TRAFFIC VIOLATOR FORFEITS $100 BOND

Justice of the Peace C. H. Hopkins today declared cash bail in the sum of $100, posted by Charles J. Hammer of Visalia, California, to be forfeited and collected that amount as a fine on the charge of hit and run driving. Hammer, it is claimed, cut in too close in passing a car near Glendale. His action caused but little damage, but he failed to stop as required by law. He was arrested by State Traffic Officer G. H. Hoxie, who collected cash bail for his appearance in the justice court. He failed to appear, apparently preferring to forfeit the money given as bond.
