The principal interest of the past week has been the pre-Easter services. Good Friday was observed by the city at the Antlers theater, where music, talks and prayers were heard by a large crowd. During the afternoon, the various churches of the city went together for the special services. "The Crucifixion" was heard last evening by a large crowd at the Christian church. Early tomorrow morning, all those wishing to attend the Easter sunrise service, will meet at the Christian church at 5:15, and will go in a body to the hill back of the Benson school.

Several interesting affairs are being planned following Easter. The annual bridge luncheon, sponsored by St. George's Episcopal Guild on April 26, at one o'clock, will be one of the most interesting and enjoyable affairs of its kind during the spring season.

On next Tuesday, Mrs. Nelta West, of Klamath Falls, will inspect the Daughters of Job at the Masonic Temple. A tea will be given in her honor Tuesday afternoon and inspection will take place during the evening, with the Order of the Eastern Star and the Masons present. The Badoura club Daughters of the Nile, will attend in a body.

The Umpqua Chapter of the D A. R. will be entertained at the home of Mrs. E. B. Stewart on next Monday afternoon. Mrs. W. R. assist Mrs. Stewart during the af- Willis, of Roseburg, and Mrs. Charles F. Sowersby, of Riddle, will ternoon.

Several interesting visitors have been in the city during the past week. Mrs. G. R. Childs, of San Francisco, and an honorary member of the Roseburg Business and Professional Women's club, is the house guest of Mrs. Stanley L. Kidder. She will sail for England from New York City on May 19. Mrs. Childs is interested in gardening and landscaping and will study both during her stay in England.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Bell and daughter, Miss Beverly, of Beverly Hills, Hollywood, are spending the Easter holidays in this city visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bell.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Knauss and two children, Miss Maria and Arthur, Jr., of Portland, are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Heinline in Laurelwood.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hume have returned to their home in this city, after spending several weeks vacationing in Hawaii.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY ACTIVITIES

Umpqua Post Holds Interesting Meeting

A record crowd attended the regular business meeting of Umpqua unit Tuesday night at the armory. The meeting opened with the singing of America after which the pledge of allegiance to the flag was given. Mrs. John Turner of Bend, a former member of Umpqua unit, who is now coming to make her home at Dixonville, was introduced and welcomed. Sewing for the Veterans' hospital was distributed among the members present and the work completed during the meeting.

Committee Reports Given

The unit is sponsoring the annual Easter Monday ball at the Oriental gardens on Monday night, April 21, and indications are that a large crowd will attend. Music will be furnished by the Melody Marvels and a prize waltz will be one of the special features of the evening. Mrs. Fred H. Richter is general chairman and tickets are being sold by a group of the auxiliary girls. Mrs. Richter has requested that money for tickets which has been sold and any unsold tickets be turned in at the office of Dr. H. C. Church on Monday afternoon, April 21, or turned in at the Oriental gardens on Monday night.

Mrs. I. H. Riegel, chairman of the poppy committee, reported that a number of splendid poppy posters had been sent in for the popy poster contest, which is being sponsored in the schools of the state. Winners will be announced later.

Mrs. Richard Busch, chairman of Americanism, gave an interesting discussion of her work and the plans for the future.

Mrs. Ward Cummings is in charge of the ticket sales for the Legion minstrel which is scheduled for April 22 and 23. A number of the girls have been helping with the costumes for the show and have met to sew at the home of Mrs. John McClintock.

The flower report was given by the chairman, Mrs. Ned Dixon.

The visiting committee which was composed of Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly and Mrs. Ward Cummings was very active and reported that twelve calls had been made to the sick and those in distress. The president appointed Mrs. Kelsey Hobday and Mrs. W. D. Nixon as the visiting committee to serve until the next meeting.

A very interesting report was given by Mrs. Nathan Fullerton, guardian of the Potawatomie Camp Fire girls' group which is sponsored by the unit. The girls have shown a great deal of enthusiasm and interest in their work and plans are being made for the organization of another group of the younger girls.

Social Hour Is Enjoyed

Following the business meeting the girls enjoyed a social hour and refreshments were served by the following committee: Mrs. Walter Fisher, chairman; Mrs. Rudolph Ritzman, Mrs. Ned Dixon, Mrs. E. B. Roseburg Women's Club Holds Interesting Meeting Tuesday Afternoon

The Roseburg Women's club met on Tuesday afternoon in the club rooms for the regular business and social meeting. Mrs. A. G. McMillin, president, was in charge of the business session. Of the many activities of the club, the service shop is one of the most outstanding. The shop will continue being open each Saturday for several weeks. The money derived from the shop is put into the benefit fund of the club. A gallon of milk is being paid for each month for a needy Roseburg family.

One of the most interesting programs of the year was enjoyed following the business meeting. Miss Vera McClintock sang two lovely solos, one entitled "Out Where the West Begins," and the other, "Smilin' Through." She was accompanied by Mrs. John McClintock, pianist. W. G. Paul, of South Deer creek, was the speaker of the afternoon and gave a splendid and very interesting talk on "Monuments." He began his talk from the beginning of monuments up to the present time. Mr. Paul has traveled extensively and was able to make his talk realistic and of great interest to everyone.

Following the program the election of delegates to the State Federation in Salem, May 12, 13, 14, 15, was held. Mrs. A. G. McMillin, president, will represent the local club, and Mrs. William Bell and Mrs. H. E. Coleman were elected as delegates of the club. Missionary Societies of Roseburg Guests of W. C. T. U. Wednesday

The W. C. T. U. met in the Woman's club rooms Wednesday afternoon of this week, and the Missionary societies of the city were the guests of the day.

Mrs. E. Wills, president, was in charge of the business meeting and Mrs. C. A. Edwards conducted the devotionals. She gave a fine impressive talk, which was very appropriate for the Easter season. A very interesting program was given entitled, "Temperance and Missions." Mrs. O. M. Nicholas had charge. In her opening remarks she stated that the object of the meeting, is to help to bring the two organizations together for it is an opportune time to help other nations to combat the evils of liquor and narcotics. The young people of foreign countries are taking an interest in prohibition and are watching the United States. Mrs. J. B. Bailey, Mrs. W. Cobb, Mrs. Louis Kohlhazen, Mrs. Fred Fisher, Mrs. A. J. Geddes, Mrs. A. A. Sprague and Mrs. R. W. Marsters, gave short talks on conditions in other lands. The Missionary and W. C. T. U. societies are together fighting the liquor and opium traffic.

In Japan and Korea there is a law prohibiting the sale of liquor to anyone under twenty-one years of age. In India there are 6,000 white ribboners and less poverty through the efforts of the two organizations. France and Germany have come to realize the benefits of prohibition. Germany may soon go dry. In Belgium and Denmark much good work is being done. Denmark has many fine women at the head of the organizations.

Miss Vera McClintock delighted the audience by singing "The Old Rugged Cross," with Mrs. Nicholas accompanying her on the piano. Mrs. V. J. Micelli told what a Light Line union is, and explained the W. C. T. U. part of the work. It was voted unanimously that Roseburg W. C. T. U. to invite the state W. C. T. U. convention to come to Roseburg in October. As a result of the membership campaign a number of new members have been secured for the union.

At the close of the meeting dainty refreshments were served by the committee in charge. The meeting was very interesting and well attended.
