CAGLE AND SPOUSE HAPPY, HE STATES

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

NEW YORK, May 15.—Christian Keener Cagle, who was forced to resign from West Point when it became known he was married in defiance of the rules of the military academy, announced through a hotel press agent today he and his wife were going back home to Louisiana "very happy" and "confident of their future."

The press agent said Cagle had talked to him over the telephone and after dictating a brief statement said "well, we're on our way," which the press agent took to mean the football star and his wife were taking a train for the south.

MURDER SUSPECTS FACING INQUIRY

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

DES MOINES, Ia., May 15.—Carl McCune, 34, and Elmer Gideon, 35, were held by police today in connection with the slaying of Evelyn Lee, 9-year-old Des Moines schoolgirl who was found dead last Saturday. She had been criminally assaulted.

Sheriff Park Findley secured warrants for the arrest of the two men last night and they were later arrested by police. They said they had returned from a "week-end trip."

Witnesses who said they saw an automobile drive up the curbing alongside the Lee girl and the driver invite her for a ride were called to identify either of the two men, if possible. One of the witnesses, police said, said he could not positively do so.

The description of the car in which the schoolgirl is said to have been abducted also differs from McCune's automobile.

TODAY'S MARKETS

PORTLAND, May 16.—Because of accumulating supplies, poultry of all kinds has undergone material price reductions, according to announcement of a leading produce company. Country meats, on the other hand, have advanced, except for mutton, which has declined from 10@12c to 7@8c. Veal, pork and lamb are from ½c to 1c higher.

Eggs and butter are barely steady in the face of increasing receipts.

Reviewing the fruit and vegetable situation, the Portland bureau of the U. S. department of agriculture says:

"Continued cool damp weather has resulted in much slower consumer demand for strawberries and asparagus, also for tomatoes and cucumbers. Although supplies of these commodities are not heavy, trading is draggy, and prices are a shade weaker today.

"Local lettuce is more plentiful, quality varies widely, and much stock is very leafy. Crates of three dozen heads sold to retailers at $1.50@1.75, the lower price prevailing on later sales.

"Peas and green beans are steady. Demand for beans has been lessened, due to poor to ordinary quality of many California receipts. The Dalles is shipping a few peas, and local peas will follow shortly.

"Oregon's anticipated advantage of two or three weeks over the Puget Sound district, in date of strawberry maturity, has nearly disappeared, due to continued cold weather in this state, and warm weather in the sound district. Some strawberries at the banks and other Oregon districts are tending to rot on the vines, without ripening. Considerable loss is threatened, unless warmth and sunshine arrive soon."
