MYRTLE CREEK

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

MYRTLE CREEK, April 19.—Mrs. D. J. Burke was hostess for the Women's Missionary meeting of the M. E. Church South, which was held Thursday afternoon at the church. A study of the mission schools supported by the church was much enjoyed by the fourteen ladies present.

Word has been received by Mrs. Fletcher that her daughter, Mildred, is in a hospital in Walla Walla with a broken ankle. Miss Mildred attended school here last winter and has many friends who will be sorry to hear of her misfortune.

Mrs. W. J. Stoval and Mrs. C. P. Fulton of Chehalis are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. March.

Mrs. Laura Stevenson and son, Bill, have moved back to Myrtle Creek from Lookingglass.

The week of pre-Easter services being held by the Methodist and Christian churches will close Friday night with a sermon by Rev. G. A. Taggart at the Christian church. Both churches will hold special services Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Fawcett have returned to their home in Burns.

Parlan and Chaney, who are running the Marks farm in Missouri Bottom recently sold 89 head of hogs to J. W. Ledgerwood of local butcher.

N. G. Buell is converting the old barn on his farm into a new and up-to-date prune drier.

The funeral of Phillip G. Rice, Friday afternoon, was attended by a large concourse of sorrowing friends. Among the relatives from other places were Mrs. Mary Whipple, of Roseburg, a sister, and Joe J. Rice of Eugene, Dorothy Rice of Corvallis and Mrs. Victor Short of Roseburg. A profusion of beautiful flowers bore mute testimony to the respect and affection held for Mr. Rice.

TUBERCULIN TEST SHOWS SETHER HERD FREE FROM DISEASE

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

GLENDALE, April 19.—A tuberculin test given Sether Brothers' dairy herd Thursday proved that these cattle are all in good condition and free from any indication of tuberculosis.

Dr. George L. Nicholas, Douglas county herd inspector from Roseburg, and Dr. F. H. Thompson, of Eugene, federal live stock inspectors.

Especially favorable comment was made by the inspectors regarding the condition of the 25 Guernsey cattle that make up the Sether dairy herd. They also said that this portion of the state is remarkably free from tuberculosis infected cattle. The only instances of infected cattle ever found in this section have been shipped in from other localities.

Sether Brothers, whose ranch is about one mile east of this city, are extensive cattle raisers as they have several herds of beef cattle ranging in the Cow Creek canyon, on upper Middle creek and Canyon creek. From their dairy herd they supply a major portion of the local retail milk trade.

GLENDALE, April 21.—Three people narrowly escaped injury Sunday afternoon when a large sedan driven by Dr. C. R. Boyd of Coquille, skidded on the wet pavement of the Pacific highway near Fortune Branch auto camp about 7 miles east of this city, crashed through a fence and turned over in an adjacent field.

Dr. Boyd was returning to his home at Coquille from a visit at Jacksonville when the accident happened.

GLENDALE WINS GAME

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

GLENDALE, April 21.—The baseball game yesterday afternoon here between Glendale and Takilma, resulted in a 18 to 9 victory for Glendale.

Poor fielding by the Takilma boys helped Glendale stretch 12 hits into 18 runs. Nelson for Glendale knocked a home run, hitting the ball over the road and into Mill creek. Thompson's pitching for Glendale was freely hit but good support held the Takilma team to a shutout.

BIRTHDAY PARTY ENJOYED

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

GLENDALE, April 21.—Mrs. Zether Hazen was hostess to a number of her friends and neighbors last Friday afternoon, the occasion being the birthday of M. E. Church, who was called to Sweet Home last Sunday to conduct the funeral service of a former parishioner who was a former Congregational minister.

Both of the local churches, the Church of Christ and the Methodist church, made preparation for special Easter services on Sunday, which were witnessed by good sized audiences at both churches.

Arthur Postock, who is employed trucking dirt on the Umpqua highway construction, had a narrow escape from serious injury and possible death on Tuesday last when his truck went off the grade near the old Page mill site, after rolling over two or three times, landed in the Elk creek. As it was, he suffered only a few bruises.

Miss Jane Irving, a teacher in Drain high school, spent Sunday at her home at Wilbur.

OAKS, BY DOUBLE VICTORY, CROWD ANGELS FOR LEAD

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—Manager Carl Zimloch's magic must be considered successful thus far in the Pacific Coast league pennant chase. Zimloch's Oakland club drew within a fraction of a game of the league leading Angels yesterday following a double victory over the Seattle Indians.

The morning score was 9 to 4 with a youngster by the name of Pearson coming to the rescue of Jim Edwards in the sixth inning and finishing the game to receive credit for the victory. In the afternoon Howard Craighead outpitched a flock of Indian hurlers to hang up a 9 to 5 victory.

The pace-setting Angels were stopped in ten innings by the Hollywood Stars in the first game of the Sunday doubleheader. "Hank" Hulvey, pitcher, was the hero of the game, driving in the deciding run with a single to give Oscar Vitt's boy a 4 to 3 advantage.

George Hollerson for the Stars and Ed Heschl for the Angels were in rare form. The second game was called in the fourth inning with the Angels leading 5 to 4.

Nick Williams, skipper of the Seals, had ample reason to smile following the day's program at Recreation park here. In addition to capturing a doubleheader from his hometown rivals, the Missions, two of Nick's young hurlers, Curtis Davis and Arthur McDougall, showed rare pitching skill.

Davis turned back the Reds by a score of 14 to 3 in the morning game, limiting them to nine hits. McDougall surpassed Davis' performance, handing the opposition a full row of "Easter eggs" on the scoreboard while yielding nine safe hits. The Seals tallied 13 times off a trio of Mission hurlers, Cole, McQuaid and Douglas.

Frank Crossett was the batting star of the day, gathering eight safe hits including three home runs in ten official times at bat. The lovely Ducks dropped a pair of games to the Sacramento club. In the morning affair at Stockton the Senators marked up 12 runs in the fourth inning off Fullerton, Caccarella and Ortman. The final score was 12 to 3. In the afternoon game at Sacramento Flynn outpitched Bloomer to win by a 4 to 3 count.

The Christian church Bible school broke all records for attendance in the history of the local congregation Sunday morning. The school has been working for several weeks in a contest to establish a new record, the goal being set for 500. Attendance at the Bible school Sunday morning reached 540, the largest the church has ever known. The men's class was the largest, with 112 present.

AGED DUCHESS ON WING ONCE MORE

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

CAPETOWN, Union of South Africa, April 21.—The Duchess of Bedford, flying with two companions, today started back to England, hoping to complete the trip in nine days and establish a 19-day record for a round trip between Lympne and Captown.

She left Lympne airdrome April 19, and needed only 100 flying hours of complete the trip here. She is 64 years old and only recently took her first solo flight. Captain Barnard and a co-pilot, Robert Little, are accompanying her.

GARDENERS, ANGLERS WELCOME DOWNPOUR

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

The heavy downpour last night, resulting in 43 of an inch of rain falling during the 24-hour period ending at 5 o'clock this morning, is hailed with delight, not only by the farmers and gardeners of the county, but particularly by the fishermen. A heavy run of chinook salmon is reported in the lower river, apparently waiting a freshet, as the water has been at extremely low level. The rain is expected to bring the fish up the river immediately and some excellent salmon fishing is expected the latter part of the week. The total rainfall so far for the month is 1.27 inches, and the deficiency for the season, which dates from September 1 of last year, is 19.23 inches.
