LOCKWOOD REPORTS ON ROTARY MEET

Stating that the Chicago convention of Rotary International was the greatest gathering ever seen, Charles Lockwood described the convention in detail to Roseburg Rotary members yesterday. Mr. Lockwood returned last week from the meeting where he was the Roseburg's club official delegate. The Chicago convention was a celebration of the silver or 25th anniversary of the founding of Rotary.

International friendship was the keynote of the convention and Mr. Lockwood told of the excellent work of the convention in promoting a better basis of international understanding. Development of the individual was also stressed.

The next meeting of Rotary will be a dinner meeting at Idlewild park next Thursday evening. Rotarians will take the ladies to this meeting.

The club will develop a horse-shoe pitching team under the leadership of John Runyan. Practice will begin at once and a challenge to other service clubs is contemplated.
