All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and Personal—Should Be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

WITH the coming of warm summer days, society folk are abandoning the usual gay round of luncheons and bridge parties. Many clubs and societies are discontinuing their meetings for the summer months, and so events in the social realm have become decidedly fewer in the last few weeks.

Mrs. Felix McWhirter, of Indianapolis, Indiana, nationally known worker in W. C. T. U. and women's clubs, is a distinguished guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Marsters. Mrs. McWhirter is accompanied by her granddaughter, Miss Frances Lee. They plan to go to California to spend the summer in San Francisco, Los Angeles and Long Beach. Mrs. McWhirter is a cousin of A. C. Marsters and R. W. Marsters.

Among the outstanding social events of the season were the luncheons at Hotel Umpqua followed by bridge at the home of Mrs. E. B. Stewart, given on Friday and Saturday of last week with Mrs. E. B. Stewart and Mrs. J. A. Harding presiding.

An affair of interest in the club calendar for the coming week is the entertainment of the Eugene Daughters of Nile club by the Roseburg Daughters of Nile Badoura club which will take place on Tuesday afternoon, June 24. A luncheon in Hotel Umpqua is planned, to be followed by a social affair in the Women's club house.

"The Flower Shop" Presented at Meeting of Tri-Square Club

"The Flower Shop," a clever play presented by a group of the members of the club, was the feature of the meeting of the Tri-Square club Wednesday afternoon. The play was presented in the Baptist basement parlors. A gorgeous array of garden flowers formed the background for the affair.

The cast of characters for the play included Maud, the office girl, Mrs. Myrtle Spang; Henry, the office boy, Mrs. Frances Lacy; Miss Wells, an old maid; Mrs. Maud Safferson; Mr. Jackson, her fiance; Mrs. Ethel Andrieff; Mr. Blomberg, proprietor of the shop; Mrs. Lillian Nelson. The theme of the play is the way in which Maud, the office girl, brings romance into the lives of other people by the flowers which are sold from Blomberg's "Flower Shop."

Following the presentation of the play, refreshments were served by Mrs. Harry Hatfield, hostess for the afternoon.

Members and guests present were Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Mrs. W. W. Clarke, Mrs. N. M. Nelson, Mrs. Grant Osborn, Mrs. Nicholas Andrieff, Mrs. C. P. Saddy, Mrs. C. H. Wickham, Mrs. Elmer McKean, Mrs. Hugh Whipple, Mrs. Joseph Deets, Mrs. J. A. Caraway, Mrs. Alba Spang, Mrs. R. B. Sproun, Mrs. Earl Webb, Mrs. Ed Perrin, Mrs. Frank Lutz, Mrs. Hugh Harrison, Mrs. Charles Reib, Mrs. Lee Williams, Mrs. Frank Staffanson, Mrs. Ellen Matthews, Miss Lucille Shoun, Mrs. George Caskey.

The play was so well received that the club members decided to present it again before the public. The next presentation will be on Tuesday evening, June 24th, in the Sunday school building of the Baptist church.

Miss Metcalf Becomes Bride of Mr. Schulze at Home in Eugene

Miss Frances Metcalf, former Roseburg girl, became the bride of William Schulze of Yakima, Washington, at a very pretty wedding at the bride's home in Eugene. The event took place at eight-thirty in the evening on Monday of this week. Baskets of flowers in pastel shades formed a lovely background for the affair. For the exchange of vows the couple stood before a bower of pink and white roses intertwined with fern, and a decorated altar with a large candelabra on each side which gave a soft, mellow light to the scene.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Ruth Metcalf, who wore a frock of green organdy and flowered tulle over green satin, and carried an arm bouquet of roses and sweet peas.

The bride wore a model of egg shell flit crepe, cut with a cape collar, fitted waist and long flaring skirt. She carried a shower bouquet of pink and white Ophelia roses and sweet peas.

National Leader in W. C. T. U. and Women's Club Work, Visiting Here, Criticizes "Wet" Propagandists

Mrs. Felix McWhirter of Indianapolis, Indiana, nationally known W. C. T. U. worker, has been a distinguished guest this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Marsters. Mrs. McWhirter came to this city directly from the convention of the National Federation of Women's clubs, held in Denver, June 3 to 13 inclusive, where she was chairman of the extension work, the purpose of which is to interest non-federated women's clubs in the advantages of cooperative work in the federation.

Besides her affiliation with the W. C. T. U. and the National Federation of Women's clubs, Mrs. McWhirter is the past president of the Indiana Federation of Women's clubs, served eight years as transportation chairman of the national federation and four years as Indiana director of the federation. She is president of the organization of past state presidents of the federation of Women's clubs for the year 1929, and it was as a delegate from that body that she attended the convention at Denver.

Mrs. McWhirter is editor of the sixteen-page monthly paper published by the Indiana state W. C. T. U., a member of the Indiana Women's Press club, belongs to the League of American Pen Women, and is a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

At the International W. C. T. U. convention held in Lausanne, Switzerland, last year, Mrs. McWhirter was present as a delegate. The conference was largely attended, 32 nations being represented on the program and by delegates. The most impressive feature of the session was an evening given over to two-minute statements by delegates from each nation represented, telling what had been done in that country in the interests of prohibition and of advancement of women.

Mrs. McWhirter is intensely interested in the political situation in this country, especially in regard to the attitude of the people concerning prohibition and its enforcement in this country.

"We recognize that the power of the government is sufficient to conduct its business in a manner to command the respect and attention of the world, and the straw votes being taken, apparently in an effort to weaken the operation of governmental departments, by various organizations and publications are always reported in the interest of the 'wets'." Mrs. McWhirter says, "It has been so in the past. It has been so recently, while the results in real elections have not substantiated such reports.

"Perhaps in all the history of this country there never has been anything that has caused the denunciation of the fair-minded, intelligent, educated class of citizens as was the hearing before the

Mrs. McWhirter also stated that she had been informed from a reliable source that the method obtained by the magazine which is attracting so much attention with its straw vote on the prohibition question was securing its list of voters from lists of automobile owners and telephone directories, a method which assures a large number of men voters and very few women. Mrs. McWhirter further stated that this magazine had shown in its poll that eight ministers in Washington, D. C. favored modification or repeal of the 18th amendment, whereas the actual vote, taken by the ministerial association of the city, itself, showed none in favor of repeal and only one for modification.

Order of Eastern Star Holds Social Meeting

The last monthly social meeting of the local Order of the Eastern Star, prior to their adjournment for the months of July and August, was held on Thursday evening of this week in the Masonic temple.

The initiation of the new members into the lodge took place at this meeting. The officers of the order served refreshments in the banquet room which had been beautifully decorated for the occasion with colorful flowers.

The lodge will resume its regular meetings in September.
