Babe's Injury May Be Costly

Babe Ruth, king of klonters, gazes ruefully at the injured finger of his left hand. Babe tore the nail off when attempting a difficult catch in the outfield. It is impairing his batting ability to such an extent that the Yankees' pennant chances and the Babe's home run record are being threatened by the injury.

Lindy, Jr., to Take to Air Soon

(Associated Press Licensed Wire)
NEW YORK, July 17.—Charles Augustus Lindbergh, Jr., may have his first airplane ride within the next few weeks, but his father says no plans have been made yet for a flight with Mrs. Lindbergh and Charles, Jr., to the summer home of Dwight W. Morrow, Mrs. Lindbergh's father, at North Haven, Me.
If Colonel Lindbergh and his family fly to North Haven, he said, it probably will be in a smaller plane than the colonel's Stratus, in which he and his wife set a transcontinental record on Easter Sunday. Charles, junior, is four weeks old.

Attractions AT THE MOVIES

ANTLERS—Today, Friday and Saturday, "The Cuckoos" with the comedy team of "Rio Rita," Bert Wheeler and Bob Woolsey.

FILLED with delicious fun and hilarious nonsense, "The Cuckoos," Radio Pictures' wild riot of waggery, opens today at the Antlers theatre.

"The Cuckoos" is not a revue. It's not a musical comedy, although comedy and music hold full sway through the production. The show is a distinct departure from the conventional, offering a well-knit story which serves as a background for the antics of the maddest pair of comics ever to grace the screen—Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey, who won picture fame in "Rio Rita."

Judging by its record-breaking reception in other cities, "The Cuckoos" is expected to attract capacity audiences during its showing here.

Is Business Visitor—Warren Dick, of Camas Valley, was a business visitor to Roseburg yesterday.

In From Melrose—Charles Stubbs, of Melrose, was in town yesterday looking after business matters.

Cederstrom of Melrose. Mrs. Sotterburg is also a daughter of Mrs. Edlund, who is a sister of Mrs. Cederstrom. Roy Cederstrom of Marshfield, a former resident of this city, arrived yesterday to visit with his parents and his relatives from Chicago.

Has Finger Amputated—Ronald Letson, son of Mrs. Eva Letson, of Drain, underwent the amputation of the middle finger of his right hand above the first joint this morning in Roseburg General hospital. The finger was injured about a week ago, when the boy was holding a piece of linoleum for his brother to cut, and the axe which his brother was holding slipped and nearly severed the end of the finger. Efforts were made by the boy's family to treat the injury without loss of the finger-end, but it was found necessary this morning to have it amputated.
