CLEVELAND LOSES 16TH IN 19 GAMES TO LOWLY BOSTON

Brooklyn Makes Town Lot Play Against St. Louis, Missing Chance to Regain the Lead.

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer
Regardless of their humble position in the American league standing as the baseball season nears its halfway mark, the Boston Red Sox can put in a claim for the honor of having the best pitching in the major leagues. They can't hit well enough to take advantage of their hurling.

Robins Go to Pieces
The National league was saved a lot of complications when the Brooklyn Robins blew off the accumulated lead by driving out a home run when he was sent in as a pinch batsman with two on base in the second inning.

of Eugene is in charge of the classes, with Stanley Kidder and Maynard Bell as assistants. The class schedule will continue up to and including July 5.

message delivered by radio through the medium of her mother yesterday, in which she expressed worry of their speech and health.

"I'll Monday. "It has been tough but nothing like the other flight. We are feeling fine although Beans is getting pretty sleepy. "We go out and work on that old motor as if it were on the ground (holony). But I did go out on the catwalk this morning at 2 o'clock and put a new breaker in the mag neto. "Now don't go worrying about us because we are all right. We can still talk and to prove it, we will all come down and make a big speech for you." Women Get Close View Mother Hunter and Sister Irene saw brothers John and Kenneth at close range last night. They went aloft with Casey Jones, observer for the National Aeronautical association, who lumbered his large Curtiss Condor alongside the "City of Chicago." "I couldn't see the boys distinctly, but I saw them waving at us," the mother said. Among the congratulatory messages received yesterday was one from Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, who in the days when he was "Slim" and an air mail pilot, barnstormed several times with the Hunter brothers.

Admitted to Hospital—Mrs. Anna Bradway of this city was admitted to Roseburg General hospital yesterday for medical treatment.

GROWN-UPS SHY AT SWIMMING SCHOOL

Entire class of some 300 boys and girls for the "swim week" classes now under way at Umpqua park failed to attend in adults for whom evening classes had been arranged. Since there was not a large enough attendance of older people to make a suitable class, this part of the program has been dispensed with.

The children are receiving systematic instruction in all degrees of swimming, from elementary to advanced life-saving. Jean Eberhart
