Mr. and Mrs. Chapman Are Honor Guests at Delightful Affair

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lockwood presided at a delightful affair on Wednesday evening of this week when they entertained the members of the Wednesday Evening Bridge club and a few additional guests at Rumble Inn, in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chapman, who were celebrating their silver wedding anniversary and the former's birthday.

The guests, arrayed in old-fashioned costumes, assembled at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wharton and marched from there to Rumble Inn in a very amusing mock wedding procession, greatly surprising Mr. and Mrs. Chapman. J. A. Harding acted as groom, with Miss Elizabeth Parrott, the bride, Charles Lockwood officiating at the ceremony. Mrs. B. H. Moore was ring bearer, Mrs. J. A. Harding the bridesmaid, and Charley Wharton acted as best man. The procession of the march was played by Miss Naomi Scott.

Following the mock wedding, a seven o'clock dinner was served at tables decorated with a candelabra, a unique birthday cake and a wedding cake. Flowers were artistically arranged about the rooms.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Arthur Baum.

Cards and dancing amused the guests at the close of dinner.

Marriage of Miss Miller and Mr. Starr Solemnized Sunday

A wedding of interest to many in Roseburg circles was that of Miss Lucille Miller of Wilbur and Byron Starr of Oakland, which was solemnized on Sunday.

The first at ten o'clock in the morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. C. Wood on North Jackson street. The rooms had been made very attractive for the occasion with pink roses.

Rev. W. R. Baled, of the local Christian church, read the ceremony.

Miss Lucie Miller, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. Myron Wood acted as best man.

The bride was charming in a gown of georgette in a pale pink shade, cut on the popular fitted lines with a flaring skirt and deep cape collar, which was trimmed with cream colored lace. She carried a bouquet of sweet peas arranged with maidenhair fern.

The groom was charming in the couple who were present included the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Miller of Wilbur, the groom's mother, Mrs. Starr of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Wood and Myron Wood, Miss Lucie Miller, Miss Edith Jones of Eugene, Miss Opal Jones and Arnold Jones of Wilbur, Lyle Miller and Miss Eva Miller.

Immediately following the ceremony an informal reception was held.

The bride is well known in Wilbur circles, having graduated from the Wilbur high school in 1927, and having spent the summer of 1929 in the company of a ranch on the Calaveras near Oakland.

The couple left for a ten days trip to Oregon caves, Cascade City, California and other points. They plan to return by way of the Roosevelt highway.

Twins Celebrate Sixth Birthday Anniversary With Party Saturday Afternoon

Miss Arlene Dunham of Marshfield and her twin brother, Arie Bradburn of Roseburg, celebrated their sixth birthday anniversary Saturday afternoon at the beautiful country home of Dr. and Mrs. George A. Bradburn at Winston.

The children spent the afternoon playing games and enjoying contests. Prizes were won by Miss Agnes Winston, Miss Charlotte Lockwood, Robert Dunham and Dewey Wilson, Jr.

Last of the afternoon the children were seated at a prettily decorated table in the dining room. Favors in pastel shades, nursery rhyme napkins and a lovely birthday cake covered with candles composed the table decorations.

Those invited included Miss Joan Hume, Miss Charlotte Lockwood, Miss Helen Jane Farrington, Gordon Gerretsen and Tommy Lockwood, all of Roseburg, Miss Beverly, Miss Virginia and Miss Eula Agnes Winston, Miss Susan Jane Bradburn and Miss Georgine Johnson, of Winston, Mrs. Dewey Wilson, Sr., and two children, Dewey, Jr., and Miss Wilma Jean, Mrs. Russell Dunham and son, Robert, all of Marshfield, Mrs. S. E. Collier and Mrs. I. G. Broadway of Roseburg, Mrs. Harry Winston, Mrs. Fred Porter and Mrs. George Bradburn of Winston.

The little host and hostess received many lovely gifts from their friends.

Mrs. Jack Murphy Surprised With Dinner of Charming Appointments

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Boyer presided over an affair of charming appointments when they entertained with a four o'clock dinner on Monday afternoon, surprising their daughter, Mrs. Jack T. Murphy, in honor of her birthday. Seasonal flowers had been placed about the rooms to form the decorations.

Covers were laid for the honor guest, Mrs. Murphy, Mr. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eichenlaub, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. George Blair, Miss Loraine Mason, Mrs. Ina, Mrs. Harvey G. Brown, Mr. Kelly and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Boyer.

Cards were played in the afternoon following the dinner.

Many lovely gifts were presented to Mrs. Murphy by her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Frew, Miss Melba Frew and Chester Frew are leaving next Tuesday morning for the east, returning to the old homes of Mr. and Mrs. Frew for the first time since their coming to Oregon seventeen years ago.

They plan to visit at Mrs. Frew's old home in Geneseo, Illinois, in Chicago, Illinois, and enroute will stop at Sulina, Kansas, where a brother of Mr. Frew is living. They will spend a large part of the visit with Mr. Frew's parents, his mother or being in very poor health.

The party expects to return to Roseburg in the first part of August.

Beige Crepe Enhances Season's Street Frock

Picnic at Umpqua Park Is Greatly Enjoyed

Parker and Mrs. Edward Scheffler motored to Bridge Tuesday where they attended a Pythian Sisters' district convention of Cous Bay temples. Mrs. Maris, G. J. of the Oregon Pythian Sister grand lodge, visited the convention in her official capacity.

Neighbors of Woodcraft Meet Monday Evening

The regular meeting of the Lilac Circle number 43 of the Neighbors of Woodcraft was held on Monday evening of this week in the Macintosh hall.

The usual business session was held. Mrs. Tillie Johnson was elected as past guardian, with Mrs. Tillie Hughes, who left recently for Alturas, California.

Creations of Fashion Mode

At left is the youthful ensemble in silhouette which will be the Dennis Crt this coming season. Interesting features are the high waist creation for formal afternoon wear. The flounce suggests a low pepplum with lace sleeves flared at the elbow with cape effect.

Catholic Ladies' Society Gives Party Wednesday Honoring Leaving Members

A party honoring Mrs. J. G. Koenig and Mrs. Harry Kenny was given on Wednesday afternoon of this week in the parish hall by the Catholic ladies, with Mrs. Charles Krogel as hostess. Baskets and bowls of summer flowers were arranged about the hall. Each table was decorated with a bud vase holding sweet peas and forget-me-nots.

The usual business meeting was held, at which plans were completed for a card party to be held Tuesday, June tenth. Mrs. Tom Ness will be general chairman of the affair, with Mrs. A. P. Rapin, Mrs. W. J. Gomer and Mrs. Fayette Laurenberg as assistants.

Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Joseph Heiderich, Mrs. L. B. Nichols and Mrs. Richard Willett.

Besides the members of the society, Mrs. E. A. Bemis, Mrs. George Chandler, Mrs. Alvin Knudson, Mrs. Hess, Mrs. Fred Green and Mrs. Klone were present as guests.

Mrs. Koenig is leaving soon for Alturas, California, where her husband is employed by the Southern Pacific. Mrs. Kenny will leave soon for Glide, where her husband is now employed.

Home Missionary Society Holds Jubilee Meeting

The jubilee meeting of the Home Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church was held on Tuesday afternoon of this week.

Officers elected at the business session were Mrs. H. A. Canaday, president; Mrs. Dan Egly, vice-president; Mrs. George Leeper, treasurer.

The mite box opening was held with very pleasing results.

The afternoon's program was in the form of a travelogue touching the different points in the United States, Alaska and Hawaiian islands where the church has homes for unfortunate children. A play, "The Corinthian Church," was put on by fourteen girls. Other features of the program were a piano solo by Miss Dorothy Leeper and a reading by Miss Wynona Borjett.

After the program a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments served.

A large number of visitors from Dillard and Lookingglass attended the meeting.
