

WOMEN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

By DOROTHY DIRKS

All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and Personals—Should Be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

TRUE to June traditions, wedding and showers for brides and brides-elect are coming to the fore in social events of the month. Several lovely weddings, both in Roseburg and in other cities, have been solemnized during the past week, and two local girls have been the inspiration for bridal showers.

Several out-of-town visitors have been entertained as guests in this city, both this week-end and last. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Stephenson of Madison, Wisconsin, house guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Stephenson, were the center of several delightful affairs.

With the coming of balmy weather, outdoor affairs are increasing in prominence, and picnics and garden parties are being substituted for teas and luncheons. Vacations and outings are occupying the attention of many, especially now that all the schools have closed.

Quite a number of Roseburg matrons and maids have enjoyed the Rose Festival in Portland this week.

Wedding of Miss Metcalf, Former Roseburg Girl, Set for June 16th

The wedding of Miss Frances Metcalf, former Roseburg girl, and William Schulze of Yakima, Washington, which will be solemnized on Monday, June 16, in Eugene, is an event that will hold much interest for Roseburg circles.

Miss Metcalf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Metcalf, who formerly resided here, graduated with this year's class from the University of Oregon. Mr. Schulze is a graduate of the university in the class of '29.

Mrs. Krantz Hostess to Garden Valley Women's Club

Mrs. W. L. Krantz was hostess to the Garden Valley Women's club on Thursday afternoon, June 13. Roses and potted plants introduced a note of color into the room.

After a brief business meeting a delicious lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Fogel, Mrs. Hutton and Miss Margerite Ferguson.

Members present included Mrs. C. C. Bailey, Mrs. R. A. Calhoun, Mrs. Donna Ferguson, Mrs. R. S. Hutton, Mrs. G. McDaniel, Mrs. A. Niday, Mrs. F. G. Parrott, Mrs. L. L. Potvin, Mrs. Ritchie Sr., Mrs. A. M. Schneider, Mrs. D. A. Utterback, Mrs. J. W. Young, Mrs. F. G. Owens and the hostess, Mrs. Krantz.

Tri-Square Club Members Entertained Wednesday at Snoddy Home

A very pleasant evening was enjoyed on Wednesday at this week at the home of Mrs. C. P. Snoddy on South Pine street, the occasion being the meeting of a group of the members of the Tri-Square club for the purpose of making out of season flowers for their play "The Flower Shop," which is to be given next week.

At a late hour the hostess served dainty refreshments. Members present were Mrs. C. H. Wickham, Mrs. Nicholas Anderson, Mrs. Frank Staffanson, Mrs. N. M. Nelson, Mrs. Frank Lady, Mrs. Alba Spang and the hostess, Mrs. C. P. Snoddy.

Kribs-Guiley Wedding Sunday, June 15th of Interest Here

Among the June weddings of interest here will be that of Miss Mary Guiley, daughter of Mrs. Martha E. Guiley, whose marriage to Albert D. Kribs of Bend will take place Sunday, June 15th, at three o'clock in the afternoon at the First Christian church of Eugene. Rev. Walter Myers and the bride's brother, Roy, Guiley, will perform the ceremony. Dale Guiley of this city, brother of the bride, will give her in marriage.

Both the bride and the groom are well known in this city. Two hundred have been invited to the ceremony. Mrs. Ruth Parker of Dexter, sister of the bride, will be matron of honor. Miss Margaret Kribs, sister of the bridegroom, from Bend, will be the bridesmaid. Lola Jean Guiley, niece of the bride, will be a flower girl, and Ross Guiley Jr., a nephew, will be ring bearer.

Harold J. Kribs of Bend, brother of the bridegroom, will be best man. Paul Guiley brother of the bride, from Medford, Glen Kribs of Los Angeles, brother of the bridegroom, and Eugene Parker of Dexter, nephew of Miss Guiley, are to be ushers.

Mrs. Stanley Bond of Drain will sing. Miss Lova Buchanan is to play the wedding march. The couple will live at Rockaway this summer, where Mr. Kribs will be pastor of the church. Miss Guiley is a graduate of the Eugene Bible university and is on the staff of the University of Oregon extension division. Mr. Kribs is completing his work at the Eugene Bible university this June.

Picnic Enjoyed Friday Evening, June 6, at Kiwanis Park

Umpqua river was the scene of a fine Kiwanis picnic on the South delightful picnic on Friday evening, June 6, arranged by Mrs. Grand Osborne and Mrs. Herbert Quine in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Stephenson and daughter, Mattie Lee, of Madison, Wisconsin. Those enjoying the picnic were besides the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Meyers and daughter, Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Taylor and daughter, Athalie, Robert Tabke of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Osborne and Mr. and Mrs. Quine.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson Complimented With Dinner at A. B. Taylor Home

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Taylor arranged an affair of attractive appointments when they predated over a two-thirty dinner on Sunday afternoon, June 8, at their home on Madrone avenue, the affair honoring Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Stephenson of Madison, Wisconsin, house guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Stephenson.

A bowl of sweet peas was the table centerpiece. Covers were laid for the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. Woodley Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Stephenson and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor.

Following the dinner the afternoon was spent informally.

Ladies' Day Enjoyed at Country Club on Thursday

Eleven ladies were at the Country club on Thursday morning for the weekly golf and bridge tournament.

Mrs. Harry Stearns, Miss Naomi Scott, Mrs. W. E. Ott, Miss May Moore, Mrs. John McClintock, Mrs. Phil Hart, Mrs. Guy Gordon, Mrs. T. G. Watson, Mrs. Nathan Fullerton, Mrs. Marks and Miss Mildred Marks were playing on the golf links in the morning. Low score in the first flight went to Miss Scott, in the second flight to Mrs. Stearns, and in the third to Mrs. Fullerton.

Following the luncheon in the club house at noon, two tables of bridge were in play. Highest score was won by Mrs. W. E. Ott, and Mrs. McClintock placed second.

The ladies are planning a special party for next Thursday afternoon at the club, and a prize will be awarded to the one securing the highest score at bridge on that afternoon.

Seasonal Dinner Frock Flowery Creation

Simplicity marks this dinner frock of geranium red georgette. A spray of white gardenias on the left side is its only ornamentation, and below the flowers a cascade of the material falls to the hemline, which dips to the right corresponding to the yoke of the skirt.

Mr. and Mrs. Wharton Entertain With Breakfast on Sunday, June 8th

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wharton entertained a small group of American Legion and auxiliary members at an attractive appointed breakfast on Sunday morning at 8. L. LaFleur and daughter formed the colorful decorations.

Covers were laid for Eld George, state commander of the American Legion, Mrs. George, of Eugene; Mr. Bricker and Mrs. Bricker, auxiliary president in Medford; Mrs. Mary Cheney, of Medford, state department president; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wimberly, the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Wharton.

Bridge Club Entertained Tuesday Afternoon by Mrs. R. L. Whipple

An enjoyable afternoon of bridge was spent on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. R. L. Whipple on East Douglas street, when Mrs. Whipple entertained the members of her bridge club. Sweet peas in the rooms lent their note of charm to the occasion.

The prize at bridge was won by Mrs. A. E. Kent, while high score among the members went to Mrs. Sam Shoemaker. At tea hour the hostess served refreshments.

The list included Mrs. Kent, Mrs. Horace Berg, Mrs. Harry Pargeier and Mrs. W. E. Ott, guests; Mrs. Sam Shoemaker, Mrs. Glenn Wimberly, Mrs. George Wharton, Mrs. C. A. Lockwood, Mrs. Guy Gordon, Mrs. Fred Hamilton, Mrs. B. R. West, Mrs. G. C. Finlay and the hostess, Mrs. Whipple, club members.

D. A. R. Entertained Monday With Luncheon at Goodbourn Home

The Daughters of the American Revolution were very pleasantly entertained on Monday afternoon at this week at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Goodbourn in Sycamore valley. A one o'clock luncheon was served on the porch at a table centered with a bowl of roses.

Election of officers took place at the business session which followed the luncheon. Mrs. W. M. Campbell was elected regent, Miss Adelaide Stewart, vice-regent; Mrs. Cam Caylor, secretary; Mrs. Goodbourn, treasurer; Mrs. L. F. Sowersby, of Riddle, historian; and Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. David Busenbark and Mrs. R. H. Grinstead, the advisory board.

Former Roseburg Girl Married in Ashland

The marriage of Miss Stella Delphin Ganett Smith to Herb Brander, was solemnized at the First Christian church at Ashland, Ore., on June 6.

Mrs. Brander is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Smith and formerly lived in Roseburg, where she has a large circle of friends. She has been making her home at Klamath Falls for the past year.

The bride was dressed in blue georgette and carried a shower bouquet of roses, sweet peas and lilies of the valley.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Eva Smith. Bert Asher acted as best man. The young couple will make their home in Klamath Falls, where Mr. Brander is in business.

Six o'Clock Dinner Enjoyed Monday Evening at Shady Point

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Meyers arranged a very pleasant affair when they entertained on Monday evening of this week at their home in Shady Point, with a six o'clock dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Stephenson of Madison, Wisconsin, house guests at the J. G. Stephenson home. The rooms were very attractive with floral decorations.

Covers were laid for the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Taylor and daughter, Miss Athalie, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Meyers.

Neighbors of Woodcraft Thimble Club Entertained Monday Evening

The Neighbors of Woodcraft Thimble club was entertained on Monday evening of this week at the home of Mrs. C. W. Owen, with Mrs. Gwen Simmons, Mrs. Hazel French and Mrs. Lucy Arthur as joint hostesses. Seasonal flowers were used throughout the evening. Games amused the guests during the evening. The club prize was won by Mrs. Lydia Hooper. At a late hour the hostess served refreshments.

Those present included Mrs. Elsie Williams, Mrs. Hattie Fincher, Mrs. John Dyball, Mrs. Peter Cramer, Mrs. Harl, Mrs. Nora Miles, Mrs. Hooper, Mrs. Sadie Runyan, Mrs. Elsie McComas, Mrs. Price, Mrs. Metta Brown, Mrs. Maud Jennings, Mrs. Malinda Miller, Miss Ruth Meyers, Miss Vivian Williams and the hostesses, Mrs. Owen, Mrs. Simmons, Mrs. French and Mrs. Arthur.

The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. George Campbell in Shady Point, with Mrs. Mary Meyers joint hostess.

For Stroll—and Sunday Dinner

These two delightful frocks for semi-formal wear echo the prevailing modes of the early summer season. The dress of printed pussy willow at the left is in blue and white. The neckline is softened with white chiffon, matched in the small, cut bands. The Sunday dinner dress at the right is in soft tones of green. It is of chiffon de luxe and is made with the semi-fitting waist and the popular flare of the skirt.

Miss Shirley Knight Complimented With Lovely Affair

Miss Shirley Knight, attractive bride-elect, whose marriage to Roy Houser of Albany is to be an event of mid-summer, was the guest of honor at a delightful affair among the younger set of the city, given on Monday evening of this week.

A formal "no-hostess" dinner of charming appointments was enjoyed at six-thirty in the Hotel Umpqua. Sweet peas and roses added a gay note of color, and the decorative motif was completed by the use of individual corsages at each cover.

Following the dinner, an evening of bridge was spent in the home of Vera McClintock, which was made attractive with many flowers. High score at cards went to Miss Dorothy Geddes.

Many lovely gifts were presented to the bride-elect, the presentation being in a unique manner: Miss Knight was instructed to go marketing, and the groceries which she secured were the gifts.

At a late hour refreshments were served. The list included, besides Miss Knight, Miss Margaret Baum, Miss Frances Butler, Miss Geddes, Miss Margaret Hewitt, Miss Dorothy Marsters, Miss Norma Winston, Miss Violet Houlik, Miss Hazel Strickland, Miss Pauline Hubar and Mrs. Fred Knight, and the hostess, Miss McClintock.

Birthday Party Honoring Miss Bess Wharton Planned for Tonight

A pleasurable social affair is planned for this evening, honoring Miss Bess Wharton, who is celebrating her birthday, which will be presided over by Mrs. Thomas Wharton and Miss Margaret Carrington. A dinner is arranged for six-thirty at Brander's barbeque stand. Following the dinner cards will be played at the home of Mrs. Wharton, which will be decorated with bows and baskets of sweet peas. Miss Wharton will go on a "Treasure Hunt" to find her birthday gifts.

The guest list will include the honor guest, Miss Wharton; Mrs. George Wharton, Mrs. Jack Wharton, Mrs. Glenn Wimberly, Miss Mae Baldwin, Mrs. E. A. Pettay and Mrs. Ethel Webb.

Birthday Party for Thomas Hartung Given Wednesday

Mrs. F. E. Hartung entertained a group of little folks at her home on Wednesday afternoon, in honor of the birthday of her little son, Thomas, who was celebrating his third anniversary.

The little folks spent the afternoon playing out of doors, and at the close of the affair, they were served a light lunch by Mrs. Hartung, assisted by Mrs. Maurice Newland and Mrs. Chester Morgan. The serving table was centered with a bowl of sweet peas.

Those present were Thomas Hartung, Charlotte Lockwood, Laura Ann Burgess, Jacqueline Carstens, Athalie Taylor, Marguerite Hixley, John Ness, Tommy Lockwood, Clyde Carstens Jr., Terry Hecher, Alvin Hill, Mrs. Clyde Carstens, Mrs. Dora Lee, Mrs. Archie Taylor, Mrs. Frank Hill, Mrs. Walter Hecher, Mrs. Newland, Mrs. Morgan, and the hostess, Mrs. Hartung.

Portland Wedding of Interest to Roseburg Circles

Miss Mildred Thomas became the bride of Farrell C. Webb on Saturday evening, June 7, in a lovely wedding ceremony at her home in Portland. The rooms had been made beautiful for the occasion by the use of blue delphinium, pink rosebuds and lilies.

The nuptial rows were exchanged before a pillar of pink rosebuds built upon the fireplace mantel, with tall white candelabra holding white tapers on each side of the mantel.

Miss Mildred sang, "Oh, Promise Me," before the exchange of vows. The bride entered the room on the arm of her father, R. H. Thomas, with her sister, Miss Genevieve Thomas, as bridesmaid.

Robert Thomas, brother of the bride, was the best man. Dr. D. J. Thompson, retired Presbyterian minister, and for years the family minister, read the ceremony.

Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Mrs. Charles Heinline as the bridal party entered the room. Soft music continued through the ceremony and at the close Mrs. Heinline played Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The bride was charming in a frock of white tulle, cut with fitted waist and bouffant skirt. She wore a lace beret, held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley, Cecil Brunner roses and white rosebuds.

The maid of honor wore a frock of silk net over pink tulle, modestly cut with an uneven hemline. Her shower bouquet was of pink rosebuds.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held with Mrs. S. A. Sanford, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Parish of Portland, presiding.

Mrs. Vernon Smith Is Guest of Honor at Bridal Shower

Mrs. Vernon A. Smith, nee Miss Carmen Hill, was the guest of honor at a bridal shower given on Thursday evening of this week by Mrs. W. W. Asneroff. The pink and white color scheme was carried out by the use of roses about the rooms and in clever favors.

The guests were entertained by an informal evening of games and music. At a late hour light refreshments were served by the hostess.

The guest list included, besides Mrs. Smith, Miss Bertha Cooney, Miss Olive Cooney, Miss Kinland, Miss Bertha Thurman, Mrs. Grace Hopkins, Mrs. Marian Hopkins, Mrs. Wolf, Mrs. William Boon, Mrs. Walter Frederickson, Mrs. F. A. Bemis, Mrs. A. D. Hulbert, Miss Dolie.

The honor guest was the recipient of many lovely gifts presented by her friends. Her wedding took place early in this week. The bride is a nurse in Roseburg General hospital, and the groom is a mail clerk in Bend. The couple plan to leave soon for Bend to make their home.

"No-Host" Dinner Enjoyed in Hotel Umpqua by University Guild

The Oregon Kappa chapter of the University Guild enjoyed a 6:30 no-host dinner at Hotel Umpqua on Monday evening as a fitting climax to the year's work.

Unique place cards were in the form of small books filled with candy and nuts. The table was centered with a basket of beautiful flowers arranged by Miss Abbie Claire Hirschler, one of the members.

After the dinner the members adjourned to the club rooms where the election of officers for the coming year resulted as follows: President, Mrs. C. S. Heinilze; secretary, Mrs. E. V. Hoover; treasurer, Miss Martha Perry; program committee chairman, Miss Adeline Stewart.

The lesson was in charge of Miss Stewart. The guild will resume study in September.

Loyal Temperance Legion Holds Last Meeting Before Summer Vacation

The Loyal Temperance Legion of the W. C. T. U. held their last meeting until fall on Saturday afternoon, June 7, in the Presbyterian church.

The membership of the legion, which numbered nine at the time of organization in April, has increased to thirty-four. An enjoyable season for the children in learning the prohibition songs and yells and studying books recommended by the W. C. T. U. is reported. The legions are well launched in the nation-wide campaign of "Stopping on All Cigarette Stubs," and in the past four months have destroyed over 1800 stubs.

The meetings will be resumed again on September 6, a meeting to be on that afternoon in the Presbyterian church.

Pythian Sisters Sewing Circle Meets Thursday Afternoon

The Pythian Sisters Sewing circle met on Thursday of this week at the home of Lizzie Jones in Garden valley.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent in sewing and chatting. Later dainty refreshments were served by Pearl Jones assisted by Helen Bell at a table prettily decorated with a bouquet of flowers.

Those enjoying the afternoon were Carerene Horner, Minnie McDonald, Grace Mitchell, Eva Marks, Vera Torrey, Louveta Brown, Helen Bell and the hostesses, Pearl Jones and Lizzie Jones, members.

Mrs. Harry Marks of Reedsport was a guest of the circle. The next meeting will be held in Umpqua park on June 26th, with Molly Brown and Carerene Horner as hostesses.

World Wide Guild of Baptist Church Gives Silver Tea

The Roseburg chapter of the World Wide Guild of the Baptist church entertained on Friday evening, June 13th, with a silver tea, given in the attractively decorated ladies' parlors of the church. Approximately one hundred church members and friends enjoyed the program, which included a welcome by Jennie Dirks, piano solo by Daynise Reese, a reading by Greta Wright, a vocal quartette by Pauline Shoun, Daynise Reese, Vernita Piekens and Dorothy Dirks, a piano solo by Elizabeth Williams, a one-act play by Lois Ann Byrd and Bessie Redburn, a vocal duet by Vernita Piekens and Pauline Shoun, and a reading by Ella Mae Morris.

The proceeds of the tea went to pay for a stage platform for the ladies' parlors of the church and for a set of reading books for the guild.

Women's Benefit Assn. Meets Thursday Evening in Maccabee Hall

The Women's Benefit association of the city met on last Thursday evening at the Maccabee hall.

The regular business meeting was held, after which a social time was enjoyed and later refreshments were served.

An interesting feature of the meeting was the official visit of Mrs. Beatrice Little, managing deputy of Oregon. Mrs. Josephine Shultz of Review No. 7 of Portland, was also a guest of the evening.

Demure Are the Prints of Spring

Screen stars in filmdom adopt the provocative mode in a print of the cuffs and collar.

Pupils of Miss Scott to Be Presented in Recital June 17

An event of interest to music lovers of the city will be the violin recital to be given on Tuesday evening, June 17, in the Methodist Episcopal church, South, by the pupils of Miss Naomi Scott. William J. Gonier, popular local tenor, will assist with vocal selections. Mrs. Dorothy Lander and Miss Evelyn Neighbors will be the piano accompanists. The public is cordially invited to attend the program, which will include: "Fiddle Mine," (Meissner), La Von Baker.

"Allegretto," (Dach), Lois Jean Alderson. "May Song," (Leighton), Tommy Lockwood. "The Linden Tree," (Schubert), Ralph Heater. "Minuet in G No. 2," (Beethoven), Earl Crawford.

"Valse," (Brahms), Fanny Lu Wimberly. "Andantino," (Lemare), Max Short. "Serenade," (Schubert), "A Dream," (Bartlett), Wm. J. Gonier. "Conzantta Op. 21 No. 4," (Dante), Alfred Eddy. "Sweet Reverie," (Tschalkowsky), James Donald Leidy. "Serenade," (Drigo), Mary Wood. "The Happy Farmer," (Schumann), Albert Wright. "Cradle Song," (Hauser), Althea La Raut. "Le Reve de Des Grieux," from Manon, (Massenet), Wm. J. Gonier. "Intermezzo Cavallaria Rusticana," (Mascagni), Elaine Hoffmeister. "Spring Song," (Mendelssohn), Jones and Lizzie Jones, members.

Mrs. Harry Marks of Reedsport was a guest of the circle. The next meeting will be held in Umpqua park on June 26th, with Molly Brown and Carerene Horner as hostesses.

Methodist Ladies' Aid Entertained Thursday at Butler Home

The monthly luncheon of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Episcopal church, North, was given on Thursday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. Foster Butler. The luncheon was served in the beautiful and well known flower garden of the Butler home.

The usual business session was held, and at its close the afternoon was spent in chatting and sewing or the bazaar. About fifty members of the aid were present to enjoy the affair. The committee in charge was Mrs. J. D. Osborn, Mrs. E. A. Pettay, Mrs. Jack Dent, Mrs. Borjion and Mrs. Butler.

Florence Nightingale Tent No. 15, D. of V. Meets Friday, June 6th

The regular business meeting of Florence Nightingale Tent No. 15 at the Daughters of the Civil War Veterans was held on Friday evening, June 6th, in the armory.

It was reported that every veteran of the Civil War in the Soldiers' Home in West Roseburg had been visited during the month of May and presented with flowers. The state convention of Daughters of Civil War Veterans will be held in Eugene the last week of June. There will be a fair representation at this convention from the Roseburg tent.

New Idea Club Pleasantly Entertained by Mrs. Ed Marks

The New Idea club was entertained very pleasantly on Wednesday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. Ed Marks on Garden valley. The affair was held on the wide veranda of the home, which had been appointed with small tables holding clusters of flowers.

The afternoon was given over to discussing the apportioning the Red Cross production work. Mrs. Buckle, chairman of the work, distributed the materials for jackets for the patients in Red Cross hospitals and for Christmas bags for overseas soldiers.

Mrs. August Heck, visitor, was voted into the membership of the club. Other visitors present were Elvin Clonker, Mrs. Connelly, Mrs. C. P. Ellis and Mrs. Cook.

At tea hour, Mrs. Sparks, assisted by Mrs. Curtia Calkins, served dainty refreshments.

The club is planning a picnic to be held in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Frank Calkins in Edenhower. A six o'clock picnic dinner is being planned, to which the husbands of the club members will be invited.

Miss Ona Dorch Honored With Farewell Party

Mrs. J. V. Bywater and Mrs. C. Rusted presided over a farewell party given last Saturday evening in honor of Miss Ona Dorch, teacher of the Roberts Creek school during the year.

(Continued on page 3)