(News-Review Douglas County Special)

GLENDAL, June 22.—Glendale won over Myrtle Creek in a ball game played here Sunday afternoon by a score of 9 to 7. This makes the tenth consecutive victory for the Glendale nine.

Myrtle Creek lost the game in the first two innings when Glendale made nine runs. E. Wimer, initial moundman for Myrtle Creek, started out by walking Pattee. Tucker was out at first. Then Conster and Bishop each made a hit which loaded the bases. When Miller hit the ball into the woods, making the only home run in the game, and bringing in three additional tallies. Wimer stepped out of the box and Way, the kid southpaw, took over the pitcher's job. Two infield plays ended the first inning. In the second inning Way walked one man and was picked for 6 hits which Glendale converted into 5 runs before Myrtle Creek tightened up after which there were no more tallies for Glendale. Adamson caught for Myrtle Creek.

Thompson, for Glendale, pitched 7 innings. He was a bit wild at times and walked 5 men. He struck out 7 men and was hit for 9 hits. Conster, pitching the last two innings, struck out two men and walked two. Miller was on the receiving end for Glendale.

Several spectacular catches were made by the outfielders of both teams.

32 CONVICTED IN WALLACE, IDAHO, "RUM REBELLION"

(Associated Press Local Wire)

COUER D'ALENE, Idaho, June 22.—The 32 defendants in the Wallace "rum rebellion" case were convicted yesterday by a federal grand jury, marking virtually a clean sweep in the government's crusade against north Idaho whiskey selling.

The principal defendants were Mayor Herman J. Rossi, former Mayor W. H. Herrick and Police Chief W. J. Bailey.

The Wallace men were accused of conspiring against the dry laws by levying on liquor dealers, the money going into the city treasury for use in building bridges, paying streets and providing school funds. Twenty of the defendants admitted the "donation" were made and defense counsel argued that sentiment of the city was for a "wide open" regime and that inasmuch as no personal craft was involved, it was proper for liquor and vice to contribute to "the betterment of the city."

Federal Judge J. McNary said sentence will be passed on the Wallace defendants Monday afternoon.

RAILWAY DECISION PRODUCES ELATION AT KLAMATH FALLS

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., June 21.—Klamath Falls generally today hailed with enthusiasm the decision of the interstate commerce commission granting the Great Northern railroad right to extend its lines into northern California, where it will connect with the Western Pacific railroad, giving Oregon another trunk line.

Business men here saw the immediate construction of the line, as announced by L. C. Gilman, vice-president of the Great Northern, as a boon to the so-called unemployment situation.

The Klamath county judge said that "this city was sitting on top of the world." Other prominent business men said they noticed a general quickening of the business pulse in the city already and predicted further expansion for the southern Oregon city, which showed a population increase of more than 17,000.

Realtors and timbermen expressed satisfaction with the future of the city.

Farms Given Power, Indians Wealth as Big Dam in Montana Rises

(Associated Press Local Wire)

POLSON, Mont., June 22.—Cheap power for farmers and no more hard winters for the Flathead Indians are seen in the development of the "Muscle Shoals of the west" on the Flathead river near here.

Nearly $10,000,000 will be spent on the project.

The dam will bring some affluence to 2,500 Indians in the Flathead tribe, which owns the site and drove a bargain for it.

Nearly $3,000,000 will accrue to the tribe in the first 20 years after the dam is built, with additional amounts thereafter.

Power for pumping will be available for farmers on the fertile Flathead irrigation project, which includes 124,000 acres. The contract reserves 15,000 horsepower for this purpose.

The total capacity of the dam is expected to be 109,000 horsepower. Much of this energy will find a market in the copper mines of Butte and the ore reduction plants and factories of Butte, Anaconda, East Helena and Great Falls. The Milwaukee railroad, which operates by electricity through the mountain country, also will be a potential consumer of power.

The Flathead river is an outlet of Flathead lake, whose storage facilities insure a flow of 6,000 second-feet at the proposed dam. The site allows for a fall of 50 feet, and the base of the dam will be set 20 or 40 feet below the river bed.

Four other power sites on the Flathead river below the location of the present project await development when more energy is needed. They will furnish an other 100,000 horsepower, with falls ranging from 14 to 40 feet.

(Associated Press Local Wire)

CHICAGO, June 22.—YOUNG Stirling, no longer regarded among heavyweights as the boy with a schoolboy fighting complexion, placed his left hand back into a plaster cast today and awaited developments in the leather boxing industry.

Since the "crippled" left hand paralyzed Otto Von Porat, the Norwegian paralyzer, in less than a round at the Chicago stadium Friday night, the punching Georgian has been verily showered with offers, but has shooed them all aside, confidently awaiting one that will give him a shot at Max Schmeling's heavyweight crown.

His parental manager, "Pa" Stirling, has cabled promoter Jeff Dixon in London a request for a 30-day postponement of his son's match with Paul Scott, scheduled for next month because of the "crippled" hand and, if the English heavyweight reads newspapers and knows what the hand did to Von Porat, the postponement is expected to be granted unhesitatingly.

NEW COMMITTEE MUST NOMINATE, VAN WINKLE SAYS

(Associated Press Local Wire)

SALEM, Ore., June 21.—A republican candidate for governor to fill the vacancy on the ticket caused by the death of George W. Joseph, must be selected by the newly elected or re-elected members of the republican state central committee, Attorney General Van Winkle has advised Phil Metcalfe, chairman of the committee.

"I learn from the newspapers that the county central committees have been reorganized and state central committees elected in a majority of the counties at this time," the opinion of the attorney general reads. "Consequently at any meeting of the state central committee which may be called hereafter such newly elected members would be qualified to sit and participate in the business of the committee."

While the law specifies that county central committees shall meet and organize within twenty days after the primary election this time element, the attorney general holds, "is directory and not mandatory and if the duty is performed at a subsequent time it is valid."

The use of "written or telegraph proxies of absent members" in the selection of the republican nominee is held to be legal by the attorney general, who, however, points out that the duly elected and qualified state central committee from a majority of the counties of the state must be present at the meeting in person to constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business by the committee.

In the event of a tie vote by the committee, the opinion holds, the chairman may cast the deciding vote.

Glands of Livestock Valuable as Remedies For Human Diseases

(Associated Press Local Wire)

CHICAGO, June 22.—New value to farm livestock has been added by discoveries of medical science on the use of animal glands in combating human diseases.

In the laboratories of a single packing company here the glands from hundreds of thousands of cattle, hogs and sheep are used each year to manufacture a constantly growing list of pharmaceuticals.

The industry has grown to be one of the important side activities of the packing business—to assist the doctor in prescribing for anemia, diabetes, heart disease and dozens of other ailments.

The suprarenal gland, just above the kidneys of cattle, produces adrenalin, used as a heart stimulant or to prevent bleeding in delicate operations.

From the pancreas is obtained insulin for battling diabetes. Secretes for swelling human flesh are made from the intestines of sheep.

Thromboplastin, from the brain tissues of cattle, is a powerful blood coagulant. From livers come extracts valuable in treating pernicious anemia. Red bone marrow is used with preparations from animal spleens in treating secondary syphilis.

About 25 different glands produce nearly 50 different remedies.

LEADING ROBINS BAT VICTORY OFF OF LARRY FRENCH

By HUGH S. FULLERTON Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer

Considering the closeness of the rivalry among the National league clubs, the tenure of Brooklyn as leader of the circuit is something really remarkable. The Robins, who caused something of a surprise when they first gained the top, have shown the way to their rivals for nearly a month despite numerous threats to their security.

After various ups and downs, the Robins took the lead at the end of May and have not been displaced since.

The costly Robin errors disappeared suddenly when first place was in danger, while the Robins bats swung into effective action. Brooklyn came from behind yesterday, paced by two home runs by Babe Herman and one by Johnny Frederick, to score six runs in the seventh and eighth innings off Larry French, Pirate pitcher, to win 9-6.

The Cubs made two homers off the delivery of Fred Frankhouse, recent Boston acquisition, and one of the them was Hack Wilson's 21st of the season, but they could not get any other counters while the Braves' ten hits scored in three different innings, taking the game 3-2.

Giants, Cards Win

The New York Giants picked up a game on the Cubs, reclaiming three games behind, by putting on a performance similar to Brooklyn's. The Giants seemed to feel it necessary to perform in the traditional manner as Cincinnati celebrated Bessie Frey day. They got Bessie in the seventh and eighth for three runs at a time and took a 6 to 4 decision from the Reds.

The St. Louis Cardinals attained a .500 average again by taking two games from Philadelphia. The Cards counted 33 hits against five Philly pitchers to win by scores of 12 to 3 and 9 to 3. Flint Rhem and Burleigh Grimes, the latter making his first start for St. Louis, held the Phillies well under control.

The Detroit Tigers altered the American league standing a bit by winning a pair of games from the Boston Red Sox, 5 to 3 and 4 to 2. The double triumph while St. Louis was dividing a twin bill with the New York Yankees, put the Tigers into fifth place.

Champions Placed

Despite their even break, the Yankees picked up a half game on the leading Philadelphia Athletics, who moved to Cleveland for Sunday and dropped the final contest to the Indians, 4 to 2. Wes Ferrell broke Cleveland's losing streak, holding the champions to seven hits.

They scored all their runs in one inning to win the first game 5 to 4 after Guille had dropped a fly that would have retired the side. But the Yanks could not make their 12 hits count in the second contest and lost by a 5 to 0 count.

Washington, with Ad Liska pitching a five-hit game and Art Shires leading the attack on his old team with three blows that drove in four runs, made an even greater advance by trouncing the Chicago White Sox, 10 to 3. They picked up a full game on the Athletics, routing 23 games behind the leaders and only a half game behind the Yankees.

EX-EMPLOYEE OF CHICAGO SOUGHT AS LINGLE'S SLAYER

(Associated Press Local Wire)

CHICAGO, June 22.—James (Red) Forsthe, gun totor and former city hall employee, was hunted today as the man who killed "Jake" Lingle, Tribune reporter.

Forsthe, whom Judge John Lyle a year ago characterized as a "potential killer," is under a year's jail sentence for carrying concealed weapons. The sentence recently was affirmed by the appellate court.

"His (Forsthe's) friends among the politicians almost ran me to death to vacate the sentence," Judge Lyle said. "I would not do it."

Forsthe, the police recalled, was arrested in a raid on the Moran-Allelo gang headquarters last December. He was released when he identified himself as an employee of the corporation counsel's office.

Police at the time, in commenting on his release, said Forsthe was "in the place innocently—he was sent there. He isn't a hoodlum."

But today they hunted him for murder.

Police said they had no photograph or identification of Forsthe, explaining that no rogues' gallery pictures may be taken by police until the high court has sustained convictions.

The police have held persistently to a theory that the murder of Lingle, when solved, would trace back to the Moran-Allelo gang.

Lingle, who had a wide acquaintanceship among gangsters by reason of his work as a police reporter, was known to be friendly to Al Capone, whose gang long has fought the Moran-Allelo group.

Search also is under way for Frank Foster, original owner of the gun used in the Lingle murder. Foster, formerly a Moran-Allelo man, changed allegiance some time ago, going over to the Capones.

Forsthe's name came into the gangster classification through his close friendship for the "four horse-men of gangland"—George (Red) Barker, William Clifford, Cy Cawley and Michael Reilly—of whom only Barker now survives.
