All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and Personal—Should Be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

With the arrival of the early summer season society has found much in which to interest itself. Next week the city schools will close and many of the school teachers will leave the city for their summer homes and to attend schools. With the end of the term in state schools the young people who have been away will return to their homes in Roseburg.

Graduation exercises, both in the local schools and in the colleges and universities, are holding the attention of many in the Roseburg circles. Memorial day services have been observed by many in the city this week.

June, with its weddings and its showers for brides-elect, is almost upon us, and already the announcements of several weddings and engagements have created much interest in social circles.

Girls' Club Councils Delightfully Entertained by Miss May Moore

Miss May Moore entertained on Wednesday evening of this week at a delightful affair when she arranged a dinner for the outgoing and incoming councils of the Girls' Club of the Roseburg senior high school. The dinner was given in Miss Elizabeth Bourhill's rooms in the Kohlhaagen apartments. The table was centered with a basket of beautiful Lady Huntington roses, and lighted with tall yellow tapers. The hostess was assisted by Miss Bourhill and Miss Naomi Scott.

Five hundred was the evening's diversion following the dinner. Miss Lydia Wilson was awarded first prize at cards, and Miss Dorothy Jackson received award for second highest score.

Miss Moore was delightfully surprised when the girls presented her with two very fine golf clubs, a gift from the Girls' Club of the high school.

The outgoing council consisted of Miss Joyce Buehnbark, president; Miss Elaine Patterson, vice-president; Miss Lucille Peterson, secretary; Miss Evelyn Thomason, treasurer; and Miss Barbara Clark, sergeant-at-arms.

The new council is composed of Miss Lydia Wilson, president; Miss Maxine Laird, vice-president; Miss Dorothy Jackson, treasurer; Miss Elizabeth Williams, secretary; and Miss Ada Martin, sergeant-at-arms.

Mrs. Walter Leake Entertains Friday With Informal Dinner

Mrs. Walter Leake arranged an enjoyable informal affair when she entertained a group of relatives and close friends on Friday evening of this week with a six o'clock dinner. Roses were used about the rooms to form the attractive decorative note.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. George Neuner and children, Miss Betty Neuner, Miss Carol Neuner and George Jr., of Portland, Miss Evelyn Nolan, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Campbell, Mrs. Sam Leake, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leake, and their daughter, Miss Helen Patricia.

Bridge Party Enjoyed on Tuesday Evening in Bell Apartments

Among the week's pleasurable affairs in the social realm was the bridge party arranged on Tuesday evening by Miss Marie Ring and Miss Pearl Timmons in the Bell apartments. A note of spring was introduced into the rooms by the use of seasonal flowers.

Bridge formed the entertainment of the evening. Prizes were awarded to Miss Eva Coy and Miss Nellie Weston.

At the close of the evening the hostesses served dainty refreshments.

The guest list included Miss Elizabeth Bourhill, Miss Thelma Smith, Miss Emma Ueland, Miss Edna Dulko, Miss Genevieve Thomsen, Miss Marion Anderson, Miss Thelma Hetherington, Mrs. Wm. Bell, Miss Kate Buchanan, Miss Eva Coy, Miss Weston and Miss Violet Mills.

Bridge Club Entertained Tuesday Afternoon by Mrs. Geo. Wharton

The members of her bridge club and a few additional guests were very pleasantly entertained on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. George Wharton at her lovely home on Claire street. Sweet peas, roses and snapdragons were arranged about the rooms to form the colorful decorations.

Several tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon. High honors were won by Mrs. Guy Gordon.

At tea hour dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Guests of the club were Mrs. Harry Paueger and Mrs. A. O. Botteon, Miss members present were Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Sam Shoemaker, Mrs. W. F. Harris, Mrs. J. C. Leedy, Mrs. Fred Hamilton, Mrs. Hiram West, Mrs. Charles Lockwood, Mrs. R. L. Whipple and the hostess.

Mrs. Hughes Surprised With Farewell Party on Wednesday Evening

Mrs. J. B. Hughes was pleasantly surprised on Wednesday evening of this week when a group of her friends met at her home to honor her with a farewell party. Mrs. Hughes is leaving at the close of school for Alturas, California, where her husband is employed.

An enjoyable informal hour was spent with visiting and listening to radio music. At a later hour refreshments were served.

Mrs. Hughes was the recipient of a lovely gift presented by her friends.

The list included besides Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Anna Dabney, Mrs. C. W. Lawson, Mrs. Bertron Courtney, Mrs. William Sanders, Mrs. Harold Taylor, Miss Cora Moore, Mrs. Ward Cummins and Mrs. Ed Bayles.

Glide Baptist Ladies Hold Regular Meeting Wednesday, May 21st

The members of the Baptist Ladies Aid and Missionary society of Glides held their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday afternoon, May 21, in the new church, which has just been completed.

The president of the society was in charge of the business session and the devotional service. Quilting was the main feature of the work for the afternoon.

"No-host" lunch was served at a late hour to the following guests: Mrs. F. S. Blakely, Mrs. Eldred Shirin, Mrs. George Casper, Mrs. Will Price, Mrs. S. D. Chapman, Mrs. Sarah Wimer, Mrs. Fred Asm, Mrs. Charlie Christensen, Mrs. C. D. Tateott, Mrs. H. D. Conline.

The ladies netted a neat sum at the lunch and supper they sponsored on election day. They plan to use the proceeds from those to furnish the kitchen and dining room in the basement of the new church.

The regular meeting, which will be held in June, will be at the home of Mrs. H. L. Ennels.

Bridge Supper Is Pleasant Affair of Saturday Evening

Miss Alice Ueland and Miss Emma Ueland arranged a very pleasant affair on Saturday evening, May 24, when they entertained in their home on Harrison street with a sixty-three bridge supper.

The decorative motif in yellow was artistically carried out about the rooms and on the tables with spring flowers.

Several tables of bridge were in play following the supper. Mrs. Clair K. Allen received the prize for the highest score. Second prize was awarded to Miss May Moore.

Frocks That Go Golfing, Latest Sports Attire

From Hollywood comes the latest attire for the fastidious golfer. A short, pleated white shantung frock, with a brown and white dotted scarf, will be the familiar costume on golf links during the present season.

Junior High School Class Day Program Given Thursday

On Thursday afternoon the graduating class of the Junior high school entertained the school student body with the class day program.

Some excellent dramatization was done by the members of the class who presented a play, "Oh, Didn't It Rain." The play cast included Rose Neuberger, Earl Crawford, Dale Simmons, Patricia Neal, Elaine Bares, Sherwood Nicholas, George Bacher, Harrison Winston, Margaret Dent, Billy Wharton, Genevieve Barnett.

Following the play the class will be read by Rita Houser, the class poem by Patricia Neal, and a gift from the student body was presented to principal D. E. Oleman by Dale Simmons. The program was concluded by the singing of the class song.

Wedding of Miss Thomas in Coming Week Is Event of Interest

An event of the coming week which will be of interest to many in Roseburg is the marriage of Miss Maured Thomas of Portland to Farwell U. Webb, on Saturday evening, June 7. The ceremony will take place at seven-thirty in the evening at the home of Miss Ludmas. Mrs. Charles Heinline of this city, relative of the bride, will be present and will play the wedding march.

Miss Thomas has many friends in this city, being the sister of Miss Genevieve Thomas, instructor in the Roseburg senior high school, and the niece of Mrs. S. A. Sanford. She is a graduate of the Oregon State college.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurber Honor Guests Sunday at Pot Luck Supper

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Berrie's summer camp of the North Umpqua river was the scene of a delightful pot luck supper last Sunday evening, when the members of the Chinaman's Holiday club and their husbands entertained in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Thurber, who left recently to make their home in The Dalles.

Those enjoying the seven o'clock supper were the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Pickens, Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Wade, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Church, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Quins, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Huber, Mr. and Mrs. John McClintock, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wharton and Mr. and Mrs. Berrie.

Series of Recitals by Heinline Pupils Enjoyed by Large Number

Large and appreciative audiences have attended the series of spring recitals in which Mrs. Charles Heinline has presented her music pupils. The students have shown a knowledge of music and have had good technique, and have done their work in a very creditable manner.

Groups of children in rhythmic bands have been a feature of the recitals, which have been especially enjoyed. On Monday evening Miss Vera McClintock assisted in the program with some very beautiful solo songs.

In the Thursday evening recital the practicability of the "Melody Way" work was very clearly demonstrated as the pupils taking part in this recital had received class instruction only, and played their solo parts with good technique and transposed into keys of three and four flats.

The recital to be given next Monday evening, June second, will close the series. The most advanced pupils will participate in this program, which promises to be very good, indeed. Leroy Hiatt will assist with vocal solos.

Although seventy-one students of Mrs. Heinline are included in the "Melody Way" and advanced work recitals, besides eight who were presented in the kindergarten event.

Episcopal Church Guild Supper Given Thursday in Parish House

Sixty-five or seventy people were present at the Episcopal church guild supper given on Thursday evening of this week at the Episcopal parish house. The rooms were decorated with artistically arranged cut flowers and roses.

During the meal and following it a program of radio music was enjoyed.

Mrs. J. C. Hume was head of the committee which supervised the arrangements for the supper. She was assisted by Mrs. J. A. Soules and Mrs. Ellen Post. The entertainment committee was headed by Ted Post.

Miss Jessie Judd Elected President of Alpha Tau Society

Miss Jessie Judd, freshman at the University of Oregon, was recently elected president of the Alpha Tau society, a group composed of those taking the five year nursing course offered by the university. The purpose of this group is to interest freshmen in the five year nursing course.

Miss Judd, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Judd of this city, is a member of the Delta Zeta national social society and has been active in W. C. A. work on the university campus. Miss Judd is well known among the younger circles in this city, having graduated from the local high school last year.

Summer Style and Comfort

The millinery shown at New York City displayed headgear which will be in vogue for summer wear. (Upper) The tea and garden hat of lace straw strikes the latest fashion note for summer headgear. (Lower) A large hat of ruffled maline, with flowers at the ear, called the "tea hat," bids fair to become extremely popular for comfortable wear during the hot summer days.

A crowd of over 250 parents and friends of graduating junior high school students filled the auditorium of the school Wednesday evening when the Junior High P. T. A. sponsored its reception in honor of the 9-A grade pupils who advance to the senior high school.

A short business meeting of the P. T. A. presided over by the president, J. W. Metzger, opened the evening. At this time officers were elected for the coming school year as follows: President, Miss J. C. Leedy; vice-president, Miss Edna Veitch; secretary, Mrs. Chas. Roberts; treasurer, Scott Williams.

The eighty-one graduates marched into the auditorium and were seated in a section reserved for them. Music for the procession was played by an instrumental quartet. Several piano solos were also given.

A most enjoyable part of the program was the presentation of "Oh, Didn't It Rain?" a three-act comedy of romance and adventure in a cabin in the Adirondack mountains. The twelve members of the class who made up the cast gave a most creditable performance and received a great deal of applause.

Rev. Alexander Menden, of the Presbyterian church, delivered a short inspirational talk to the students using as his topic "Playing the Game," and comparing life to a baseball game. Happiness and success could only be attained, he said, by striving always to "play square" and aim for the highest ideals.

A response from the class and a short talk by Principal D. E. Oleman followed. Two vocal numbers by Miss Vera McClintock were much enjoyed following the talks. The high school orchestra under the direction of Louis Lauberg played a number of selections, the closing number on the program.

Following the program the P. T. A. served refreshments to those present.
