument being the triple chimes which is operated by Mr. Davis. Mrs. Davis is a member of the well known DeLoas family who have traveled about the country giving musical entertainments for more than thirty years past.

disbarment trial, and impose upon him instead the extreme penalty of permanent disbarment, was made by Attorney A. K. McMahan in the argument of the Mannix case yesterday. The referees recommended two to one, that Mannix be suspended for three years, Judge G. F. Skipworth dissenting from Judges Fred W. Wilson and H. D. Norton by recommending his permanent disbarment.

Roseburg Cabinet Shop
542 Fowler Street
Built-ins, Door and Window
Frames made to order.
We carry a stock of Veneer.
Saw Filing a Specialty.
ED S. AND F. L. COCKLEAS
Phone 541-J

Easter Joys

Many are the joys that come to us all at Easter, and we are thankful for the fulfillment of the great promise.

The Roseburg National Bank
Roseburg, Ore.

ANNOUNCEMENT

A REPRESENTATIVE OF
Motor Finance Corporation
Will Be At Rose Hotel
on Saturday, April 19th

With complete service for refinancing and making loans on your car.

Applications treated confidential and deals handled without delay.

NO WAITS
NO DELAYS
NO EXCUSES

WHEN YOU USE UMPQUA BRAND POULTRY FEEDS, you simply have to name your feed and its in your car in less time than it takes to tell about it.

Better Service .. Better Feeds
.. Lower Costs .. Higher Production

Community mixed feeds in the state of Oregon alone show over 400% increase in three years. There is a reason.

Phone us if you are having chick troubles and Mr. Gurney will be on the job pronto. That's his business regardless of whose feeds you are using.

Douglas County Flour Mill
Phone 13
OPEN 7 A. M. TO 6 P. M.

MOVING

Must have more room for exhibiting
CATERPILLARS

and are moving stock of Tractors and Killefer Implements TO 321 WEST OAK ST.

Weatherford Bldg.

Will carry complete line Caterpillars at all times.

Come in and look 'em over.

Miller-Sanford Tractor Co.

E. M. Dyer, Mgr.

Roseburg, Oregon

COLDS COST MONEY

It is estimated that a sufferer from colds loses three times as much time from work in a year.

FORTIFY YOURSELF AGAINST COLDS, GRIPPE

—Tune up your body with

DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
All Dealers, Liquid or Tablets.

No More Piles

Pile sufferers can only get quick, safe and lasting relief by removing the cause—bad blood circulation in the lower bowel. Cutting and salves can't do this—an internal remedy must be used. Dr. Leonard's Hem-Roid, a harmless tablet, succeeds because it relieves this blood congestion and strengthens the affected parts. Hem-Roid has a wonderful record for quick, safe and lasting relief to pile sufferers. It will do the same for you or money back. Chapman's Drug Store and druggists everywhere sell Hem-Roid with