POEM FOR THE DAY

By LOUIS ALBERT BANKS

OUR AMERICAN KINDRED

Conciliation, Pan-Americanism and the "open door" will be the policy of the Colombian government under his administration, Enrique Olaya, president-elect of that country, told a group of editors and publishers at a dinner in his honor given by Karl Bickel, president of the United Press, here on April 21.

Mr. Olaya, who has just returned to the United States to continue in the post of Colombian minister to the United States until the eve of his inauguration in August, declared that Colombia, along with the rest of the Latin American republics, was making substantial political progress toward liberty and democracy. He declared there was no longer reason for the old popular conception of Latin America as a group of backward states whose chief characteristic was civil war, instead of this, he said, these republics have advanced to the point where they live in peace and order.

Mr. Olaya said the history of Latin America in the last 100 years has shown steady progress, and he stressed the need for furthering the work of continental civilization and understanding among all nations of the Western Hemisphere. This, he declared, is one of the great tasks of the present generation, in the work for peaceful development of Latin America. Mr. Olaya paid tribute to what the press of the United States has done.

"For many years," he said, "the statements of the American continents have been seeking very wisely the means to facilitate solidarity among our countries. In this undertaking the effort of the press is one of the most powerful elements. The services of the United States press have attained wonderful development in Latin American countries during recent years."—News story from New York, April 23, 1930.

These new republics of the West should have but one unifying text On which we always can agree— A loyal love of liberty.

Enrique Olaya brings us cheer: He loves the things we count most dear: Democracy, our passport call, He sees, the common goal of all.

Love equal rights for common men Where kings will never rule again; A perfect parity of sex Where outworn problems will not vex; Where every state is held at par, And all agree to outlaw war; To help each other's wealth increase— Like brothers, live in prosperous peace.

Colombia's newly chosen chief Joins with Colombia in belief That all our western world is kin; That through good fellowship we'll win. "Together" is our magic word, And must on all our lips be heard, That we must rise or fall together— In friendship find our sunny weather.

The airships swiftly bear our mail And link us on a skyline trail. Our speech, or waves of sound will go— We'll listen in o'er radio. In this bright age of modern trade When merchants, every land will raid, We'll soon suspicion's fears disarm And each perceive the other's charm.

SICKNESS MADE HER HAIR FALL OUT AND TURN GRAY

A Specialist Started Her to Using Lea's Hair Tonic Which Banished All Traces of Gray and Stopped It Falling Out

HAIR AS YOUTHFUL AS WHEN 20 YEARS OLD

"It was ten years ago that a spell of sickness caused my hair to begin falling out, and turning gray and at that time I was told to begin using Mrs. Lea's Hair Tonic. It is wonderful what it will do for the hair and an occasional application to my scalp has kept my hair perfect ever since then," declares Mrs. Agnes Marshall, who like thousands of others have found Lea's the finest preparation for the hair that money can buy. "Since getting such splendid results myself, I have often urged others to try it, and they too have obtained the same pleasing results. Even some of the beauty shops use it since they learned of what it will do, from me. So you see, I am a sincere endorser, and gladly send my picture that you may clearly see how nice my hair is, I would hate to tell you how old I am for you would never believe it. My hair actually looks like it did when I was a girl of twenty, and not a sign of gray," continued Mrs. Marshall of Romulus, Mich. "Thousands of men and women use Lea's though even an expert cannot detect it. Lea's works so nicely and gradual, the day by day improvement, and disappearance of gray is seldom noticed by friends, but in a few weeks time the user is amazed to note the closest search shows no gray hair. The hair and scalp appear healthier and growing out thicker and more beautiful. If the reader wishes to try Lea's Hair Tonic, let them obtain a bottle of local druggist, or send dollar bill, stamps, money or order or check to the well known Lea Tonic Co., Brentwood, Md. They gladly fill your order by mail clearly see how nice my hair is, I would hate to tell you how old I am for you would never believe it.
