GLENDALE SCHOOL DIRECTORS HIRE TWO INSTRUCTORS

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

GLENDALE, June 16.—Mrs. Winchell Clark was engaged to teach one of the grades in the Glendale school during the ensuing school year by the board of school directors at a meeting held Thursday evening. R. A. Botts of Medford was also rehired to give instrumental music instruction once a week at a salary of $80 per month. It was felt that the satisfactory results had from the musical instruction given by Mr. Botts last year as evidenced by the school orchestra warranted a continuance of this feature by the school board.

An electric range was ordered installed in the domestic science room for the use of the cooking class. For the convenience of the children at school an out door drinking fountain was ordered installed. This fountain will be placed in front of the school building near the base of the flag pole. A standpipe with a length of hose permanently coupled to it was ordered installed on the roof of the school building as an added precaution in case of fire.

The annual school election will be held at the Glendale school house this afternoon at 2:00 p. m., at which time a director for three years and a school clerk for one year will be elected.

A. A. Snyder, whose term as school director is about to expire, refuses to consider another term. He has already served on the board nearly eight years. On account of his own extensive business affairs Snyder feels that he can't spare the time to continue with the school board.

Glen I. Wardrip and W. L. Dobyns are being proposed as candidates to be voted for as school director. Wardrip is cashier of the Glendale state bank and was formerly school teacher and school principal for a number of years.

Dobyns is local manager for the California Oregon Power company. For school clerk it is thought that Carl J. Sether, incumbent, will have no opposition.

PIANO STUDENTS PRESENT RECITAL

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

GLENDALE, June 16.—The piano recital given by pupils of Mrs. H. G. Paige at the Glendale high school auditorium last Monday evening was well attended.

The many piano solos and duets played by the various pupils were all creditably rendered. The program closed with an eight hand two piano number that was especially well received by the audience.

Two girls were disappointed when they were unable to appear at the recital. They were little Marjorie and Dorothy Mast whose special new dresses made for the occasion by their mother, together with nearly all their other clothes, were destroyed by fire only a few hours previous when their home burned. Dorothy was to have taken part in two duets and to have given a recital.
