RELIEF FROM CURSE OF CONSTIPATION
A Battle Creek physician says, "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause."
But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Ordox has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose.
Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Ordox at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c to day at the nearest Rexall Drug Store.—Adv.

LIBERTY—Today, "Spring is Here" with Lawrence Gray, Bernice Claire, Louise Fazenda; Friday and Saturday, "Buddy Rogers in 'Half Way to Heaven'" with Jean Arthur, Fay Wray, William Powell.
REAL LIFE gave Mildred Cram, popular fiction writer, the inspiration which led her to write the well-known magazine story, "The Feeder." Now Paramount has made this story live again on the talking screen. Under the title of "Behind the Make-Up," with Sue Carol, El Brendel (the Swede), Marjorie White and Jack Mulhall; Friday and Saturday, "Behind the Make-Up," with Hal Skelly, Fay Wray, William Powell.
Miss Cram watched a vaudeville team frolicking on the boards of a Ziegfeld stage, always interested in "the feeder," who was expert in throwing "gag" openings to the head man. Then the team split up. The leader left the stage, and "the feeder," on his own, appeared lost. Without the dominating influence of the lead, Broadway could not see him for months.
Hal Skelly, the star of "The Dance of Life," has the leading role, as the unselfish "feeder." William Powell has the role of the impetuous artist, the lead, and Fay Wray is the girl.
EVERY corner of the world has come to know Charles (Buddy) Rogers as the great dispenser of joyful entertainment and, in his latest action-romance, "Half Way to Heaven."
