Attractions AT THE MOVIES

ANTLIERS—Today, Saturday, "Montana Moon" with Joan Crawford.

LIBERTY—Today, Saturday, Richard Arlen in "Burning Up," with Mary Brian, all-talking.

JOAN CRAWFORD does her best bit of acting to date in "Montana Moon," her new musical western offering which opened last night at the Antlers theatre. Seen as the daughter of a millionaire ranch owner who is visiting her father's properties in Montana with a group of eastern friends and falls in love with a cowboy who is obviously out of place in her sophisticated circles, Miss Crawford gives an inspired performance in a picture which for plot interest, expert direction and stirring acting may be placed way up on the list of best pictures of 1930.

The film is permeated with a number of intriguing songs and lyrics among which are "Happy Cowboy," "The Moon Is Low," and "Trillin' In 'Old Montan'". Miss Crawford's performance is well supported by the other members of the cast, John Mack Brown making an appealing cowpuncher, Ricardo Cortez, long absent from the screen, making his return in this picture as the villain, Dorothy Sebastian scoring in a sister role, Lloyd Ingraham, as the heroine's father, while ample comedy is afforded by a laugh-irre composed of Karl Dane, Cliff Edwards and Benny Rubin.

Guests From Molalla—Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Fletcher, of Molalla, are spending a few days in this city visiting at the home of Mrs. Fletcher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harpster.

A METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER PICTURE

YOU'VE seen western pictures before—but this is something else again. Here's the "Untamed" star in a great talkie of the wide open spaces. She's gorgeous in this thrilling melodrama, embellished with marvelous cowboy chants and ballads right from the "hone parades". It's got freshness and interest and heart appeal. Fifty real, hand-riding cowpunchers singing around the campfire.
