

Flowers in Society

(Continued from page 2.)

Brown second. Table prize was won by Mrs. Helen Bell. The five hundred tables were in charge of Mrs. C. W. Parker.

The temple rooms were striking with many huge baskets of flowers in shades of pink, orchid and blue. Dorothy Perkins roses predominated.

Refreshments were served in the banquet room, where more flowers were in prominence. The serving table was lovely with several bouquets and long sprays of roses running the length of the table.

Young Matrons' Club of Myrtle Creek Entertained Thursday

Mrs. G. M. Jones entertained the Young Matrons' club at her home in Myrtle Creek on Thursday afternoon of this week.

Cards and sewing were enjoyed throughout the afternoon, and later the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Those present included Mrs. W. S. Rice, Mrs. Norman Duncan, Mrs. Hazel Rutledge, Mrs. Homer Gallop, Mrs. Bryan Dieckman, Mrs. John Wimer, Mrs. Ted Shirliff, Mrs. P. W. Diddel, Jr., Mrs. R. R. Ady and the hostess, Mrs. Jones.

Ladies of M. E. Church, South, Meet Thursday in Church Parlors

The ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, held their regular social meeting in the church parlors on Thursday afternoon.

The afternoon was spent making "socks" for the "sock social" to be held at an early date, at which the ladies will give a sketch entitled, "Much Ado About Nothing," in addition to other interesting numbers.

Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon meeting.

W. B. A. Meets Thursday in Maccabee Hall

The W. B. A. members met on Thursday evening of this week in the Maccabee hall for a social session.

The next meeting of the organization will be on June 5, at which time a practice will be held and plans laid for the official visit of the state president, Mrs. Julia V. Ward, on June 12.

Mrs. Merle Clark Is Guest of Honor at Lovely Shower

Mrs. Merle Clark was the guest of honor at a shower given on Thursday evening of this week at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. G. W. Pettit.

Games, music and conversation were enjoyed during the evening. Later dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Fred Arthur and Mrs. Lucy Arthur.

Many lovely gifts were presented to Mrs. Clark by her friends. Those present included the honor guest, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. John Dowell, Mrs. Dave Myers, Mrs. A. S. Wallace, Mrs. Irene Hebard, Mrs. C. E. Munson, Miss Mable Sebrina, Mrs. Frank Gorty, Mrs. Glen Rineo, Mrs. Owens, Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. Norwood, Mrs. Flora Clark, Mrs. Laura Ingersoll, Mrs. Howard Crook, Mrs. Lucy Arthur, Mrs. Fred Arthur, Mrs. Wesley Ashworth, Mrs. William Vogt, Mrs. C. C. Wamsley, Miss Emma Wamsley, Mrs. Frank Evans, Mrs. Margaret Dagland, Mrs. Frank Kent, Mrs. G. W. Pettit, Mrs. Clifton Hooper, Mrs. Lucy Kent and Mrs. Ray Arthur.

Mrs. Clark, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Arthur of Harvard avenue, has been visiting in this city for the past few weeks. Her home is in Oakland, California.

Ahneah Nika Camp Fire Girls Entertain Fathers With Dinner Friday

The girls of the Ahneah Nika Camp Fire group entertained their fathers on Friday evening of this week at a dinner at the Episcopal parish house in order to obtain their fireman's rank in the organization. The table was attractively decorated with bowls of roses, iris and other spring flowers. Mr. R. L. Whipple acted as toastmaster for the occasion.

Guests at the dinner were A. J. Geddes, Dr. H. R. Nerbas, J. S. McDonald, D. V. Rast, R. L. Whipple, Dr. B. R. Shoemaker, N. R. Brown, S. G. Sellick and the guardians of the group, Miss Enid Veatch and Mrs. T. G. Watson.

The girls who prepared the meal were Frances Sellick, Beryl Brunner, Helen McDonald, Janet Flickenscher, Dorothy Frear and Allena Brown.

The dinner was served by Mary Dell Geddes, Lois Ann Whipple, Sahlin Nerbas, Betty Shoemaker, Nellie Rast and Phyllis Ann Bolter.

Home Economics Club of Melrose Meets Thursday Afternoon

The Home Economics club of Melrose was entertained on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. T. Cloake. The rooms were made attractive with columbine, delphinium and other flowers of the season.

The afternoon was spent in sewing and conversation. Delicious refreshments were served later.

Mrs. E. R. Penn, Mrs. O. Matthews, Mrs. D. N. Eisenbark, Mrs. Royce Allen, Mrs. Topping, Mrs. Topping, Mrs. Max Meyers, Miss Katherine Mathews and the hostess, Mrs. Cloake.

Mrs. Beard Presents Pupils on Saturday in Music Recital

A pleasing hour of music was given by piano pupils of Mrs. C. H. Beard Saturday afternoon, June 17, at the home of Mrs. H. W. Grov. The titles of the selections forming the first part of the program were woven into a story, which provided an interesting continuity between the numbers. Variety was added between this and the last group of pieces when Mrs. Beard gave a short history of the piano-forte, illustrating the degrees of piano history in pictures.

Following the program Mrs. Homer Grov entertained with piano and whistling selections. Later dainty refreshments were served. Phyllis Althaus and Margaret Clutter assisted Mrs. Beard in the serving.

Those playing in the recital were Katherine Mahoney, Mary Price, Dorothy Asam, Betty Shout, Alvina Asam, Marjorie Coon, Helen Bond, Jane Wangerman, Elaine Barels, Helen Connine, Phyllis Althaus and Margaret Clutter.

Informal Luncheon Enjoyed Wednesday at Harrie Booth Home

Mrs. Harrie W. Booth and Mrs. A. J. Geddes arranged a pleasant affair on Wednesday afternoon of this week when they entertained with an informal one o'clock luncheon at Mrs. Booth's home in Laurelwood. Lovely Japanese iris and columbine graced the long serving table, which was beautifully lighted by tall green tapers.

The afternoon passed quickly with sewing and chatting. The sewing prize was won by Mrs. T. T. Mackenzie.

The guest list included Mrs. T. T. Mackenzie, Mrs. H. H. Turner, Mrs. Willard Craig, Mrs. Leroy Hatt, Mrs. B. E. Larson, Mrs. Harvey Roser, Mrs. E. M. Squier, Mrs. Clyde Beard, Mrs. Homer Grov, Mrs. W. M. Campbell and the hostesses, Mrs. Booth and Mrs. Geddes.

A group of girls from the junior high school held a picnic program of day afternoon after school at Alexander's park. Swimming and other outdoor sports were enjoyed followed by a picnic lunch.

Senior High Faculty Enjoys Outdoor Picnic at Dr. Finlay's Cabin

Dr. Finlay's cabin on South Deer creek was the scene of a very pleasant affair on Thursday afternoon when the members of the senior high school faculty enjoyed an outdoor picnic. The afternoon was spent with ball games and other athletic sports.

Towards evening a bountiful picnic dinner was furnished by the ladies. Following the dinner an interesting and varied program of stunts, songs and instrumental numbers was given. A gift from the entire faculty was presented by Miss Alice Ueland to B. E. Larson, principal, who will not return to Roseburg next year. Mr. Larson responded with a short talk of appreciation.

The evening was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Willard Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Beard, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hatt, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Roser, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Mackenzie, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Miss Pearl Timmons, Miss Ruth Duke, Miss Elizabeth Bennett, Miss Kate Buchanan, Miss Violet Mills, Miss Marian Anderson, Miss Alice Ueland and Leonard Riley, Jr.

Mrs. Connolly Entertains With Bridge Party Honoring Mrs. Fisher

A very enjoyable affair was arranged by Mrs. H. L. Connolly when she entertained on Friday afternoon with a bridge party complimenting Mrs. Orin Fisher, of Long Beach, California, formerly Miss Dorothy Orcutt of this city. Delphinium, columbine and dragon were used very effectively about the rooms. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Maurice Newland.

Several tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon. Highest honors at cards went to Mrs. Chester Morgan. A lovely guest prize was awarded to Mrs. Fisher.

Following bridge refreshments were served.

The guest list included the honor guest, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Harrie Booth, Mrs. Walter Herscher, Mrs. John Kovaly, Mrs. Edward Kohlhaen, Mrs. Frederick Hartung, Mrs. R. E. Jones, Mrs. Richard Coon, Mrs. Fred Lockwood, Miss Eva Rice, Mrs. Chester Morgan and Mrs. Maurice Newland.

Catholic Ladies' Sewing Circle Meets at Parish House

The Catholic Ladies' Sewing circle met on Wednesday afternoon of this week at the Parish house, with Mrs. J. G. Keenly and Mrs. Harry McClellan joint hostesses. About twenty members of the circle were present. Mrs. F. A. Bemis, Mrs. J. C. Hume and Mrs. Fred Green were guests of the society.

The regular business meeting was held, at which plans were made for a card party to be given on June 10, with Mrs. T. H. Ness as general chairman.

Prizes for the afternoon were won by Mrs. F. A. Bemis and Mrs. Gene Prince.

At a later hour refreshments were served at small tables tastefully decorated with sweet peas in pastel shades.

Annual Senior Banquet Given by Mothers Is Lovely Affair

Indoubtedly one of the most lovely affairs of the season in the social realm was the annual banquet for the members of the graduating class of the senior high school given by their mothers, on Friday evening in the First Methodist Episcopal church. The decorative motif was in blue and white, the class colors. Blue and white streamers were draped from the ceiling and table covers were in the same colors. Vases of blue and white Canterbury bells centered the tables, while tall white tapers shed a soft mellow light. The favors were clever little hand made white waxed black graduation caps and gowns. Individual corsages were placed at each plate.

A lively atmosphere was sustained throughout the evening by the singing of peppy songs between numbers. The program contained a clever stunt by the junior girls; an appreciation of B. E. Larson, given by Miss Marjorie Knight, and a response by Mr. Larson; a flower dance by Little Miss Madeline Stearns, who also presented to Miss Alice Ueland, senior class advisor, a beautiful basket of flowers from the mothers of the class members; several numbers by the senior pep orchestra; a vocal solo by Floyd Groves, accompanied by Mrs. Harriet Weatherford; a violin solo by Miss Naomi Scott, accompanied by Mrs. Dorothy Lander. A half hour of the program was given over to short, peppy toasts by the members of the graduating class and the faculty, with Tommy Bayles as toastmaster. The address of welcome was given by Mrs. A. S. Coe and the response made by the class president, Gordon Applewhite. Mrs. B. W. Maddox was the toastmaster. The address of the evening was given by Rev. Charles Edwards.

Mrs. Storey lies, general chairman of the affair, is to be congratulated on the highly successful evening. Mrs. E. E. Applewhite did some good work as chairman of the decorative committee. Other committees were headed by Mrs. T. B. Buesenbark, Mrs. R. L. Russell, Mrs. E. C. Richardson, Mrs. C. J. Dayles, Mrs. C. W. Groves and Mrs. B. W. Maddox.

Pupils of Mrs. Brand Presented in Recital at M. E. Church

On Thursday evening Mrs. Brand's spring students' recital was held at the South Methodist church. This recital was unusually interesting because many new voices were heard. Their stage presence and musically singing would have done credit to much more experienced singers. The brilliant singing of Mrs. Myers in the Rigoletto number deserves special mention, as does also "My Lovely Celia," sung by Dorothy Winston Lander, "Wings," sung by Clarabel Olson, the Cadman number by Mr. Hallmark, Beethoven's "Creation's Hymn," sung by Mrs. J. A. Harding, "Songs My Mother Taught Me," sung by Fern Hatt, and the baritone solos by Willard Craig and Louis Langenberg. Among the younger singers the charm and manner and voice of Vernita Pickens were remarked upon by the audience. Altogether it was an evening of pleasure for which the public feels indebted to the singers and the teacher, Mrs. Brand. The accompaniments by Mrs. Clyde Beard and Miss Gladys Strong were finely played. The program follows:

Duet, "Come Home," (Willeby) Mrs. J. A. Harding, Mrs. Willis Meyers.

"Serenade," (Schubert); "Creation's Hymn," (Beethoven) Mrs. Harding.

"By the Bend of the River," (Edwards); "Wings," (d'Harlelot), Clarabel Olson.

"Service," (Cadman); "I Love You," (Sobeski), Maurice Hallmark.

"My Happy Day," (Neville), "Little Bit of a Fellow," (Morris), Vernita Pickens.

"Bardemell's Stream," (Gatty), "Hills of Home," (Tux), Floyd Groves.

Duet, "O That We Two Were Maying," (Smith), Fern Scott, Clarabel Olson.

"Lullaby From Jocelyn," (Godard), "Songs My Mother Taught Me," (Dvorak), Fern Scott.

"Jean," (Burleigh), "Bells of the Sea," (Solman), Willard Craig.

"Caro Nome," from Rigoletto, (Verdi), Mrs. Meyers.

"I Love You Truly," (Bond), "Friend o' Mine," Louis Langenberg.

"My Lovely Celia," (Old English), arranged by Wilson.

"Cara Mia," (Russell), "Song of the Soul," (Brell), Mrs. LaVerne Lander.

Mrs. Denn Complimented With Attractive Luncheon on Thursday

Mrs. M. F. Rice and Miss Eva Rice entertained on Thursday of this week with an attractively appointed one o'clock luncheon, at their home on South Jackson street, complimenting Mrs. Joe Denn. A spring time atmosphere was created by the use of gracefully placed roses.

Mrs. Grant Osborn won high honors at bridge. The table prize was awarded to Mrs. Fred Lockwood.

The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. A. E. Kent, Mrs. Edward Squier, Mrs. Maurice Newland, Mrs. Chester Morgan, Mrs. Grant Osborn and Mrs. Harry Rice.

Boy Scouts Enjoy Weiner Roast Thursday

The Odd Fellows Boy Scout troop No. 2 enjoyed a weiner roast on Thursday evening of this week at the R. L. Russell home on Reservoir avenue.

The regular business session was held, after which games were played and the weiners and marshmallows were roasted over an open fire. About 20 members of the troop were present.

Camp Fire Girls Give Surprise Party Honoring Guardian

The Miwileta Camp Fire girls surprised their guardian, Mrs. E. S. Hall with a party in her honor Wednesday evening at her home. Various members of the group entertained with piano solos and duets during the evening. While refreshments were being served each girl expressed her appreciation of the work done by the guardian, Mrs. Hall, in helping make the organization a success.

Those present were Mrs. Hall, the guest of honor, Allene Walker, Avis Negley, Mary French, Margaret French, Dorothy Jackson, Gay Dubar, Frances Metzger, Anna May Ullrich, Rosie Neuriter, Jessie Pyron and Wanda Brunner.

Daughters of Job Entertain DeMolay Friday With Dance

A pleasant evening was spent on Friday of this week when the Daughters of Job entertained the DeMolay members at the Episcopal parish house. The rooms were artistically decorated with lovely spring flowers.

Dancing was enjoyed during the evening by the large number of young people present. Later punch was served.

Miss Margaret Ramsey, of McMinnville, spent last week-end in Roseburg as the guest of Mrs. C. H. Beard and Miss Gladys Strong.

4-H Cooking Club Entertains With Tea at Kleist Home

The Winston 4-H Cooking club entertained on Thursday evening of this week with a tea, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kleist. Lovely flowers were used in profusion in the room.

During the evening a team from the cooking club demonstrated part of their work for the past season.

Guests of the club were Mr. and Mrs. August Martin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kleist, Mrs. H. A. Winston and family, Mrs. O. M. Hopple and Miss Vivian Logsdon.

A large number of club members enjoyed the evening, which was pronounced a great success.

Mrs. Parrott Is Hostess to Garden Valley Women's Club

Mrs. Fred Parrott was hostess to the Garden Valley Women's club at her home on Thursday afternoon of this week. The rooms were beautifully decorated with pansies and roses.

After a brief business meeting the afternoon was spent in sewing carpet bags for the Children's Farm home in Corvallis. At a later hour the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Dean Henry and Mrs. James Fogel, served a delicious luncheon.

Guests of the club were Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Bosworth, Mrs. M. A. Hartley and Mrs. Fogel. Members present were Mrs. G. C. Bailey, Mrs. R. A. Calhoun, Mrs. R. Harmon, Mrs. C. W. Hughes, Mrs. R. S. Hutton, Mrs. G. McDaniel, Mrs. A. Niday, Mrs. J. L. Polvin, Mrs. Hugh Ritchie, Sr., Mrs. A. M. Schneider, Mrs. Peter Sinclair, Mrs. R. H. C. Wood, Mrs. Dean Henry, Mrs. G. Evans and the hostess, Mrs. Parrott.

The next meeting of the club will be on Thursday, June 5, at the home of Mrs. Krantz.

Mrs. Church Is Hostess to Friday Evening Bridge Club

The Friday Evening Bridge club was entertained this week at the home of Mrs. H. C. Church on East Third street. The rooms were made lovely with seasonal flowers.

Bridge was the entertainment of the evening.

Following cards delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Joe Denn, Mrs. J. K. Falbe, Mrs. Tom Ness, Mrs. W. H. Gerretsen, Mrs. Harry Pargeter, Mrs. Ralph Smith, Mrs. Roy Entler and the hostess, Mrs. Church, were those present.

Displays Ripe Raspberries—W. A. Long, of 1286 Empqua avenue, has brought in two boxes of ripe raspberries to the Roseburg chamber of commerce. These are the first two full boxes of ripe raspberries to be displayed at the chamber of commerce this season.

Attractions AT THE MOVIES

ANTLERS.—Last times today, "Applause," starring Helen Morgan; Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, "The Love Parade," with Maurice Chevalier and Jeanette MacDonald; Wednesday, Thursday, "Lord Riven of Broadway," all-talking, Charles Kaley, Cliff Edwards; Friday, Saturday, "The Great Divide," with Dorothy Mackaill.

LIBERTY.—Last times today, "The Light of the Western Stars," Zane Grey's all-talking romance; Sunday, Monday, "The Return of Sherlock Holmes," with Clive Brook, all-talking mystery; Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, "Second Wife," with Conrad Nagel and Lila Lee; Friday and Saturday, William Haines in "The Girl Said No," with Lella Hyams, Marie Dressler and Polly Moran.

Maurice Chevalier, noted French comedian, who plays in "The Love Parade" at the Antlers Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

MAURICE CHEVALIER, who has become the greatest European actor to achieve success in American films since Emil Jannings, will be seen and heard in his most gorgeous picture to date when "The Love Parade" opens at the Antlers theatre for a three-day run beginning on Sunday.

"The Love Parade" is something different in all-talking musical film productions, just as Chevalier is a personage entirely different from all other screen types.

Heading the supporting cast of "The Parade" is Jeanette MacDonald, lovely Philadelphia girl who made a rapid climb in musical comedy through two or three years of hard work abetted by a personal charm and beauty that just wouldn't allow her to stay in obscurity. This is her first all-talking production.

In all "The Love Parade" is the farthest point upward in the rapid climb of Paramount's New Show World productions. People in New York must sit a seat to see it when it opened at the Criterion. And it must have been worth it, for critics the next day used 129 "rave" adjectives in making their newspaper reports on this great musical romance smash.

A NOTABLE cast has been selected to present Sherlock Holmes, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's famous fiction detective, to the motion picture public in the all-talking feature, "The Return of Sherlock Holmes," at the Liberty theatre, starting Sunday.

Clive Brook has the role of Sherlock Holmes, master man-hunter of all time. H. Reeves-Smith plays the part of Dr. Watson, his faithful confidante. Prof. Moriarty will be seen in the person of Harry T. Morey, well known for past villainy. Sergeant Grierup will be faithfully portrayed by Hubert Bruce. And then there are a host of other characters, well known to the readers of these popular stories.

"The Return of Sherlock Holmes" brings this famous sleuth to the United States for the first time. The reason for his leaving the retired life, is the murder of his faithful friend, Captain Longmore on the eve of his son's wedding to the daughter of Dr. Watson. Holmes tracks the fiend to New York and succeeds in bringing them to justice, after a series of the most thrilling adventures he has ever encountered.

Visit in Medford—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Poole are leaving this evening for Medford where they will spend a few days as guests of Harry Lewis and his mother, Mrs. Lewis.

Exhibit Flowers in Eugene—The Roseburg Garden club exhibited an assortment of flowers furnished by Mrs. A. E. Kent, Mrs. Howard Waddell and Mrs. Charles Morey, well known for past villainy. Sergeant Grierup will be faithfully portrayed by Hubert Bruce. And then there are a host of other characters, well known to the readers of these popular stories.

Transacts Business Here—Phillip Ledyard came in from Azelea this morning to transact business.

Mr. Crane in Town—George Crane, of Medford, spent a few hours here this morning as a business visitor.

In From Tennille—Charles Rowell, of Tennille, spent a few hours here this morning in the interests of business.

Business Visitor From Dillard—Frank Miller, of Dillard, was a business visitor in Roseburg today.

In From Winston—Mr. and Mrs. George Winston, of Winston, were in town transacting business and visiting friends today.

Motor to Reedsport—M. J. Newland and Floyd Althaus motored to Reedsport this morning on business.

Here From Myrtle Creek—James Fisher, of Myrtle Creek, spent a few hours in this city yesterday on business.

Spend Week-end at Circle H—Mr. and Mrs. William Hopkins will spend the coming week-end at their ranch at Glide, the Circle H.

Mrs. Montgomery Visits—Mrs. R. B. Montgomery, of Lookingglass, was visiting and shopping in this city this morning for a few hours.

Mr. and Mrs. McCann in—Mr. and Mrs. Lee McCann, of Hoquiam, were in this city today transacting business and visiting friends.

Mrs. Hopple Shops—Mrs. O. M. Hopple, of Coos Junction, was shopping and visiting friends in Roseburg for a few hours this morning.

Mr. Strawn in Portland—W. B. Strawn left Thursday evening for Portland where he will attend to business interests. He will return to this city Sunday.

Yoncalla Residents in—Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wine, of Yoncalla, spent a few hours here yesterday visiting friends and transacting business.

lock Holmes, master man-hunter of all time. H. Reeves-Smith plays the part of Dr. Watson, his faithful confidante. Prof. Moriarty will be seen in the person of Harry T. Morey, well known for past villainy. Sergeant Grierup will be faithfully portrayed by Hubert Bruce. And then there are a host of other characters, well known to the readers of these popular stories.

"The Return of Sherlock Holmes" brings this famous sleuth to the United States for the first time. The reason for his leaving the retired life, is the murder of his faithful friend, Captain Longmore on the eve of his son's wedding to the daughter of Dr. Watson. Holmes tracks the fiend to New York and succeeds in bringing them to justice, after a series of the most thrilling adventures he has ever encountered.

Visit in Medford—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Poole are leaving this evening for Medford where they will spend a few days as guests of Harry Lewis and his mother, Mrs. Lewis.

Exhibit Flowers in Eugene—The Roseburg Garden club exhibited an assortment of flowers furnished by Mrs. A. E. Kent, Mrs. Howard Waddell and Mrs. Charles Morey, well known for past villainy. Sergeant Grierup will be faithfully portrayed by Hubert Bruce. And then there are a host of other characters, well known to the readers of these popular stories.

Transacts Business Here—Phillip Ledyard came in from Azelea this morning to transact business.

Mr. Crane in Town—George Crane, of Medford, spent a few hours here this morning as a business visitor.

In From Tennille—Charles Rowell, of Tennille, spent a few hours here this morning in the interests of business.

Business Visitor From Dillard—Frank Miller, of Dillard, was a business visitor in Roseburg today.

In From Winston—Mr. and Mrs. George Winston, of Winston, were in town transacting business and visiting friends today.

Motor to Reedsport—M. J. Newland and Floyd Althaus motored to Reedsport this morning on business.

Here From Myrtle Creek—James Fisher, of Myrtle Creek, spent a few hours in this city yesterday on business.

Spend Week-end at Circle H—Mr. and Mrs. William Hopkins will spend the coming week-end at their ranch at Glide, the Circle H.

Mrs. Montgomery Visits—Mrs. R. B. Montgomery, of Lookingglass, was visiting and shopping in this city this morning for a few hours.

Mr. and Mrs. McCann in—Mr. and Mrs. Lee McCann, of Hoquiam, were in this city today transacting business and visiting friends.

Mrs. Hopple Shops—Mrs. O. M. Hopple, of Coos Junction, was shopping and visiting friends in Roseburg for a few hours this morning.

Mr. Strawn in Portland—W. B. Strawn left Thursday evening for Portland where he will attend to business interests. He will return to this city Sunday.

Yoncalla Residents in—Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wine, of Yoncalla, spent a few hours here yesterday visiting friends and transacting business.

Exhibit Flowers in Eugene—The Roseburg Garden club exhibited an assortment of flowers furnished by Mrs. A. E. Kent, Mrs. Howard Waddell and Mrs. Charles Morey, well known for past villainy. Sergeant Grierup will be faithfully portrayed by Hubert Bruce. And then there are a host of other characters, well known to the readers of these popular stories.

Transacts Business Here—Phillip Ledyard came in from Azelea this morning to transact business.

Mr. Crane in Town—George Crane, of Medford, spent a few hours here this morning as a business visitor.

In From Tennille—Charles Rowell, of Tennille, spent a few hours here this morning in the interests of business.

Business Visitor From Dillard—Frank Miller, of Dillard, was a business visitor in Roseburg today.

In From Winston—Mr. and Mrs. George Winston, of Winston, were in town transacting business and visiting friends today.

Motor to Reedsport—M. J. Newland and Floyd Althaus motored to Reedsport this morning on business.

Here From Myrtle Creek—James Fisher, of Myrtle Creek, spent a few hours in this city yesterday on business.

Spend Week-end at Circle H—Mr. and Mrs. William Hopkins will spend the coming week-end at their ranch at Glide, the Circle H.

Mrs. Montgomery Visits—Mrs. R. B. Montgomery, of Lookingglass, was visiting and shopping in this city this morning for a few hours.

Mr. and Mrs. McCann in—Mr. and Mrs. Lee McCann, of Hoquiam, were in this city today transacting business and visiting friends.

Mrs. Hopple Shops—Mrs. O. M. Hopple, of Coos Junction, was shopping and visiting friends in Roseburg for a few hours this morning.

Mr. Strawn in Portland—W. B. Strawn left Thursday evening for Portland where he will attend to business interests. He will return to this city Sunday.

Yoncalla Residents in