

News of Douglas County

LEONA

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

LEONA, July 19.—Glen Miller, who has been working at Roseburg with his father, came to Leona to visit for the weekend with friends.

William and John Bentz, who have been working in the Willamette valley for the past month, returned Sunday to Cold Springs.

Roy Beebe is in Eugene Tuesday looking after business matters.

Mrs. Helen Kilpatrick and daughter, Betty Jean, visited at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kenny, Friday.

Charles Schoolmaster has returned to his home after a visit with friends in Portland.

Mrs. Frances Olsen and daughter, Hattie and Jean, and son, Dale, and the latter's friend, Bert Sly, all of Eugene, visited at the Earl Crandall home the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor and daughter, Miss Esther, all of Cottage Grove, visited relatives in Leona the first of the week.

Word has been received here that Jess and Fred Crumley and the latter's family are now at Condon, where Jess and Elmer Crumley are working for Frank Potter, a former resident of Leona.

Mrs. Ida B. Moore, who has been visiting for several months at the home of her son, Earl, left Monday for San Francisco. She plans to visit a son and daughter in Colorado before going to her home in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kenny were in Eugene the first of the week looking after business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Matthews spent Thursday visiting friends at Junction City.

The mill at Horton is to be rebuilt soon and the Eastburn, Sherrin, Baldwin, and Oscar Matthews expect to move their families there as soon as the new houses are ready for occupancy.

Mrs. Eva Elley and Mrs. Rose Lee and children of Southfork, are visiting at the Sherrin Baldwin home.

Ross Richardson of Portland arrived Tuesday for a visit with his brother, John W. Richardson, of Leona. He will come back to Leona later when he and his wife go south to spend their vacation. He is a professional carpenter and his wife raises cut flowers for the Portland florist trade.

RIDDLE

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

RIDDLE, July 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Clay Olm of Milo, were shopping and visiting friends here Tuesday.

Miss Roberta Moore, who has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Elbert Ball, for the past month left for her home at Vancouver, Wash., Tuesday.

C. H. Crow and Harry Martin left for Diamond Lake Monday for a two weeks' vacation trip.

Miss Dorothy Gilbert of Gazley, was the guest of Mrs. Earl Harper this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cornutt and daughter, Betty, were attending to business matters and shopping in Roseburg Monday.

Mrs. Augusta Wilson and daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Atterbury of Roseburg, left Sunday for Los Angeles where they will visit relatives several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertell Ford and baby son of Lindsay, Calif., are guests at the home of Mrs. Fud's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Houser.

Mrs. Claude Burgoyne and Harmon Schultz and daughter, Dossie, motored down from Brookway Sunday and spent the day at the home of Mrs. Ida Burgoyne.

Mr. and Mrs. James Vaughn of Blinn, Washington, have been guests this week at the home of Mrs. Vaughn's uncle, J. H. Boyer.

Miss Florence Sporer, of Roseburg, is visiting in this city at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Siefert.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter who were married in Louisa, Wash., last week were visiting with friends here for a few hours Wednesday.

Mrs. Carter will be remembered as Mrs. Amanda Wilder who formerly resided here. They will make their home at Milton, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burkhardt, of California, arrived here Monday for a few days' visit with Mrs. Burkhardt's mother, Mrs. May Clark.

A. J. Liburn and Wm. A. Davidson of Portland were attending to business matters here Friday.

Mrs. M. S. Ryan entertained the Paul Matrons' club at her home near town Friday. After a delicious one o'clock luncheon the afternoon was spent in quilting and visiting. Twelve ladies attended.

J. W. Sackett, accompanied by his grandson, Frank Sackett, arrived here Wednesday from Anaheim, Cal., and visited until Thursday at the home of Mr. Sackett's sister, Mrs. H. A. Crow.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bradstreet who have been on a visit to their old home at Bridgewater, Maine, the past six weeks, returned here this week. They were accompanied home by Mr. Bradstreet's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bradstreet, who will make their home here.

Mrs. W. J. Jackson left Saturday for Eureka, Calif., where she will visit relatives part of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Barrett and family, of The Dalles, are visiting at the home of R. R. Murrehead.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Logsdon and daughter, Williametta, motored to Eugene and Jasper last week end where they were the guests of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Gibbons and son and Freda Hendricks, of Elkhart, were visiting at the home of Mrs. Ida Burgoyne for a short time Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Willis of Hollywood, Cal., arrived here by auto Thursday and went on to Peck station Friday where they will be

YONCALLA DANCING CLUB HOLDS PICNIC ON SOUTH UMPQUA

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

YONCALLA, July 19.—The members of the Rice Hill Dancing club motored to Myrtle Grove camp along the South Umpqua last Sunday where they met Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cook from Astoria and Mrs. Harry Cook from Astoria and Mrs. Harry Cook from Astoria.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Stenseth, and son Marvin, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keiso and daughter Iah of Yoncalla, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Warner of Pleasant valley, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Strong, Betty and Byron Strong, of Rice Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Irvn Rice and son Wayne of Rice valley, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Medley of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dear of Cottage Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cook of Astoria.

GLENDALE

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

GLENDALE, July 19.—W. M. C. R. Langley, brothers of Mrs. George W. Turner, and Mrs. C. R. Langley, all of Portland, visited at the Turner ranch home the first of the week. They were on their way to Los Angeles to attend to some business matters and are expected to return here the latter part of next week.

Mrs. Ida Foreman of Denver arrived here Monday for a visit with the Rostermundts. She left here Thursday in company with Mrs. Winnie Rostermundt and Fred Rostermundt who have been visiting with John Rostermundt the past two weeks and are now returning to their home at Omaha, Neb., which they expect to reach in two weeks. Before returning east they are making a trip to southern California going by way of the coast route.

Fifteen children, ranging in age from 3 months to 6 years, were given careful examination at the preschool and baby clinic held at the Lutheran church Thursday afternoon under the auspices of the local health unit in cooperation with Dr. A. J. Fawcett, county physician, and Mrs. Ellen Post, county health nurse from Roseburg. Mrs. A. J. Fawcett and Mrs. A. Snyder represented the local health unit at the clinic. This was one of the most successful clinics held in this series of monthly meetings.

E. H. Belott of this city was a Roseburg business visitor Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Winston of San Francisco, Cal., were registered at the Glendale hotel Tuesday.

W. B. Losh left for Canyonville the first of the week where he is foreman in charge of construction on Canyonville's new water system.

Canyonville is constructing a pipe line that will be about two miles long and a reservoir of approximately 50,000 barrel capacity. The water is being taken from O'Shea creek.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Buzzel of Roseburg spent Sunday visiting with Mr. and Mrs. George Turner at the Turner ranch on Cow creek. Buzzel is employed in the sheriff's office at Roseburg in the tax collection department.

Mrs. Julia (Grandma) Haged returned to her home in this city Saturday from a visit with friends at Portland and Molalla. At the latter place she visited the Daughters, who formerly owned what is now known as the Cline place on the Fervale road. At Portland she visited with Bakers, former Fervale folks, Mrs. K. Edin and Laddis, former Glendale residents.

W. L. Nail, who has been limping with a sore foot on which he recently had an operation performed, nearly severed the tip off of one of his fingers while splitting some kindling Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Chaney of Grants Pass together with Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Austin of this city, motored to Cottage where they attended a ball game last Sunday.

Paul Swank was arrested by Officer Olinphouse Saturday for riding a motorcycle without proper license. Recorder Losh fined Swank $5.00 which he paid.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rostermundt, Fred Rostermundt, and Mrs. Ida Foreman, motored to Crater lake Wednesday returning here the same day.

Mrs. Shirley Gilham visited with friends and relatives at Medford last of the week. She was accompanied by Misses Alice and Gertrude Nobel to Grants Pass where they visited and stopped.

A. W. Sandberg, who for the past year has been hauling logs for the Smith brothers on Cow creek, has secured a three-year contract to haul spruce pulp logs for a pulp mill near Empire. He and Ivan Day left here Wednesday with two large trucks and trailers and will begin on the new job at once.

Jarley Pete, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Pete, residing a short distance east of Glendale, who has been working with a Western Union construction crew for the past year and is now stationed near Portland, has recently chosen to operate an inspection motor car for the Western Union officials who are making a valuation inspection tour of the lines in the northwest.

Mrs. R. L. Bussey is doing part time stenographer work for G. H. Jackson, attorney.

Thomas E. Lawson returned to his home in this city Thursday from a three-day business trip to Portland.

A Southern Pacific extra gang that has been stationed at Byers for some time moved to Talent Thursday night where it is expected to remain about a week when it is expected it will be moved to Grants Pass. This gang, consisting of about 25 men with Charles Burfield as foreman, is engaged in relaying steel on curves.

One Johnson while chasing a pig last week stumbled and fell with his hand on a broken fruit jar, gashing his hand so that Dr. Fawcett had to take a number of stitches to close the wound. Johnson has a ranch near this city and says with all kinds of farm work crowding him at this time for attention it is a mighty poor time to have a crippled hand.

W. L. Barton, living on the Whitcomb road about a mile east of Glendale, killed a rattlesnake at his place Wednesday that measured 40 inches in length. Some of the rattles had been broken off and only 7 rattles remained.

Paul Frederick of Seattle arrived here last week and is spending a brief vacation at the San Luis ranch on Windy creek visiting with the Britts.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Woodroffe left here Tuesday for Chico, Cal., because of the serious illness of a brother of Mrs. Woodroffe there.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Miller of Wolf Creek visited with friends and relatives here Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Richards and Floyd Clark left for Hood River Thursday, where Mr. Richards will be employed. Richards has been chief electrician at the Glendale Lumber company's plant for more than a year.

An electric light was installed at the side of the city hall lighting up the outside of the jail last week. So now if anyone gets "hit up" and has to be taken to jail during the dark hours, the jail will also be lit up and easier to find. In addition a big help to the night marshal the additional light will tend to discourage outsiders prowling

WILL ENLARGE POULTRY FARM

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

LEONA, July 19.—J. W. Richardson is making plans to expand his poultry farm very materially this year. Several new chicken houses are to be constructed, and he is now engaged in laying water pipes to the present houses and to the sites for the proposed new buildings. His flocks are to be materially increased next spring. He is raising White Leghorns.

Jenny Asks That Jail Term Close

Rudolph Jenny, recently sentenced to 30 days in jail and a fine of $50 for violation of the traffic ordinance, is preparing to take court action to have the sentence revoked. It was stated today, Jenny's extremely heavy sentence resulted from a verbal tirade against the officers when arraigned before Judge Hopkins.

Jenny was arrested for driving a truck without license plates. He declares that he had just received the plates at his home, and was taking the truck from a local garage to the house and had the receipt for the license in the vehicle at the time of his arrest.

about the jail doors and windows. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hazen motored to Roseburg Tuesday where they attended to business matters.

Miss Florence Britt and Paul Frederick visited the Oregon Marble caves Tuesday.

Mrs. C. B. Austin and Mrs. W. D. Meissner left here Thursday for a fishing trip on the North Umpqua. They expected to return sometime Friday night.

W. W. Willis, mayor of Canyonville, and Mrs. Willis, visited at Glendale Friday afternoon. He says work on Canyonville's new water system has begun and that from present indications the water supply will be more than ample for Canyonville's immediate needs.

Willis also commented favorably on the splendid attendance from Glendale and Cow creek at Canyonville's Fourth of July celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Kafer have as their guests Mrs. Kafer's sister, Mrs. W. H. Prunk of Seattle and her mother, Mrs. J. P. Peterson, of Portland, who arrived here Thursday.

The Glendale ball team will play Crescent City team here Sunday in a return game. Two weeks ago the Glendale boys defeated the Crescent boys by a score of 8 to 6. Since then Glendale has lost two good men, Miller and Conner.

Glendale is short of pitching material but if Warhorse Bates can get his arm in condition by Sunday Glendale need look no further for a moundman.

Commits Suicide as Lawsuit Opens

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

LEONA, July 19.—J. W. Richardson is making plans to expand his poultry farm very materially this year. Several new chicken houses are to be constructed, and he is now engaged in laying water pipes to the present houses and to the sites for the proposed new buildings. His flocks are to be materially increased next spring. He is raising White Leghorns.

Jenny Asks That Jail Term Close

Rudolph Jenny, recently sentenced to 30 days in jail and a fine of $50 for violation of the traffic ordinance, is preparing to take court action to have the sentence revoked. It was stated today, Jenny's extremely heavy sentence resulted from a verbal tirade against the officers when arraigned before Judge Hopkins.

Jenny was arrested for driving a truck without license plates. He declares that he had just received the plates at his home, and was taking the truck from a local garage to the house and had the receipt for the license in the vehicle at the time of his arrest.

about the jail doors and windows. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hazen motored to Roseburg Tuesday where they attended to business matters.

Miss Florence Britt and Paul Frederick visited the Oregon Marble caves Tuesday.

Mrs. C. B. Austin and Mrs. W. D. Meissner left here Thursday for a fishing trip on the North Umpqua. They expected to return sometime Friday night.

W. W. Willis, mayor of Canyonville, and Mrs. Willis, visited at Glendale Friday afternoon. He says work on Canyonville's new water system has begun and that from present indications the water supply will be more than ample for Canyonville's immediate needs.

Willis also commented favorably on the splendid attendance from Glendale and Cow creek at Canyonville's Fourth of July celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Kafer have as their guests Mrs. Kafer's sister, Mrs. W. H. Prunk of Seattle and her mother, Mrs. J. P. Peterson, of Portland, who arrived here Thursday.

The Glendale ball team will play Crescent City team here Sunday in a return game. Two weeks ago the Glendale boys defeated the Crescent boys by a score of 8 to 6. Since then Glendale has lost two good men, Miller and Conner.

Glendale is short of pitching material but if Warhorse Bates can get his arm in condition by Sunday Glendale need look no further for a moundman.

STORY 2

(Continued from page 1)

tempted assassination of Jack Zuta, led a police flyover squad a ten mile chase before he was caught at the door of his apartment.

The chase started at Diversity avenue and extended north as far as Rogers park, then south again. Several times in doubling back on the trail, the Abbott and police cars sped up and down North Clark street. Hundreds of persons, recognizing the machines by their speed and constant reappearance, lined the streets and cheered.

Abbott, who was accompanied during the chase by his wife, denied having any part in the murder of Linzie, the Tribune reporter who was killed June 7, or in the attack on Jack Zuta.

(Continued from page 1)

LEONA, July 19.—J. W. Richardson is making plans to expand his poultry farm very materially this year. Several new chicken houses are to be constructed, and he is now engaged in laying water pipes to the present houses and to the sites for the proposed new buildings. His flocks are to be materially increased next spring. He is raising White Leghorns.

Jenny Asks That Jail Term Close

Rudolph Jenny, recently sentenced to 30 days in jail and a fine of $50 for violation of the traffic ordinance, is preparing to take court action to have the sentence revoked. It was stated today, Jenny's extremely heavy sentence resulted from a verbal tirade against the officers when arraigned before Judge Hopkins.

Jenny was arrested for driving a truck without license plates. He declares that he had just received the plates at his home, and was taking the truck from a local garage to the house and had the receipt for the license in the vehicle at the time of his arrest.

about the jail doors and windows. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hazen motored to Roseburg Tuesday where they attended to business matters.

Miss Florence Britt and Paul Frederick visited the Oregon Marble caves Tuesday.

Mrs. C. B. Austin and Mrs. W. D. Meissner left here Thursday for a fishing trip on the North Umpqua. They expected to return sometime Friday night.

W. W. Willis, mayor of Canyonville, and Mrs. Willis, visited at Glendale Friday afternoon. He says work on Canyonville's new water system has begun and that from present indications the water supply will be more than ample for Canyonville's immediate needs.

Willis also commented favorably on the splendid attendance from Glendale and Cow creek at Canyonville's Fourth of July celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Kafer have as their guests Mrs. Kafer's sister, Mrs. W. H. Prunk of Seattle and her mother, Mrs. J. P. Peterson, of Portland, who arrived here Thursday.

The Glendale ball team will play Crescent City team here Sunday in a return game. Two weeks ago the Glendale boys defeated the Crescent boys by a score of 8 to 6. Since then Glendale has lost two good men, Miller and Conner.

Glendale is short of pitching material but if Warhorse Bates can get his arm in condition by Sunday Glendale need look no further for a moundman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Woodroffe left here Tuesday for Chico, Cal., because of the serious illness of a brother of Mrs. Woodroffe there.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Miller of Wolf Creek visited with friends and relatives here Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Richards and Floyd Clark left for Hood River Thursday, where Mr. Richards will be employed. Richards has been chief electrician at the Glendale Lumber company's plant for more than a year.

An electric light was installed at the side of the city hall lighting up the outside of the jail last week. So now if anyone gets "hit up" and has to be taken to jail during the dark hours, the jail will also be lit up and easier to find. In addition a big help to the night marshal the additional light will tend to discourage outsiders prowling one of his fingers while splitting some kindling Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Chaney of Grants Pass together with Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Austin of this city, motored to Cottage where they attended a ball game last Sunday.

Paul Swank was arrested by Officer Olinphouse Saturday for riding a motorcycle without proper license. Recorder Losh fined Swank $5.00 which he paid.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rostermundt, Fred Rostermundt, and Mrs. Ida Foreman, motored to Crater lake Wednesday returning here the same day.

Mrs. Shirley Gilham visited with friends and relatives at Medford last of the week. She was accompanied by Misses Alice and Gertrude Nobel to Grants Pass where they visited and stopped.

A. W. Sandberg, who for the past year has been hauling logs for the Smith brothers on Cow creek, has secured a three-year contract to haul spruce pulp logs for a pulp mill near Empire. He and Ivan Day left here Wednesday with two large trucks and trailers and will begin on the new job at once.

Jarley Pete, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Pete, residing a short distance east of Glendale, who has been working with a Western Union construction crew for the past year and is now stationed near Portland, has recently chosen to operate an inspection motor car for the Western Union officials who are making a valuation inspection tour of the lines in the northwest.

Mrs. R. L. Bussey is doing part time stenographer work for G. H. Jackson, attorney.

Thomas E. Lawson returned to his home in this city Thursday from a three-day business trip to Portland.

A Southern Pacific extra gang that has been stationed at Byers for some time moved to Talent Thursday night where it is expected to remain about a week when it is expected it will be moved to Grants Pass. This gang, consisting of about 25 men with Charles Burfield as foreman, is engaged in relaying steel on curves.

One Johnson while chasing a pig last week stumbled and fell with his hand on a broken fruit jar, gashing his hand so that Dr. Fawcett had to take a number of stitches to close the wound. Johnson has a ranch near this city and says with all kinds of farm work crowding him at this time for attention it is a mighty poor time to have a crippled hand.

W. L. Barton, living on the Whitcomb road about a mile east of Glendale, killed a rattlesnake at his place Wednesday that measured 40 inches in length. Some of the rattles had been broken off and only 7 rattles remained.

Paul Frederick of Seattle arrived here last week and is spending a brief vacation at the San Luis ranch on Windy creek visiting with the Britts.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Woodroffe left here Tuesday for Chico, Cal., because of the serious illness of a brother of Mrs. Woodroffe there.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Miller of Wolf Creek visited with friends and relatives here Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Richards and Floyd Clark left for Hood River Thursday, where Mr. Richards will be employed. Richards has been chief electrician at the Glendale Lumber company's plant for more than a year.

An electric light was installed at the side of the city hall lighting up the outside of the jail last week. So now if anyone gets "hit up" and has to be taken to jail during the dark hours, the jail will also be lit up and easier to find. In addition a big help to the night marshal the additional light will tend to discourage outsiders prowling one of his fingers while splitting some kindling Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Chaney of Grants Pass together with Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Austin of this city, motored to Cottage where they attended a ball game last Sunday.

Paul Swank was arrested by Officer Olinphouse Saturday for riding a motorcycle without proper license. Recorder Losh fined Swank $5.00 which he paid.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rostermundt, Fred Rostermundt, and Mrs. Ida Foreman, motored to Crater lake Wednesday returning here the same day.

Mrs. Shirley Gilham visited with friends and relatives at Medford last of the week. She was accompanied by Misses Alice and Gertrude Nobel to Grants Pass where they visited and stopped.

A. W. Sandberg, who for the past year has been hauling logs for the Smith brothers on Cow creek, has secured a three-year contract to haul spruce pulp logs for a pulp mill near Empire. He and Ivan Day left here Wednesday with two large trucks and trailers and will begin on the new job at once.

Jarley Pete, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Pete, residing a short distance east of Glendale, who has been working with a Western Union construction crew for the past year and is now stationed near Portland, has recently chosen to operate an inspection motor car for the Western Union officials who are making a valuation inspection tour of the lines in the northwest.

Mrs. R. L. Bussey is doing part time stenographer work for G. H. Jackson, attorney.

Thomas E. Lawson returned to his home in this city Thursday from a three-day business trip to Portland.

A Southern Pacific extra gang that has been stationed at Byers for some time moved to Talent Thursday night where it is expected to remain about a week when it is expected it will be moved to Grants Pass. This gang, consisting of about 25 men with Charles Burfield as foreman, is engaged in relaying steel on curves.

One Johnson while chasing a pig last week stumbled and fell with his hand on a broken fruit jar, gashing his hand so that Dr. Fawcett had to take a number of stitches to close the wound. Johnson has a ranch near this city and says with all kinds of farm work crowding him at this time for attention it is a mighty poor time to have a crippled hand.

W. L. Barton, living on the Whitcomb road about a mile east of Glendale, killed a rattlesnake at his place Wednesday that measured 40 inches in length. Some of the rattles had been broken off and only 7 rattles remained.

Paul Frederick of Seattle arrived here last week and is spending a brief vacation at the San Luis ranch on Windy creek visiting with the Britts.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Woodroffe left here Tuesday for Chico, Cal., because of the serious illness of a brother of Mrs. Woodroffe there.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Miller of Wolf Creek visited with friends and relatives here Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Richards and Floyd Clark left for Hood River Thursday, where Mr. Richards will be employed. Richards has been chief electrician at the Glendale Lumber company's plant for more than a year.

An electric light was installed at the side of the city hall lighting up the outside of the jail last week. So now if anyone gets "hit up" and has to be taken to jail during the dark hours, the jail will also be lit up and easier to find. In addition a big help to the night marshal the additional light will tend to discourage outsiders prowling one of his fingers while splitting some kindling Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Chaney of Grants Pass together with Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Austin of this city, motored to Cottage where they attended a ball game last Sunday.

Paul Swank was arrested by Officer Olinphouse Saturday for riding a motorcycle without proper license. Recorder Losh fined Swank $5.00 which he paid.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rostermundt, Fred Rostermundt, and Mrs. Ida Foreman, motored to Crater lake Wednesday returning here the same day.

Mrs. Shirley Gilham visited with friends and relatives at Medford last of the week. She was accompanied by Misses Alice and Gertrude Nobel to Grants Pass where they visited and stopped.

A. W. Sandberg, who for the past year has been hauling logs for the Smith brothers on Cow creek, has secured a three-year contract to haul spruce pulp logs for a pulp mill near Empire. He and Ivan Day left here Wednesday with two large trucks