"WILDCAT" DUNCAN OBSCENE IN TALKS, RADIO BODY TOLD

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Protests against alleged offensive speeches made by Robert Duncan defeated candidate for the Republican nomination for congress over station KVEP in Portland, Ore., were submitted to the federal radio commission today by John C. Kendall, representing the Better Business bureau there.

It was contended Duncan had attacked the character of Representative Korell, his opponent in the primary, and other prominent citizens of Oregon.

William B. Schaeffer, owner of the station, testified he never heard Duncan broadcast obscene language.

Schaeffer said he did hear Duncan use such expressions as "low-down, yellow cur, vulture and drunk." He said he cautioned him to tone down his speeches but that Duncan told him he had no author ity to censor political talks.

Counsel for the commission introduced evidence that Schaeffer's station had failed to keep on its assigned wave lengths and had not complied with an order of the commission to divide time with another station.

PORTLAND, May 28.—Robert Gordon Duncan, self-styled "Oregon wildcat," whose talks over radio station KVEP here have led to requests that the license of the station be revoked, will speak here in the Coliseum here tonight. Police headquarters announced that seventy patrolmen have been assigned to the Coliseum to preserve order.

RELIEF FROM CURSE OF CONSTIPATION

A Battle Creek physician says, "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause." But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose.

Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c today at the nearest Rexall Drug Store.—Adv.

CLEMMA BURNETT,
Administratrix.

In Honor of all who have passed on, and more particularly in remembrance of those who have worn the Blue, the Gray, the Khaki and the Olive Drab, all of us should observe, with fitting reverence, Memorial Day—day of memories, indeed.

Devote at least a few minutes, on Memorial Day to a consideration of the sacrifice for the principles of government in which they believed.

*An investigation conducted by the Association of Life Insurance Medical Directors and the Actuarial Society of America revealed the fact that the death rate increases practically 1% for every pound of excess weight carried between the ages of 40 and 44 years. In other words, a man 40 pounds overweight at this age has only 60% of the expectancy of life of a man of normal weight. We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky instead," you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.
