

TRUCK DRIVER BADLY CRUSHED

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
REDESPORT, July 17.—Norman Snidley, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Snidley of Ada, backed his truck off the grade a short distance east of Scottsburg, where he tried to jump clear, but was crushed beneath the heavy truck. His brother, Herman, his wife, parents and Dr. Eastland accompanied him to North Bend where he was taken to Kelzer Brothers Hospital. X-rays showed the pelvic bone broken in two places, and doctors stated that other injuries could not be ascertained until he had had time to recover from the shock. They did not hold out any hope for his recovery.

GLENDALE

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
GLENDALE, July 18.—Mr. and Mrs. L. Costello and family, Miss Volma Basse and Mr. and Mrs. Monte A. Bates and family spent Saturday night and Sunday at Bandon beach.
 (Doc) Gould painted C. E. Austin's private garage at his residence on Second street the first of the week. A painting and paper-hanging job was completed in the Austin cottage last week.
 T. E. Lawson left for Portland to attend to business matters in connection with his mining interests on Middle creek Sunday evening.

William Schroeder has been appointed fire warden for this district and is now camped near the Eldon hotel where he will maintain his headquarters during the fire season. This will be Schroeder's seventh season as a fire warden.
 Mr. and Mrs. Warren N. Hazen returned to Roseburg Friday to attend to various business matters.
 Mr. and Mrs. Fred York and 5-year-old son Robert arrived from Portland Sunday for a week's visit with friends and relatives here. They are houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jones, parents of Mrs. York, who will be better remembered here as Miss Edna Jones.
 Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Moore, together with Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Lesh, motored to Coquille Sunday where they visited with friends and attended the ball game in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn E. Wardrip and family visited Crater lake Sunday. They left here Saturday evening, camping over night at Prospect.
 W. P. Totten and Sam Redfield are among some of the Glendale people who motored to Coquille Sunday and attended the ball game between Coquille and Glendale.
 Announcements were received here this week of the marriage of Miss Beulah Morgan to Victor Neil Pigby at Honolulu, Hawaii, February 16, 1930, where they will reside. Mrs. Pigby has a host of Glendale friends as she lived here for many years with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morgan before moving to Portland a few years ago.

Mrs. John Redfield of Denver, Colo., arrived here from Portland Tuesday evening and will spend over night with Mrs. Alice Redfield, leaving for California points Wednesday morning. She is the wife of John Redfield, a former early cow creeker. John is a brother of W. H. (Gent), Sam, D. B. (Boone) Redfield and Mrs. William Lewis, who still reside here. Ed Redfield, now dead, was also a brother.
 W. D. Meisner, local garage man, in company with S. A. and E. J. McMullin, motored over the old Gold Butte road to the Benton mine last Sunday and spent a few hours fishing on Whitey creek. In returning over the steep and rough grade near the Benton mine it took the combined efforts of all three, one a chaffeur, one to supply air pressure to the gasoline tank and one to push, to successfully negotiate the climb with the car.
 Jack Nettleton of Grants Pass, employed with the Southern Pacific company, transacted business here Tuesday.

 Mrs. T. R. Elders left for her home at Downey, Cal., Tuesday morning after visiting with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dewey, in this city since last Thursday. Her 5-year-old son Teddy is remaining here for an extended stay with his Aunt Laura. Elders is expecting to spend his vacation here during the coming hunting season and Teddy is to remain until then.
 Charles Gillert of Medford was a business visitor here Tuesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Frost and four children arrived here Monday from Moscow, Idaho, where Frost has been teaching manual training in the public schools this past year and will spend the summer at Fernvale. They vacationed here last summer and were so pleased with this section of the country that they decided to return this year. Frost is an archery enthusiast and an expert maker of bows, arrows and various archery tackle. Mrs. Frost shares his enthusiasm in this sport and is the proud possessor of many cups attesting to her prowess with the bow and arrow. Mr. and Mrs. Frost are both authors, doing some magazine work, and have collaborated on several books on furniture and wood-working subjects.
 Thomas J. Miller and son, Lory Miller, and family left here Wednesday for southern California, where they expect to visit Mr. Miller's daughters, Mrs. Kelle Wright and Mrs. Lillie Cobb at Redonda beach. They expect to travel through the San Joaquin valley and over the Ridge route below Bakerfield in going and expect to return via the coast route. They plan on being gone about three weeks.
 Warren Griswold motored to Hornbrook, Cal., Tuesday, on business matters, returning here Wednesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Normoyle and family left for Portland Wednesday where Mrs. Normoyle is expected to enter a hospital for medical treatment. Their two children will be left in the care of Mrs. Normoyle's sister, Mrs. Gail Hansen at Woodburn during Mrs. Normoyle's stay at Portland.
 Mrs. Muriel Devlin is enjoying a week's vacation from her duties as a stenographer in a Portland office visiting her mother, Mrs. Mattie Heller. She arrived here Tuesday.
 Mrs. George C. Dyer motored to Myrtle Creek where she secured a quantity of cherries Monday.
 Frank Hughes who lives on a homestead a short distance south of this city visited at Eugene this week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hoagland of Klamath Falls, returning to their home city from a motor trip to Portland, stopped here for a brief visit with friends and relatives Tuesday. Mrs. Hoagland was formerly Miss Ethel Nelson and is a daughter of Mrs. Hilma Stranoe.
 E. H. Beloit who has a clothing store in the Nerbas building made a business trip to Roseburg Wednesday.
 Cal C. Harper, now ranching near Klamath Falls, arrived Tuesday evening, called here by the death of his brother, J. D. Harper. Cal was formerly a railroad worker and was in charge of the construction work building the Lystal siding nearly 24 years ago. He and his family resided here for a number of years before moving away in 1907. After working for the Southern Pacific for many years in northern California and in the Sacramento valley, Harper quit railroading to take up ranching.
 C. E. Burnett who has a ranch located near Anchor on upper Cow Creek was a Glendale visitor Wednesday. Mrs. Burnett is in a hospital at Portland at present.
 A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Crabtree who reside near the Harrell mill on Cow Creek, Friday, July 11. Dr. A. J. Fawcett of this city was in attendance.
 Miss Gertrude Nebel visited at Grants Pass Friday.
 Mrs. J. W. Gray, mother of Mrs. C. E. Blidge, who has been visiting at the Illidge home on Madrone Heights for several weeks, returned to her home at Medford Sunday.
 G. H. Jackson, local attorney,

transacted business at Grants Pass Saturday.
 Mrs. M. Swank, now residing at Medford, visited with her son, Paul Swank, and family here Saturday.
 R. M. Eberle made a business trip to Grants Pass Wednesday.
 Mrs. L. E. Flury, mother of Mrs. W. L. Dobyns of this city, her daughters, Mrs. Henry Wolf and Mrs. Leroy Geinger and husband were week end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dobyns, as was also Mrs. J. Steiger, Mrs. Flury lives at Medford. The other visitors were from Chillicothe.
 Frank Hills, representing the Lockwood Motor company, of Roseburg was a business visitor here Monday.
 The installation of an outdoor drinking fountain at the front of the Glendale school house, also the installation of a stand pipe on the school house roof to be used for fire purposes, was completed by W. R. Stevenson last week. A. J. Raess, school janitor, assisted with the job.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Crone, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. O. Kratz and Mrs. George Mysog of Eugene, attended the J. D. Harper funeral here Tuesday afternoon.
 C. J. Shorb of Gold Hill was a Glendale visitor Monday. He attended the special chamber of commerce meeting held here Monday evening. Shorb is publisher of the Glendale Log.
 J. Inger Olinhouse of Portland who is spending the summer on upper Cow Creek was a Glendale visitor Wednesday. Last Friday he shot and killed a half grown cougar on Salt Creek, making his third cougar within a few weeks. Just a few weeks ago he bagged two cougars on stouts creek.
 Frank Hill is pasturing nearly 250 sheep at the Lystal-Lawson Lumber company's mill site. Following the fire last fall, the growth of grass has been very heavy, giving the sheep an excellent pasture at this time.
 Mrs. O. P. Harvey returned to her home in this city Saturday arriving here from Medford where she had spent the day visiting with her son, T. R. Harvey, and family. Mrs. Harvey has been at Klamath Falls for the past month staying with her son, Lloyd Harvey and family.
 Ray Cunningham, a wheat rancher at O'Haton, Alberta, Canada, arrived here Saturday for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Alta Cunningham and sisters and brothers here.
 William L. Nail made another trip to Grants Pass Monday for treatment to an infected toe on which an operation was performed about 10 days ago. He returned Tuesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dewey, their house guests Mrs. T. R. Elders and son, Teddy, and Mrs. L. C. Basse, attended the ball game at Coquille Sunday after which they motored to Bandon where they spent the night and Monday forenoon, returning here Monday evening.
 Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Webber gave an old fashioned house party to a few of their friends at their home on Montgomery street last Saturday evening. Quadrilles and old time dances were indulged. Jim Rose, Walt Winkelman and Billy Gordon furnished most of the music.
 Harry Olders was in charge of Dewey's Smokehouse Sunday and Monday while Jim enjoyed a short outing at Bandon.
 Ed Whitsett of Portland, spent Sunday here visiting with his brother Fred and friends in this city. Glendale was formerly Ed's home but in recent years he has been living at Portland. He is employed with a Southern Pacific bridge gang now working near Portland.

transacted business at Grants Pass Saturday.
 Mrs. M. Swank, now residing at Medford, visited with her son, Paul Swank, and family here Saturday.
 R. M. Eberle made a business trip to Grants Pass Wednesday.
 Mrs. L. E. Flury, mother of Mrs. W. L. Dobyns of this city, her daughters, Mrs. Henry Wolf and Mrs. Leroy Geinger and husband were week end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dobyns, as was also Mrs. J. Steiger, Mrs. Flury lives at Medford. The other visitors were from Chillicothe.
 Frank Hills, representing the Lockwood Motor company, of Roseburg was a business visitor here Monday.
 The installation of an outdoor drinking fountain at the front of the Glendale school house, also the installation of a stand pipe on the school house roof to be used for fire purposes, was completed by W. R. Stevenson last week. A. J. Raess, school janitor, assisted with the job.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Crone, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. O. Kratz and Mrs. George Mysog of Eugene, attended the J. D. Harper funeral here Tuesday afternoon.
 C. J. Shorb of Gold Hill was a Glendale visitor Monday. He attended the special chamber of commerce meeting held here Monday evening. Shorb is publisher of the Glendale Log.
 J. Inger Olinhouse of Portland who is spending the summer on upper Cow Creek was a Glendale visitor Wednesday. Last Friday he shot and killed a half grown cougar on Salt Creek, making his third cougar within a few weeks. Just a few weeks ago he bagged two cougars on stouts creek.
 Frank Hill is pasturing nearly 250 sheep at the Lystal-Lawson Lumber company's mill site. Following the fire last fall, the growth of grass has been very heavy, giving the sheep an excellent pasture at this time.
 Mrs. O. P. Harvey returned to her home in this city Saturday arriving here from Medford where she had spent the day visiting with her son, T. R. Harvey, and family. Mrs. Harvey has been at Klamath Falls for the past month staying with her son, Lloyd Harvey and family.
 Ray Cunningham, a wheat rancher at O'Haton, Alberta, Canada, arrived here Saturday for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Alta Cunningham and sisters and brothers here.
 William L. Nail made another trip to Grants Pass Monday for treatment to an infected toe on which an operation was performed about 10 days ago. He returned Tuesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dewey, their house guests Mrs. T. R. Elders and son, Teddy, and Mrs. L. C. Basse, attended the ball game at Coquille Sunday after which they motored to Bandon where they spent the night and Monday forenoon, returning here Monday evening.
 Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Webber gave an old fashioned house party to a few of their friends at their home on Montgomery street last Saturday evening. Quadrilles and old time dances were indulged. Jim Rose, Walt Winkelman and Billy Gordon furnished most of the music.
 Harry Olders was in charge of Dewey's Smokehouse Sunday and Monday while Jim enjoyed a short outing at Bandon.
 Ed Whitsett of Portland, spent Sunday here visiting with his brother Fred and friends in this city. Glendale was formerly Ed's home but in recent years he has been living at Portland. He is employed with a Southern Pacific bridge gang now working near Portland.

transacted business at Grants Pass Saturday.
 Mrs. M. Swank, now residing at Medford, visited with her son, Paul Swank, and family here Saturday.
 R. M. Eberle made a business trip to Grants Pass Wednesday.
 Mrs. L. E. Flury, mother of Mrs. W. L. Dobyns of this city, her daughters, Mrs. Henry Wolf and Mrs. Leroy Geinger and husband were week end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dobyns, as was also Mrs. J. Steiger, Mrs. Flury lives at Medford. The other visitors were from Chillicothe.
 Frank Hills, representing the Lockwood Motor company, of Roseburg was a business visitor here Monday.
 The installation of an outdoor drinking fountain at the front of the Glendale school house, also the installation of a stand pipe on the school house roof to be used for fire purposes, was completed by W. R. Stevenson last week. A. J. Raess, school janitor, assisted with the job.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Crone, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. O. Kratz and Mrs. George Mysog of Eugene, attended the J. D. Harper funeral here Tuesday afternoon.
 C. J. Shorb of Gold Hill was a Glendale visitor Monday. He attended the special chamber of commerce meeting held here Monday evening. Shorb is publisher of the Glendale Log.
 J. Inger Olinhouse of Portland who is spending the summer on upper Cow Creek was a Glendale visitor Wednesday. Last Friday he shot and killed a half grown cougar on Salt Creek, making his third cougar within a few weeks. Just a few weeks ago he bagged two cougars on stouts creek.
 Frank Hill is pasturing nearly 250 sheep at the Lystal-Lawson Lumber company's mill site. Following the fire last fall, the growth of grass has been very heavy, giving the sheep an excellent pasture at this time.
 Mrs. O. P. Harvey returned to her home in this city Saturday arriving here from Medford where she had spent the day visiting with her son, T. R. Harvey, and family. Mrs. Harvey has been at Klamath Falls for the past month staying with her son, Lloyd Harvey and family.
 Ray Cunningham, a wheat rancher at O'Haton, Alberta, Canada, arrived here Saturday for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Alta Cunningham and sisters and brothers here.
 William L. Nail made another trip to Grants Pass Monday for treatment to an infected toe on which an operation was performed about 10 days ago. He returned Tuesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dewey, their house guests Mrs. T. R. Elders and son, Teddy, and Mrs. L. C. Basse, attended the ball game at Coquille Sunday after which they motored to Bandon where they spent the night and Monday forenoon, returning here Monday evening.
 Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Webber gave an old fashioned house party to a few of their friends at their home on Montgomery street last Saturday evening. Quadrilles and old time dances were indulged. Jim Rose, Walt Winkelman and Billy Gordon furnished most of the music.
 Harry Olders was in charge of Dewey's Smokehouse Sunday and Monday while Jim enjoyed a short outing at Bandon.
 Ed Whitsett of Portland, spent Sunday here visiting with his brother Fred and friends in this city. Glendale was formerly Ed's home but in recent years he has been living at Portland. He is employed with a Southern Pacific bridge gang now working near Portland.

transacted business at Grants Pass Saturday.
 Mrs. M. Swank, now residing at Medford, visited with her son, Paul Swank, and family here Saturday.
 R. M. Eberle made a business trip to Grants Pass Wednesday.
 Mrs. L. E. Flury, mother of Mrs. W. L. Dobyns of this city, her daughters, Mrs. Henry Wolf and Mrs. Leroy Geinger and husband were week end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dobyns, as was also Mrs. J. Steiger, Mrs. Flury lives at Medford. The other visitors were from Chillicothe.
 Frank Hills, representing the Lockwood Motor company, of Roseburg was a business visitor here Monday.
 The installation of an outdoor drinking fountain at the front of the Glendale school house, also the installation of a stand pipe on the school house roof to be used for fire purposes, was completed by W. R. Stevenson last week. A. J. Raess, school janitor, assisted with the job.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Crone, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. O. Kratz and Mrs. George Mysog of Eugene, attended the J. D. Harper funeral here Tuesday afternoon.
 C. J. Shorb of Gold Hill was a Glendale visitor Monday. He attended the special chamber of commerce meeting held here Monday evening. Shorb is publisher of the Glendale Log.
 J. Inger Olinhouse of Portland who is spending the summer on upper Cow Creek was a Glendale visitor Wednesday. Last Friday he shot and killed a half grown cougar on Salt Creek, making his third cougar within a few weeks. Just a few weeks ago he bagged two cougars on stouts creek.
 Frank Hill is pasturing nearly 250 sheep at the Lystal-Lawson Lumber company's mill site. Following the fire last fall, the growth of grass has been very heavy, giving the sheep an excellent pasture at this time.
 Mrs. O. P. Harvey returned to her home in this city Saturday arriving here from Medford where she had spent the day visiting with her son, T. R. Harvey, and family. Mrs. Harvey has been at Klamath Falls for the past month staying with her son, Lloyd Harvey and family.
 Ray Cunningham, a wheat rancher at O'Haton, Alberta, Canada, arrived here Saturday for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Alta Cunningham and sisters and brothers here.
 William L. Nail made another trip to Grants Pass Monday for treatment to an infected toe on which an operation was performed about 10 days ago. He returned Tuesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dewey, their house guests Mrs. T. R. Elders and son, Teddy, and Mrs. L. C. Basse, attended the ball game at Coquille Sunday after which they motored to Bandon where they spent the night and Monday forenoon, returning here Monday evening.
 Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Webber gave an old fashioned house party to a few of their friends at their home on Montgomery street last Saturday evening. Quadrilles and old time dances were indulged. Jim Rose, Walt Winkelman and Billy Gordon furnished most of the music.
 Harry Olders was in charge of Dewey's Smokehouse Sunday and Monday while Jim enjoyed a short outing at Bandon.
 Ed Whitsett of Portland, spent Sunday here visiting with his brother Fred and friends in this city. Glendale was formerly Ed's home but in recent years he has been living at Portland. He is employed with a Southern Pacific bridge gang now working near Portland.

transacted business at Grants Pass Saturday.
 Mrs. M. Swank, now residing at Medford, visited with her son, Paul Swank, and family here Saturday.
 R. M. Eberle made a business trip to Grants Pass Wednesday.
 Mrs. L. E. Flury, mother of Mrs. W. L. Dobyns of this city, her daughters, Mrs. Henry Wolf and Mrs. Leroy Geinger and husband were week end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dobyns, as was also Mrs. J. Steiger, Mrs. Flury lives at Medford. The other visitors were from Chillicothe.
 Frank Hills, representing the Lockwood Motor company, of Roseburg was a business visitor here Monday.
 The installation of an outdoor drinking fountain at the front of the Glendale school house, also the installation of a stand pipe on the school house roof to be used for fire purposes, was completed by W. R. Stevenson last week. A. J. Raess, school janitor, assisted with the job.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Crone, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. O. Kratz and Mrs. George Mysog of Eugene, attended the J. D. Harper funeral here Tuesday afternoon.
 C. J. Shorb of Gold Hill was a Glendale visitor Monday. He attended the special chamber of commerce meeting held here Monday evening. Shorb is publisher of the Glendale Log.
 J. Inger Olinhouse of Portland who is spending the summer on upper Cow Creek was a Glendale visitor Wednesday. Last Friday he shot and killed a half grown cougar on Salt Creek, making his third cougar within a few weeks. Just a few weeks ago he bagged two cougars on stouts creek.
 Frank Hill is pasturing nearly 250 sheep at the Lystal-Lawson Lumber company's mill site. Following the fire last fall, the growth of grass has been very heavy, giving the sheep an excellent pasture at this time.
 Mrs. O. P. Harvey returned to her home in this city Saturday arriving here from Medford where she had spent the day visiting with her son, T. R. Harvey, and family. Mrs. Harvey has been at Klamath Falls for the past month staying with her son, Lloyd Harvey and family.
 Ray Cunningham, a wheat rancher at O'Haton, Alberta, Canada, arrived here Saturday for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Alta Cunningham and sisters and brothers here.
 William L. Nail made another trip to Grants Pass Monday for treatment to an infected toe on which an operation was performed about 10 days ago. He returned Tuesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dewey, their house guests Mrs. T. R. Elders and son, Teddy, and Mrs. L. C. Basse, attended the ball game at Coquille Sunday after which they motored to Bandon where they spent the night and Monday forenoon, returning here Monday evening.
 Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Webber gave an old fashioned house party to a few of their friends at their home on Montgomery street last Saturday evening. Quadrilles and old time dances were indulged. Jim Rose, Walt Winkelman and Billy Gordon furnished most of the music.
 Harry Olders was in charge of Dewey's Smokehouse Sunday and Monday while Jim enjoyed a short outing at Bandon.
 Ed Whitsett of Portland, spent Sunday here visiting with his brother Fred and friends in this city. Glendale was formerly Ed's home but in recent years he has been living at Portland. He is employed with a Southern Pacific bridge gang now working near Portland.

transacted business at Grants Pass Saturday.
 Mrs. M. Swank, now residing at Medford, visited with her son, Paul Swank, and family here Saturday.
 R. M. Eberle made a business trip to Grants Pass Wednesday.
 Mrs. L. E. Flury, mother of Mrs. W. L. Dobyns of this city, her daughters, Mrs. Henry Wolf and Mrs. Leroy Geinger and husband were week end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dobyns, as was also Mrs. J. Steiger, Mrs. Flury lives at Medford. The other visitors were from Chillicothe.
 Frank Hills, representing the Lockwood Motor company, of Roseburg was a business visitor here Monday.
 The installation of an outdoor drinking fountain at the front of the Glendale school house, also the installation of a stand pipe on the school house roof to be used for fire purposes, was completed by W. R. Stevenson last week. A. J. Raess, school janitor, assisted with the job.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Crone, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. O. Kratz and Mrs. George Mysog of Eugene, attended the J. D. Harper funeral here Tuesday afternoon.
 C. J. Shorb of Gold Hill was a Glendale visitor Monday. He attended the special chamber of commerce meeting held here Monday evening. Shorb is publisher of the Glendale Log.
 J. Inger Olinhouse of Portland who is spending the summer on upper Cow Creek was a Glendale visitor Wednesday. Last Friday he shot and killed a half grown cougar on Salt Creek, making his third cougar within a few weeks. Just a few weeks ago he bagged two cougars on stouts creek.
 Frank Hill is pasturing nearly 250 sheep at the Lystal-Lawson Lumber company's mill site. Following the fire last fall, the growth of grass has been very heavy, giving the sheep an excellent pasture at this time.
 Mrs. O. P. Harvey returned to her home in this city Saturday arriving here from Medford where she had spent the day visiting with her son, T. R. Harvey, and family. Mrs. Harvey has been at Klamath Falls for the past month staying with her son, Lloyd Harvey and family.
 Ray Cunningham, a wheat rancher at O'Haton, Alberta, Canada, arrived here Saturday for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Alta Cunningham and sisters and brothers here.
 William L. Nail made another trip to Grants Pass Monday for treatment to an infected toe on which an operation was performed about 10 days ago. He returned Tuesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dewey, their house guests Mrs. T. R. Elders and son, Teddy, and Mrs. L. C. Basse, attended the ball game at Coquille Sunday after which they motored to Bandon where they spent the night and Monday forenoon, returning here Monday evening.
 Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Webber gave an old fashioned house party to a few of their friends at their home on Montgomery street last Saturday evening. Quadrilles and old time dances were indulged. Jim Rose, Walt Winkelman and Billy Gordon furnished most of the music.
 Harry Olders was in charge of Dewey's Smokehouse Sunday and Monday while Jim enjoyed a short outing at Bandon.
 Ed Whitsett of Portland, spent Sunday here visiting with his brother Fred and friends in this city. Glendale was formerly Ed's home but in recent years he has been living at Portland. He is employed with a Southern Pacific bridge gang now working near Portland.

transacted business at Grants Pass Saturday.
 Mrs. M. Swank, now residing at Medford, visited with her son, Paul Swank, and family here Saturday.
 R. M. Eberle made a business trip to Grants Pass Wednesday.
 Mrs. L. E. Flury, mother of Mrs. W. L. Dobyns of this city, her daughters, Mrs. Henry Wolf and Mrs. Leroy Geinger and husband were week end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dobyns, as was also Mrs. J. Steiger, Mrs. Flury lives at Medford. The other visitors were from Chillicothe.
 Frank Hills, representing the Lockwood Motor company, of Roseburg was a business visitor here Monday.
 The installation of an outdoor drinking fountain at the front of the Glendale school house, also the installation of a stand pipe on the school house roof to be used for fire purposes, was completed by W. R. Stevenson last week. A. J. Raess, school janitor, assisted with the job.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Crone, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. O. Kratz and Mrs. George Mysog of Eugene, attended the J. D. Harper funeral here Tuesday afternoon.
 C. J. Shorb of Gold Hill was a Glendale visitor Monday. He attended the special chamber of commerce meeting held here Monday evening. Shorb is publisher of the Glendale Log.
 J. Inger Olinhouse of Portland who is spending the summer on upper Cow Creek was a Glendale visitor Wednesday. Last Friday he shot and killed a half grown cougar on Salt Creek, making his third cougar within a few weeks. Just a few weeks ago he bagged two cougars on stouts creek.
 Frank Hill is pasturing nearly 250 sheep at the Lystal-Lawson Lumber company's mill site. Following the fire last fall, the growth of grass has been very heavy, giving the sheep an excellent pasture at this time.
 Mrs. O. P. Harvey returned to her home in this city Saturday arriving here from Medford where she had spent the day visiting with her son, T. R. Harvey, and family. Mrs. Harvey has been at Klamath Falls for the past month staying with her son, Lloyd Harvey and family.
 Ray Cunningham, a wheat rancher at O'Haton, Alberta, Canada, arrived here Saturday for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Alta Cunningham and sisters and brothers here.
 William L. Nail made another trip to Grants Pass Monday for treatment to an infected toe on which an operation was performed about 10 days ago. He returned Tuesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dewey, their house guests Mrs. T. R. Elders and son, Teddy, and Mrs. L. C. Basse, attended the ball game at Coquille Sunday after which they motored to Bandon where they spent the night and Monday forenoon, returning here Monday evening.
 Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Webber gave an old fashioned house party to a few of their friends at their home on Montgomery street last Saturday evening. Quadrilles and old time dances were indulged. Jim Rose, Walt Winkelman and Billy Gordon furnished most of the music.
 Harry Olders was in charge of Dewey's Smokehouse Sunday and Monday while Jim enjoyed a short outing at Bandon.
 Ed Whitsett of Portland, spent Sunday here visiting with his brother Fred and friends in this city. Glendale was formerly Ed's home but in recent years he has been living at Portland. He is employed with a Southern Pacific bridge gang now working near Portland.

transacted business at Grants Pass Saturday.
 Mrs. M. Swank, now residing at Medford, visited with her son, Paul Swank, and family here Saturday.
 R. M. Eberle made a business trip to Grants Pass Wednesday.
 Mrs. L. E. Flury, mother of Mrs. W. L. Dobyns of this city, her daughters, Mrs. Henry Wolf and Mrs. Leroy Geinger and husband were week end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dobyns, as was also Mrs. J. Steiger, Mrs. Flury lives at Medford. The other visitors were from Chillicothe.
 Frank Hills, representing the Lockwood Motor company, of Roseburg was a business visitor here Monday.
 The installation of an outdoor drinking fountain at the front of the Glendale school house, also the installation of a stand pipe on the school house roof to be used for fire purposes, was completed by W. R. Stevenson last week. A. J. Raess, school janitor, assisted with the job.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Crone, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. O. Kratz and Mrs. George Mysog of Eugene, attended the J. D. Harper funeral here Tuesday afternoon.
 C. J. Shorb of Gold Hill was a Glendale visitor Monday. He attended the special chamber of commerce meeting held here Monday evening. Shorb is publisher of the Glendale Log.
 J. Inger Olinhouse of Portland who is spending the summer on upper Cow Creek was a Glendale visitor Wednesday. Last Friday he shot and killed a half grown cougar on Salt Creek, making his third cougar within a few weeks. Just a few weeks ago he bagged two cougars on stouts creek.
 Frank Hill is pasturing nearly 250 sheep at the Lystal-Lawson Lumber company's mill site. Following the fire last fall, the growth of grass has been very heavy, giving the sheep an excellent pasture at this time.
 Mrs. O. P. Harvey returned to her home in this city Saturday arriving here from Medford where she had spent the day visiting with her son, T. R. Harvey, and family. Mrs. Harvey has been at Klamath Falls for the past month staying with her son, Lloyd Harvey and family.
 Ray Cunningham, a wheat rancher at O'Haton, Alberta, Canada, arrived here Saturday for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Alta Cunningham and sisters and brothers here.
 William L. Nail made another trip to Grants Pass Monday for treatment to an infected toe on which an operation was performed about 10 days ago. He returned Tuesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dewey, their house guests Mrs. T. R. Elders and son, Teddy, and Mrs. L. C. Basse, attended the ball game at Coquille Sunday after which they motored to Bandon where they spent the night and Monday forenoon, returning here Monday evening.
 Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Webber gave an old fashioned house party to a few of their friends at their home on Montgomery street last Saturday evening. Quadrilles and old time dances were indulged. Jim Rose, Walt Winkelman and Billy Gordon furnished most of the music.
 Harry Olders was in charge of Dewey's Smokehouse Sunday and Monday while Jim enjoyed a short outing at Bandon.
 Ed Whitsett of Portland, spent Sunday here visiting with his brother Fred and friends in this city. Glendale was formerly Ed's home but in recent years he has been living at Portland. He is employed with a Southern Pacific bridge gang now working near Portland.

ADVERTISING FOR COW CREEK VALLEY TO BE CONSIDERED

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
GLENDALE, July 18.—A special program of community advertising having for its main purpose the attraction of more settlers and home owners to the many advantages of Cow Creek valley as a desirable place to make their homes, was urged by R. M. Eberle, president of the Glendale chamber of commerce, at another special meeting held last Monday evening at the city hall.
 George H. Jackson, attorney and realtor, presented a proposition whereby he proposed to devote a portion of his time handling the chamber's promotion work if the chamber would agree to pay him $60 per month for his services.
 As a quorum was not present last Monday evening, another meeting will be held next Monday evening to consider and vote on Jackson's proposition.

DRAIN

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
DRAIN, July 18.—Mrs. Martha Devore, who spent several months of the past winter in California and has been visiting here the past two weeks with her sister-in-law, Mrs. L. C. Devore, left Wednesday for her home in Canyonville.
 Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Graterholz, of the Motor Inn garage, is installing an additional service pump in front of the garage this week.
 N. D. Cool is making improvements in the interior of his store this week in order to facilitate the handling of his large stock of goods.
 The Misses Vera and Alice Woolley and the latter's brother, Carwin Woolley attended the Epworth League institute held on Little river last week and report an interesting session.
 Roy Spalding, roadmaster in this part of the county, has a crew of men working this week on the Gunter post office.
 The contractors on the Umpqua highway job are making favorable progress and some portions of the highway will be ready for first coats of crushed rock within the next few weeks.
 Dr. Bertha Devore reports the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McNeal at their home in East Drain on July 15, 1930.
 Bernard Davis and his aunt, Mrs. Glenn Speck, formerly Miss Ruby Moore, came up from Portland the first of the week, the former to visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Davis, and the latter at the home of her mother, Mrs. Anna Moore.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sumner had the pleasure of a visit from the latter's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Philbauer, of San Francisco the latter part of last week.
 A. W. and A. C. Redder, of Myrtle Creek visited here last Sunday with their father, who has been bedfast for the past several weeks.
 Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schurter, the former a driver of one of the Drain

transacted business at Grants Pass Saturday.
 Mrs. M. Swank, now residing at Medford, visited with her son, Paul Swank, and family here Saturday.
 R. M. Eberle made a business trip to Grants Pass Wednesday.
 Mrs. L. E. Flury, mother of Mrs. W. L. Dobyns of this city, her daughters, Mrs. Henry Wolf and Mrs. Leroy Geinger and husband were week end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dobyns, as was also Mrs. J. Steiger, Mrs. Flury lives at Medford. The other visitors were from Chillicothe.
 Frank Hills, representing the Lockwood Motor company, of Roseburg was a business visitor here Monday.
 The installation of an outdoor drinking fountain at the front of the Glendale school house, also the installation of a stand pipe on the school house roof to be used for fire purposes, was completed by W. R. Stevenson last week. A. J. Raess, school janitor, assisted with the job.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Crone, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. O. Kratz and Mrs. George Mysog of Eugene, attended the J. D. Harper funeral here Tuesday afternoon.
 C. J. Shorb of Gold Hill was a Glendale visitor Monday. He attended the special chamber of commerce meeting held here Monday evening. Shorb is publisher of the Glendale Log.
 J. Inger Olinhouse of Portland who is spending the summer on upper Cow Creek was a Glendale visitor Wednesday. Last Friday he shot and killed a half grown cougar on Salt Creek, making his third cougar within a few weeks. Just a few weeks ago he bagged two cougars on stouts creek.
 Frank Hill is pasturing nearly 250 sheep at the Lystal-Lawson Lumber company's mill site. Following the fire last fall, the growth of grass has been very heavy, giving the sheep an excellent pasture at this time.
 Mrs. O. P. Harvey returned to her home in this city Saturday arriving here from Medford where she had spent the day visiting with her son, T. R. Harvey, and family. Mrs. Harvey has been at Klamath Falls for the past month staying with her son, Lloyd Harvey and family.
 Ray Cunningham, a wheat rancher at O'Haton, Alberta, Canada, arrived here Saturday for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Alta Cunningham and sisters and brothers here.
 William L. Nail made another trip to Grants Pass Monday for treatment to an infected toe on which an operation was performed about 10 days ago. He returned Tuesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dewey, their house guests Mrs. T. R. Elders and son, Teddy, and Mrs. L. C. Basse, attended the ball game at Coquille Sunday after which they motored to Bandon where they spent the night and Monday forenoon, returning here Monday evening.
 Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Webber gave an old fashioned house party to a few of their friends at their home on Montgomery street last Saturday evening. Quadrilles and old time dances were indulged. Jim Rose, Walt Winkelman and Billy Gordon furnished most of the music.
 Harry Olders was in charge of Dewey's Smokehouse Sunday and Monday while Jim enjoyed a short outing at Bandon.
 Ed Whitsett of Portland, spent Sunday here visiting with his brother Fred and friends in this city. Glendale was formerly Ed's home but in recent years he has been living at Portland. He is employed with a Southern Pacific bridge gang now working near Portland.

transacted business at Grants Pass Saturday.
 Mrs. M. Swank, now residing at Medford, visited with her son, Paul Swank, and family here Saturday.
 R. M. Eberle made a business trip to Grants Pass Wednesday.
 Mrs. L. E. Flury, mother of Mrs. W. L. Dobyns of this city, her daughters, Mrs. Henry Wolf and Mrs. Leroy Geinger and husband were week end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dobyns, as was also Mrs. J. Steiger, Mrs. Flury lives at Medford. The other visitors were from Chillicothe.
 Frank Hills, representing the Lockwood Motor company, of Roseburg was a business visitor here Monday.
 The installation of an outdoor drinking fountain at the front of the Glendale school house, also the installation of a stand pipe on the school house roof to be used for fire purposes, was completed by W. R. Stevenson last week. A. J. Raess, school janitor, assisted with the job.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Crone, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. O. Kratz and Mrs. George Mysog of Eugene, attended the J. D. Harper funeral here Tuesday afternoon.
 C. J. Shorb of Gold Hill was a Glendale visitor Monday. He attended the special chamber of commerce meeting held here Monday evening. Shorb is publisher of the Glendale Log.
 J. Inger Olinhouse of Portland who is spending the summer on upper Cow Creek was a Glendale visitor Wednesday. Last Friday he shot and killed a half grown cougar on Salt Creek, making his third cougar within a few weeks. Just a few weeks ago he bagged two cougars on stouts creek.
 Frank Hill is pasturing nearly 250 sheep at the Lystal-Lawson Lumber company's mill site. Following the fire last fall, the growth of grass has been very heavy, giving the sheep an excellent pasture at this time.
 Mrs. O. P. Harvey returned to her home in this city Saturday arriving here from Medford where she had spent the day visiting with her son, T. R. Harvey, and family. Mrs. Harvey has been at Klamath Falls for the past month staying with her son, Lloyd Harvey and family.
 Ray Cunningham, a wheat rancher at O'Haton, Alberta, Canada, arrived here Saturday for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Alta Cunningham and sisters and brothers here.
 William L. Nail made another trip to Grants Pass Monday for treatment to an infected toe on which an operation was performed about 10 days ago. He returned Tuesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dewey, their house guests Mrs. T. R. Elders and son, Teddy, and Mrs. L. C. Basse, attended the ball game at Coquille Sunday after which they motored to Bandon where they spent the night and Monday forenoon, returning here Monday evening.
 Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Webber gave an old fashioned house party to a few of their friends at their home on Montgomery street last Saturday evening. Quadrilles and old time dances were indulged. Jim Rose, Walt Winkelman and Billy Gordon furnished most of the music.
 Harry Olders was in charge of Dewey's Smokehouse Sunday and Monday while Jim enjoyed a short outing at Bandon.
 Ed Whitsett of Portland, spent Sunday here visiting with his brother Fred and friends in this city. Glendale was formerly Ed's home but in recent years he has been living at Portland. He is employed with a Southern Pacific bridge gang now working near Portland.

transacted business at Grants Pass Saturday.
 Mrs. M. Swank, now residing at Medford, visited with her son, Paul Swank, and family here Saturday.
 R. M. Eberle made a business trip to Grants Pass Wednesday.
 Mrs. L. E. Flury, mother of Mrs. W. L. Dobyns of this city, her daughters, Mrs. Henry Wolf and Mrs. Leroy Geinger and husband were week end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dobyns, as was also Mrs. J. Steiger, Mrs. Flury lives at Medford. The other visitors were from Chillicothe.
 Frank Hills, representing the Lockwood Motor company, of Roseburg was a business visitor here Monday.
 The installation of an outdoor drinking fountain at the front of the Glendale school house, also the installation of a stand pipe on the school house roof to be used for fire purposes, was completed by W. R. Stevenson last week. A. J. Raess, school janitor, assisted with the job.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Crone, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. O. Kratz and Mrs. George Mysog of Eugene, attended the J. D. Harper funeral here Tuesday afternoon.
 C. J. Shorb of Gold Hill was a Glendale visitor Monday. He attended the special chamber of commerce meeting held here Monday evening. Shorb is publisher of the Glendale Log.
 J. Inger Olinhouse of Portland who is spending the summer on upper Cow Creek was a Glendale visitor Wednesday. Last Friday he shot and killed a half grown cougar on Salt Creek, making his third cougar within a few weeks. Just a few weeks ago he bagged two cougars on stouts creek.
 Frank Hill is pasturing nearly 250 sheep at the Lystal-Lawson Lumber company's mill site. Following the fire last fall, the growth of grass has been very heavy, giving the sheep an excellent pasture at this time.
 Mrs. O. P. Harvey returned to her home in this city Saturday arriving here from Medford where she had spent the day visiting with her son, T. R. Harvey, and family. Mrs. Harvey has been at Klamath Falls for the past month staying with her son, Lloyd Harvey and family.
 Ray Cunningham, a wheat rancher at O'Haton, Alberta, Canada, arrived here Saturday for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Alta Cunningham and sisters and brothers here.
 William L. Nail made another trip to Grants Pass Monday for treatment to an infected toe on which an operation was performed about 10 days ago. He returned Tuesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dewey, their house guests Mrs. T. R. Elders and son, Teddy, and Mrs. L. C. Basse, attended the ball game at Coquille Sunday after which they motored to Bandon where they spent the night and Monday forenoon, returning here Monday evening.
 Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Webber gave an old fashioned house party to a few of their friends