Shall the Band Go?

Is Roseburg going to send its band to Portland? That question must be answered within a few days...

The question narrows itself down to one of finances. It is now up to citizens and business men...

The members of the band are giving a great deal to the city. They practice faithfully each Tuesday night, week in and week out...

A little money has been raised through special concerts and dances but several hundred dollars must be raised to insure the expenses of the Portland trip.

This is a worthy enterprise and a hearty response will surely be rewarded by a serious and determined effort by the band to win first prize in the Portland contest.

Clark Wood, clever editor of the Weston, Oregon, Leader, is quoted in the Literary Digest as saying that "at least the slipshod business is picking up..."

SECRETARY OF STATE HOSS, back from a national safety council conference in Washington, D. C. finds himself more impressed than ever with the inadequacy of Oregon's law for the licensing of automobile drivers...

One who is to drive a car ought to know how to drive a car. The only way whereby the fitness of an applicant for the privilege of driving can be determined is to test him. Some simple form of examination in knowledge of the car's common equipment, in starting and accelerating and stopping; in signalling and in understanding signals ought for the public safety to be imposed upon every applicant...

DIES OF POISON AS WIFE BEFORE HIM

FAIR HAVEN, N. J., June 12.—Poison, apparently taken by accident, was declared officially to have caused the death of Donald Shields Andrews, chemical engineer, who in 1915, when a student at Yale, eloped with a princess. His partner in the sensational elopement, Mrs. Alma V. Hayden, also known as the Princess Veyers of Austria, took her life by poison at the second victory ball in London in 1919...

BRINGING UP FATHER

Maybe I'm Wrong

By J. P. MEDBURY

TIMES are so hard in Chicago that thugs are now holding up pedestrians on the deferred payment plan.

Excuse it Please—The average wife is the impediment in her husband's speech.

Wonders of Nature—The ladder of success seems to be made out of slippery elm.

Social Errors—The millionaire who had falling arches so had it kept four servants busy picking them up.

20th Century Efficiency—Throwing banana skins on the stairs so you can tell what time your husband comes in.

Simplisticisms—An optimist is a man who takes his wife window shopping while the stores are still open.

Take it or Leave it—The Prince of Wales' saddle seems to be the tumble seat.

Null and Void—The farmer who hired a piano tuner to tighten his barbed wire fences.

Justifiable Homicide—When your husband is so stingy he goes down to the public library to read the EXTRAS.

Our Own Vaudeville—Guest: This is a beautiful little apartment. Why are you moving? Host: My wife is getting too stout for the kitchenette.

Just like summer underwear, which appeared in this newspaper recently.

If you did, it is a fairly safe bet that you snorted: "Huh! If I ever catch a SON OF MINE wearing those things out in public I'll run him from here to the California line with a barrel stave!"

YET those short pants are clear- ly and plainly sensible for summer wear. They are infinitely more sensible than the heavy garments in which men and boys ordinarily clothe themselves in the summer season.

It is only because THEY ARE NEW that they shock us. Just as soon as we become thoroughly familiar with them—assuming, of course, that enough men brave the storm of popular disapproval of that which is new and wear them long enough to get us accustomed to them—we will come around to the conclusion that they are QUITE ALL RIGHT.

HUMAN beings, you see, are inherently conservative. They are fundamentally opposed to change. They want things to go on ALWAYS just as they have always gone on before.

That is why progress is slow. It is only because a few courageous pioneers are willing to step out and do something that nobody has done before that we have any progress at all.

Attractions AT THE MOVIES

ANTLERS—Today, Friday, Saturday, "Montana Moon" with Joan Crawford.

LIBERTY—Today, Friday, Saturday, Richard Arlen in "Burning Up," with Mary Brian, all-talking.

JOAN CRAWFORD appears tonight in "Montana Moon," a musical comedy of the west. Miss Crawford's supporting cast includes: John Mack Brown, Dorothy Sebastian, Ricardo Cortez, Benny Rubin, Cliff Edwards, Karl Danz and Lloyd Ingraham.

Information is that this is one of the first pictures to be filmed without the use of artificial scenery, all the exterior scenes being taken on a cattle ranch in the San Jacinto mountains, 200 miles north of Los Angeles. A large part of the extra cast was recruited from the cowboys employed on the ranch whose tricks in the way of riding unruly horses, lassoing cattle, etc., are said to play an important part in the production.

RICHARD ARLEN, the lovable young hero of "Winns," "Manhattan Cocktail," "The Man I Love," seen here recently in "The Virginian," will be the stellar attraction at the Liberty for 3 days, starting today, in "Burning Up." Mary Brian is his sweetheart in his first starring picture, and an able supporting cast, including four of the most popular character actors on the screen, carry the colorful subordinate parts.

"Burning Up" is a fast action-romance with Arlen as a youthful automobile racing demon. Mixed up with a gang of crooked race promoters and in love with Mary Brian, who father is marked as a victim of the game, Arlen defeats his reputation, defeats the gang and wins the girl in one of the most thrilling climaxes ever seen in either a silent or a talking moving picture.

MRS. CINA TRULOVE OF MYRTLE CREEK DIES IN 88TH YEAR

Mrs. Cina Trulove, widow of the late William T. Trulove, died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. N. G. Buell, at Myrtle Creek. She was 88 years of age, a native of Tennessee and had lived at Myrtle Creek for the past thirteen years.

WHY FAT MEN STAY FAT

The trouble with me, and I guess this applies to 99% of the men who are putting on weight, I didn't have the energy or "pep" to keep it off. Lost all interest in any healthy activity and just lazed around accumulating the old pounds until I got that "Kruschen feeling."

Start taking Kruschen Salts—that's the common-sense way to reduce—but don't take them with the idea that they possess reducing qualities in themselves.

This is what they do—they clean out the impurities in your blood by keeping the bowels, kidneys and liver in splendid working shape and fill you with a vigor and tireless energy you'd most forgotten had existed.

As a result instead of planting yourself in an easy chair every free moment and letting flabby fat accumulate you feel a urge for activity that keeps you moving around doing the things you've always wanted to do and needed to do to keep you in good condition.

Then watch the pounds slide off! Kruschen Salts are the up-to-date fountain of youth. Take one half teaspoonful in a glass of hot or cold water tomorrow morning and every morning—and if they don't change your whole idea about reducing, so back and get the small price you hold for them. Get an 85 cent bottle of Kruschen Salts—lasts 4 weeks—at Nathan Furber's or any progressive drugstore anywhere in the world—Adv.

MRS. CINA TRULOVE OF MYRTLE CREEK DIES IN 88TH YEAR

Mrs. Cina Trulove, widow of the late William T. Trulove, died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. N. G. Buell, at Myrtle Creek. She was 88 years of age, a native of Tennessee and had lived at Myrtle Creek for the past thirteen years.

The remains were brought to the Roseburg Undertaking parlors, whence they will be taken Friday morning by M. E. Ritter, in charge of arrangements, to the Fisher-Braden Undertaking parlors at Albany, Oregon, where funeral services will be held. Interment will follow at Lebanon, Linn county. Mrs. Trulove was a woman of fine Christian character and was loved in her home community for many kindly acts.

Besides Mrs. Buell, Mrs. Trulove is survived by another daughter, Mrs. J. B. Anderson, of Athena, Oregon, and the following sons:

W. T. Trulove, of Troutdale, Ore.; L. H. Trulove, of Lebanon, Ore.; Ed Trulove, of Albany, Ore.; Frank Trulove, of Harrisburg, Ore.; Charles Trulove, of Carbondale, Ill.; A. Trulove, of Portland, Ore.; and E. D. Trulove, of Klamath Falls, Ore.
